FIFTH CERVANTES CELEBRATION HELD HERE ON SUNDAY

321st Anniversary of Death Of Cervantes Is Honored

15 FIFTH CELEBRATION

Spanish Folk Dancing Was Presented

Last Sunday, April 25, was the date of the 321st anniversary celebration, held at Rollins in commemoration of the 321st anniversary of the death of Miguel de Cervantes—the famed Spanish author of "Don Quixote".

The purpose of the celebration is to revere Spanish contributions to civilization, and it was sponsored by the Spanish Institute of Florida. Representatives of Spanish groups in several Florida colleges and universities, as well as delegates from the Spanish clubs of Jacksonville and Tampa, attended the Cervantes Celebration, of which Celestina G. Vega, Jr., of Tampa is the present chairman.

The program opened at 11 A. M. with the annual meeting of the Florida Chapter of the American Association of Spanish Teachers, at which a lecture was delivered about El Greco, the famous 16th century painter.

After a 1 o'clock luncheon at the cafeteria, the celebration moved to the Annie Russell Theatre, where a display of Spanish Memorabilia was exhibited in the "Green Room". On the walls were paintings by Velazquez, Ribera, Goya, and El Greco; colored masks.

FRENCH MOTION PICTURE BEING SHOWN TUESDAY

"La Matrielle" Is To Be Given In Russell Theatre

AFTERNOON, EVENING

Student Prices Are Set At 25 Cents

"La Matrielle," the famous French motion picture which will be shown in the Annie Russell Theatre at Rollins College next Tuesday afternoon and evening, May 4, is the story of Marie, a little girl who spends her days in a department of Mourner and her evenings with her mother in a sad apartment.

Eventually her mother divorces her and little Marie, starving for affection, becomes attached to a new man at the day-nursery, who is a woman of some education with a tragic past. After a short time of happiness Marie loses her friend Rose who is to be married to Dr. Llobis. Little Marie, left alone for a short time, runs away from school to the docks, and there high above her floats a bridge where two figures embrace. They are reflected in the water below. Marie runs over to get at the reflection and to throw a heavy stone that will shatter the image before her, and falls in.

She is rescued and revived. Then, in a scene as moving as anything ever filmed, the little girl discovers that the doctor and Rose are going to be married and take her into their hearts and home.

"La Matrielle" is being brought to Rollins College for public presentation under the auspices of Le Cercle Français of Rollins. Performance will be given at 4 p. m. and 8:15 p. m. A special admission price of 25 cents has been set for students, and 50¢ for others.

"The Literary Digest" writes of "La Matrielle" that it is the "greatest film ever made" to make international picture history. According to the "New York Times," it "belongs among the great European screen dramas of childhood." The "News-Week" speaks of it as "one of the best films ever made in any language," and "Time" calls it "one of the noblest masterpieces of the contemporary cinema."

Presentation of this great French masterpiece at Rollins College is announced as the forerunner of a series of other foreign pictures which will be shown from time to time in the Annie Russell Theatre under the auspices of modern language groups. Next year, it is (Continued on page 2, col. 3)

MRS. HELEN RAE GIVES "ROMERIA"

Is An Old Twelfth Century Folk Dance

IS IN THREE SCENES

This morning at the 11:30 A. M. assembly, Mrs. Helen Rae presented "Romeria," a Corpus Christi Catholic celebration which took place in the great cathedrals of 18th century Spain.

This colorful production was enacted by Rollins Music Conservatory students, and students of folk dancing.

"Romeria" is of extreme interest from an historical viewpoint. Among its many dances, one of them dates from the 15th century, and is the only one yet danced in front of a church altar. This dance, known as "Las Flores," has never before appeared in the United States. (Another part of the celebration features dances and songs of the 17th century.)

"Romeria" is in three scenes, and the combination of vivid and beautiful costumes, with Spanish music, songs, dances, and impressive scenery, make this rare production outstanding. The celebration is comprised not only of religious observance, but also of such gaiety and humor. Several dances, as well as a medieval pastiche, are most interesting.

SERMON GIVEN BY DABNEY SUNDAY

Subject Was "Conqueror Or Captive"

NEWTON SCHOOL DEAN

The sermon in the Knoxville Memorial Chapel on Sunday, May 2, was given by Dr. Vaughan Dabney, Dean of the Andover Newton Theological School in Newton Centre, Massachusetts. His subject was "Conqueror Or Captive".

Dr. Dabney talked in a friendly, informal way which greatly appealed to the students. His text was taken from the eighth chapter of Romans, 22nd verse, and from the eighth chapter of Philippians, 13th verse. The statement that man was a captive appeared in the first part of the text, and the statement that man was a conqueror appeared in the second part. How man can be both at the same time was the theme of Dr. Dabney's sermon.

Dr. Dabney closed with a touching quotation: Our wills are ours, we know no law; Our will, O God, make Thine Thine.

The call to worship was given by Paul Parker, and the liturgy was read by Rebecca Ann Holt.

The other student readers were George Fuller and Robert Keyway. The choir, under the direction of Mr. Rossas sang.

