My dear Anna

I was awfully shocked to hear of Vi's death, it seemed impossible for a minute or two, she was always such a nice girl too, quiet but jolly all the same and those sort of girls seem rare, I hope Georgie was not very much upset when she heard it, she was very fond of her I know.

Lecture know as soon as her baby comes, she expects it in April doesn't she. We have been very lively lately, some Altamonte people the Daniels included gave an awfully nice dance and we went up for it last Wed, it was very well arranged, very good music and nice floors we danced in two rooms, and a very nice supper, I have seen a worse dance at home. Arthur Pipon was there; he has bought a very pretty little place ~~now~~ near the Daniels, we passed it on the way to the station he is not living there yet; I like him very much. We got up a dance here on Friday about 50 people, not everybody a little more select than usual and we had a splendid time, Mr. Pison came up for it and one of the Alleynes. We are going down to stay with F. Alleyn at Acton on Wed.

Rubic too of course, Bill says it is very pretty down there but awfully dull. The Alleyn at Altamonte had a regular Percy accident, he was galloping along with some others and he and his horse could not agree which side of a tree to go, and ended it his running full against it, he got a fearful crack on the head and broke his arm at the elbow, he is getting along alright. No news.

Yours affly &

Henry F. Warner
