FIESTA OPENS TOMORROW

Candidate List Announced For Publication Election

The Publications Union has released the following list of candidates for the publications elections to be held along with Student Government elections on April 13.

Next year's Tomokan candidates are Sis Atlans, editor, and Ross Fleischmann and Skip Voelkel, business manager.

Sis, a junior, has worked on Tomokan since her freshman year serving as assistant editor this year. She is the new Gamma Phi president as well as a Student Council representative. Last year she was a representative of both the Florida Intercollegiate Press Association and the Florida Intercollegiate Student Government Association.

Ross, a junior transfer from St. Mary's College in Minnesota, was editor of his college newspaper and associate editor of the yearbook. He has worked on the Tomokan staff this year as well as being a member of the Social Rules Committee, Fiesta, and crew. Ross was recently pledged to Sigma Nu.

Skip, a KA pledge, is a junior transfer from the University of Florida where he worked on the college yearbook as advertising manager. This year he was on the advertising staff of the Tomokan and served as vice-president of the Future Teachers of America.

Chuck Lambeth is candidate for Sandspur editorship along with business manager candidate, Jim Robinson, and advertising commissioner candidates, Dave Bowen and Diane Herblin.

Lambeth, a junior and vice-president of Delta Chi, is sports editor of the Sandspur. He also served as president of the Florida Intercollegiate Press Association and as head of the Facilities Committee of the Self Study group.

Jim Robinson, lone candidate for Sandspur business manager, is vice-president of Sigma Nu. He is also Inter-Fraternity Council representative and on the varsity crew. In high school he was editor of the school paper and was business manager of the annual.

Diane is a Chi Omega at Rollins. She was assistant advertising commissioner for Sandspur in her freshman year. This year she has done advertising for several of the local newspapers as well as for the Fiesta program booklet. Diane is president of Community Service and the Student Music Guild, vice-president of Phi Beta, and secretary of Chapel Staff.

Dave Bowen has worked with the present Sandspur advertising commissioner, George Saute, since last December. He also handled the advertising for his high school yearbook. Dave is a junior this year and is Delta Chi's treasurer. He is also a Chapel usher.

Flamingo editor candidates are Jim Graaskamp and Mary Grace Howe. Both are staff members and have helped with layout on the Flamingo as well as contributing articles for the college literary magazine.

Jim also is a feature writer for Sandspur, a member of Chapel Staff and was one winner of the recent Reeves Essay Contest.

Mary Grace was associate editor of her high school magazine. At Rollins she is a member of the French Club.

R Book, for the third consecutive year, will be a co-editorship. Winkie Colado and Jo Cayll have been accepted as co-editor candidates for the freshman handbook publication. Both girls are freshmen and members of Pi Beta Phi. This year Winkie and Jo are co-layout editors of the Tomokan as well as members of the Sandspur staff.

All candidates have complied with qualifications as stated in the Publications Union Constitution.

CHAUNCEY GIVES FINAL REPORT ON FIESTA PLANS TO COUNCIL

by Winkie Colado

At Student Council meeting last Monday night Harry Chauncey, Chairman of the Fiesta Committee, announced that the Fiesta Dance is being publicized in Winter Park, Orlando and all through Central Florida. It has also been arranged to have the Edgewater High School band to lead the float parade which is scheduled to start from the Horseshoe at 1:30, Friday.

The Fiesta Committee also announced that it is willing to pay the $400 table reservation costs in order that students may obtain free reservations for the dance Saturday night. In reference to the decision issued about girls sharing ticket expenses, the Council would also like to go on record "as recommending everyone to buy their own ticket."

GRAVES GIVES JUNIOR RECITAL

Rollins College Conservatory of Music will present Sylvia Graves, soprano, in her Junior Recital Sunday April 4 at 8:30 p.m. at the Winter Park Women's Club.

Miss Graves will be assisted by

To the Sandspur,

Since Sue Dunn has exceeded the maximum budget allowed for her trial edition under the rules of the Publications Union, she has been disqualified as a candidate for Sandspur Editor in the elections of April 13, 1954.

It should be noted, however, that the other trial editor must stay within his budget on his trial edition and that his edition must meet the requirements of the Publications Union or he will be disqualified by the Publications Union.

Sincerely,
Marcia Mattox
Chairman, Publications Union

Phyllis Sias, pianist, Alphonse Carlo, violinist and Ronald Fishbaugh. She is the student of Prof. Ross Rosazza.

Miss Graves has included on her program Sheep Shall Safely Graze and Sighing, Weeping, both by Bach; Der Hirt Auf Dem Felsen by Schubert; Un Bel Di (Madame Butterfly) by Puccini; At The Ball by Tchaikovsky.

GALA WEEKEND CLIMAXED WITH FORMAL DANCE

A gala parade will open the annual Rollins Fiesta weekend Friday through Sunday, April 2, 3, 4. The parade will be headed by the 80 piece Edgewater High School Band and will be escorted by Winter Park's Mayor Ray Greene and the Winter Park police.