NOTICE

MEETING HELD AT SOUTHERN

Florida Association of Colleges Convenes

DOYLE NEW PRESIDENT

This year the fourth annual meeting of the Florida Association of Colleges and Universities held its meeting on the twenty-third and twenty-fourth of April at the campus of Florida Southern College at Lakeland, Florida.

Each year this group of educators meet to discuss some important phase of education such as "What May We Expect of Education," which was the topic chosen for this meeting.

Representing Rollins College here were the following:

Dean Anderson, ex-President of the Association; Miss Packham, Professor of Education; Miss Treat, Registrar; Dr. Bryant, Dean of Men; Dr. Melcher, Professor of Business Administration; and Professor Wattles, Professor of English and Journalism.

The conference officially started at four o'clock in the afternoon with a meeting of the Executive Committee at the New Florida Hotel. At six o'clock there was a dinner meeting at the same place at which Dr. R. L. Egan spoke on the change in content and emphasis in the curricula of elementary and secondary schools, followed by Dr. Louis M. Selvey, who spoke of the necessity of teaching the student to "Think".

The next morning there was a Panel Discussion at which each college gave a brief discussion of its own aims. During this general discussion other subjects were brought up, including what the different colleges are doing for the inferior and superior student and what time are being made of.

To the office of President for the evening year, Dr. Doyle, Registrar of Florida State College for Women, was elected.

RELATIONS CLUB MEETS TOMORROW

Invitations Are Extended To Interested Students

TROWBRIDGE WILL TALK

The International Relations Club will meet tomorrow at the Theta Lodge. There will be the usual opportunity for the regular members at 6:30, and because the subject of the meeting will be of interest to many students who are not necessarily interested in international relations, we are extending a cordial invitation to any who would like to join us at 7:30.

The meeting will be devoted to discussion of the many and varied opportunities for career work, travel in this country and Europe, conferences and the like. The four summers during our college life are the last ones many of us will have in which to do as we please, and it is up to us to make the most of them.

Opportunities open to us this summer include such things as conferences lasting for a week, work camps for six weeks, travel abroad for two months, or one can find almost anything to suit his pocketbook, his time, and interests.

Mr. Trowbridge, who has knowledge and experience in these fields, will lead the discussion, and several students will talk.

Review of The Week's News

By FRED LIBERMAN

Riots in "Heaven"

The bold headed Father Divine, negro spiritual leader, was arrested last week on a charge of disturbing a process server's friend, but is the joy of followers to be released on bail.

The trouble started when the process server tried to hand Divine a summons; whereupon the Father's "angels" beat up the process server and a reporter, in addition to stabbing the third man.

Before the police arrived Divine had escaped, but was found a few days later hiding in the cellar of his "heaven" in Milford, Connecticut. He was released to New York where, after being "visited" by his admirers (the "angels") who prayed and sang for him, he was released in $500 bail.

The Associated Press and the American Newspaper Publishers Association held their annual meetings in New York during the past week.

The guest speaker at the A. P. luncheon was Daniel C. Roper, the Secretary of Commerce. Roper appealed for closer co-operation between the press and government, especially in the solving of two of the nation's greatest problems. These problems he designated as the need to make the people more conscious of their responsibility for law and order, and to stem the tide of rural folk moving to the overcrowded cities.

Barnett Champ Clark, senator, and son of the late Speaker of the House, Champ Clark, was the principal speaker at the A. N. P. A.'s golden anniversary. His speech was in the nature of a warning to the 630 publishers and newspaper men present that the President's plan, announced to the destruction of the Supreme Court as it has existed since the founding of our Republic and the setting up of a new and inferior court.

To the disgust of New York City Republicans, Mayor Fiorello La Guardia at that city openly supported President Roosevelt for re-election last fall. La Guardia will be remembered as elected on a Fusion ticket aided by a great deal of Republican help.

Nevertheless, at this stage of the game there are quite a few groups backing La Guardia in his campaign for re-election next November. Among them are the Young Republicans, the City Fusion group and the Progressives.

Washington sent notice that the President would step into the city campaign if Tammany resorts to slandering the Mayor with the charge of Communism. Such tactics on the part of Tammany would be construed as an attack on the New Deal.

President Roosevelt declined any intention of calling a world conference at this time to discuss trades and arrangements as suggested in British and German circles. The House of Representatives authorized a five million dollar appropriation for a federal participation in the New York World's Fair in 1939.

The President sent to the Senate nominations to diplomatic posts—Mrs. J. B. Hazziman to Norway; John C. Cuddy, Minister to the Irish Free State; J. Donald Biddle, Jr., Ambassador to Poland.

Higher Purchasing Power Will Increase Span Of Human Life

If the large numbers of people had higher purchasing power, they could increase their life span by at least seven years.

That is what Dr. Henry C. Sherman, Mitchell Professor of Chemistry at Columbia University, told the Academy of Medicine.

