My dear Mama

Will you tell me next time you write how Adda is, her baby must have come months ago but nobody has said anything about it or her, I hope she is alright - Bill has been staying with one of the illegues at Lakeland he is coming back today though; I am afraid he will never get any work here, and I am very anxious to go somewhere, where he will

it is much cheaper living in any of the older states, and more comfortable too, not but we have been very comfortable since we came in here. ~~It~~ Do you think you could find the prescription for the eyes you used to have,
I think a doctor at Folkestone gave it you, it was a green colour and had to be applied as hot as any one could bear, I have promised it to a woman here who has rather weak eyes; I should not think it could hurt her and I expect it would do her good - So Perry back yet, I am very glad to hear that they have let their house in Windsor and that they will not move until July, Georgie will have time to get strong after the baby's arrival, she often writes to me; I am so sorry for her she has not been really well for any length of time since she married, has she, but she never complains.

The news. Rubie is very well and just crawls everywhere, I wish you could see her.

Yours affectly
Helen F. Warner

your could see her - just count's computer, book the room. This is very well and has also, but she never complain of there since she married her really well for my light sorry for her she has after invited to see, I am so after the day is arrived, she will have time to get things but never could get, people in this case and that they will that they have better house book yet, I am very glad to hear would do her good - to her
