Freshmen Introduced to Terrors of Ratting At Monday Night Session in Annie Russell

Five Black-Robed Jurors Aid Judge Dell in Subduing Rats

On Monday night worried freshmen and lordly upperclassmen met at Annie Russell theatre for the first session of Rat Court, the formal opening of the season on rats. Then and each night since, sitting carefully on the edge of their seats with hands primly crossed before them, freshmen guard against any attacks of levity—for a laugh is an insult to Upperclassmen and to Rat Court. Vigilant protectors of Upperclass dignity, meters of punishment patrol the aisles. That miserable creature, the freshman, is informed of all the things that he must and must not do.

In the "must" list: wear that rat cap at all times; button at sight of all upperclassmen or else; tote the B-books; know our college songs and attend Rat Court with proper humility. On the "must-not" list: Quench your thirst at the water fountain cause you can't enter the portals of Robbie's or Harper's. And, rat, keep off the grass.

Horrors from the records of past Rat Courts should warn you freshmen to keep in line. Disorderly grins during Court were wiped off on the stage floor. One girl measured the length of college sidewalks with a pygmy banana. Others who infringed upon the Rules for Ratting cleaned walks with toothbrushes. Forbidden make-up was rewarded with a bucket of flour plus an order to dust over face at frequent intervals. We remember bonfires and pajama parades, and even damp, subdued freshmen crawling out of the lake. We have yet to see whether this Rat Court will prove more or less vindictive.

Judge of the Court—Kermit Dell Jurors—Ann White, Nancy Corbett, Betty Good, Ginny Argabrite, and Connie Clifton. Prosecutors—Upperclassmen; Culprits — — — — —

Curriculum Enlarged To Meet Demands

To fill new demands, Rollins has added eight courses to the regular curriculum.

The art department now offers three timely courses. Art 241f, an introduction to commercial art; Art 242w, materials and techniques of commercial art; Art 243s, creative design in commercial art.

A new English course gives critical study of prose, poetry, and drama. English 261f, 262w, 263s, an introduction to literature.

Other new courses include: biology 107f, 108w, 109s, a general course in botany. History 268, historical biography. Mathematics 265s, spherical trigonometry. Theatre arts 214f, stage deportment.

Four other courses are being renewed this year: biology 101f, 102w, 103s, general zoology; books 205w, romance of the book. French 371f, 372w, 372s, literature and civilization; psychology 301w, psychology of motivation.

Allen, Bailey Submit Tentative Play List

La guerre makes "tentative" an active adjective in describing the plans of the Rollins dramatics department for 1944-1945. The war also makes "difficult" the word when referring to the casting of forthcoming student plays, for the manpower shortage is as bad as ever.

Having overcome last year's problems so successfully, however, Professors Donald S. Allen and Howard Bailey have optimistically submitted the following list of plays from which six or seven will be chosen: Tomorrow the World, by James Gout and Armand D'Usseau; Out of the Frying Pan, by Frances Swann; Victoria the Queen, by Laurence Houseman; Berkely Square, by John L. Balderston; The Male Animal, by Elliott Nugent and James Thurber; The Damask Creek, by John Van Druten and Lloyd Morris; Listen Professor, by Alexander Afinogenov; The Silver Cord, by Sidney Howard; In a House Like This, by Lewis Beach; The Far-off Hills, by Lennox Robinson; Murder Without Crime, by J. Lee Thompson and The Old Maid and the Thief, an opera by Gian-Carlo Menotti.

The production dates for this year are November 16, 18; December 7, 9; February 21, 24; March 21, 24; April 26, 28; May 30, 31, June 1.

Of course, you now what goes on behind the scenes of fantasy and footlights. There is also an important job to be done on the other side of the curtain, and for this reason, everyone interested in ushering for this year's Annie Russell Series is asked to attend the meeting Wednesday evening at seven o'clock in the Laboratory Theatre. At this same meeting Mr. Bailey plans to cast Tomorrow the World, so be on hand.

106 Freshmen Women Enroll to Set Record; Class Rates High in Talent and Looks

The largest freshman class of women in Rollins history (106) has necessitated the transformation of Chase Lyman and Gale Halls to the exclusive housing of women for the first time.

