Star Goalie Helped from Field

Sophomore goalie Lane Taylor is helped from the field by teammates Doug Kerr and Bob Schabes after two ribs in Saturday's 3-1 victory over St. Leo's College. Taylor will miss at least three weeks, thus hampering Rollins' chances for the FIC crown. (See more soccer information on Page 5).

Mitchell to Talk Thursday at 7:30

Sir Harold Mitchell, visiting research professor, will speak Thursday and Monday to conclude a four-part lecture series on "Latin America Today and Tomorrow." Part III, at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Bingham Hall, is titled "The Puzzle of Industrialization." Sir Harold will deliver Part IV Monday noon at Annie Russell Theatre. Title is "Population--Governor of Progress?"

Sir Harold Mitchell was a member of the House of Commons for several years and served as vice-chairman of the Conservative Party. He has extensive business and industrial interests in many areas of the world, especially in Latin America. He is a former member of the Stanford University faculty and author of several works on Latin America.

Music Man Seats Available Monday

Student tickets will be available in the Beanery beginning Monday, Nov. 1, during lunch and dinner. Student night for "The Music Man" is the following Monday, Nov. 8.

Students must present their 1965 identification cards to receive a ticket. Each person must come individually to get a ticket, because no ticket will be given to one student for another. Free tickets are offered only to full-time Rollins students.

House Rules Change Asked; Kingston Trio Visit Approved

Juillard Four Highlight 65-66 Concert Series

Students, faculty and staff have an opportunity to hear outstanding performers on the 1965-66 Rollins Concert Series that features guest artists and members of the Conservatory of Music faculty.

Prof. Robert Hufstader, director of the conservatory, has reminded the college family that students are invited to the nine concerts without admission charge. Faculty and staff pay $10 for two tickets to the entire series.

Headliner for this season's lineup is the Juillard String Quartet on Friday, Dec. 10. Critics and musicologists rank the Juillard as probably the world's finest exponent of chamber music.

Violinist Alphonse Carlo and pianist Katherine Carlo will open the series with a sonata recital Sunday, Nov. 7, in Winter Park High School Auditorium.

Baritone Ross Rosazza and pianist John Carter will give their traditional recital Sunday, Nov. 21 with an "Evening of German Lieder," in Annie Russell Theatre.

Following the holidays, the concert program will be as follows: Jan. 7, pianist Thomas Brockman; Jan. 30, Prof. Hufstader and Mrs. Hufstader presenting William Walton's "Facade"; Feb. 8, New York Pro Musica Antiqua; Feb. 25, organist Catharine Crozier and Florida Symphony Orchestra; March 13, Mieczyslaw Horszowski; April 3, pianist Phyllis Rappeport.

Hospitalized Students

Students in the Winter Park Memorial Hospital are Lais G. Freidholz, Charles B. Hawley, and Stephanie D. Brewster.

LOST: Short London Fog raincoat in Union basement. Contact Greg Albertson, campus mail.

The student Legislature Monday voted to sponsor a concert featuring the Kingston Trio, and tabling the proposed $3,500 allocation was by-passed.

Slated for Nov. 10 at the Winter Park High School Auditorium, the concert will be open only to Rollins students. Admission is $1.

Pi Rho Sigma Becomes Sig Ep

Pi Rho Sigma has received confirmation that its petition to colonize with the Sigma Phi Epsilon National Fraternity has been accepted. The formal installation ceremonies will take place Friday evening with Dean William Cross, District Governor for Sig Ep from Gainesville, officiating.

The local fraternity was organized last year and submitted its petition to Sigma Phi Epsilon during the spring term.

Phis Tap Vestal

Dr. Paul A. Vestal, biology department chairman, recently was made "Ivy Man" of Beta Lambda Chapter (Rollins) of Alpha Phi. The ceremony, attended by Mrs. Vestal, Cloverleaf Housemother Florence Linck, and the Alpha Phis, was highlighted by a pledge to "Nourish the Alpha Phi ivy leaf with its essential elements--sun and water."

