CANTON SCHOOL,

Boston, June 9, 1909.

Miss Clara E. Guild is a graduate of this school, also of the girl's High School of this city. Miss Guild was a member of this school for several years and was always a faithful and successful student and graduated with honor. I can recommend her as a young lady of excellent disposition and well calculated to teach in any school. Had she remained in Boston she would undoubtedly have received an appointment in our schools.

C. Goodwin Clark,

Master.

To whom it may concern.

I take pleasure in stating that the bearer of this, Miss Clara L. Guild, has been a most excellent student in Rollins College passing in her studies with high grades. She is a Christian lady of strong and admirable character. Her attainments in scholarship, and her personal qualities seem to me to fit her eminently for the profession of teacher. We have had no opportunity to observe her success as an instructor

except as a Sunday school teacher. In that capacity
she has shown unusual ability and tact. I should expect her to achieve a high degree of success
in any kind of teaching which she may undertake.

Most sincerely,

J. H. Ford,

Prof. of Greek,

My dear Sir.

I have the pleasure
to send you a line with regard to our good friend & former pupil Miss Eliza S. Guild, as a candidate for the position of Teacher of your public School. I can confidently recommend her for the position.

She must win the confidence and affection of her pupils.

She is of course well qualified to give the instruction needed.

She must be helpful to her pupils in all good things as well as in matters of learning.

Sincerely yours.

Edw. P. Hosker.

This is to certify that I have been acquainted with Miss Clara L. Guild for several years as a teacher & commend her as worthy of any position to which she may aspire. She possesses the mind, the education both technical & general, the Christian training, the tact & the experience, which together entitle her to the highest commendation as a first class teacher.

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that Miss Clara Louise Guild has been engaged as teacher in the public schools of Winter Park, Florida, for several years, and is a lady of education, culture and refinement, whose teachings could not fail to be of lasting benefit to the young in the course of education and upbuilding of christian character. It is a pleasure to recommend her wherever her services are needed.

Very respectfully yours,

E. H. Bunker

I have known Miss Clara L. Guild for many years and it gives me pleasure to certify to her qualifications as a teacher. She is a graduate of the Collegiate department of Rollins College and has had eight years experience as a teacher; having been four years in charge of the College Grammar School. She is faithful and energetic in her work, makes her students her friends and leads them to become interested in their studies. She is a very successful teacher.

Miss Guild is a lady of quiet and deep Christian character and is worthy of most work suited to her ability and training. I feel sure that she would fill satisfactorily any position in your school that she would accept.

Yours truly Thos R. Baker.