Included in this freshman class are four war veterans and five South American neighbors, representing Peru, Colombia, and Mexico.

It appears too, that we have some pretty sharp tennis potentialities in Norma Depperman of Harrington Park, New Jersey, Mary Clair Upthegrove of Ann Arbor, Michigan, and Nina Fisher, a transfer student from Jackson Heights, New York, and Ed Copeland from Daytona Beach who is going to give us some expert instruction in tennis classes.

Taking the Class of '48 as a whole, let's look over the combined opinions of the most honorable exalted upperclassmen, the venerable

Greeks Pledge 69 as Climax To Ten Day Rush Period

Convocation Oaths Taken in Chapel Wednesday

The new year has really begun for the Rollins family, now that we have had the convocation in which we take our vows to the spirit of Rollins. Wednesday morning found all of Rollins together in the chapel with Dr. Holt presiding over the first convocation of the year. The choir processional and the Star Spangled Banner started the program. After the invocation, the Chapel Song was sung. Dean Stone read the academic honors lists, and President Holt awarded the Pan-Hellenic scholarship trophy for the highest scholastic average for the entire year of 1943-'44 to (see Miss Fashwood.) Dr. Knipp announced the Phi Society elections for 1943-'44. Phi Society is the freshman honorary society.

The Chapel choir then sang "The Heavens Are Telling" by Beethoven, a beautiful prelude to the convocation address by Dr. Holt, "Peace, Politics, and Pledging," in which the advantages and disadvantages of the fraternity system were discussed.

The nine new faculty members were then installed by President Holt. Professor Jones, chairman of the upper division board then presented to Dr. Holt the most recent members of the upper division who were to take the upper division pledge, after which the new students took the matriculation oath. The Alma Mater and benediction brought to a close this first convocation of the new term.

The academic honor roll for the spring term, 1944, is as follows:

Choir Meets to Elect This Year's Officers

The election of officers of the Rollins Chapel Choir was held Tuesday, October 10, following choral practice. A nominating committee, Betsy Smith, Betty Lanier, and Barbara Balsara, presented its choice of candidates to the offices of president, secretary, social secretary, and student director.

Results of the election will be announced in the next issue of the Sandspur.

Smoothly Functioning Rush Plan Adds to Effectiveness of Greek Activities

This year the rushing season started off with a big bang at the annual Pan-Hellenic Coffee in the patio of the Center 'neath the spell of a Florida moon Wednesday evening, September 29. The next three days saw the usual procession of freshman to the sorority houses where seven teas were held—three on Thursday, 4-5, 5-6, 7:30-8:30, two on Friday, 5-6, 7:30-8:30, and the final two on Saturday, 4-5, 5-6. The rushees were invited alphabetically in seven groups.

During the past week each sorority has extended luncheon and dinner "dates" to the rushees. From Sunday until Saturday, October 1 through 7, one rush party was given by each sorority in the evenings, starting with Gamma Phi on Sunday, Phi Mu Monday, Pi Phi Tuesday, Chi Omega Wednesday, Alpha Phi Thursday, Kappa Friday, and Theta Saturday.

The rushees stated their preferences in the Administration Building Sunday morning, October 8, and returned from 1:30 to 2:30 to pick up their bids. Pledging was held at four o'clock in the sorority houses. Now it's all over! We can all lead happy, normal lives once more!

This year the Greeks are happy to announce the pledging of 69 new girls. The list is as follows:

Alpha Phi: Dottie Aubinoe, Jackie Brown, Kaye Haenichen, Sue Kirkpatrick, Patience Thompson, Dulcie Whitley, and Mary Jane Whitley.

Kappa Kappa Gamma: Dorothy Halbrooks, Edith White, Nancy Hartz, Diane Raymond, Margot Starr, Alice O'Neal, and Nancy Beale.

Chapel Staff Plans For Annual Rally

This year Dean Enyart will be associated with Dean Edmonds as co-director of student activities. Miss Clara Adolfs will again act as Chapel secretary and assistant to Dean Edmonds.

To the Freshmen—

From our position, a dignified one, notice, and spelled with a capitol U for Upperclassman, if you please, we are going to pass on some advice. If you have heard ninety-nine sermons already in your Rollins career, the hundredth will not be very painful.

