A TIMELY FLORIDA BIBLIOGRAPHY

Since the last issue of the Quarterly there has been published "Recommended Readings for the Florida Centennial, by A. J. Hanna. A standard guide to the best books on Florida with helpful explanations and critical evaluations. [Imprint:] Union Catalog of Floridiana, Winter Park, Florida."

Telling of its "Purpose," Dr. Hanna writes : "Selected and arranged primarily for the student and general reader, Recommended Readings for the Florida Centennial is designed not only to suggest the best that has been written on Florida, and thus serve as a reference work of permanent value; its purpose is, also, to create keener appreciation of the century of statehood and to stimulate broader interest in Florida's background of more than four centuries."

The author lists eight volumes as indispensable Florida, Land of Change, by Kathryn T. Abbey; William Bartram's Travels. . . .; Diplomacy and the Borderlands by P. C. Brooks; Florida, A Guide to the Southernmost State, edited by Carita Doggett Corse ; British West Florida, by Cecil Johnson ; Building of Castillo de San Marcos, by Albert C. Manucy; Florida During Territorial Days, by S. W. Martin, and East Florida as a British Province 1763-1784, by Charles H. Mowat. Each of these is described in one or two paragraphs, suggesting why they are indispensable. Nearly one hundred fifty others are listed and classified by subjects: biography, children's books, conservation, description, education, exploration, fiction, industries, Inter-American relations, nature, regional and local, settlement, sports, war and reconstruction, maps, newspapers, periodicals, state and Federal publications. These have a descriptive line or a paragraph each.

The whole covers sixty-three pages. Copies may be obtained from the Union Catalog of Floridiana, Rollins College, Winter Park. Paper copies are fifty cents, cloth-bound are one dollar. Proceeds from the sale will be devoted to the development of the Union Catalog of Floridiana.
