Spirit Splash - Duck Exhibit

UCF Homecoming is a week full of exciting events leading up to the Homecoming football game. It is a chance for students to celebrate all that it means to be a UCF Knight. Spirit Splash is a tradition that the University of Central Florida has embraced since the 1990s -- this event has become a beloved symbol of school spirit and community engagement.

Read on below to learn a little more about Spirit Splash and, more importantly, the Pop-Up Duck Exhibit!

It is no surprise that UCF Homecoming and its events have become the pinnacle of campus unity and spirit. One such event is Spirit Splash, undoubtedly the most popular event and one of the best college traditions in the nation. This wet-and-wild pep rally invites Knights to charge into the Reflecting Pond, catch collectible rubber ducks, and receive commemorative T-shirts.

The event also includes a Duck Pop-Up Exhibit, hosted by the Special Collections & University Archives department! On the second floor of the John C. Hitt Library, students can browse all of the spirit splash ducks of years past. The event will include a "Who's Your Ducky" contest, in which you can vote for your favorite duck!

2024's Spirit Splash Ducks Pop-up Exhibit is on Friday, October 25, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.