You arrived at Rollins, tired and travel-scarred, perhaps longing for a week's sleep, and immediately were plunged into your first Rollins activity, a species of toughening-up known fondly as Orientation Week, in later years condensed to three days, thereby attaining a generally more concentrated effect upon nerve and muscle. For ten days following you ate a steady diet of assorted food and drink, all sweet, and made polite conversation, wondering if your smile was wearing thin around the edges. Now, and for as yet undetermined days and perhaps weeks, you will attempt to prove your claim to membership in Rollins' lowest ranking association, the Rat class.

Somewhere along the way, almost lost in all these really important affairs, you registered for your first term of college studies and started to attend classes.

This is where our sermon starts. Freshmen, transfers too, if you like, don't lose your balance now. The degree of success with which you weather your first month at Rollins can determine the general trend your college career will take. You were oriented with comparative ease, you were swell during rushing, and do have fun while being ratted, but don't forget that the social side of your Rollins career, while extremely important to you and your friends as well, must not take precedence over the real reason for which most of you came here, the cause of an education, the kind gained from books.

Keep up with your work, but don't neglect the important business of making friends either. For a few weeks it will seem to you that each day is just a little too short to accommodate all your scheduled activities, but soon order will rise from chaos, you will cease to go around in dizzy circles, and you will be what educators call 'adjusted' to this new, busier way of life. You will have had fun, too!

Richard Firestone Memorial

A memorial service for Dr. Richard Firestone was held in the Knowles Memorial Chapel last Wednesday morning. Tributes to Dr. Firestone were given by President Holt, Dean Stone, Dean Cleveland, Dean Enyart, Dr. Eugene R. Shippen, Dr. Clarence Bernstein, Mr. Bailey, Miss Moore, Frank Sussler, and Dorothy Bundy.

To those of us who knew and loved Dr. Firestone, little need be said about his great mind, spirit, and personality. Certainly little could be added to the beautiful tributes to his memory, extracts from which are reprinted here.

Tributes — Dr. Firestone

President Holt:—We are here here this morning in this Chapel dedicated to Youth and consecrated to God, to express our admiration, affection and love for Richard Firestone, who died of a heart attack on September 5 in New York City.

Dr. Firestone was born in Vienna, Austria and received his Ph.D. degree from the University of Vienna. He did his graduate work at the University of Vienna and at the Sorbonne in Paris. He taught for six years French and German in Austria and then came to the United States where he was a Fellow in Modern Languages at the University of Pittsburgh. He was called to Rollins in 1921.

In continuous service Dr. Firestone was the oldest member of the faculty and he was the first member of the faculty to receive the Rollins Decoration of Honor for conspicuous services to Rollins College.

During the past twenty-three years Dr. Firestone has not only achieved, but maintained the mastery of his chosen teaching art which every professor pledges himself to strive to do when he takes his oath of office. But far beyond that, he has delved extensively in the classics, music, drama, and medieval poetry. There is probably no member of the faculty who has ranged more widely and deeply into the humanities than he.

Dr. Firestone has always shown sympathy, courage and understanding in dealing with his fellow men. He has been a tower of strength on faculty committees where the weight of his influence has always been fair, just, liberal and constructive.

The students loved him, for he had in excess the four qualities that make an ideal teacher and leader: character, competence, courage and charm. If there ever was a man who was "a gentleman and a scholar", Richard Firestone was such a one.

His loss would be irreparable did we not know that each best when past makes room for the next best that shall fit the age which is ever renewing itself.

Dean Stone:—I wish to speak of Richard Firestone as a great teacher, a philosopher, and a true friend.

His was the type of teaching on which Rollins is founded. He used his profound scholarship and his great kindness to reach into the hearts of students and help them grow. I know of no other colleague who surpassed him in his power to move people into the path of true learning, true scholarship, and fine living.

He was a philosopher in the deepest sense of the word because he lived in terms of what he taught and transformed the ideas of the great masters whom he loved into the sentiments which guided his life.

He was a true and loyal friend. The problems of others were his problems, and he felt these problems as deeply as his own. He believed, as his beloved Socrates believed, that we are immortal now—and so he is. He is a great man and it seems to me that I have temporarily lost a brother.

