First Play of Season Opens Friday

Mary Margaret, Betty Bordahl, Miss Levenson, Margo Colvin. A very interesting feature of "The Fool" is the mob scene. The students in this scene are the following:

Elizabeth Kennedy, Charlotte, Sweet, Warren Goldsmith, Wes Houston, Richard Bobbs, Fredland Balenck, Wesley Davis, Douglas Bils, James Nivier, Paul Hiley, Bud MacArthur, Don Gullivie, Aron Kaye, Jack Lieberman, Ralph Harrington, Manny Ehrlich, Bud Waddell, and Milton Clancy.

The sets were designed by Professor Donald Allen of the Dramatic Arts Department and were built and painted by a crew consisting of: Stanhouse Casparis, Wendall Davis, Morris Casparis, Bud MacArthur, Don Riddle and Bert Haffner.

As in all Student Players' plays, an attempt was made to follow the scene plans in the original script. Instead they were designed with originality and imagination, keeping in mind the basic playing areas of the stage. Each act has a different set. The first is a chapel, the second, the home of the wealthy Goodwins, the third, Gilchrist's "Overcast Hall" and the last Gilchrist's living quarters over the Hall. Mr. Allen has designed the chapel suggestively and the others in a realistic style. These were the first sets to be designed and built in the new Lab. Theater.

Tickets for "The Fool" may be obtained at the box-office of the Annie Russell Theater on presentation of Student Association tickets. Faculty and staff members and interested townspeople may buy season tickets at the box-office. Don't forget; you must have tickets before the performance, you can't get in on your Student Association Card. Get them at the Box-office.

Studio Club Holds First Meeting of Year

The Studio Club held its first meeting of the year, last Wednesday night. The group, consisting of thirty art enthusiasts, met at the art studio at 9:15.

The Studio Club is unlike any other organization in the respect that they have no officers. The aspirants met and went right to work sketching one of the football men. They used whitening on dark paper to do these sketches. Dean Balane and Dick Yard turned in some of the best work.

It was stressed by Bob Burns that the Studio Club is not a closed club and anyone interested in art and drawing is invited to come to the meetings. Faculty and townspeople are also invited to attend these gatherings.

Miss Lonely Hearts Advises Perplexed Lovers; Students Seek Advice of Voice of Experience

Dear Miss Lonely Hearts,
A few weeks ago I told everyone I had a blank heart — now it's crowded up again, and I'm all confused.

Jumbled June
Elimination would be advisable—but it's lonely—relax.
Miss L. H.

Dear Miss L. H.,
I'm in love with a darling girl named Helen. I sit beside her in choir, but I'm not making much progress. What do you suggest?
Art

Dear Art,
Take singing lessons.
Miss L. H.

Dear Miss L. H.,
I am really in love with a girl wearing an S.A.E. pin. She doesn't date me, and I am about to go crazy.

Daydreamer
What shall I do?
Dear Daydreamer,
Go S. A. E. instead.
Miss L. H.

Dear Miss Lonely Hearts,
I'm a boy from Philadelphia where the girls are all very nice and don't smooth or anything. My mother always picked out the girls I went with, but here at Rollins they just turn the girls loose on us and my God! I don't even dare go outside Chase Hall any more. Can I help it if I'm handsome? What shall I do?
Terrified

Dear Terrified,
I'm from Philadelphia and I'm writing a Lonely Hearts' Column.

Your trouble was that you didn't know the right girls.

I've been sighing all week. I thought I was an "average" as anyone also at Rollins, but life passes me by. Why?

Dear J. C.,
We think you are a publicity-seeker and refuse to discuss your letter. Send a stamped, addressed envelope if you're really sincere.

TARS END SEASON WITH 27-7 WIN OVER STETSON

Hatters Again Bow to Rollins' Mighty Tars

Bouton, Swan, Ogilvie, Justice, And Daugherty Play Last Game For Rollins

Team Holds Second Position In State

By TED PITMAN

Once again the mystifying Rollins Tars rolled over the "Hapless Hatters" of Stetson University in the final game of the current season Friday night at Thibault Field and witnessed by some 3,000 enthusiastic followers of both schools.

Again, as in the first game of the season, the intricate attack developed by Jack McDowell and the stellar playing of the well drilled Tars proved too much for a valiant and vastly improved Stetson football machine.

Finding themselves at the short end of a 7 to 0 score at half time due to a series of passes and a touchdown plunge by Russell Dupert, followed by a conversion by Gene Lamb, the Tars came back to run roughshod over their opponents and score 21 points in the last half.

The Tars drew first blood when, after huddling down near the goal twice, they finally pushed it over and Rollins' mighty right, Barney Hardman, snatched the ball away from two Stetson men in the end zone which might be labeled the most amazing catch of the year. The "Hatters" score came a few minutes later and ended the half.

In the second half the Tar attack functioned perfectly from the opening gun. The first Tar score was set up when Mel Clanton recovered a Stetson fumble on their 30 and three plays later "Handy Andy" Jones spun through center and woveed his way to pay dirt. This time Earl Brunker's kick was good and the Tars led 12 to 7.

After a brief exchange of punts the Tars again went on the march and scored on one of their "heads up" plays when Jones spun again through center for fifteen yards only to be stopped on the ten but just as he was hit he lateralled to his high scoring partner Jase Lingerfelt who snatched the remaining distance untouched. Again "Manny" Brunker's toe was true and Rollins led by a score of 20 to 7.