Rollins Adds Doctor

Students now have another physician, Dr. Shatten Blalock, to attend them at the Dispensary. Dr. Blalock will be available Monday through Friday, from 2:45 p.m. until 3:40 p.m. Dr. Hayes is available Monday through Friday between 7:45 a.m. and 8:30 a.m.

Notice

Because Nov. 3 is Mid-term, the Sandspur will not be published next week. Publication will resume with the Nov. 11 issue.

Speakers Bureau and Union Educational Entertainment committee, will be: "Resolved: that Fiesta Should be Changed to Greek Week." Kappa and Lambda Chi will hold the affirmative position, with Chi O and X Club representing the negative. The debate will be Sunday, Nov. 7, at 7:30 in Bingham Hall.

Vice President John Tiedtke told the council that the matter of maid service was a policy of an administrative committee, and that appropriate steps would be taken if the service was not sufficiently improved by today.

Pinehurst and New Halls have requested that fraternities limit pledge work-outs to the Sandspur Bowl or any other area away from the dormitories.

Teke's new voting member for the legislature is Jerry Lang. Laurie Gordon will replace Cary Kresge as Senior Class Officer representative.

Jeff Burns is president of the freshman class, Cliff Montgomery is vicep, Sue Skinner secretary, and Danny Keil treasurer.

A meeting of the Constitutional Revision committee, composed of the Executive Board, chairmen of the Men's and Women's Rules and Beanery committees, the R Book, and Jean Morris, Laura Barnes, Fred Gittes, and Debbit Wood; will meet Sunday at 7 p.m., October 31.

The Women's Rules committee proposes that there be women's open houses from 2-5 p.m. every other Sunday, and that there should be men's open houses on the alternate Sundays. The resident heads are to be present at all times, and all doors are to be unlocked. Men's Rules proposes campus-wide open house from 2-5 on Sunday and on Friday and Saturday nights.

Juniors Endorsed For Rhodes Grant

Ira Gordon and Robert Gustafson, juniors, have been endorsed by Rollins to compete with other American men students from nation-wide colleges and universities for a Rhodes Scholarship. The Rhodes Fund gives 32 men a yearly stipend of $2500 for two years at Oxford University.

THE 'SPUR SPEAKS

Most Fitting Name

Reliable estimates say that after the first of the year the Enyart Fieldhouse fund will pass the $300,000 mark. According to earlier announced plans, construction could begin shortly after, with an Alumni Association mortgage to provide the $200,000 still needed. It would be paid off as the drive continues.

It is safe to say that the Fieldhouse drive would be right at the same plateau as in 1963, when the drive virtually ground to a not-so-impressive halt, had it not been for the leadership of a few dedicated men—men such as Howard W. Showalter.

Under the national direction of Pittsborough attorney Thomas P. Johnson, Showalter took up leadership on the local and state levels to get the Fieldhouse ball rolling again. By mid-1964 over half of the funds raised came from the Orlando-Winter Park area.

Never a man to underemploy his resources, Howard Showalter utilized his business capital, the airplanes of Showalter Flying Service, to maintain close contact with the 12 division leaders located throughout the state.

When asked, as Florida Magazine's Man of the Week in July, 1964, how a man engaged in running a big business and active in numerous civic affairs could devote so much time to raising a fieldhouse at Rollins, Howard Showalter said, "I suppose you work for something because you believe in it, and I've been sold on Rollins since my days as a freshman. The small liberal arts college represents American education at its best and, unfortunately, especially here in Florida, it is not receiving the support it deserves."

"I wish I knew how to make people realize that one of the most valuable and vital aspects any community can have is a college in its midst; besides, I owe a debt to those who made my Rollins education possible."

But Showalter's energy did not end with the fieldhouse, or even the college. Included in the list of his activities were: Rollins trustee, past president of the Rollins Alumni Association, past president of the Winter Park Chamber of Commerce, chairman of the Winter Park Planning and Zoning Commission, trustee of the Winter Park Memorial Hospital, member of the Central Florida Development Committee, member of the Winter Park University Club, past president of the Florida Aviation Trades Association, and past president of the Winter Park Racquet Club.