They would be able to take full advantage of new knowledge in the field of nutrition, he said—advantage that could aid them in warding off disease as well as senility. "Undoubtedly the great majority of all people will be benefited, the general level of the public health will be raised, and the average of our vital statistics improved at many points by the simple taking of a larger proportion of the so-called nutritional calories in the form of the protective foods."

"Naturally, we also hope that a larger proportion of people will have higher purchasing power. We realize that right relations between purchasing power and the general level of prices is essential to the ability of any community to get the full benefit of any new knowledge of nutrition," he explained.

"For it is now clear to any one who will study the evidence that nutrition has greater constructive potentiality than science has heretofore and that even in the everyday choice of food we are dealing with values which are shown prior for the health and efficiency, duration and dignity of human life."

A "job-hunting school" at Ohio State University has been organized to teach seniors how to write letters of application and how to face interviewers. Personnel managers of several large companies will aid the instruction.

Stingless Variety
Of Bees Produced
By Lloyd Watson

By shooting radium-rays through queen bees, Dr. Lloyd R. Watson, of Alfred University, hopes to produce a stingless variety.

If this summer's experiments should lead to the secret of a new kind of bee, a kind that will have only harmless stingers or lack them entirely, the United States can become a country of stingless bees by 1940, he said.

In the trial and error experiments, Dr. Watson will expose fertile queen bees to radium in hopes that their offspring may develop stingless peculiarities.

"We see no reason why it can't be done," said the Alfred professor. "We may have to try as many as 10,000 times but by irradiating every fertile bee that comes through our laboratory, we hope sooner or later to staminate across stingless offspring."

Course On "War and Peace" To Be Given
At Hobart Next Year

To get behind the complexities of war and reveal its underlying causes is the purpose of the new course, "War and Peace" which will be added to the curriculum of Hobart and William Smith Colleges next year.

The course will offer a scientific scrutiny of the cultural factors, the economic conditions and nationalistic politics which frequently lead to armed strife, announced Dr. William Alfred Eddy, president.

"War and Peace" will be directed by juniors in completing their five-year study of citizenship required of students at both colleges who are working for their Bachelor's degree.

How provoking incidents cause war or may be prevented from causing war will be studied. Examples such as the assassination of Archduke Ferdinand at Sarajevo, the invasion of Manchuria and Ethiopia and foreign intervention in Spain will be considered.

The war study will be divided into three parts, the first dealing with the 1913 pre-war period. Efforts will be made to determine the effects of isolation and alliances.

for the studio amongst the people interested in this special field. However, we have been unsuccessful until now, and the dance studio will have to wait a few years.

"Will you be coming back to America?" we asked.

"I don't know. When I came to Rollins two years ago to teach dancing and to form the Rollins dance group, I was eager to leave Paris. France is a fine place with so many big cities, and a good climate for dancing. I believe in decentralizing, in spreading out. Most good work is done quietly, away from the beaten track. Then one may carry it to a center, as I am doing now in returning to Paris. But why concentrate on the center? Aren't there also people away from the center?"

"Blowships, trains, airplanes are there to give us a chance to live apart from crowds and still preserve a means of contact and exchange. We need space to live and grow in, as surely as a dancer needs uncluttered floors from which to spring into far distant directions, if not reaching stars, at least making a gesture towards them."

I hope that someday Rollins will be able to resume its dance activities and build here a dance studio which will be complete with folk art and folk dancing, recreational dancing, and theatrical dancing. It is proof of Dr. Holt's imagination and enterprise that dancing is so splendidly encouraged here at Rollins.

We thanked Mila and left her. We were sorry that the college had to be deprived of such a valuable and cultural asset as dancing as Mila teaches it. We wish her luck in her new ventures. We shall miss her.

Honorable mention, Eugene C. Townsend.

of arms of illustrious Spanish families; and pictures of famous Medieval Spanish sculpture. Among several most interesting antiquities were headless, old Spanish armor pieces, beautifully colored Sicilian pottery, and an ancient Spanish lamp and dagger. There was also a comb of amber shell, typical of those worn by fair senoritas, and a magnificent Spanish fan with soft coloring. Besides the display of numerous Spanish books and histories, there were many interesting copies of "Don Quixote", some of which were printed several hundred years ago. Seven very old colored tiles from a set of 300 illustrating episodes from "Don Quixote", made in Cuba, were among the most interesting objects in the entire exhibition.

At 2:30 p. m., a two hours' entertainment was presented entirely in Spanish in the Annie Russell Theatre.

After a speech of introduction by Mrs. Angela Palacios Campbell, professor of Spanish, "Romero", directed by Mrs. Helen Rae and presented by Rollins students, was given. "Romero" is a Coplan-Chetti Celebration which was enacted in the great cathedrals of early 18th century Spain.

