Francis M. Williams died at his home in Jacksonville on March eighth. For twenty-six years of the sixty-two years of his life he was a member of our Society, and for the past ten years has been its secretary. No one has served longer or more faithfully. Scattered about the State as our members are, few can come to the annual meetings, but wherever these were held Secretary Williams was always there—in Tallahassee, St. Petersburg, Lakeland, St. Augustine, Ocala, Winter Park—and through his minutes, which are far more than mere records, the members everywhere have felt the spirit as well as shared the interest of these gatherings. We are grateful.