A Rollins graduate of 1936, Showalter and his brother, J. Sands Showalter, now Alumni Association president, opened an airfield in Winter Park in 1945. At one time, he taught aviation in the Rollins program at that field, which has since moved to a large operation at Herndon Field.

We could go on and on about Howard Showalter. But we think a more fitting tribute, and in part this is an echo of some comments we've already heard, that the proposed building be renamed the Howard W. Showalter Memorial Fieldhouse.

Letters to Editor

Editor:

The "Grapevine" which appeared in the October 14th issue of the Sandspur was a delight to read. What a marvelous feeling those people must have who were fortunate enough to have their names appear in such a gem of journalistic prose. The coining of a choice phrase like "69 Club" will assure all freshmen's parents that their sons and daughters have chosen a fine college. We gratefully acknowledge the Sandspur's policy, "All the News that Fits We Print."

When I first came to Rollins, I never expected to be a member of a country club. I'm not referring to the school itself, but rather of the Dubsread Country Club. This privilege of membership in itself, which enables me to play golf, swim, or merely use the clubhouse facilities, is an example of how Rollins helps to benefit its students. Because of this and many other facets of living concerning the relations between student and school, I would like to show my thanks to the people who run Rollins,

I should like to comment on the condition of the soda and candy machines in New Hall. As my fellow freshmen will testify, they are in a continuous state of disrepair. I find them either empty or out of order. If a company is going to maintain machines in New Hall, I feel they should be responsible enough to keep them stocked and working efficiently. When freshman student government becomes organized, I feel this should be one of the issues on its agenda.

Let me say just a brief word concerning the Beanery food. First, let's criticize where criticism is due. Sheets of grease shield the pork chops and the French fries. Most of the sauces used on meats are nothing short of repulsive, especially the one put on the chipped beef sandwiches—if they wish to conceal various dishes, why not do it with something tasty! The hamburgers with cheese on top are gross. The hamburger is tough and the cheese is hardly melted. Thus a few constructive complaints.

Now then, for a word of praise. The selection of desserts is varied and most of them are generally pretty good as is the case with the fruits and salads. The toasted roll that has been served of late is the greatest thing going for them. Another good aspect in the variety of drinks is that it is not terribly limited and is done in good taste.

Speaking of drinks, cocktails before dinner would without a fraction of a doubt be received very enthusiastically. Thus, a few compliments plus one suggestion. Take heed, Beanery!

Christopher Jones

Editor:

For the past two weeks the Beanery has been extremely overcrowded at 1 p.m. each day resulting in the lack of table space and as much as a 25 minute wait if you are not fortunate enough to get there early. I feel that this problem could be greatly alleviated if the science class of astronomy which numbers between 130 and 140 students could be scheduled at a different time.

The theme of the Rollins Union for 1965-66 is "Widening Horizons." This theme accentuates the present atmosphere at Rollins. The college is expanding. It also is searching for new horizons. Therefore, why shouldn't the Union keep in step?

The goal of the Board of Managers and every active member of the Union is a better Union for the students and faculty. The programs planned for this year are a part of this goal. However, we feel the students should be offered a chance to express their opinions, after all, it's your money we are spending. As president of the Rollins Union, I would like to invite both students and faculty to attend the Program Board meetings on Tuesday evenings at 6:30 p.m. in the Student Legislative room. The Union is also open to opinion through the mail. So don't just passively exercise your jaws over coffee if you are dissatisfied. Come to the source, the Program Board, and make known your feelings, pro or con. Remember, this is your Union. If you want Widening Horizons, as we do, then let us see some positive action on your part.

The Chapel Tower

By T. S. Darrah

College students don't read Ibsen much today. Alas, I don't read much. But Ibsen speaks so plainly to those who would be fugitives from themselves and perhaps now more sharply than in "Peter Gyni." Ibsen never quite came down to being either virtuous or sinful "in the true grand manner." When the Button Moulder comes to him away he vehemently protests that should be taken from him even though has made no great go of it. In answer Button Moulder says: "There is no for you to make so great a fuss about small a thing; because you never been yourself. What difference can it to you if, when you die, you disappear?"

