NOTES

THE CENTENNIAL OF THE ST. JOSEPH CONVENTION

Under an act of the Legislature, Florida's first constitutional convention will be commemorated on the site of the old town of St. Joseph on December 7, 8, 9, 10. A committee of statewide membership, with Mr. J. L. Sharit of Port St. Joe as chairman, has been at work for many months planning a celebration of the centennial of this most important episode in Florida's territorial history.

PENSACOLA'S HISTORICAL PAGEANT

Excepting St. Augustine only, no other town of Florida has had so long and so interesting a history as Pensacola. On October 27 the most important and most moving events and episodes of that history will be faithfully reproduced in a noteworthy pageant which has been long in preparation. Seven civic and military organizations under the leadership of the Community Center have combined to produce a spectacle in keeping with the city's place in Florida's history.

Pensacola and the Filibusters, 1816-1817, by H. G. Warren, is a valuable paper in the last (July) issue of the Louisiana Historical Quarterly, though its contents is more prospective than real. It is based on documents in Papeles Procedentes de Cuba, AGI, from transcripts in the Ayer Collection. (See A Letter of John Innerarity, Florida Historical Society Quarterly XI. p. 140; also ibid, XVI, 131.)
