

University of Central Florida
STARS

---

The Rollins Sandspur

Newspapers and Weeklies of Central Florida

---

2-19-1953

Sandspur, Vol. 57 No. 17, February 19, 1953.

Rollins College

Find similar works at: <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/cfm-sandspur>
University of Central Florida Libraries <http://library.ucf.edu>

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Newspapers and Weeklies of Central Florida at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Rollins Sandspur by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

---

STARS Citation

Rollins College, "Sandspur, Vol. 57 No. 17, February 19, 1953." (1953). The Rollins Sandspur. 929.
<https://stars.library.ucf.edu/cfm-sandspur/929>

The Rollins Sandspur

Volume 57

Rollins College, Winter Park, Florida, Thursday, February 19, 1953

Number 17

ANIMATED MAGAZINE SUNDAY

HUGH F. McKEAN, acting Editor of the Animated Magazine.

GENERAL OMAR BRADLEY, Chair. of Joint Chiefs of Staff.

WALLACE K. HARRISON, World renowned architect.

CHANCELLOR H. T. HEALD, from New York University.

DR. EDWIN GRANBERRY, Chairman of the Animated Magazine.

PROGRAM

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 2:30

SANDSPUR BOWL

FOREWARD.....

Hugh F. McKean

President of Rollins College

NAGUIR, STRONG MAN OF EGYPT.....

James E. Hollingsworth

World traveler, lecturer, civic leader

TWO KINGS AND A QUEEN.....

Mrs. James E. Hollingsworth

World traveler, lecturer, civic leader

ACADEMIC FREEDOM TODAY.....

Henry T. Heald

Chancellor of New York University.

BOLSHEVIK OPPRESSION OF THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE.....

Admiral Alan G. Kirk

Former Ambassador to Russia

INDO-AMERICAN COOPERATION, RETROSPECT AND PROSPECT.....

Gaganvidari L. Mehta

Indian Ambassador to the United States

(TO BE ANNOUNCED).....

General Omar N. Bradley

Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff

(TO BE ANNOUNCED).....

Robert Hufstader

Choral Director, Julliard School of Music

THE AMERICAN ARCHITECT IN A UN WORLD.....

Wallace K. Harrison

Architect of UN Buildings and of Rockefeller Center

ISHMAEL, AGE EIGHT.....

Dr. Francis J. Thompson

Author and Professor of Writing, Johns Hopkins University

SPORTS PAGE.....

Harry Wismer, Charles Davey

Sports Announcer Wismer interviews Boxer Davey

EDITORIAL.....

Dr. John Martin

Political Scientist, Lecturer

COMIC AMERICA.....

Walt Kelly

Cartoonist of the Year, Creator of Pogo

FLORIDA NIGHT LIFE.....

Apasum Marsupial

JAMES E. HOLLINGSWORTH, prominent world traveler.

MR. ROBERT HUFSTADER, director of coming Bach Festival.

MRS. J. HOLLINGSWORTH of Palm Beach, prominent lecturer.

WALT KELLY, cartoonist and creator of the Pogo comic strip.

ADMIRAL ALAN G. KIRK, former Ambassador to Russia.

JOHN MARTIN, writer and lecturer on political science.

GAVANIHARI L. MEHTA, Indian Ambassador to the U. S.

DR. FRANCIS THOMPSON, of Johns Hopkins University.

HARRY WISMER, Radio and Television Sports announcer.

EDITORIALS

FOUNDER'S WEEK

Founders Week officially began Monday at Rollins and will keep Central Florida pretty much in the spotlight for the remainder of the week.

The activities will reach a climax Sunday when the annual Animated Magazine will be presented on the afternoon of Feb. 22 and Convocation Day will be held on Feb. 23.

International leaders will participate in the Animated Magazine program while Lester Pearson of Canada will deliver the Convocation Day address Monday.

Pearson is President of the General Assembly of the United Nations, and is Canada's Secretary of State. His address at Rollins will be given the day before the U. N. convenes in New York City.

An exhibition entitled "Rollins Now and Then" is being featured by the Mills Memorial library this week; the Smith Watch Key collection will be on display at the Sullivan House; and the "Contemporary Indian Art and Crafts" will be shown in the Morse Gallery of Art. A fourth exhibit, "Costumes and Masks from Latin America" can be seen at Casa Iberia. All of these exhibits are open to the public without charge.

Tuesday night Oscar Wilde's, "The Importance of Being Earnest" given by the Rollins Players and under the direction of Howard Bailey, starts a five day run at the Annie Russell theatre.

The Rollins Scientific Society sponsors on Friday a spectacular demonstration of the wonders of science in Knowles Hall.