When calamities fall, we then search principles or extenuating circumstances that may save if we lived by our principles, perhaps there would be no amities.

Three Years Ago Today

October 26, 1962

Students and faculty at the Pelican Leadership Retreat discussed such problems as length of the Beanery lines, the "general apathy of students."

Ferment had this to say: "Heidi (Turner), it's about moonlight swims." Pledged to KA: Richard Brewster, son Calhoun, Steve Strauchen, Greeley Wells, Sty W. George Villere, Eric Williams, Steve Ward, Rhys Sirin, Eric Harrison, John Klopp, Douglas Kirk, David Vick, George Clark.

And here is a letter from Ann Skidmore Lamb, (nicknames are W.B.) the lady who more than kept Beanery dress rules enforced:

"Last week a number of students petitioned to have peanut butter and jelly trays set up again. The Beanery complied with their request, beginning Monday noon, Oct. As of Tuesday night, Oct. 16, this service may be withdrawn because some anthropological types on the college ter filled the jelly tray with ink. This trick may seem crutiatingly funny to the subhuman minds that thought it, but let it be known that these characters would do better leave the halls of higher learning and take up residence at the zoo where their simian humor would be in order. Their witless antics appreciated."

More Letters

they could merely drop exhausted to the floor.

There seems to be only three ways of reducing the number of these physical wrecks:

- reduce the total population of announcements
- increase the physical capabilities of the announcements
- decrease the physical capabilities required.

Perhaps a) is the simplest solution—simply put all such notices on the calendar or on a bulletin board where they belong in the first place. Solution b) however, is a more interesting one—install a physical fitness program to decrease the percentage of failures. Unfortunately, such a program would be too expensive on a large scale, and most students would be too apathetic to physically educate the announcements found on their individual mailboxes. Thus solution c) is most practical—simply move the waste basket much closer to the mailboxes.

Many are the people that this individual has heard deriding the demonstrators against our war on Viet Nam (it is difficult to tell which Viet Nam we are waging war against; e.g., witness the sight of burning jungles, fields, etc., in South Viet Nam, but...).

These people most certainly have the right to criticize, but I question the nature of their criticisms. According to them, the students at Berkeley, Ann Arbor, and elsewhere, should not be demonstrating—i.e., they are doing something which is wrong and many say that they should be stopped.

Editor:

The voting procedures for the New Hall and Freshman Class officers were just pathetic. Both of the groups running the elections were unprepared to hold these important elections.

In the New Hall preliminary elections not only was it possible to vote twice, but also not all the candidates were on the ballot. There also was a misspelling of candidates on the ballots.

The nominations for the officers of the Freshman Class were carried on in a questionable manner at the Annie Russell Theatre. When I left the meeting, all nominations were closed, but later that day another meeting was called by innuinate people. I question the second meeting because by calling another meeting they themselves are saying the first meeting was void.

The "coup-de-grace" was the omission of a candidate's name from the ballot for an officer in the class.

We have people counting the policy of our government in South Viet Nam. There are Peaceniks and student organizations such as the Young Socialist Alliance picketing our nation's capital.

This clearly represents failure of American youth today to understand the motivation of our foreign policy as well as its vital importance. An intelligent investigation of our policy in Viet Nam through congressional defense records, will show (to anyone with enough interest) that we are not just in Viet Nam for imperial money-making. Generations of freedom are at stake, from somewhat betrayed, growing American indifference to our national heritage and its current world responsibility.

Hunter-Stein Plan November Union

Where is Miss Rollins? Dian Hunter, Miss Rollins of 1964, plans to be married Nov. 25, in Sherman, Tex. Dian will marry Jay Stein, brother of 1964 Rollins graduate Jim Stein.

Jay is from Rehoboth Beach, Del., and a graduate who is now working in an antique shop.

Dian is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Three Thetas will fly to Texas to participate in her wedding. Pam Sullivan will be the maid of honor and Jean Maurey and Niente Ingersol will be bridesmaids. Jib Bailey will be an usher.

Dian Hunter

The bridesmaids will wear floor length dresses with a white top and a beaded design decorating the front. The bottom is red velvet. The dresses are empire in front with natural backs.