The floats, sponsored by the various social groups on campus, will enter the horseshoe at 12:45 Friday afternoon. Groups will line up according to what time they get there and the parade will start at 1:30 in front of the library. It will march through Winter Park and will go up Interlachen. From there, Student table reservations for the Fiesta Ball Saturday night at the Coliseum will be free of charge. Reservations still must be made through the Coliseum. The Fiesta Committee urges students to purchase their tickets as soon as possible either at the booth in the Center or from their group representative.

it will cut across Park Ave., go to Fairbanks and Orange, and will march down the main street of Orlando.

Besides their float, the Independent men will have a fire engine advertising the midway and dance.

Climax of the weekend will be the Fiesta Ball at the Orlando Coliseum at 9 p.m. Saturday night. The dance will feature the nationally famous Sauter-Finegan band and will be on a coast-to-coast broadcast over CBS. During intermission, the Rollins Fiesta Queen and King will be crowned.

The Fiesta carnival midway will open at 6 p.m. Friday in the Rollins Sandspur Bowl and will feature rides and booths. On Saturday, the midway will open at 1 p.m. and during the afternoon there will be a bridge tournament starting at 3 p.m. in the sorority houses. At 2:30 the Rollins faculty will present an old-fashioned melodrama at the Fred Stone Theatre. Admission is 25c.

At midnight Friday, a special showing of the film classic, "The Blue Angel" starring Marlene Dietrich and the late Emil Jannings, will be shown at the Colony Theatre. Admission is 60c.

At 11 a.m. Saturday, Rollins will row against Rutgers in a race on Lake Maitland.

A tennis match between Rollins and the Orlando Tennis Club for the Rollins Fiesta Trophy will wind up the Fiesta weekend at 2:30 Sunday.

The Fiesta is presented each year by the students of Rollins to raise money for scholarships.

WPRK To Broadcast Rollins-Florida Game

WPRK will broadcast the Rollins-University of Florida game from Gainesville at 3:30 p.m. Friday afternoon. The broadcast will be heard over a public address system in the Student Center and on all FM radio sets.

The Saturday game with Florida will be broadcast from Harper-Shepherd Field at 2:30 p.m. and will be heard on the Fiesta Midway.

Jim Cook, Steve Demopolous and Elmer Puddington will do the play-by-play for these games.

TWO SENIORS ARE SELECTED FOR OSLO TRIP

President Hugh McKean announced this week that John Phillips and Dan Haight are the two Rollins Students chosen by the Honors Committee to receive scholarships for study at the University of Oslo this summer.

The scholarships presented by J. Corrin Strong, Ambassador to Norway and former trustee of Rollins, were to be awarded to two outstanding male students. The scholarships will cover expenses at the University and a round trip boat fare.

Both John and Dan are seniors at Rollins this year. Phillips, a music major, from Brownsville, Tennessee, has given numerous piano recitals throughout Florida and before vacation, presented his senior recital in the Annie Russell Theatre.

He is a member of ODK, the Key Society, Student Music Guild, and president of Chapel Staff.

Dan, a senior from Stone Mountain, Georgia, is a history and French major. He was one of the six winners of the Reeves Essay Contest and is president of the French Club. Last summer he won a scholarship for study at Laval University in Quebec, Canada, awarded by the French Government.

The boys will sail on the Norwegian liner "Stavangerfjord" from New York, June 23.

George Waddell Is Elected As Alumni Trustee Of College

Election of George W. Waddell as Alumni Trustee of Rollins College was announced by the Board of Trustees.

Waddell, who was graduated from Rollins in 1938, is General Manager and Treasurer of the Waddell Company, Greenfield, Ohio, manufacturer of showcases.

Waddell has been active in alumni affairs of the College since graduation. He is a past president and former district governor of Rotary and past district commissioner of Boy Scouts of America.

EDITORIALS

A festive air is stalking the "grind" as the campus prepares for one of the gayest times of the year. And although "fun" is the password during the coming weekend, there is still a serious aspect concealed by the booths on the midway and the colorful floats in the parade, in the laughter as someone gets dunked in a tankful of water and in the lively events of the Fiesta dance.

The events of the weekend are planned by the students for the students. It is here that the students help themselves by raising money for scholarships which are direly needed. Fiestas of the past have provided an education for untold numbers of Rollinsites and, with student cooperation, they will do so in the future.

The foundations for this year's Fiesta have been brilliantly planned. All that remains for the student body to do is the construction of their floats and booths, and the rest is just a wonderful holiday.

Come out and join the fun.

FINANCIAL REPORT

With the coming of elections and a new editorial staff for next year, the Sandspur takes great pleasure in announcing the final financial report of the present administration.

The following is a report covering the issues from the first one in September, 1953 up to, and including, the last issue of the Winter Term, 1954.

Expenses:

Printing	$ 2,923.20
Engraving	$ 667.75
Photography	$ 57.69
Salaries	$ 679.98
Commissions	$ 275.00
Misc.	$ 334.10
Rollins View	$ 765.50

total expenses $ 5,703.22

Income:

Student Council Appropriation	$ 5,000.00
Subscriptions	$ 108.50
Advertising	$ 2,398.98
Views	$ 120.00

total income $ 7,627.48

total expenses $ 5,703.22

Balance on Hand $ 1,924.26

With the Sandspur publishing an issue each week until the end of school, it is safe to assume that the budget will contain between $500.00 to $1,000.00 to be returned to the Student Council at the end of the year.

