This records the passing of Arthur Tilman Williams, president of our Society for the past eleven years, who died on April twenty-sixth.

Second only to his family in his thoughts and in his heart, the Florida Historical Society and he were mutually a part of each other's lives—for throughout those years he was the mainspring of its life. Becoming a member on its incorporation in 1905, he was elected a director in 1907, vice-president in 1908, and was president continuously from 1921 until he came within the shadow of his last illness.

George R. Fairbanks, Francis P. Fleming, and Arthur T. Williams are now together, there and here.