Dian and Jay are building a house at Rehoboth Beach, Del.

They plan a short honeymoon and will go to Europe later in the year with Jay's parents.

Dian and Jay will come to Rollins for Fiesta this year.

Magazine Offers Guest Editorships

"Mademoiselle" magazine is offering twenty Guest-Editorships (a salaried month working in its New York offices), which also give priority consideration for permanent jobs with Conde Nast publications.

Deadline is November 15, 1965 for the first part of the competition, which is a treatment of one of 24 Mademoiselle-approved categories. An example is "Find a product that generally appeals to a particular age group, and devise a method to convince another age group that it's great. This may be done through national advertising, or through local promotion and store display."

If you are accepted as a College Board member, you will be informed of another assignment, due February 15, 1966.

Judges for the first assignment will be Mademoiselle editors, who will evaluate "...on the basis of literary and artistic talent, clarity, originality, and professional presentation." Full details are available on the bulletin board by the mail boxes.

Collegians Give Blood for GIs

LAS CRUCES, N.M. (CPS)--Students are donating blood for American soldiers in Viet Nam in a move that is apparently gaining momentum on the campus of New Mexico State University. Leaders in a group that is seeking student blood donors say it is a counter-move to action by other U.S. student groups that protest U.S. policy in Viet Nam.

The program got underway Oct. 14 when 70 students offered blood to a medical team sent in from William Beaumont Army Hospital of El Paso.

Thirty of the would-be donors had to be turned away because the Army team was not equipped to handle such a large number. This week the team is returning with supplies to handle many more, an Army spokesman said.

Student leaders say a large turnout of donors is expected for weeks. Ed Hanes, the spokesman for a group of donors, said they consider it a very positive way to counteract the "loud minorities."

Art Directors Preview Upcoming "Music Man"

By Bill Millard

Musical comedy is only one of many forms of theatre; many people have varied opinions about the value of musical comedy, but almost all of them concede that musical comedy today is a money making-money losing game.

Since THE MUSIC MAN is due to open soon at the Annie Russell Theatre, we were interested in finding out how Robert Juergens and Charles Nisbett, professors of theatre art at Rollins, saw the musical comedies.

Juergens, director for THE MUSIC MAN, said that musical comedies are by far the most popular form of entertainment now on Broadway. He said that people were beginning to demand more and more quality in script, lyrics and music.

Early forms of musical comedies were rich in lyrics and music but had a singular lack of quality in script, or book. Within the last decade, however, musicals have become more and more selective with their books.

Beginning with Rogers and Hammerstein, audiences began demanding more and more of playwrights; soon investors began to realize that musicals were more successful if they were based upon a successful play or novel; witness MY FAIR LADY, based on PYGMALION; CAMELOT based on THE ONCE AND FUTURE KING; and GOLDEN BOY, based on GOLDEN BOY.

Juergens said about THE MUSIC MAN, "The book of THE MUSIC MAN is not a great book, but it is consistent, which is equally important."

Nisbett, assistant professor of theatre arts, spoke more from the artistic than from the commercial point of view. He drew a comparison between classic opera, in which the plot is carried entirely through the music, and in which the story line is based upon plays which were poor to begin with, and modern folk operas, in which the plot is carried primarily through music, but in which the story line is based upon plays which are "proven both commercially and artistically." Nisbett said that he considered musicals potentially a better art form than classic opera. He said of THE MUSIC MAN rehearsals, "This is great fun."

What Has Become of the 1965 Graduating Class?

By Gerry Langford
Society Editor

Where are they and what are they doing? Each week the Sandspur will try and find out a little something about last year's seniors.

Pam Griffith, Gamma Phi Beta, is back here at graduate school to be near her fiancé, Pete Cowin, a Delta Chi.

Mike Marlowe is at George Washington Law School. Sue Carter is at graduate school at North Carolina.

Dale Courtney is teaching the ninth grade in Winter Park and April May teaches retarded children here also.

Libby Westgate is at graduate school at the University of Virginia and Jeff Fisher is back at Rollins attending graduate school.

