Office of
The Windsor Hotel,

MRS. MATHEWS, Proprietress.

Orlando, Fla. 188

It is very warm still, over 90° every day in the shade. I have not seen Herbert since I wrote to you last, but I believe he is still with Mr. Gregg (the man who bought "The Shipman"). You will write and tell me how the wedding went off won't you, I know the others will be sure to forget once it is all over. I hope to get Ruby christened in a day or two now, we still like the names we chose at first. Have I told you that we have made a tennis lawn in front of our house in Harcoossee, I believe we shall be able to play on it this winter, won't it be jolly. I am going to short coat Ruby almost at once. By the bye would you inquire for me and find out if those new 10/6 sewing machines are really good things, they would scrub me down to the ground if they are as they ~~would~~ take up hardly any room, and I would get one at once only I don't know any thing about them except by advertisement. How soon do babies leave off their flannels at night and just wear a night gown, I suppose not for six months. Best love from Bill and myself to everybody.

Yours affectly

Helen F. Warner -