Much of the credit for the surplus belongs to the members of the staff who have worked long and hard to keep the expenses to a minimum and especially to last year's editor, Dan Finger, who established the paper's sound economic policy and turned the Sandspur into a weekly publication.

In one of Harsanyi's novels one of the characters says, "I don't know a single foreigner visiting Venice and not climbing the Campanile, but there is scarcely a Venetian who ever has." That is so true, for I know that I was at Rollins five years before I visited the Shell Museum. There are so many things here at Rollins that most of us are passing up. We who stay on still have some chance but you students will be leaving here sooner than you realize. The plays, the games, the courses, the books, the concerts - even the professors! The chances are that most of you will never again be exposed to so much and with the opportunity of taking most of it in.

Fiesta Time

World News In Brief

Although the "No Trespassing" sign is out on the Americas warning the Communists that they'd better steer clear, the catch from now on will be the enforcing of the meaning of the sign.

It will not be an easy task. Communists can still operate and they are digging deeper into Guatemala and the British Honduras, hiding under Latin America's deep-rooted fears of intervention by Uncle Sam.

The machinery, as it was set up at the Caracas Conference, requires majority agreement which means that the U. S. must convince its neighbors that a country really has been taken over. This means that the country must sport a government not of the Tito type, but of men taking their orders directly from Moscow.

The next step will be to decide what to do about it. Here also, a majority must agree and it is only then that the Communists can be forced out by cutting off of trade or by troops. It is easy to see that Moscow will play upon Latin America's inherent suspicion of the U.S. and, until this is destroyed, Communism will increase its field in the Latin Americas.

INDUSTRY GIVES SCHOLARSHIPS

Providence, R.I. — (I.P.) — Brown University recently announced that gifts of twenty-seven "Corporation Scholarships" have been received from business and industrial firms during the latter part of 1953. These scholarships are the result of a new plan initiated by the University through which corporations are given the opportunity of donating the full costs of educating one student for one year.

Under the Brown plan each corporation scholarship includes the annual tuition cost of $790 for one student plus an additional sum of $460 to cover the University's overhead on his education. Scholarships given in this manner will bear the name of the donor company and will be assigned to an outstanding young man who needs financial aid. The largest contribution has come from the International Business Machines Corporation with eight scholarships.

The project was begun in the spring of 1953 when a committee representing the Brown University Fund Trustees met to consider ways of securing support from industry. Based upon the production by Brown of trained leadership essential to the future of business, the decision was "that industry might wish to identify its support of higher education with young men of promise through a Corporation Scholarship program."

The scholarship plan was launched on Nov. 12, when 20 prominent Brown alumni presented the plan to about 50 corporations, 18 of which to date have given the 27 scholarships. Brown alumni who have approached the various companies have stressed that neither the company nor the student selected will be under any obligation to each other with reference to future employment. It is anticipated, however, that considerable mutual interest will develop between the student and the company under the program.

It is hoped that the corporations giving scholarships will renew them each year, although they are under no obligation to do so. If the scholarship is not renewed, Brown will do its best to enable the student to remain in college.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:

On behalf of the Chapel Choir, I would like to publicly thank the four ushers—Chris Davis, Tom LeClere, Bill Karlake, and Ronnie Butler—who gave up their Sunday afternoon to assist us with our annual Choral Vesper Service.

Sincerely,

Esther Windom, President

by Louis Ingram

Now that we have all returned from Ft. Lauderdale with bruised elbows, I take the pen in my shaky but emancipated hand once more. For many of us this term will be the last time around the course. At this time the serious seniors are more mindful than ever that a college's standards are only as good as the poorest students that it is willing to graduate, and as the last ten weeks go quickly by we will realize just how much leaving Rollins and old friendships will mean.

Tomorrow is Fiesta Time. It has been some surprise to your columnist to see the lehighy on the part of the students toward this old college project. This is the school that is supposed to have so much spirit! Where is it? Just ask yourselves—what have I done to make this most ambitious of all Fiestas a success? Rollins spirit is unlike the weather. There is always weather.

If this year's Fiesta is a success, it will be due in a large part to the efforts of Harry Chauncey who has extended himself far beyond any reasonable expectations. He has had the able assistance of a very small part of the campus.

Through the Fiesta, Rollins students have a chance to demonstrate to the public what is the real stuff of Rollins. The first impression is most important. . . . That means that the parade must be a big hit. The Floats must be better than ever, and show a real professional touch. This can be a great Fiesta. Let's revive that old Rollins Spirit.

WPRK will be back on the air beginning Friday, April 2, when Sports Director Steve Demopolous and Jim Cook go to Gainesville to make a play-by-play broadcast of the Gators-Tars baseball game. This will be the second annual excursion to Gainesville for the pair of sportscasters.

Last week ninety people turned out for the first class in Ballroom dancing. Some were really on their toes and showed about as much need for the course as would Fred Astaire, some were on their heels, and others were . . . Already several chiropodists have told the college that the new course is good for business. Interest in Ballroom dancing is expected to rival varsity ball, and scholarships are in the not too distant future. . . . So if you've always dreamed of dancing with the girl of your dreams at half past eight in the morning, this is the class for you. It's not bad if you don't dance either. Some fellow named Art Murray is thinking of enrolling.

