P.S. Popon is still staying with the Daniels.

Dear Mamma

Bill is still down the river with those two fellows, he said he would not be back for at least ten days (that will be next Monday) of course the longer he is away, the more money he will make, but it is very lonely alone. I hope some one has written to me about Georgie, I am very anxious to hear how she is; I think she has had a good deal more than her share of trouble lately. What a good thing Mr. Watson was in the house, when the burglars paid you a visit, were you not awfully frightened; you will have to borrow a baby from Georgie or somebody as a safeguard, Gladys is evidently too old for them to mind any longer. I have not heard any more of British Columbia, but hope to get some reliable information in three weeks.

The summer seems to have begun in earnest, we have had two thunder storms in the last week, and it is getting very hot. Rubie's appetite is falling off, I don't know if it is from the heat or ~~the~~ teething.
I am very sorry to hear Tichy has been ill, please give him my love and ask him to write when he has time, I know I owe him lots of letters, but he must not wait for me to answer, but I'll just write when I can.
I am afraid it is all true about Major Campbell, and the kindest thing anyone can say, is, he must be very weak-minded; to have been tempted, his ward I believe is an awful beast; diseased (you know what I mean); so I don't pity him at all. I shall be awfully glad to get my bundle; Tyfy has sent me a dress, and some things for Rubie are in it as well. Rubie can almost walk, she is always crawling to me and standing by my knee, she is a dear little thing.

No news. Yours affect<sup>s</sup>
