Port of narrow and Base, by quarantined the whole of Florida, no one here is the least bit nervous, so you need not be just a nervous, I will let you know if it comes any nearer - I know of no one who is nervous about it - I have to every body out alright; but I told you long ago didn't I, that it came but the Bank in Orlando never let us know until Bill went up to see about it; the people out here are dreadfully free and easy and not at all businesslike, as for Lou's letter I have never seen it and I know ~~it~~ it would have been forwarded if it ever arrived 'everybody loses lots of letters.' so I am not surprised at not getting it, Americans are not quite so clever as they would have you believe. I got all my things all right about a week ago, Wuffy sent me such a pretty dress and a whole heap of things to Katie, she is always very kind and I am sure I should like her very much if I only knew her a little better. We are staying with Mr. Smith Dorrien now, just across the lake from Missinence, he is awfully nice and he and Bill are very chummy. There is just a chance we may run a store at Kinnymede (two miles this side of Karcosse) 300 riggers are going to be employed there, so it ought to pay very well, but as usual it is uncertain, I will let you know as soon as we decide to go there. Fancy poor

Maurice with a snake around his neck, I am so awfully glad it did not hurt him any worse than it did, poor old boy he has not been very fortunate. I have given up all hopes of coming home this year, so shall look forward to seeing you next summer, almost sure to come then if we can get a job between now and then to give us something to spend. There is a scare of yellow fever just now, we are all in quarantine but there are only about four cases in Key West, but the people