STETSON OPENS LAW SCHOOL IN LUXURY HOTEL

Students at Rollins College interested in a career as a Christian lawyer are invited to compete for ten National Scholarships valued at $1,500.00 over a period of three years at the Stetson University College of Law.

These scholarships, financed by the Highbough Foundation of Louisville, Ky., may be used beginning in September when Florida's oldest college of law opens on its new million dollar campus in St. Petersburg.

In buildings constructed as a luxury hotel, Stetson is planning "One of America's Most Interesting Law Schools," one patterned after the famous "inn" system of England where students and faculty live and study together.

The law school has, in addition to offices, classrooms and library, 100 bedrooms with private or connecting baths built around a great patio in which there are three fountains. A swimming pool and tennis courts are on the grounds as well as an 18-hole golf course adjacent to the campus and the famous gulf beaches a mile distance.

Thus combined for the first time are a fully accredited college of law unique in American legal education circles, recreational facilities and attractions.

VA ADVISES VETERANS ON BUYING HOMES

Veterans buying homes under the GI loan program should check this bit of advice from H. F. Dickensheets, Manager of VA Regional Office Pass-a-Grille, Fla.

1. Make sure your home is near enough to transportation, schools and shopping to suit the needs of you and your family.

2. Be sure your income is large enough to pay all the costs of home ownership, including loan principle and interest, taxes and insurance, utilities and maintenance, and anything you are buying on installments.

3. Make certain your interests in such matters as deposits, purchase agreements, and sales contracts are fully protected before you make a deposit or sign any document.

4. Be sure you understand the important legal documents you have to sign when you make "final settlement" or "close the loan."

5. And remember, a GI loan must be repaid! GI loans offer you many advantages, but like any other debt, they must be paid back on schedule.

Mr. Dickensheets added that veterans may obtain a copy of "To The Home-Buying Veteran" by writing or visiting the Veterans Administration Office in Jacksonville, Florida.

Rollins Singers Give Final Series Recital Wednesday Evening

Rollins College Conservatory of Music will present the Rollins Singers in the fifth and final Faculty Recital Series at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday (April 7) at Annie Russell Theatre.

The Rollins Singers, composed of students, will be conducted by Robert Hufstader, director of the Rollins Conservatory. Assisting will be the following: John Carter and Walter Charnbury, pianists; Alphonse Carlo and Dorothy Allen, violinists; Geraldine Gee, viola; and Rudolph Fischer, cello.

Black Magic and Witches Cast Spell In Latest Play

by Kathy Siegler

The Annie Russell Theater's contribution to Fiesta Week is John Van Druten's highly sophisticated comedy, "Bell, Book, and Candle."

The plot is concerned with one Gillian Holroyd, a charming and attractive 20th century witch, who has particular interest in her handsome second floor tenant. She wants to win him fair and square as a human woman might, but lack of time and sufficient opportunity force her to resort to the tricks of her trade. So, with the help of her "familiar"—a fat feline named Pyewacket—she casts a spell over that unsuspecting gentleman. The results of this strategy are far reaching, and complications ensue when young Shepherd Henderson, who has fallen in love with Gillian and broken his engagement to her college enemy, subsequently learns that his beloved is a member of the world of black magic.

Cynthia Wellenkamp is attractive and agreeable as the young sorceress. Her interpretation adequately conveys sophisticated and cosmopolitan charm, dissatisfaction with the life of a witch, and the predatory instincts of every woman, whether human or otherwise. Miss Wellenkamp's voice projected well into the theater, and it is this writer's belief that further experience behind the footlights will improve the occasional roughness in modulation and enunciation which marred her lines.

Leland Kimball, as always, was dependable and pleasing in his role of the bewitched, bothered, and bewildered Shepherd Henderson.

Kathy Voekroth and Ken Meiser added a touch of bizarre humor as Gillian's aunt and brother, both of whom have considerable talent and experience in the black arts. Miss Voekroth was, at times, rather reminiscent of Elsa Lanchester in similar roles.

Carleton Clark was diverting as a much confused writer of books on witchcraft who popped spasmodically in and out of the play.

Squanch Pays Parking Fine At Council Meeting

by Ima Gonna Faille

Student Council Reporter
Prediction—Council will go like this tonight.

The meeting was called to order promptly at 8:15. During the roll call several representatives came in late so the roll call was made again. Absentees, when the final roll was called at 9:00, were the Upsa Downsas and the representatives from the Thank God It's Friday Club.

President Pal Rodent called first for the old business of the meeting. First was the parking problem of Joe Squanch who parked his car in a faculty place at 2:00 a.m. and accumulated a ticket while smuggling his date into one of the dormitories. Squanch appealed the ticket and the matter was turned over to the Student Deans who, in turn, recommended that Squanch be forced to pay the fine unless he divulged the name of the girl smuggled in. Squanch paid the fine.

The Student Faculty Committee on Subversive Activities in the College recommended that all students with red blood (athletes excluded) be expelled from the college as security risks. They recommended further that the Committee on Admission ask each potential student to send a blood specimen along with his picture in order that a more thorough screening of candidates be made. These recommendations were passed.

The Fiesta Committee reported that it is still looking for a hall with a large enough bar to keep both dancers and orchestra supplied with alcoholic beverages.

The Sorority No Rata Data suggested a rule whereby it would be mandatory for a boy to take out a different girl each date. The motion was referred to the Social Committee.