In the first scene the procession marched towards the church, carrying the Holy Virgin. The second scene comprised a most interesting dance called "Las Seises". This dance has been given since the 12th century, and besides being the only dance performed before any church altar, "Las Seises" has never before been presented in the U. S. A. In the third scene there was a secular celebration in the garden of the church, during which men and girls sang and performed 17th century dances. This scene also featured an amusing medieval pantomime. The combination of vocal costumes, music, songs, dances, and very impressive scenery, made "Romero" quite outstanding. Eleanor Giesen deserves praise for her excellent piano accompaniment. Howard Blackley played the violin, Ted Klebanoff played the guitar, and Bradshaw Exler played the mandolin. They did very well, and supplied real local color. Walter Royall as the High Priest sang beautifully, while Charlotte Calman and William Page sang attractive solos. The dancers in "Las Seises" were: Bill Page, Will Yoshok, Red and Robin Rae, Roger Brindle, Fred Blackley, Ted Klebanoff, Bradshaw Exler, Edward Campbell, and Jack Bowman. The girls who danced were: Charlotte Calman, Marie Howe, Patricia Guppy, Eleanor Giesen, Virginia Biddle, and Mary Meeker.

The pantomime was: Eleanor Booth, Lela Raigs, Bett Schoening, Robin Rae, and Prof. John Rae. Bob Spur was the announcer. Following "Romero", Spanish song and dance was supplied by a gay and vividly dressed chorus of girls. The next events on the program were an exceedingly dramatic and well rendered poem by Manuel Aparicio, and the "Jarabe Tapatio"—an animated and colorful Mexican dance performed by three couples.

Following these numbers, a one act comedy in two scenes was presented. Its name was "El Senor Dohli"—"The Weaker Sex"—and its author Antonio Remon Martinez. The play concerns a married couple and an engaged couple. The

Reporter Takes You From One End of Gypsy Fiesta to Other—Telling all

By PEGGY WHITELEY

Last Thursday afternoon at four o'clock the Rollins Gypsy Fiesta commenced down on the beautiful shore of Lake Virginia. The spot was really transformed and built up so quickly that it gave the impression of having been all set down in one piece.

The first impression you received as you approached the Fiesta grounds was massed bright colors, from the Gypsy tents right in the front of the lake down the lake front to the diving tower. Then after your eyes got over the first shock, they very likely tried to pick a familiar face out of the crowd, and what an crowd that was. In a Gypsy costume or a handmaiden disguise, most people greatly resembled one another and it was almost inevitable that when you went up to slap "Name" on the back it turned out to be "Gert" or "Daisy". So eventually you plunged into the throng alone. The first attraction to meet your eyes was probably that tent of wonders where sat the Oracle of Delphi sponsored by Kappa Alpha. This was one tent you could not pass without stopping, if just for curiosity. Robert (Ghandi) Belden sat before it, cross-legged of course, in disarray and charmed a snake. While Don Ogilvie, also in disarray, pounded a mean drum and Richard Belden barked a welcome. They added that "extra something" with an analysis of "and the next wife told her tale" and promises of a real Indian mass dancer which came later on in the evening, courtesy of Jessie Steink.

From then on your life was not your own. You not only had to stop at each stand and shell out twenty cents or so in order to pacify your friends, but things you scarcely knew about things that made you a positive fool if you tried to win point.

So you bought straw flower bouquets from wandering Gypsy girls, peanuts and popcorn from the Rho Lambda No. boys, and fudge from strolling Alpha Phi. At the Theta Kappa Nu stand a lineup of voices in unison, representing a full chorus from approximately a village band, talked, hot dogs, orange juice, hamburgers, and ice cream. Further on, the Kappa pirata Gypsies sold out their Treasure Chest, and the Gamma Phi Wishing Well shot its presents around on the little Choo-Choo.

One of the highlights of the Fiesta was the Theta Piety Ring which attracted the children in swarms. Another was the hand circles by Johnnie Lemdale. Special features were given in Bee Hall, such as the Pi Phi style show which was excellently done except when several pairs of quite unexpected shoes led the audience attention—mistakes we hope. Folk dancing was another attraction which was given three in spades.

The Mulestart Players took the cake. Ekstasismusness is scarcely the appropriate word, but it was a grand success. Good eleven feet thrown in buckets.

Then we all visited Madame Zora, acquired rosy futures and were greatly entertained by her philosophy of life. By this time black night had fallen upon us and the time was ripe for the diving exhibition—so Johnny Nichols, Tommy Costello and Jimmy Bowen dove into circles of flame while we sat and waited anxiously.

Altogether it was a tip of a good day and Florida and should be done more often, even after we have tasted courts enough for all.

ROLLINS TARS WIN FOUR OUT OF FIVE GAMES ON FIRST ROAD TRIP

NEWS AND VIEWS OF SPORTS

By BILL BINGHAM

The Rollins baseball team will collide with the Florida Gators Friday and Saturday in its last home games of the season. The Tars will be out gunning for four straight victories as it was the Florida team which defeated Rollins in three out of four games last year, in spite, although far from ruin, a grand year for the ball club.

The Tars had a record of ten wins to three losses and a tie against other collegiate teams before encountering the Gators, which amounted to a better than average victory and a defeat. However, the improvement over former years made even that record look pretty good. Now this year Rollins has an exceedingly good looking record of nine wins to a lone defeat. One of the reasons for last year's defeat was over-confidence on the part of the Tars. The Tars have a good club this year and have reason to feel confident, but should remember that the game is won on the ball field and that reputations don't mean a thing.

