March
1885

ROLLINS COLLEGE,

WINTER PARK, FLORIDA.

The second term of this institution will commence in Knowles Hall, Tuesday, March 9th, at 9 A. M. All classes in each department will be organized and lessons assigned on that day. Each class will recite Wednesday. Students who do not appear Tuesday morning must not be disappointed if they do not find such classes as they desire. Great harm has come to some pupils the present term from irregularity. Parents are earnestly requested to allow no absence, even of half a day, which can possibly be prevented. Lessons recited on days when pupils are absent must in all cases be made up.

The Young Ladies' Cottage will be ready for occupancy at the beginning of the term. Rooms will be provided for young men either in a cottage secured for them or elsewhere, if they apply before the commencement of the term. Each pupil who is to board in the institution is required to bring two pairs of sheets and pillow-cases, one counterpane, one blanket, towels and table napkins.

Candidates for admission to the Freshman Class of the Collegiate Department must pass a satisfactory examination in the following studies and authors or their equivalents: Latin Grammar, Cæsar, seven books, Six Orations of Cicero, Six Books of Virgil's Æneid, Latin Prose Composition, Translation of Latin at Sight, Greek Grammar, Three books of Anabasis, Two Books of Homer's Iliad, Greek Prose Composition, Translation of Greek at Sight, Arithmetic, Metric System, Wentworth's Complete Algebra, or its equivalent, Plane Geometry, Physiology, United States History, Roman and Grecian History, Life and Mythology, and Mediæval History, and Ancient and Modern Geography. A Short Composition, correct in spelling, punctuation, division into paragraphs, in grammar and expression, upon some topic chosen from one of several assigned works. For 1886 topics may be selected from Shakespeare's Macbeth and Irving's Sketch Book. Criticisms of specimens of incorrect English will be required.

The Training School receives pupils at six years of age and older and fits them for the Preparatory and English Courses.

Candidates for the Normal Course must pass an examination in Reading, Spelling, Geography, United States History, Language, Arithmetic and Elementary Algebra, and present satisfactory testimonials as to moral character and general scholarship. They will be required to take an English course of study lasting two years, and will have daily practice in teaching with special drill in school organization and government.

It is expected that candidates for either of the following courses will have completed the studies of Grammar Grades, and will be examined in Arithmetic, United States History, Geography and Grammar.

Students in the English Course can receive instruction in any of these studies in which they are deficient.

Certificates will be given to those who do full work of either course satisfactorily and pass the examinations.

Classical and scientific students will be admitted to Rollins College upon the certificate of the Preparatory Department.

Students will be prepared here for admission to any college in the United States.

Classes of last term will be continued next term as follows: In Latin lessons, Cæsar, (Book I.), Virgil's Æneid, Book IV., Livy, Greek Lessons, Homer. Three classes in Algebra and classes in drawing in charcoal from casts.

New classes will be formed in Physiology, Trigonometry, Elocution and Rhetoric.

All wishing to attend in either department next term should make application as early as possible to