The Dependent Men made a motion that the Fiesta Dance be held in the Beanery where the serving tables would provide ample bar space. Referred to the Beanery Committee by way of the Fiesta Committee.

Vancey Clauncy, Chairman of the Fiesta Committee, claimed that the Dependent Men's motion (referred to above) was none of the Beanery Committee's business and requested that the motion be stopped at the Fiesta Committee on its way to the Beanery Committee. President Rodent appointed a Committee on Committees to study the matter.

The Z Club made a motion that the appropriate wines be served with fish and meat in the Beanery. Dean Nights opened the R Book to page 901 and read Section B, Paragraph C, pertaining to the serving of alcoholic beverages on campus. At the conclusion, Dean Nights asked Dean Knowlawh if she was right in her assumption that Section B, Paragraph C, on page 901 of the R Book proved the Z Club's motion unlawful. After searching his pockets, Dean Knowlawh found his R Book and opened it to page 901. After reading Section B, Paragraph C aloud, he stated, "I think Section B, Paragraph C proves the Z Club's motion unlawful." President Rodent then stated, "I don't think the Z Club's motion is a very good idea because of Section B, Paragraph C, on page 901 of the R Book. Council voted the Z Club's motion down."

The Para Noids made a motion that Cod Rollins be forced to wear a wig to all classes because his present haircut represents indecent exposure. This matter was referred to the Committee on Fish and Barber Poles.

The Hi Fis moved that the sprinkler system be removed from the lawn in front of the library and deposited in the center of Lake Virginia where there would be no chance of students tripping over the sprinkler heads in the middle of the night. This motion was referred to the Student-Faculty Committee on Stumbling Students.

Sot Lingram, author of the Sandscript Column "Circumventing Campus," read a list of faculty members who do not teach by the Conference Plan. "These peasants," shouted Mr. Lingram, "do not know the difference between elephants and conference plans. I believe it necessary that they be reminded of what elephants look like." This motion was referred to the Student-Faculty Committee on Conference Plans and Elephants.

There was no further business and Council adjourned at 9:05.

Cats And Goats To Plague Directors In Coming Annie Russell Drama Production

by Skip Carpenter

Although many faux pas have taken place in the numerous theatres throughout the country, I don't think that the animal element has fouled these theatres as much as it has fouled our theatre and our directors.

To begin with, you recall "Years Ago" and that "damned cat". Well, the cat was notorious. When Joan Jennings handed it backstage it usually bit or scratched the prop girls or anyone in its reach.

In the play that is going on while this paper goes to press, there has been much difficulty. Spooky, property of Dr. Helene Moore, plays the part of Piewacket, a bewitching cat with all sorts of magical powers. After the dress rehearsal Friday evening, Pat Mc-Camey went to take her home but apparently home was not Spooky's idea. The estranged cat broke loose. She was found two hours later at the stage door.

When Mr. Bailey directed "Years Ago" in a summer stock theatre, the cat in the play leaped out of the star's arms into the lap of a startled audience, leaving a trail of widespread confusion.

With "Mr. Roberts" due in a few weeks, another "beastly" problem had to be faced. What to do about the goat? The last time Mr. Bailey did the show, the goat wandered off and from all reports missed the next show. If it's only to see the animal element, both "Bell, Book and Candle" and "Mr. Roberts" are two shows not to be missed.

LOHR LEA

Spring vacation ended all too soon, with students and faculty returning reluctantly from places as far away as Chicago, New York, Nassau, and Havana. Five days of classes dragged by, and the Theta-Sigma Nu dance on Saturday was a welcome break during the weekend. Decorating for the evening became quite a production, as Jo Davis, Janie Frankenberg, and Stretch Bartel begged, borrowed, or stole pennants from local gas stations. Jo even volunteered to climb a telephone pole for the cause. Freddy Castro's orchestra provided dance music for the evening, and unknowingly made the students look about "so high". The orchestra played the Rollins alma mater while the students sang, the record of this to be sent to the band leader's alum-nephew in Korea. Unfortunately it demonstrated only too well how few students know their college song.