Doug Draper, TKE, is working in Washington. He is doing experiments and research work with animals.

Rene Wolf, KKG, is working for an advertising agency in New York City and Carol Salmon, also a KKG, is working for Time magazine in New York City.

Su Cochran, KKG, is working for Chase Manhattan Bank in New York City. Sally Charles, also a Kappa, is working in Chicago for an insurance company.

John Hughes and Don Daus are back at Harper's and sometimes attend the new Crummer Graduate School.

Picture Schedule

Photographer J. C. Clancy will take individual Tomokan pictures through Friday this week and from Monday through Thursday in the legislature room from 8:30-12 and 1-4.

If students do not have an appointment they may make one in the legislature room at the above times.

The Tomokan asks that women students wear light sweaters and that men wear a tie with a dark coat. Senior women will wear drapes supplied by the photographer.

Summer Marriages

Over the summer many couples of the Rollins family took the big step.

Jerry Buron is back this year and brought his lovely wife, Donna. Donna is from New York City and a graduate of Mitchell College, New London, Conn. They were married August 14.

Sugar Abbot, Phi Mu, was married to Bruce Behrens in September. They live in Winter Park and Bruce is finishing school here.

Jim Johnson, Sigma Nu and Lambie Pi, married Jane Truesdale in a small family ceremony in Vermont. Jim is a senior.

Jan Collins, Theta, married a Rollins graduate of 1962, Pete Marino. Pete and Jan now live in Ft. Lauderdale.

Morgan Moses was married to Sheri Patterson, a Pi Phi, over the summer.

Phillis Westley, Gamma Phi Beta, is now married to Lambda Chi's Randy Kelly. Randy teaches at Sanford Naval School.

Martha Sanchez, Gamma Phi Beta, is now Mrs. Ralph Grieco. Ralph graduated from Rollins in '64 and from Columbia graduate school in 1965. Martha will graduate this year.

Theta, Chi O Climb In Girls' Basketball

League leading Kappa Alpha Theta and Chi Omega remained unbeaten in women's basketball Tuesday as they posted victories over Pi Phi and Gamma Phi respectively.

Theta snapped a 12-12 halftime deadlock to take a 23-16 victory from Pi Phi. Jean Maurey and Pat Marshall combined for all the Theta markers with 13 and 10 respectively. Carolyn Bowersock paced the Pi Phi attack with 11 tallies.

Joan Eiston and Mary Grantham led Chi O to a 20-11 win over previously unbeaten Gamma Phi. Miss Eiston chalked up seven points while Miss Grantham had six. Polly Perrot, Gamma Phi's top gunner, also had six points.

Monday, Kappa continued its high scoring escapades, dumping the Indies 53-16 and Pi Phi won its first, 26-12 over Phi Mu.

Freshman Gretchen Vosters paced the Kappa attack with 19 points, followed by Janie Blalock with 12 and Wendy Overton, nine. Ginny Loomis led the Indies with seven markers.

Carolyn Bowersock and Susan Gregory tied for top Pi Phi honors at eight points apiece Kathy Andrews and Linda Darnell led the Phi

Chi O Star Tops Cagers

Chi O Mary Grantham leads women intramural cagers in points scored after the first week of women's basketball. Freshman Gretchen Vosters of Kappa Kappa Gamma tops the league with a 22-point scoring average.

Theta, which won its first two games to share the IM lead, is the team scoring pacesetter with 64 points, but defending champion KKG leads averagewise with 33 points in its only game.

The Kappas also lead in defense, permitting only four points so far.

Miss Grantham led the Chi Os to a portion of the first week lead with 12 points against the Pi Phi's Tuesday and 16 more versus the Indies Thursday.

Trailing Miss Grantham are Chi O teammate Sue White and Pat Marshall of Theta with 23 points, Miss Vosters, 22, Pi Phi Carolyn Bowersock, 19, and Gamma Phi Margie Fifer, 18.

Faculty Tips TKE Netmen

The powerful Faculty team virtually sewed up the intramural tennis championship by defeating second place TKE 4-1 Tuesday.