Friday the Board of Trustees will meet at the college at 2 p.m., and Saturday is Alumni Day.

The Tars play Erskine Wednesday night in the Winter Park High gym, and on Saturday afternoon the men's and women's tennis teams will give an exhibition on the college courts. Also planned for Friday is a water skiing exhibition on Lake Virginia.

Sunday, Feb. 22, the annual Founders' Week service will be held in Knowles Chapel during the morning, and the Animated Magazine presented at 2:30 p.m. The Convocation ceremony begins Monday morning at 10 a.m.

Founders' Week is the most active week of the year, and it seems livelier this time than in years past. The giant stride Rollins has taken forward since last year is the reason for this increase in school energy.

Students this year have been studying harder, entering more extra-curricular activities, and generally receiving a better college education. Two shining examples are that the Student Council has carried out more programs and the Glee Club has toured the Atlantic.

The Chapel Tower

T. S. Darrah

When Charles W. Eliot was President of Harvard he often talked with students who were in trouble. One day a rather indiscreet character tried to justify his conduct by saying, "There aren't five men in college who wouldn't have done the same thing, Sir." President Eliot finished that off with, "You should have been one of the five."

The moral is obvious and needs no elaboration.

While on the subject of Harvard I pass on this story of Billie Phelps, a Yale man. Mr. Thomas Sergeant Perry (I haven't the slightest idea who he is or was) seeing a Harvard undergraduate with a huge H on his sweater, remarked, "Yes, I see now what it means, by the way universities nourish the love of letters."

The moral in this story is not so obvious.

Darrah

WELCOME ALUMS AND FRIENDS

Letters to the Editor

NEW IDEA

To the Editor of the Sandspur:

During the past few years, due to the rising costs of operating expenses and the decreasing value of the dollar, educational institutions have been trapped in an economic vise. Remedies have been offered ranging from commercializing the institutions to subsidy by government. The evils accompanying either remedy are quite evident, with raised tuitions a large proportion of deserving students would be deprived of higher education, government supervision would soon follow government subsidy.

There is, however, one way in which the situation may be alleviated or at least to some extent relieved. It is as follows: I propose the establishment within the territorial boundaries of each state a board composed of prominent individuals in the fields of industry and education. Leaders in these fields would elect two of their own groups, men of high principle, to meet in joint session once a year. A fifth person, acceptable to all four representatives, would also be chosen. It is suggested this fifth person be a leading jurist. Such a board would provide a central agency of unquestionable integrity and leadership in whose ethics the citizenry of the state could place great faith. The function of this board would be the allocation of funds contributed by the citizenry and industry of the state in an equal and a proportionate manner to those colleges and universities within their states.

Every year corporations and individuals have forwarded to the Bureau of Internal Revenue large proportions of their Five Percent Tax Exemption for Expenditures for Charitable and Educational Purposes money which need not have been taxed. Between the years 1936 to 1948 the largest expenditures in percent of net income for charitable purposes before taxes amounted to 1.24 percent (two dollars), approximately 1/4 of hundred and sixty-six million the full five percent exemption allowed by the government. During this year cited, 1945, one billion one hundred million dollars were overpaid in taxes, mainly because corporations and individuals did not contribute their full five percent to charitable purposes. It is this portion of the national taxable income with which I believe the schools of higher learning in the United States may escape the economic vise in which they presently find themselves.

To the corporations and individuals it would amount to this: There would be a responsible agency of highly respected individuals to whom those corporations and individuals could forward the remainder of that portion of their tax exempt income after they had contributed to the charities of their choice. The contribution received by the Educational Board would be acknowledged in the form of a receipt, a copy of which would be forwarded to the Bureau of Internal Revenue for the credit of the contributor—corporation or individual. Shortly after the income tax deadline on March 15 of each year those five members of the Board selected by their contemporaries would meet for the specific purpose of their formation—to allocate the funds received to the educational institutions within the territorial limits of their states. Those educational institutions would consist only of the non-profit, non-tax-supported colleges or universities recognized by the proper accrediting agencies. I propose the funds would be divided in this fashion:

1. Subsequent to the formation of an economical budget for administrative purposes, such appropriation of funds received to be invested in government securities so that the interest derived would provide for the necessary overhead expenses. This investment would be only in the first year of the formation of the Board, henceforth the full contributed sum would be divided in this way.
2. The entire amount (during the first year the remainder after the above investment to cover overhead) would be divided into two equal halves.
3. One half would be divided equally regardless of size among those institutions within the state fulfilling the above requirements.
4. The second half or remainder would be divided among those same institutions, this time the division would be in strict proportion to the student enrollment of those schools.