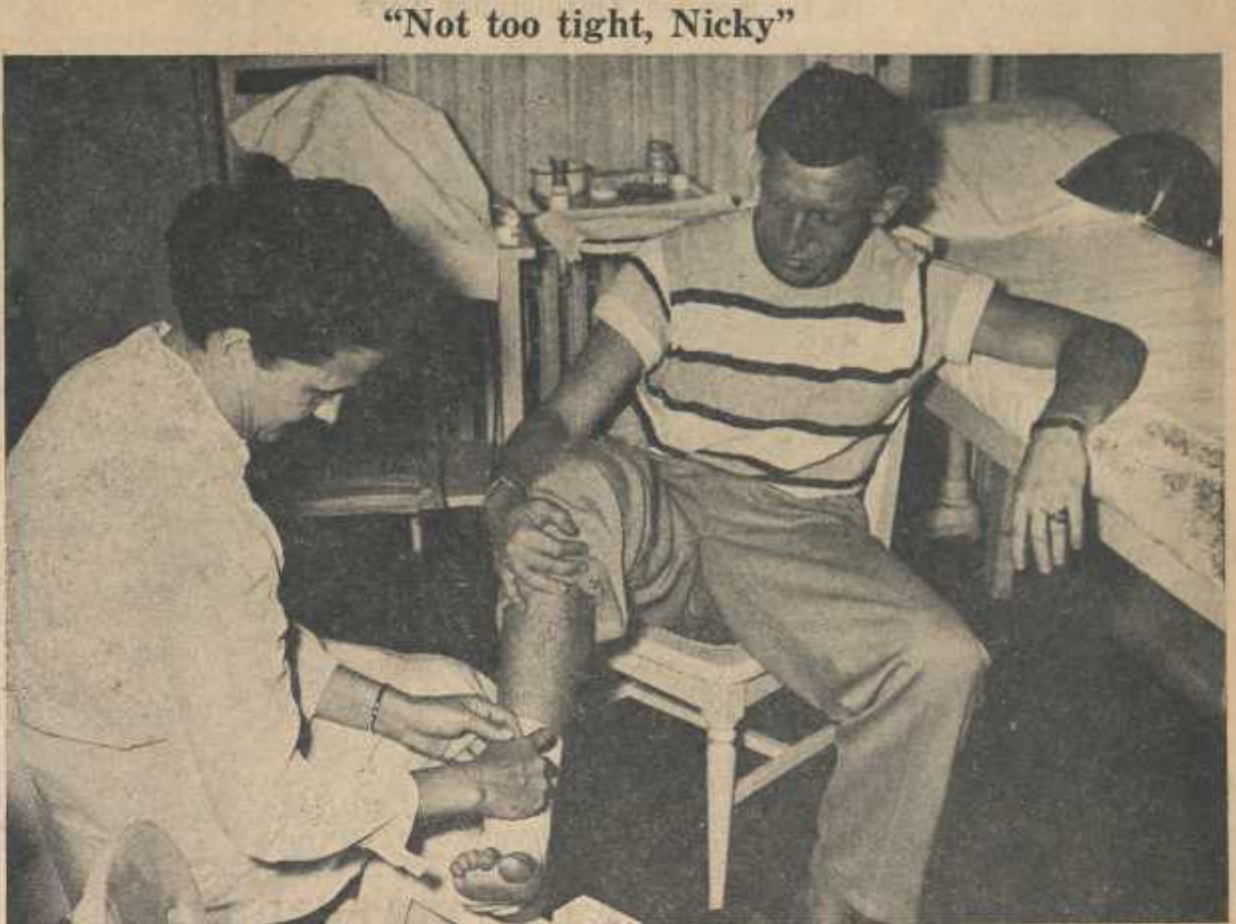

Spring term brought with it six new Rollins students. New faces around campus belong to Ward Watrous, Hugh Foreman, Ronald Soder, and Harvey Weisberg. And two Rollins students just couldn't stay away: Mrs. Sammie Francisco returned, and Mary Lou Voor transferred back after a term at Michigan State.

Congratulations to this week's newly elected officers: for the Sigma Nu's President Gene Bryant, Vice President Chuck Weisman, Secretary Bud Bilensky, and Treasurer Norm Gross. For the Delta Chi's President Frank Ledgerwood, Vice President Chuck Lambeth, Secretary Bob Finney, Corresponding Secretary Dick Haldeman, and Treasurer Dave Bowen. And for the Independent Women: President Shirley Miller, Vice President Camma Ward, Secretary Kay Klein, Corresponding Secretary Marge Allman, and Treasurer Shirley Leech.

Sleepy-eyed social conscious students have been dragging their weary feet to Rec Hall at 8:30 every Wednesday morning. Reason: social dance. Many repeatable comments have been overheard during these sessions. After Sara Jane Dorsey's repeated statement "We hear you're a LOUSY dancer, everyone says so!", enrollment soared to a class record — 90 students! Explaining the fundamentals during the first session, Mrs. Zeigler explained the proper position for the dance: "Just put your hand behind the bread basket and go into fluid drive!" Everyone seemed to understand this, but when learning another step, one confused student was heard to ask "Do we use the same hold for this one?" Look out, Arthur Murray, here we come!

Northwestern having a longer vacation than Rollins enjoys, Kappa Donna Knox found time to return to see the old gang. Everyone had a grand reunion.

Engaged: Bev Sullivan and G. D. Cassell, Sanford NAAS; Pat Wright and Ralph Chambers, Sanford NAAS.

Rheumatism, Scurvy, Aches, and Bruises Will Find Their Way To Rollins Infirmary

Do you have ricketts, scurvy, pelagra, chicken pox, yellow fever, or any other ailment? If so, the Rollins Infirmary may be just the right place for you.

This favored spot is familiar to most Rollins students as the place where they can pick up their excuses for classes missed the day before. It is found after a 20-minute hike down Chase Avenue.

The Infirmary is a service rendered voluntarily by the College, not only for the care of the sick, but also for the protection of the well. All kinds of cases are treated here, from broken arms to stubbed toes.

The Infirmary is staffed by a crew of four. The college physician is Dr. Walter Johnston, a Winter Park doctor who is at the Infirmary from 5 to 8 every day except Saturday and Sunday. Others on the staff include 2 nurses and a cook. One of the nurses is on duty at all times except during vacation periods, when the Infirmary is closed.