Prof. Guy Filsof and Prof. Scheer took singles matches from Bill Kinne and Al Curtis, 8-4 and 8-1 respectively. Jim Griffith rallied to salvage 8-7 win over Dr. John Bowers.

In doubles Profs. Scheer and Conway downed Curtis and Gene Albrecht, 8-1 and Prof. Filsof and Dr. Bowers dumped Kinne and Griffith, 6-1.

Sigma Nu picked up its initial win of the season, downing Delta Chi 3-2. Greg Wlofes and Cliff Montgomery of Sigma Nu and George Lamb of Delta Chi took singles matches. Delta Chi defaulted the first doubles, but Lamb and Chuck Thomas combined to dump

AXA RICK HEATH GOES UP FOR PASS
... to help sink Indies

Snakes Romp; TKE, AXA Vie for Lead

Defending champion Sigma Nu opened its season on a winning note Monday, routing Pi Rho Sigma 57-6, and league leaders, TKE and Lambda Chi coasted to easy victories last week. The Tekes blanked Pi Rho 55-0 Wednesday and Lambda Chi posted a 54-0 shutout against the Independents.

Lambda Chi and TKE, tied for first place with 2-0 marks, square off on Sandspur Bowl at 4 p.m. Thursday in what could be one of the most important intramural battles of the season.

Both teams won easily in their first two outings, displaying good offense, defense and depth.

Another meeting of the undefeated teams is on tap Monday as Sigma Nu (1-0) and Delta Chi (2-0) tangle. Sigma Nu has not lost in three years and the Dels knocked off the X Club, a top pre-season pick, last week.

KA came up with its first win Tuesday, a 26-6 win over the Indies, to even its record at 1-1. KA took a 7-0 first quarter lead on Gary Dering's 30-yard punt return and then added three more scores in the second quarter to put the game away.

Paul Murphy raced 43 yards on an interception in the third period for the Indies only score.

In the 19-point second quarter KA tallied on touchdown passes from quarterback Steve Ward to John Bottomly and Dering and Bill Caler's interception.

Sigma Nu extended its unbeaten string to 27 consecutive games by trouncing Pi Rho Sigma 57-6 behind the passing of freshman quarterback Cliff Montgomery and three touchdowns by end Jack Zimmerman.

Montgomery fired TD strikes to Bob Lewis (2), Zimmerman (2) and Bill Jackson, while Bob Heineman caught scoring passes from both Brian Payne and Bill Jackson. A safety and Zimmerman's runback of

Tars Open FLC Slate Against Stetson, FSC

Fresh from Saturday's 3-1 victory over St. Leo College, the Tar soccer team begins its quest of the Florida Intercollegiate Conference championship this week, facing Stetson University in DeLand at 3:30 p.m. Saturday and hosting Florida Southern College at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The new F.I.C., formed after the University of Miami and Jacksonville University dropped out of the conference, includes Rollins, Stetson, Florida Southern and Tampa, which has chosen to play intercollegiate football instead of soccer.

Stetson's Hatters, who had a 1-2 record going into a match with Jacksonville University Tuesday, are defending F.I.C. champs. Last season the Hatters downed Rollins 1-0 and 2-1.

Stetson has defeated the Orange Soccer Club of Orlando 2-1 and dropped matches to the University of Miami 7-1 and the University of South Florida 3-1.

Leading the Stetson scoring attack is All-FIC inside Lenny Grace, who scored eight goals while sparking the Hatters to a 5-2-1 mark in 1964.

A bus will leave the Union Saturday to convey Rollins students to the Stetson game in DeLand. The Union Rally Committee has arranged for the bus.

Two other 1964 All-FIC selections, fullback-halfback Gene White and halfback Vining Bigelow, also return to the Hatters this season. White and Grace are co-captains of the squad.

Missing from last year's Stetson team are All-FIC goalie Dave Smith and wing Tad Jones. Sophomore Pete Fulton, a reserve last season, will probably handle the goal keeping duties for the Hatters.

Stetson has only six lettermen returning from last year's championship team. Besides Grace, Bigelow, White and Fulton, 1964 lettermen back this season are John Heald and Clay Knowles. Phil Baker, who lettered in 1963, is also on hand.