The swimming team closed an abbreviated season by defeating Tampa and St. Petersburg for the second time in a triangular meet with the two schools. The swim squad will have to await a new season for the loss of Captain Johnny Nichols, Paul Alter, Nick Marshall, and Dick Tully leaves a big hole in its ranks, although Jack Makemon, Jimmy Bowen, and Tommy Costello will form a strong nucleus around which to build a team.

Interest in swimming has fallen off due to the fact that Rollins was unable to book meets, because other colleges already had their schedules filled out. This year definite dates will be made as well as advance for the following season. The team is to be praised for its courage in going through the hard grind of training, although knowing that the season would be brief. Fleet Peoples, swimming coach, stated that "they're the best bunch I've ever worked with."

Upsets have come thick and fast in the tennis world during the last few weeks. First, Wayne Sabin, ranked seventeenth nationally, met the mighty atom, "Bimby" Grant, in the finals of a tournament at Atlanta, taking two love sets in the process of winning by 6-0, 6-0, 7-5 score, but he in turn was beaten by Gilbert Hall, who has been playing inspired tennis on the Carolina tournament trail.

Grant's defeat put a wrench in his campaign for a place on the Davis Cup team. Due to injuries he is unable to play in the coming match with Japan. Budgo, Mako, Parker and Joe Hunt have been selected to represent the United States. The presence of Hunt and the absence of Bob Riggs, caused a mild sensation in tennis circles for Riggs is five times higher up the national rung at his number four position than Hunt at nine.

If the matches were played on clay, Grant would have little difficulty making the team so he is probably the best in the world on this surface, but on the grass courts on which the Cup matches are played he is not at his best, although he gained the second final round of the Kentucky before losing to Budgo. He has been National Clay court champion twice and runner-up on two other occasions, losing to Burke Parker in 1932 and Bobby Riggs last year; his rival candidate for a Cup position.

In the Florida State Golf tournament, Carl Dunn, former Rollins player, walked off with honors and a trophy by winning his third state championship from George Bales, 6 and 4. Quite a few Rollins students were spotted in the galleries during the three-day tournament. Claude Harmon of Orlando was a match which went to the twenty-fifth hole—seven "sudden death" holes.

The Phi Delta diamond ball team took advantage of the break and a total collapse of the Theta Kappa Nu infield to another late season, 10 to 11. It was probably the most ragged exhibition that the F. K. N.'s will turn in this season, but it probably cost them a first half championship and maybe the Gary Cup given for the best intramural points.

The Phi Deltas have a very smooth functioning infield with Vic at first, Cetrule at second, Bales at short, and Garhart at third. The team has no outstanding hitter, but none are poor, Brownell is developing into the standard pitcher of the league, although Lasterback with a little support is no set-up.

The major league baseball season got under way with a big fanfare of flag-raising and first ball throwing by various local dignitaries, although the Senators came up with some other than a certain Lou Gehrig, who performed the ceremony in the national capital in return for a season pass.

Bob Feller, the crack sensation of the Cleveland Indians during the training camp period, made his first start against the St. Louis Browns and fanned eleven in six innings before retiring with a sore arm. However his wildness in the first inning mixed with two hits cost Cleveland the ball game, 4-3.

Miami University's Crack Tennis Team Defeats Williams

The University of Miami's crack tennis team defeated Williams College at Williamsport, Mass., 8-0, under Malloy, Eastern Intercollegiate Champion and number one in the Miami team, defeated Al Jarvis, former national Junior champion, 6-1, 6-3.

The Miami courtiers also defeated N. Y. U. and Harvard. The Hurricane returned triumphed both times by scores of 4-1. The beating was one of the first ever administered to a Harvard tennis team.

Tampa U. Football Team to Meet Tars, Mississippi, Miami

The University of Tampa football team will make its first start in big time competition when it meets the University of Mississippi on November 22 at Tampa. Other strong teams on the schedule are Rollins, which dropped but one game last season, Miami, a strong football school, and Oglethorpe, Mercer, and Louisiana Tech.

Rollins will be met in Orlando, Nov. 19.

Indiana's four-mile relay team anchored by Don Lash set a new world's record for the distance of 17:16 to break by one second the mark set by the U. S. Olympic team.

Kentucky's Classic Derby Nears Again With Dark Horse Pegged for Winnah!

BY IRVING DIX

LOOK for another long-priced dark-horse to come thundering down the stretch in an upset victory in this year's Kentucky Derby.

The third running of this blue ribboned classic of the Blue Grass country will be held at historic old Churchill Downs, May 8, and the stage is set for an outsider such as Bold Venture, last year's winner, to come tripping in.

There are no truly outstanding horses in this year's field. The field, of course, is excellent but it seems bewildering with no horse standing out to a great degree above the others. Because of this the betting will be spread out among the various favorites and the winners will pay a longer price than usual.