Only patients with minor illnesses are treated here. Cases of a more serious nature are treated at a local hospital. There are facilities for nine patients, with each bed in a separate ward. Students are allowed to stay for three days. After this time, the student is either transferred to a hospital or is charged for extra confinement period.

There is no charge for the first three days and also no charge for items such as gauze and bandages, which are kept in stock at all times. The Rollins Infirmary is reported ed to have had quite an amazing and interesting history. The building used to be the home of Dr. Hamilton Holt, former Rollins president. Dr. Johnston was the man who brought Nancy Lee Wilson, Rollins freshman, into the world. Many strange cases have been treated at this institution, including Ann McDermaid's mononucleosis and John DeCarville's famous case of measles.

You can see that the Infirmary is a very busy place. Nurses are forever welcoming students with injuries, appendicitis, hang-overs, and head colds. Getting out their trusty red and green bottles, the students are treated and fixed up in no time. Many is the patient who has come back from the Infirmary with praise for the wonderful attention and good food there.

So if you feel run-down or happen to break your back, take a quick jaunt down to the Infirmary—it's the place for you.

COURSE RECORD TO DOWN TARS

by Jim Locke

Temporarily diverting the scene of action from the baseball diamond, the Rollins Tars had the opening of their home crew season marred by a favored Boston University shell which came from behind to nip the Tars by $\frac{1}{2}$ a length, setting a new course record of 5:34.5.

However, the Tars were not to be outdone by the Terriers from New England who demolished the former time of 5:40.8. In suffering their third loss in as many races, Rollins also cracked the existing record for the five and three sixteenths mile course by crossing the finish line in 5:38.

With never more than half a length lead, Rollins understroked Boston's 36 strokes per minute, holding onto the precarious lead with a strong 33 count until the last 600 yards of the race. It was then that Boston started to make her record breaking bid.

As a result of the win Boston avenged a defeat two years earlier to even the series at three apiece. The Rollins JV found themselves

STEWART, BOGGESS LEAD TARS
TO INITIAL WIN OVER FLA. STATE

Marlene Stewart made an auspicious debut as a member of the Tar golf team as she sank the final putt to put the Tars out in front of the Florida State golfers, 14-13, Saturday, March 27.

This was the Tars' first win of the season after a loss to Georgia on March 23. In this defeat, by a $16\frac{1}{2}$ -10 $\frac{1}{2}$ count, Bill Boggess led the Tars with a 65.

The next golf match is slated for Saturday afternoon when Rollins takes on the University of Florida squad at the Dubsread links.

Coach Dan Nyimicz leads a Tar link squad which includes 3-holdovers from the 1953 team; Bill Boggess, Denny Folken and Bruce Remsberg. These men have been bolstered by the addition of Marlene Stewart and new men; Ed Dinga and Stew Ledbetter; to the 1954 aggregation.

Rollins Netters Open
With Victories Over
Presbyter'n, Fla. State

The Rollins tennis squad opened its 1954 season with two wins over the spring vacation.

In the first match the Tars downed Presbyterian College, 6-3. In the number one singles match, Alfredo Millet downed Allan Morris of Presbyterian in straight sets.

Then, on March 19, the Tars downed Florida State 8-1.

Millet's victory over Allan Morris was rated an upset due to Morris' rating as the number 26 amateur in the nation and number 6 in the South.

On March 22 some of the Tar team members headed for Miami to compete in the top-flight Good Neighbor Tournament. Alfredo Millet went to the third round in this tourney.

The Scoreboard

By CHUCK LAMBETH

The first annual Baseball Week has gone down in the record books. It was an experiment, and the results were remarkably good.

Coach Joe Justice stated the aims of the tournament as an attempted revival of the waning interest in college baseball. "At a time when college baseball is fighting not only for prestige, but for survival, this innovation should be a solid step ahead. If it is successful, we hope to make it an annual event."

If you were one of those lucky ones with no afternoon classes, you were able to see the interest expressed in these fifteen games by both students and the community. If you happened to see sun-tanned, shrewd-eyed men sitting in the stands jotting down unfamiliar symbols in black notebooks, you would realize that big league teams thought enough of the Baseball Week to assign top-notch scouts to every game. And, if you happened to talk to some of the visiting ball-players you would know that they took home both memories of a good week of baseball and the first-hand knowledge which might help to repudiate the prevalent idea of Rollins as "that play-school down in Florida."

This column predicts that the Baseball Week will become an annual event, and that not only the five teams who were here last week but many other colleges will have their athletic directors falling over their typewriters trying to receive an invitation to the 1955 spring tournament.

Top of the list of sports events for this coming Fiesta Weekend will be the renewal of the Rollins-U. of Florida baseball rivalry.

The Tars will travel to Gainesville tomorrow for the opener of the home-and-home series. Saturday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. the two clubs will tangle in the second game at Harper-Shepard Field.

Thru the efforts of the WPRK staff and an appropriation by the Student Council, the series will be broadcast over the recently reopened facilities of WPRK.

There has been much discussion on both sides as to whether the college was justified in scheduling athletic events during the Fiesta Weekend. The fact remains that the scheduling has been done.

Rather than continue the almost useless argument as to whether the Athletic Office or the Fiesta Committee was on the College Calendar first, let's see if these two now competitive events can be used to aid each other.