Dean Cleveland:—To everyone here today, Dr. Firestone was known as a scholar and as a teacher, but his interest in his students went far beyond the classroom. His interest embraced the whole personality—mind, body and spirit. In every callow youth or adolescent freshman he saw the promise of a fully grown man or woman.

To me in my work he was a never-failing help and inspiration. He believed in and insisted on the importance of every sort of beauty and courtesy on bodily grace and social graciousness, on the cultivation of poise and dignity and serenity. These were no empty forms—they were sacramental qualities, outward and visible signs of inward and spiritual graces. His interest in his students, his wisdom and understanding, and his infinite patience never failed him.

The good, the true and the beautiful were not mere words to Richard Firestone. They were the ultimate goal of every person, the sparks each human being carries within himself and must fan into living flame if he would fulfill his destiny.

★ Rollins' All-Stars ★

Items of interest from all over about our men in service:

From Quantico, Va. comes word that Reedy Talton, '44, graduated from the Marine Officer Candidate School there and was appointed second lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve this summer.

Also in the Marine Corps, we have Dick "Bone" Lane, '47, completing his basic training this month at Parris Island, S.C.

It's good to see Brigadier Tom Fruin, Netherlands Air Corps, visiting on campus this week, as is also Lt. Jupe Arnold, '46, who can claim the unique distinction of having received the Rollins Decoration of Honor in his freshman year here.

From the air corps we have news that Ira Yopp, '44, and Smith Lett,

'45, have recently been commissioned second lieutenants, the latter at the Columbus Army Air Field in Mississippi, and the former at Turner Field, Albany, Georgia.

GOLD STAR: Staff Sergeant Albert P. (Al) Nassi, class of '43, was killed in action in the European theater of operations in July . . . Al came to Rollins in 1940, a transfer from Boston University. One of the most talented violinists in our Conservatory, he would have received his Bachelor of Music degree in June, 1943, had he not been called into service that spring. He was a member of the Delius Chamber Music Group and played with the Central Florida Symphony Orchestra. News of his death is a great blow to all of us who knew him.

A Freshman Writes a Senior

by Muriel Fox

Dear Miss Senior, tell me please
Some things I long to know,
For now that I'm a freshman
My poor head's swimming so!

Now, is it true, as I have heard,
That there's a special class
On gauging those revolving sprinklers
When you want to pass?

And as for the infirmary,
It's really got me treed,
For who gives our poor nurses
All the practice that they need?
Why, only fakers make the trek
Within a single day,
And if you're sick, the chances are You'll drop dead on the way

And all those upperclassmen—
Are they fickle as all that?
They rushed me off my feet last week,
And now they call me "Rat."

Oh yes, I can hardly believe,
I feel so very low,
That I was a High School Senior
Just a couple months ago.

For Your Information

Dyer Memorial Building is another byword at Rollins synonymous with the word culture. Situated to the north of the tennis courts and between the shell museum and Pugsley Hall, it is a combination of student recital hall and record library. The latter is more important to our purpose here. The Carnegie collection, made up of hundreds of varied types of records, is housed at Dyer, and its facilities are open to students of Rollins and people of Winter Park throughout the year.

Listening hours for the Fall term have been arranged and will begin Sunday, October 15. The building will be open regularly each week at the following hours unless otherwise announced:

Sunday—7:30 - 9:30 p.m.
Monday—4:00 - 6:00 p.m.
Wednesday—7:30 - 9:30 p.m.
Friday—4:00 - 6:00 p.m.

At the hours listed a student proctor will be on duty at Dyer to play the records you would like to hear. Why don't you drop around? You'll want to make it a habit.

The Chapel rally which you have been waiting for is scheduled to take place Monday evening, October 23. You have already heard about the Chapel committees and this will be your chance to become a member of one, or more if you are interested.

night to think of Richard Firestone and immediately my thoughts turned to strong men, to great leaders, to great teachers.

He was much more than a mere teacher of languages; he was counselor, friend, and adviser to youth; he served Rollins College for many years with loyalty and devotion. His influence, felt on the entire campus, showed a clarity of vision, a wisdom, and a definiteness of purpose that never failed to raise standards of living and conduct. He erected his own monument; his mark will be felt upon the Rollins campus for years to come.