Of course, Pompeon, greatest money-winner of the 1936 two-year-olds, lives up to its promise and bags the bubble. Pompeon, undoubtedly, will go in the past with the almost odds on the strength of its victory in the Preakness Handicap.

The last experts went wild over the big son of Pompeon when he taught his way out of a jam to overtake the sect Thoroughbred in the last 30 yards.

But, although Pompeon closed strong with plenty to spare, it must be remembered that the Preakness is only a six-furlong affair, while the Derby route is a grueling mile-and-a-quarter.

Soaping Howard, No. 1 horse in the two-year-olds from the well-groomed stable of Mrs. Ethel W. Marx; Maudie, which was the most stakes in a single season in Saratoga history; War Admiral, a son of Man O' War; and Brooklyn, on whom Cal. E. R. Bradley is pinning his hopes and part of his purse to win his 8th Derby.

For no real reason at all (there's no reasoning in racing, anyway), this observer has a hunch that none of these favorites will win, despite the fact that Derby history shows that 25 post-time favorites have won—or almost 50 per cent, which is a good percentage.

But it is this observer's hunch that they'll finish like this: Court Scandal, Heels, and Pompeon.

TAR SWIMMERS TAKE LAST MEET

Barker of Tampa Was Outstanding Swimmer

ALTER, NICHOLS WIN

The Rollins swimming team ended a successful season Saturday by sweeping a triangular meet with Tampa University and St. Petersburg Junior College over the Lake Virginia course. Rollins held up 40 points to Tampa's 37 while St. Pete collected 28.

Paul Alter, Rollins' star long distance swimmer, won two victories in the 220 and 440 yard swims. He was pushed in the shorter race but won by five yards while in the 440 he easily outdistanced his opponents to win by nearly forty yards.

Captain Johnny Nichols wound up his college swimming career by taking the diving in easy fashion. In the fifty-yard dash he was edged out by Barker of Tampa, the outstanding star of the meet, who also took first places in the fifty-yard backstroke and the 100 yard breast stroke.

Rollins will be hard hit by graduation this year, losing Captain Nichols, Paul Alter, Dick Tully, and Nelson Marshall. The Tars walked off with the 220-yard relay event in 1:50 seconds. Barker of Tampa made up five yards on his anchor leg to beat out St. Petersburg for second place.

500-yard Relay: First, Rollins (Nichols, Makemon, and Costello); second, Tampa (Barker, Graf, and Upmire); third, St. Petersburg (Fenske, Workman and Thomas). Time: two minutes, thirty-five and two-fifths seconds.

30-yard Dash: First, Alter (Rollins); second, Graf (Tampa); third, Robinson (St. Petersburg). Time: twenty-five and five-tenths seconds.

Diving: First, Nichols (Rollins); second, Fenske (St. Petersburg); third, Costello (Tampa). Time: 100-yard free-style: First, Makemon (Rollins); second, Graf (Tampa); third, Robinson (St. Petersburg). Time: one minute, fifty and two-fifths seconds.

WOMEN IN SPORTS

The volleyball tournament began Tuesday, April 27th. The Gamma Phi played the Theta and the Independents played the Phi Delta.

Thursday, April 29th, the Alpha Phi will play the Kappa and the Independents the Theta.

There are still a great number of tennis matches to be played off in the next week. During the past week, Lynn Barrett defeated Carol Valentine, and Betty Mower defeated Grace Terry in the singles, and in the doubles Betty Smith defeated Rodgers-Steele, and Ladd-McPherson defeated Bryson-Harshorn.

The swimming meet will be held May 3rd at 4 o'clock. Teams that have already entered are Gamma Phi Deltas, Theta, Independents, and Kappa Kappa Gamma. There will be a 50-yard free style, a 25-yard free style, 25-yard breast stroke, 25-yard racing back stroke. The relay will have four girls from each team swimming 25 yards each.

100-yard Breaststroke: First, Barker (Tampa); second, Workman (St. Petersburg); third, Bowen (Rollins). Time: thirty-seven and one-half seconds.

100-yard Breaststroke: First, Barker (Tampa); second, Thomas (St. Petersburg); third, Costello (Rollins). Time: one minute, twenty-two and two-fifths seconds.

440-yard Free Style: First, Alter (Rollins); second, Thomas (St. Petersburg); third, Upmire (Tampa). Time: six minutes, twenty-five and one-tenth seconds.

PHI DELTS TAKE SOFT BALL LEAD

Defeat T.K.N.s, Independents and K.A.s

RHO LAMBDA NU LOSES

The Phi Delta took the lead in the intramural diamond league by taking three encounters over the Theta Kappa Nu, the Independents and K. A. The Phi Delta edged out the K. A.'s 3 to 1 in the only low scoring game of the season thus far, and then trounced the Independents 10 to 8.

The Independents, showing a potentially strong team, battled out a 13 to 1 victory over Rho Lambda Nu but then lost a tough 10 to 10 game to the powerful faculty team. The faculty started off with a run pushing eleven runs across the plate in the first inning and then barely managed to withstand a five-run assault by the Independents in the final frame.