The Rollins-Florida game will probably attract one of the biggest crowds of the season; and it won't be all students by any means. The Fiesta Midway will also attract a large crowd, but this group of Fiesta supporters has been limited primarily to members of the Rollins Family in past years.

Why not a break in Midway activities in the early afternoon with everyone invited to the ballgame. This will allow the Midway to operate later into Friday evening without any great strain on those operating the booths.

Also the Fiesta could receive the gate proceeds from the Rollins-Florida game in return for the publicity which Fiesta advertising would afford.

The biggest term of sports is about to get under way. The horse show will start off the last team sprint for the intramural championship. This is the time when anything can happen. A group that makes a good showing can take away the big one.

The intramural standing at the end of the winter term (after basketball, tennis, and softball) are as follows:

Theta	537½
Indies	362½
Alpha Phi	340
Pi Phi	335
Phi Mu	320
Gamma Phi	310
Kappa	305
Chi O	265

ALPHA PHI WINS SOFTBALL CROWN

The Alpha Phis cinched the Intramural Softball trophy this year by beating Kappa Alpha Theta in the final game of the year.

A loss for the Alpha Phis would have meant a play-off with Theta for first place honors. The Alpha Phis' record for the year was 7-0.

The Alpha Phis took a lead in the beginning of the softball season and held on to it, coming from behind to beat the Pi Phis 5-3 in the sixth and crucial game of the season.

Along with taking the trophy, the Alpha Phis placed three of their players on the Varsity Softball Squad. They are catcher, Barbara MacHold; shortstop, Nat Rice; and their outstanding pitcher, Bobbie Feidt.

In the play-off for second place, the Thetas beat Kappa 9-1.

The Pi Phis will be out to defend their Horseshow trophy. Their chances are better than ever with such riders as Barbi Berno, Gloria Steudel, Sue Cameron, and Sandy Taylor riding.

The Horseshow will be held on April 11 at the Dubsread stables. All girl participants are urged to have their three required practice rides.

The volleyball games will begin April 12 at 4:15. With both courts in use, there will be four games played a day.

On opening day the following teams will see action:

Theta vs. Gamma Phi
Kappa vs. Phi Mu
Indies vs. Chi O.
Pi Phi vs. Alpha Phi

The intramural board and the girls "R" Club have announced the following 1954 Varsity Softball team:

Sis Atlass
Gail Donaldson
Betty Brook
Jeanne Rogers
Nancy Corse
Marie Perkins
Marlene Stewart
Joan Mack
Barbi Berno
Nat Rice
Sandy Taylor
Barbara MacHold
Bobbie Feidt
Sheila Howard

Tars Play Host To Five Clubs In 1st Annual Spring Baseball Week

The Rollins nine played host, last week, to the five collegiate ball-clubs competing in the first annual Baseball Week. Playing in a total of nine games over a six day span, the Tars ended with a top percentage record of six wins and three losses.

Art Brophy led the way as he hurled the Tars to twin victories over Ohio State. These two wins squeezed the Tars ahead of the Buckeyes in the final standings as Ohio State ended with a 5-3 record.

Portsider Bill Cary was the winner in the opening game as the Tars downed the North Carolina Tarheels 1-0. Cary, in hurling this shutout, pitched the first nine innings of his goose-egg string. Bill went onto the mound against Ohio State, with three days rest, but went down to defeat in his second outing as the Buckeyes pushed across two unearned runs to win 2-1. The final standings in the Baseball Week were:

TEAM	WINS	LOSSES
Rollins	6	3
Ohio State	5	3
N. Carolina	2	2
Amherst	1	2
Clemson	1	2
Georgia Tech	0	3

In the Nightcap of the opening-day doubleheader the Tars were blanked 3-0 as North Carolina's Joe Morgan offered up a four-hitter.

On Wednesday and Thursday of last week the Tars pushed over two more victories, both coming against Georgia Tech by identical scores of 6-5.

The next day Bob Leader went to the hill for the Tars and scattered nine bingles for a 3-0 shutout victory over Clemson. "Fireball" Bob was in constant hot water throughout the game, but came through in the clutch to silence the Clemson big guns.

Shortstop Nick Vancho and left-fielder Connie Mack Butler led the Tar hitters with Vancho coming through with a game-winning double in the ninth stanza of the opener to pull the game out of the fire.

Don Finnigan, behind the plate, was the only receiver to catch every game for his team during the tourney.

Georgia Tech was the hard luck team of the tournament as they lost all three games, each by only one marker.

Second-sacker Fred Talbot slides into third during Baseball Week.

Indie Women, Theta Tie For Tennis Trophy; Corse-Agan and Bralower Take Victories

by Alison Dessau

The Independent Women and Theta tied for the 1954 Intramural Tennis Championship. Both groups had players in the finals of the singles and doubles.

Susan Bralower for the Indies won the singles title beating Nancy Corse 6-4, 6-4. In the final of the doubles Corse and Arlene Agan overcame Bralower and Darlene Dicks, 6-2, 6-2.

Both teams will be awarded the 122½ points they won and there is the possibility of either a play off between the two groups or else both names will be put on the cup.

In the final standings, Pi Phi came out with 65 points, Kappa 60, Phi Mu and Alpha Phi 50, Chi O 45, and Gamma Phi 40 points.