Richard Firestone combined the graciousness of manner of a gentleman of the old school with a rare gift of friendship that endeared him to all and made his loss a personal one. I liked to drop down on a campus bench to chat with him.

He shall be remembered always as a wise counselor and cherished friend.

tears, doubts, hope, and a passionate longing for sleep.

The freshman learns many things in her first days at Rollins such as: Don't sneak in late to choir practice; don't snore when you sleep in class; do write home to the proud parents; and do be interested in people.

And such is life at Rollins.

College Movie Series Promises Interest

As you all know by now, Tuesday night started our movie season off with a big bang. The feature was "Watch On The Rhine" for the information of all of you who missed the great occasion. The next one is coming on October 24th, so don't miss it! Among some of the movies we will see this year are: "Mr. Skeffington", "Old Acquaintance", "Princess O'Rourke", "Destination Tokyo", and "The Adventure of Mark Twain". The program for each movie will be announced shortly before its showings.

Probably by now the Freshmen are wondering how all this started. In 1937 Rollins College gave Harry Warner an L.H.D. honorary degree. This was the first time that an American college had so honored the motion picture industry. Mr. Warner was so pleased that he gave Rollins a motion picture machine. Ever since, he has sent us motion pictures at the rate of one every two weeks during the school year. These movies which have usually completed their national run are sent free through Mr. Warner's representative, Dr. Harold Rodner, in New York.

Dr. Starr is chairman of the committee in charge of these Tuesday night movies. Others on the committee who help to choose the pictures (with student advice) are Professor Howard Bailey and Pro-essor Dewey.

These movies are for our "Rollins Family" only! This is due to the fact that we do not want to destroy friendly relations with our local theater operators.

Now comes the question of admission. It is by student association card only! So be sure to get yours now at the cashier's office where they are ready for you. They will be needed for other things soon, too. We'll all be seeing you on October 24th at our next Rollins Movie!

Freshman's Impressions of Rollins Continue Favorable Through All First-Week Trials

Rollins Golf, Tennis Stars Shine in Summer Tourneys

This summer Rollins' students have again outshone themselves in the fields of tennis and golf. They have played in tournaments all over the country and have succeeded not only in making an excellent showing everywhere, but in coming through with top honors in many events.

Heading the list of this summer's tennis achievements is Dodo Bundy, who won the National Clay Court singles title, dethroning Bobbie Betz, a Rollins graduate of '43. Dodo also won the Tri-State singles, and the doubles with Mary Arnold of Wisconsin State. She reached the semi-finals in both the Delaware State and Longwood Bowl tournaments, going to the quarter-finals in the Rye tournament. In the Wisconsin State singles she was runner-up to Betz and in the Chicago Open tournament runner-up to Mary Arnold.

Connie Clifton made an outstanding record by winning the Massachusetts State Junior singles, the New York State Junior singles and the Eastern Inter-Collegiate doubles, with Peggy Welsh, another Rollins girl. She was runner-up in both the Eastern Inter-Collegiate singles and Eastern Junior Girls' tournaments. She arrived at the semi-finals in both the National Junior Girls' tournament and the National Clay Courts, the latter with Dodo Bundy as her doubles partner. She also played well in the Rye, Nassau and Forest Hills tournaments.

Peggy Welsh was the winner in three doubles tournaments: the Philadelphia and the Middle States with Bobbie Betz as her partner, and the Eastern Inter-Collegiate, sharing honors with Connie Clifton. She reached the singles semi-finals in both the Philadelphia and Inter-Collegiate tournaments. In the Nationals, however, she lost to Margaret Osborn, was runner-up to Betz. At present Peggy is playing in the Mexican tournament.

Georgie Lopaus was the winner of the Senior Eastern Girls' title at Nassau. She also played in the nationals and at Rye.

Betty Rosenquist and Georgie Lopaus were runner-up in the Inter-Collegiate doubles, losing to Peggy Welsh and Connie Clifton. Betty was also runner-up in the Ammacastle and played an excellent game in both the Rye and National tournaments.