Rho Lambda Nu lost to the Independents and then were beaten by the K. A., in what will probably be the high score of the season, 30 to 12. Both teams were hitting the ball hard, but the Rho Lambda Nu were guilty of ten errors in the field.

In the K. A.-Phi Delta game, Chris Argersin and Art Brownell engaged in a pitching duel. However, two errors, a three bagger by Kurlin and a single by Gabriel brought in the winning markers for the Phi Delta.

Bill Daugherty, freshman right-handed pitcher, was operated on for appendicitis Monday at the Florida Sanatorium in Orlando. He had just returned from the Tar baseball trip to Louisiana in which he pitched in one game.

RAWLS SISTERS IN EXHIBITION AT SWIM MEET

Katherine, Evelyn and Peggy To Appear in 18th Annual Aquatic Program

PATTON IS ENTERED

Gained Final of Olympic Tryouts in New York

With a preliminary entry list of twenty-six teams and the possibility that the eight-year reign of Fort Lauderdale's feminine swimmers as the best in the state will end, the eighteenth Annual Florida High School meet to be held Saturday, May 1, and sponsored by Rollins College should attract a crowd.

Besides the keen competition expected from the sixteen boys' teams and ten girls' teams, exhibitors will be given by Katherine Rawls, best all-around woman swimmer in the world, and holder of twenty-two national titles, her sister Evelyn who took three first places in the meet last year and was high point scorer, and her sister Peggy, who although weighing only sixty pounds can swim like an eel.

Forty Joyce MacLinn, another Fort Lauderdale swimmer who starred in the meet last year, will also give an exhibition. Jimmy Bowen, twice holder of the Florida state diving title, and now on the Rollins team, will give an exhibition from the tower.

Special Price

A special price of twenty-five cents is being made for all college students. For other adults, the regular admission of fifty cents will be charged. The meet starts at 5:00 A. M. and runs to 12. It commences at 2:30 P. M. and runs till 5:00.

The reason for believing that the Fort Lauderdale girls are nearing the end of their string is that Dorothy Baxts will be the only member of the stellar Rawls trio to compete, whereas the remaining younger sisters of 16 and are eligible for competition this year. Mary is an experienced free style swimmer while Ruth won the national women's diving title when she was but twelve years old.

Patton Is Star

The Fort Lauderdale boys are favored to retain their laurels inasmuch as John Patton, who won three consecutive marks in the 220, 440, and 880 last year is almost certain to repeat his record breaking performance. He reached the final seven in the Olympic trials, and finished only two yards behind Johnny MacLinn of Yale, who made the team, is one of the best.

Although rather small in stature, he has wide shoulders and can swim all day without tiring. He is almost as far along as Ralph Flanagan, Olympian who was the youngest swimmer on the 1932 team and who got his start in the meet. Pete Daugherty, twice holder of the world's open diving title, also secured his first triumph in this water meet.

Coeds to Race

Fort Lauderdale also has an 11-year-old boy diver who is reputed to be a sensation in the city where they practically jump out of the cradle to go after a trophy. He will probably exhibit his wares at the meet.

Another special feature will be a race between war orphans of Rollins coeds.

The Tars, after taking two straight games from Millings and the first of a two-game series from Southeastern, dropped the second game to the collegeans from Hammond, La., and then continued on to Pensacola, Fla., where they took the United States Naval Base over the rocks by the score of 10-7.

In losing their first collegiate ball game of the year, the Tars were hampered when rookie pitcher Bill Daugherty received an attack of appendicitis during the game and was decidedly off form. When the ball team reached Winter Park at the conclusion of the trip Daugherty was operated on at the Florida Sanatorium.

Southeastern opened up their half of the first inning with two runs. After Stollwerth had flied out, Simmons hit safely and Carlin brought him home with a close bouncer. Mison brought Carlin home with another hit.

Rollins tied the score in the second. After Curry Brady had singled Jack Justice included a home run, scoring Brady ahead of him. Rick Gillespie singled later in the inning but was strangled.

In the fourth, Southeastern picked up another marker on two hits by Mison and Hart. In the eighth, winners scored three runs on four straight hits and an error by Don Murray.

In the ninth, both teams scored eight apiece. Curry Brady made three out of four and Gillespie two out of three for Rollins. Mison got three out of four and Carlin two out of four for the winners.

George Kettles relieved Daugherty in the eighth when Bill was bothered by pains in his side. The only double play of the game was pulled by Daugherty and Jack Justice.

Substituted the effective hurling of Hal Brady, who pitched to win, the Tars went to town against three Naval Base meekdoers in clinching up their 10-7 triumph. After their opponents led off with one run in the first, the Tars took the lead in the third and fourth innings with two scores in each stanza.

Hal Brady and George Miller opened the third with a triple and a single respectively. Joe Justice hit Miller home with another sacrifice. In the fourth, "Sweet Pea" Goodwin, Gillespie and Hal Brady hit safely to chalk up two more markers.

