June 2<sup>d</sup>

My dear Mauna

How did you & Clara enjoy the Maid <sup>hd</sup> ball, Clara's two dresses sounded very pretty, if not very costly and that is the main thing after all - Can you tell me what Tow is ~~it~~ doing, I have never seen a sign of my allow, that was due Oct 21st and he has not even sent a word about it, he knows quite well where we are, and he can always ask you

I did not write to him about it until the end of Nov- and then told him to telegraph the amount to Orlando at once, but he has done nothing yet and we have not a cent to our name, fortunately the Bank is good enough to let us overdraw what we want, but they cannot do it much longer, I think it is a disgusting shame for you to play me such a trick, I have always given him as little trouble as possible, but I shall not put myself out on his account again, if it is not here soon or some explanation I shall get Bill to go home and see about it, put yourself in my place and see how awkward it is. Mr Watson sent me three prints of drawings, so pretty for a Xmas card - I short coated baby on Xmas day, she does look so sweet, she had seven presents and two cards, she was given a little ruby & pearl ring for one ~~so~~ she wears it round her neck on a piece of ribbon, Poor Georgie wrote and told me about herself, I do hope she has an easy time and a nice little boy to make up for all her trouble, is Percy really ill or is he gone more for fun than anything else. With best love to everybody and please give enclosed to Herbert.

Yours affect<sup>ly</sup>

Helen F. Warner -

Please excuse smudges but we have no table, so have to write on a chair - ~~Have~~

Have you read Brauzes & Alligator by Iza Duffus Hardy, a very good book on Florida -
