Office of
The Windsor Hotel,

MRS. MATHEWS, Proprietress.

Orlando, Fla. Monday 1886

My dear Maama

Ruby is very well and getting so fat, the heat seems to have no bad effect on her at all; every body who sees her remarks on her size, her cheeks are like puddings and she is very good, never wakes up at night except to feed twice, Bill is awfully proud of her and carries her down stairs himself to show her to any of his pals that come to see him, she is wonderfully good with him too, far better than she is with me, I can't hold her yet except bunched up like a bundle of clothes, you remember I never was much of a nurse. I went out for the first time yesterday, for a drive in the evening when it was cool.

I feel quite myself again and hope to be back in Narcossee again, any how by next week, I am to have a tonic this week as the doctor thinks I need one - What did you think of the little bit of brown fluff I sent, I thought it would ~~it would~~ make Ruby ~~to~~ seem a little more real to you - She has large dark blue eyes and really is a nice looking baby "though I say it as shouldn't".
Best love to all the others -

Yours affectly ~~ly~~

Helen F. Warner -