Goodwin hit Jack Justice home in the fifth to score the Tars' fifth run. Two hits, two walks and an error brought the Tars three more runs in the sixth. In the seventh Jack McDowell's side concluded their scoring with two runs. Miller hit his third and last single of the day and was brought home on Don Murray's bouncer.

SPOTLIGHTS: The Tars play a two-game series with the University of Florida at Harper-Shepherd Field on Friday and Saturday and then journey to South Georgia State for games on Monday and Tuesday. In the Naval Base game, Miller led the attack with three hits. One of the highlights of the trip was Joe Justice's stand of home. This week-end's series with Florida will be the final major games of the season for the Tars.

Kettles, McDowell and Hal Brady are the pitchers.

Former Housemother is Hostess to Gamma Phi Beta Over Week-End

Last Saturday after lunch all the Gamma Phi Beta pulled themselves together and started out for Winter Haven. Mrs. Helen Rose was our hostess; she is a former housemother at Rollins, as she expected the week!

Well, we all arrived safely enough in March. Betty Perry's new automobile, a '36, and Algy. The most difficult part of the trip was finding our new home when we did get to Winter Haven. After getting the house rented and driving like mad to get there in time for a swim, we found the "Rumpus House" and were soon in our swim suits and paddling about in the water.

After our swim, we had the most wonderful steak fry ever. Each and every one of us had our own fork and piece of steak to work on. When we were well fed, we sat around and played the piano and sang and yes, we even danced.

Student Opinion

April 26, 1937

Dear Editor: Rollins students have been criticized for not attending chapel, concerts, lectures and the theatre. All of these contribute to the student's education and should be attended. The writer has a plan to propose which he knows would be a big incentive to increase student attendance at the plays given by the Rollins Student Players.

You have all heard of the Athletic Budget Ticket. Why not have a Dramatic Budget Ticket? By that I mean have each student pay a specified fee for dramatics when he registers. For this fee he would receive a group of tickets entitling him to have orchestra seats at all the plays given in one season by the Rollins Student Players. This fee could be less than the price charged for the regular orchestra seat ticket.

It is the opinion of the writer that the Student Association is missing an opportunity of doing its part in helping to sponsor dramatics at Rollins. It provides money for Men's Athletics, Women's Athletics, Debate, Tennis, Football, Swimming, and various general activities of the Student Association such as the Freshman Mixer, all-college dances, etc. Certainly dramatics deserves an equal consideration.

If such a plan could be put into operation next year, certain very worthwhile things could be accomplished. In the first place, each Rollins student would have a ticket for the plays at a reduced rate. Secondly, this would increase attendance and in turn make it possible to give more than one performance of each play. Finally, the director of dramatics would have a definite budget upon which he could depend to cover the production costs of the plays. This money would go solely to student plays produced for the public. The college supplies funds for the operation of the Dramatic Art Department. Few students realize how much money goes into a production. Royalty charges on good plays are high; lumber, canvas and paint are expensive; tools and permanent equipment are indispensable and are also costly. The Rollins Student Players are expected to make both ends meet at the box office. How can this be done when most of the students go to the movies on evenings when the plays are given, or attend the plays on passes given out by students to the production? Again I say, why cannot the Student Association consider this important question and see if it can be tried? Such a plan works successfully in other colleges and universities and could at Rollins.

A STUDENT.

Dear Editor: Every educational institution in the entire country held a peace strike on April 22. At Harvard alone 2,500 students attended, while at Rollins where Percy himself is a sponsor of the Emergency Peace Campaign, only a feeble handful of people took any action.

MICKY AYERETT.

From Other Newspapers

April 21, 1937.

To the Editor:

Here is a real human interest story: Last week a woman patient of mine was removed to a local hospital where a blood transfusion was deemed necessary. After repeated efforts to find some one willing to give blood for this woman, I turned in despair to the Rollins Infirmary hoping for a helpful suggestion.

To my amazement, a large number of Rollins students came forward instantly, not only willing but eager to give their blood, and as the news spread, these were so many students offering blood that it was almost impossible to handle them. Tests were made up until 11:30 that night and finally the most suitable specimen was found to be that of a young man whose father is a famous surgeon.

The spirit of these fine young men and women has stirred anew my admiration for the student body of Rollins College. For more than twelve years I have lived adjacent to the Rollins Campus, and with each passing year, my appreciation grows for my interesting delightful neighbors. This last evidence of their warm-heartedness is only one of many that have come to my attention. I therefore wish to have publicly express my wholehearted approval of the splendid young men and women of Rollins—they are a blessing to Winter Park.

Sincerely yours

DR. D. C. WARD.

THE Inquiring Reporter

Question: Should there be an honor system at Rollins?

Wilma Heath: Definitely. It is high time that an institution with the high standards of Rollins should have an honor system.

Jane Willard: The student should have enough honor of his own without being put under a system.

Jessie Steele: I thought the honor system was a part of the Rollins Plan.

Mary Deley: What kind of a system are we under now?

Don Central: An effective honor system would be invaluable to Rollins. I'm for it 100 per cent.

Tommy Pope: No. The present system at Rollins is adequate.

Nelson Marshall: Just for examinations?
