THE
FLORIDA HISTORICAL SOCIETY
QUARTERLY

With this issue the Florida Historical Society resumes the quarterly magazine.

It is the hope of the officers of the Society, with the assistance of the members, to make this publication one of real interest and value to the members and to the citizens of Florida generally.

It is the earnest hope of the officers of the Society that the members will give their support and assistance by contributing articles of historical interest to the quarterly publication.

The annual dues of the Society are two dollars, and it is our desire to increase the membership to a number which will enable us to increase the size of the magazine and permit research work into the history of the State.

In this issue will be found the minutes of the organization of the Society in 1856 and a list of the original members. For this valuable contribution we are indebted to Mr. J. C. Yonge, of Pensacola. In this list are the names of most of the men prominent in Florida affairs at that time. The descendants of many of them are still living and it is our hope that they will assist us in carrying on the work so fervently begun by their ancestors.