Nancy Corbett was the winner of the doubles Senior East tournament at Rye with Gloria Svans as partner. She was also the winner of the Chicago City and Delaware State Championships. In the Chicago Open she was a semi-finalist losing to Mary Arnold, the winner. In both the Tri-State and Wisconsin State doubles she reached the semi-finals with Shirley Fry as her partner on both occasions. She and Fry were runners-up to Arnold and Bundy in the doubles at the Chicago tournament. She was a semi-finalist in both Philadelphia and Senior-East tournaments, and reached the Tri-State Wisconsin State and National Clay tournaments.

Since Anne LeDuc was a counselor at a girl's camp this summer she was unable to play in any tournaments.

The two Rollins students who participated in the golf tournament this summer made admirable records.

Georgia Tainter was a semi-finalist in the Western Closed tournament and a quarter-finalist in the Western Open. She also placed third in the Tam O'Shanter tournament.

Jeanne Cline was the winner of

Gym Classes Started; Minott in Charge

Rollins is welcoming a new member to its faculty this year in the person of Miss Alice Minott (pronounced Men-ott) who is taking the place of Alice Acree as Physical Education teacher for women. As for her formal education, Miss Minott attended the Posse School University in Philadelphia. She is a member of Sigma Iota Chi, national social fraternity and the A.P.E.H.R. association (American Physical Education, Health and Recreation). Prior to her coming to Rollins she taught in Montpelier public schools in Vermont and The State School for Girls in Maine.

Miss Minott hails from Maine, but is already very fond of Florida despite the fact that she won't be able to indulge in her favorite sport of skiing. However, the water sports and sailing will take the place of it. She is very impressed with Rollins and thinks that it is the friendliest place she has ever taught in, that the relationship is more like two students instead of a student-instructor basis. But, a word to the wise is sufficient, her pet peeve is disrespectful and impudent students. Take heed, gals. When asked to tell us her opinion of Rollins she replied "The State School for Girls" was never like this!"

Anti-climax: Classes will begin this week and all students are requested to have their uniforms when they come to class.

the Illinois State tournament and reached the semi-finals in the Western Open tournament. She played in the Tam O'Shanter tournament, placing tenth, and also in many U.S.O. Exhibitions. Both she and Georgia played in the Edgewater Beach Open.

This winter both girls plan to play at the Miami Biltmore. Good luck, girls, Rollins is rooting for you!

1944 Class Prophecy Proves Accurate

Looking over last year's class prophecy we are amazed at our clairvoyance. The time was 1954 and we saw Charlotte Smith as an airline stewardess. However, it didn't take her ten years. She spent the past summer in training with American Airlines, and received her wings in August. She is now stationed in Memphis, Tennessee.

Jean Hamaker, although not yet editing the Kissimmee Dispatch, as we prophesied, is working in the text department of the editorial office of Life magazine. We weren't too far from wrong there.

We guess we fell down on the job when it came to Marge Hansen. We saw her as a brilliant playwright starring in one of her own plays. However, at present, she is editorial assistant to the news editor of Aero Digest, which isn't doing so badly at all. Gee, we can't always be right.

Nancy Boyd, as we predicted, is working at International Business Machines school in Endicott, New York.

be the reason because the freshman girls are said to be the prettiest group that has hit Rollins in a long time.

It has been said that the class is working in closer cooperation than usual and are making many sincere friendships. Let's hope that this reputation will be kept up for many years to come.

Well this is the freshman class to date—125 students representing 28 states. Here's hoping it will get as much out of, and put as much into Rollins life as their predecessors.

Freshman Class Boasts Members Who Are Cosmopolitan, Talented In Varied Fields

In this year's R-BOOK we find some advice from ye olde that is pretty sound stuff. He says, "Disabuse yourself of all past glories. Now you are at Rollins, and it wouldn't be practical to expect upperclassmen to hold in awe these accomplishments in what they must regard as the dim and distant past." That being more truth than fiction it isn't the purpose of this article to debunk that advice. However, upon meeting and talking to members of the freshman class this year, it was discovered that several of them had done rather outstanding things which, perhaps, should be known a little more widely off the campus. Things which would interest other students with similar ideas in the back of their minds.

