May 8th Kissimmee

My dear Anna,

I am still waiting to hear about Georgie, I am sure she is tired of looking for it to come, isn't it dreary work day after day and still it does not come. We are still very unsettled as to where and when we go, I am afraid we cannot start before the June 1st as we have got some one after the place in

Narcossee again, the man certainly wants it, but he is obliged to wait until the end of the month before he can decide; (it is money ~~matter~~ ~~expect~~), but I would not mind waiting a little if we could sell that first.
Would you mind rousing Lou please, I wrote about a month ago, telling him when to send the money, but at present it is not out and it ought to have come about the 3rd he has not even let me know if it is sent off. We went to Parcours one day this week and packed everything up, curtains and ~~so~~ everything, we had to sleep one night there, it was pretty hard work, Nubie unpacked everything as fast as we packed it, Bill wanted to tie her up to something, but we finished at last, I wonder where we shall unpack - Willie Karsine had not started when we heard last so, the parcel won't be here just yet; I want the hats

Georgia sent Rubie very badly too. How is Lichy all right I hope now. Best love to everybody and please don't forget to remind Lou.

Yours affectly

Allen F. Warner.