The only provision accompanying these contributions would be that the institutions so supported would be instructed to employ these funds solely for the purpose of expanding their operating budget. These funds are not to be invested by the institutions but utilized to meet present costs—salaries, up-keep, etc.

Each year prior to the meeting of the Educational Board those institutions which have received contributions would be directed to send a copy of their budget, proving the employment of the funds contributed the year before had been in accordance with the agreement of the conditions stated above.

I believe that this plan, based upon the faith of the contributors in ethics and integrity of their leading citizens would prove to be not only the solution of the problem faced by education but that it would be a further example of our democracy at work, vividly illustrating the faith so necessary to our further national progress.

Respectfully submitted,
Jerome E. O'Brien.

'ROUND ROLLINS

By Jon Dunn-Rankin

P. S. to Prexy: AniMag has shaped up just fine. Mrs. Hollingsworth and nine men (names in your current newspaper). Thank you for Mrs. Hollingsworth.

There's a rumor going around, especially in town circles, that Mead Botanical Garden here in Winter Park is arranging for Rollins students to use facilities and possibly a plot of terra firma for botanical experiments. This brought forth a contribution from one of our readers:

Any student can have a plot, an' he
Can thereby avoid monotony

While pursuing the study of botany.

Rollins' own Dean Edwin R. Walker is a member of the Board of Trustees of Mead Garden.

Another GI address for idle ink:

Pvt. Ralph Estes
RA 13457773
Co. A, 7888 Hdq. Gp. (Sp. Trps.)
Hdq. USAREUR, APO 403
%PM, New York, NY

Good news from Student Council about wholesale FMs for Rollins students. But many of Winter Park's citizenry would like in on-the deal. Wholesale FM to let the people hear . . . WPRK.

Saturday turns up two interesting student shows at 88.1 mc on your FM dial. Freshman Rod Collins presents a glimpse into musical history with Music and Memories, and features originals by such luminaries as Cantor, Jolson, and Lillie. The early pressings lack today's hi-fi, but make up for the scratch and megaphone echo with snappy performances.

The other student produced show is another quarter-hour segment, a poetry reading session with Jack Large, Buck Class, and The Sturd intoning the iambs and dactyls. The material, over fifty-six years old to sidestep copyright laws, is all good listenable stuff, Wordsworth, etc. We have one criticism: too informal with not enough buildup for each poem.

Unloading suitcases, trunks, golf bags, and fellow students while parked on one-lane, one-way Horseshoe Circle ties up traffic. One Rollins freshman came up with a solution: infield parking on the Horseshoe track. Aside from the aesthetic rape, the administration will caution that sewer pipes or water mains prohibit. Our solution: small, eight car spaces behind the Horseshoe dormitories, Lakeside, Chase, and Pinehurst, and ancient Lyman. Either that, or no baggage.

Chimes!

The Rollins Sandspur

Published weekly at Rollins College, Winter Park, Florida. Member of Associated Collegiate Press and Florida Intercollegiate Press Association. Publication office—Room 8, Carnegie Hall, telephone 4-9891. Entered as second class matter November 14, 1925, at the Post Office at Winter Park, Florida, under the act of March 3, 1879. Subscription price—$1.50 one term, $2.50 two terms, $3.50 full year.

EDITORIAL BOARD

Editor	Dan Pinger
News Editor	Myra Brown
Associate News Editor	Jane Laverty
Feature Editor	M. D. (Bud) Reich
Sports Editor	Bruce Lee
Associate Sports Editor	Allee Chatham
Layout Editor	Sue Dunn
Copy Editor	Lou Fusaro
Photographic Editor	Dan Matthews
Radio Editor	G. DeWitt Saute
Adviser	Bill Shelton
News Reporters:	John Allmand, Susy Anderson, Sally Beauchamp, Jane Hunsicker, Donna Knox, Mary Marsh, Linda McIlvain, Pat Nathan, Dee Plamondon, Pat Schonlau, Eleanor Signaigo, Dave Smith, Dick Smith, Jean Thomas.
Sports Reporters:	Chuck Lambeth, Tim McGuire.
Typists:	Rosie Brodie, Dot Campbell, Jane Hunsicker, Edwina Martin, Takayo Tsubouchi.
Proof Readers:	Marcia Mattox, Bill Helprin, Karen Fris, Ruth Hart, Betty Peterman.
Cartoonist:	Anne Frankenburg.
Business Manager	Emory Hunter
Advertising Manager	Bruce Lee
Associate Advertising Manager	Diane Herblin
Circulation Manager	Jane Wynn
Circulation Assistants:	Adele Cooley, Marcia Mattox, Gene Marie Callaway, Jo Ann Lucas.
Exchange Editor	Marilyn McMullin