And so a campus survey was made to select a few of these students and to speak of them briefly in this manner. For instance there is JILLE FLETCHER, a freshman who now lives in Orlando. Jille has done professional dancing and has studied extensively in New York at schools such as the Sevilla, Cansino, and ballet at Chalif. She has lived in Puerto Rico for a year and a half and danced at the Escambron and Pan American Club, and also attended a Spanish school in Puerto Rico. At Rollins her major is Theatre Arts and after graduation she hopes to go into theater work (either behind or before the scenes, she says) or into some type of a journalistic occupation. While she was in Puerto Rico she was active in dramatic work in the Spanish school and appeared on several radio shows. And, as if this weren't enough, she has gone a step farther and has taught dancing in Orlando in the past few years.

And then there is GEORGE MOORE who lives in Hooker Hall, and whose home is in Sarasota. George has had a great deal of experience in radio work and in the past three years has produced a bi-weekly dramatic show on Station W.S.P.B., which is affiliated with C.B.S. He also had a sports program on the same station, three times a week. Anxious to gain more experience in this field he was employed as an announcer from October to July of this year. George is proud of the acquaintances he has made during his life, and who can blame him? For, how many of us have met President Roosevelt at a party in our own home? Well, this rather unique privilege belongs to George. He met the President in Warm Springs, Georgia where George lives each summer. At the same time, he met such other personalities as Colonel Carlson, of Carlson's Raiders, and Colonel Starling, late head of the White House Secret Service. George is majoring in Theater Arts at Rollins with a special interest in continuing his radio work.

HERBERT RICKETS comes to us from Arequipa, Peru. He is now living in Rollins Hall. Though he has been in this country only three months he speaks excellent English and plans to use it in the work he hopes to go into after his graduation. He is majoring in Business Administration and will go back to Peru to live after he finishes college, where he will work with his father, who is an exporter and importer. Herbert attended high school in Chili. Just to show how far the influence of Rollins has spread, it was interesting to hear how Herbert happened to come here. He was told of the college by the American Counsel in Arequipa, and then applied for admission on his own. He had a brother who was at Lowell Textile Institute, in Lowell, Mass., who returned to South America the fifth of this month. His brother had also heard of Rollins and sent him catalogues and other publicity about the school.

Coming to us from Waterloo, Iowa, is SUSAN WEST, now liv-

What They Think—

Question: What impressed you most when you first came to Rollins?

Carol Kirkpatrick: The hub-bub.

Kathy Gage: The buildings and campus in general.

Page Colcord: The photographer who sat me up on a convertible and took my picture surrounded by suit-cases.

Sally Minor: The heat.

Bob Humphries: The stucco buildings.

Eddie Copeland: The tennis courts and the beautiful girls.

Anonymous Freshman: Riley Jones!

Bob Williams: The friendliness.

ing at Cloverleaf. Susan has been very active in radio work for the past few years and for a time had her own singing show, once a week on station K.X.E.L., the Blue Network station in Waterloo. She is a mezzo soprano and is studying with Madame Homer while at Rollins. Her interest in radio is not only in the entertainment field, however, as she has also written scripts for K.X.E.L. She worked with the head of the Women's Department of that station in writing Women's programs. Her ultimate goal is opera though she is interested in all phases of the theater. Susan has done summer work in radio and theater at the speech school at the State University of Iowa.

A girl who has traveled to places that many of us would like to visit, is MARY SUE WILSON. Her parents are living in Winter Park at the present time, and she is at Cloverleaf. Mary Sue has lived for three years in Mexico, where she attended an American school in Mexico City; and she has traveled through France, Italy, Belgium and Holland. While in grammar school she studied in Switzerland at a German school where there was no English spoken. Her major is languages and she already speaks German, French and Spanish, as well as English. She and her fam-

York. But, of course, we had out of school by 1954 already.

The seers were far from wrong when they looked into their crystal balls and saw Franny Acher selecting quarters of beef. She is studying medicine at the Women's Medical College in Philadelphia, it's our guess she'll rise above the supermarket.

By way of mention:

Nancy Ragan was married June 10 to Major Dewitt Clinton Dominick III. Major Dominick is Jean Dominick Fogarty's ('43) brother. Red Harris is now an ensign in the Navy.

Lt. Paul Harris and Gail de Forest ('46) were married on June 10. They are living in Decatur, Alabama, where Paul is stationed with the army air forces.

We're proud of their achievements. Gee, do you think we might be famous some day, or even married?

Many of our alumni were planning a trip to China, Japan and other Eastern countries at the outbreak of war.