The Tars' last touchdown was set up when scoutin' Sammy Hardman returned a Stetson punt 24 yards to the Hatters' 16 and on the next play the Jones-Lingerfelt combination scored again. Lingerfelt, after a long delay, threw a pass to his partner, who was standing like an orphan on the goal line and Buddy Bryan made a successful conversion. Scoring for the game ended leaving the Tars in whole-putable possession of second place in the state rating.

Although he did not crash into the scoring column this week the generalship and brilliant running of the Tars' all-state quarter back, "Jumping Joe" Justice, in his final college game left an imprint in the memory of Florida fans that will not be forgotten in many a day.

Scores for Tars

The line play was also brilliant, led by the Tars' giant 60 minute tackle, Tiny Phillips, who was ably backed up by Bouton playing his last and one of his most brilliant games at center, and "Reddy" Ogilvie, the stocky little guard who with his running mate Al Swan and end Billy Daugherty sang their own song in a colorful and valiant manner, the latter having to be removed in the second period with a badly injured leg after making a beautiful sideline tackle.

And as the curtain rings down on another more than successful season for the McDowell boys with a record of eight wins and one loss and was never held scoreless, truly an admirable record.

Tar Crew to Meet Orleans Oar Club In Sugar Bowl Duel

Don Ogilvie, Veteran Stroke To Lead Rollins Gold In Eight-Oared Shell

By WES HAUSEMAN

The Blue and Gold will again this year do its part to aid New Orleans in making the Annual Sugar Bowl Festival a success, when the Tar crew will meet the Orleans Rowing Club in a mile and a quarter grid on the waters of the New Basin Canal on December 30, 1939.

Last year Rollins sent a four man crew to compete against the O.R.C., but under the handicap of having to use a four-oared shell with a starboard stroke and no coxswain, to which they were not accustomed, the Tars were unable to score a victory. This year, however, if the Tar crew has secured two eights from Columbia University this making it possible to send a complete eight man crew. While in New Orleans the Rollins crew will be the guests of the city and of the Rowing club.

The Orleans Crew has been on the water for over a month and are in good shape. Their boat is made up of young business men who have served in college or prep school and want to continue their rowing as a hobby. Due to the fact that their time is limited for practice they start their work-out before daylight. Four men of the crew that defeated Rollins last year are on this year's crew.

Last year's Gold, with the exception of two men, Wes Bouton and Ted Pitman, will start their work-outs next Monday afternoon. The stroke seat will be filled by veteran Don Ogilvie; at 7, Wes Hauseman; 4, Joe Knowles; 5, Mel Clinton; 6, Mickey Harmon; 8, John Giannino; 9, Carrow Tolson; and bow, Chip Chisholm. Dick Yard, who stroked the Dartmouth Freshman crew last year will be ready to take over a seat if necessary. If he does not have a place in the boat at New Orleans he will probably row a preliminary half mile single race. Rollins will have a very good chance this year due to the fact that the crew worked together last year and will have much better form after working out in the new shells purchased by the college last spring. The high stroking Gold crew should be in tip-top shape when they leave for New Orleans on the 20th of December. On the day that the fall term ends, until now day the Tars will get a double dose of Brad's coaching each day.

The crew will spend about a week in New Orleans and will be able to enjoy the week of sports consisting of football, tennis, boxing, wrestling, basketball, sail boat regatta and last, but not least, the famous Sugar Bowl football game on New Year's day.

ALONG THE SIDELINES

By Jefferson Kennedy, Jr.

As you all know the football season came to a reluctant close last Friday evening as the McDowell led club repeated their victory over the stubborn Stetson Hatters. Now that we can relax and look over the year we find that it has proven to be a season in which we are proud of Coach McDowell's progress to the utmost with the performance of his charges not to speak of the improvement shown by his able pupils. In a few short weeks the footballers will begin training again for their 1940 campaign. Out on the field we will be able to look over the newcomers in his squad and determine the possible outcome of his outfit when next Fall rolls around. These freshmen will prove to be important next year as six of the Tar team will be taken from us by graduation. The coaching staff however feel they will be able to fill the shoes of the seniors with able players.

The college's attention will now be centered on the doings of the basketball team and the crew. In the basketball line we have ample material centering about "Tiny" Phillips who is reputed to be one of the best in the state. Roster has it that this winter will find Joe Justice on the court. Jase Lingerfelt who showed considerable ability last year will be with us again. Under the guidance of Doctor Adams this trio should prove to be a fine basis for a great team. This will be the first year in many seasons that basketball has been played here and it is my belief that if the same backing is given the team this year as was a year ago the game is here to stay.

The crew as in past years will be coached by the very reliable Mr. Beedley. It seems that nearly his entire outfit will be aloft again this Spring. With that to look forward to we should count on a very fine season on the water. The crewmen will take on their first opponents in New Orleans this Christmas. We will certainly be hoping for the best.

line Christmas Fund is the one means by which the entire Rollins Family can unite in spreading the spirit of peace on earth and good-will toward men. Let us give according to our several abilities and make this Christmas a happier one for all. Remember, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Dean Nance concludes by saying, "We are at our best when thinking of others. The Christmas story is built around one whose ultimate purpose in life was to make others happy. People brought gifts to Jesus according to their ability and understanding of the significance of His advent. Perhaps the joy of this Christmas season would be enhanced for all of us were we to participate liberally in the Christmas Fund."
