My dear Miss Guild:-

Let me first express my gratification that your matter has improved so much. Next let me assure and re-assure you that so long as you wish it, this board will always have a place for you on the faculty of the Sanford High School - We realize what you have been to the school and we appreciate more than we can express, your unflinching devotion to your work here, in the face of difficulties that would have been insurmountable to many others -

You are re-elected without question and the County Board meets tomorrow to appoint - The only rumor we heard was that you might not want to come back, but we would pay no attention to an idle rumor so contrary to our wishes - We shall look for you back with us in the fall as principal of the Sumner County High School - We are entirely at sea as yet as to the policy of the New County, but we trust there will be no step backward, and that we can continue the forward move that we have been carrying on -

We are brooding you in mind as desiring anything we may be able to do for you -

Little Elizabeth was quite sick last week with tonsillitis, but is OK now - None of us have been quite up to the mark but I trust all are over the little ills for some time - I trust we may be able to stop and have a few minutes with you sometime -

Yours sincerely
