The annual dues of two dollars now cover the cost of printing and mailing the review, but that is all. If you are able to do so and would become a Contributing Member for this year (there is no obligation to continue the contributing dues of ten dollars) the Society could then undertake some further work it should be doing.

General C. P. Summerall, Chief of Staff of the United States Army, becoming a member of the Society, says. . . . "It is most gratifying to know that The Florida Historical Society is developing this important feature of our State."

The following also have become members during the past quarter. Their interest is highly valued. We trust those who have the opportunity to do so will take an active part in the work of the body.
