My dear Mamma

I heard from Aunt Harrie the other day saying that I was going to get the same <sup>wedding</sup> present as Geagie, I suppose she meant from Grandpapa & Gmama, it is awfully good of them & it will be most useful. You must not expect letters very regularly as the old mail (a couple of mules & a waggon) has been stopped & the boats not running yet so it is only by chance we can read any letters. Bill is working very hard now, out all day, as soon as he has finished his own work, he is going to take other peoples, so will be making something I have not heard from Hubert since I last note. I heard from Mary Watney, Clara, and Georgie yesterday, quite a collection, I was so glad to hear Noah has got over the mishap alright, I made sure it would be something serious, she is off to India by this, I suppose. The weather is lovely now, fine, dry and cool, the butter was quite firm this morning for the first time since I came to Florida - The nigger is waiting so must stop.

Love to everybody from Bill too

Yours affectly