Florida Southern, which posted a 5-4 record in 1964, played Jacksonville last Saturday and will face Miami Friday before journeying to Winter Park.

The Moc booters dropped their first three matches to USF 4-3, Emory 5-4 and Miami 3-1. The USF and Emory matches were overtime defeats.

Center forward Terry Darby is Southern's top scorer with five goals through the Miami contest. An All-FIC selection in 1964, Darby tied Grace for second place in the FIC scoring derby. He also scored twice against non-conference foe Emory.

Last season the Tar booters defeated FSC here 2-1, but dropped the rematch in Lakeland 4-2.

Twelve 1964 lettermen besides Darby are with the Mocs again this season, including goalie John Hayes, fullback Bob McCosker and Don Sabatini, halfbacks Bruce Kelsey, Jim Berry and Jim Yeatts and wings Wally Wells and Bruce Bain.

Tar coaches Joe Justice and Ernie Wraschek will probably go with virtually the same lineup they employed against St. Leo last weekend, except at goalie. Sophomore goalie Lane Taylor, who had 11 saves against Miami and St. Leo, cracked two ribs in a collision with a St. Leo player Saturday and will probably miss both games this week.

On the front line should be wings Pete Taylor and Roy Clark, insides Wilson Flohr and Ted Staley and center forward Ricky Mello with Gordon Steen and Jeff Birch also seeing a lot of action.

Unless Justice and Wraschek plan a reshuffle late in the week, the halfback corps should consist of Doug Kerr, Steve Feller and Tom Thompson, while Bob Schabes and Chuck Gordon would continue at halfback.

Freshman Bill Hartog or Kerr will probably take over for Taylor in the Rollins goal.

WILSON FLOHR GETS OFF BOOT ... in 3-1 victory

Booters Dump Lions For Initial Win, 4-3

Dominating play throughout the first half, the Rollins soccer team tallied once in each of the opening two periods to coast to a 3-1 victory over St. Leo College and their first win of the season.

Rollins' offensive unit kept the Lion defense busy, shooting 55 times while the Tar defense permitted St. Leo only eight shots.

A St. Leo defensive error with 16:49 left in the first quarter produced the initial Rollins' goal and gave the Tars a lead they never relinquished.

After wing Peter Taylor took a long shot from the right side, a Lion fullback accidentally booted the ball into his own net as he tried to kick the ball upfield.

Freshman inside Wilson Flohr, who now has four of Rollins' seven tallies this season, upped the score to 2-0 early in the second frame. Driving about 40 yards just ahead of the Lion defenders, Flohr split the net from 15 yards out with 20:03 remaining.

Rollins lessened the charge in the second half, but tallied again on inside Ricky Mello's penalty boot midway through the third period.

Center forward Jeff Birch drove for the Lion goal, and was tripped in front of the net, setting up Mello's direct penalty shot with 14:53 left. The goal was the first of the season for Bermudan co-captain Mello, who scored 14 as a freshman in 1962.

Late in the third quarter St. Leo missed a scoring opportunity when Mello stole center forward George Kennedy's indirect penalty boot in front of the Tar net.

St. Leo finally cracked the Rollins defense in the fourth quarter to chalk up its only goal of the game. Rollins' number two goalie Bill Hartog slipped blocking a shot, leaving the net open for Lion inside Vinnie Harman with 13:44 remaining in the final stanza.

The Tars lost a fourth goal near the end of the game as Mello was ruled offside after splitting the Lion net.

St. Leo's goalie Terry Shea chalked up 36 saves and Rollins' Lane Taylor, who cracked two ribs in a collision in front of the Tar net in the fourth period, had an easy afternoon with 11. Hartog saved five. Rollins outshot the visitors 87-19.

CHRIS WILDER AND JACK ROBERTS PILOT CRAFT ... before Sunfish regatta

Wilder, Shippen Win Sailing Club Races

By FRANK WEDDELL

Chris Wilder and Gene Shippen won races Sunday on Lake Virginia in the first of a series of regattas sponsored by the Rollins Sailing Club.

Throughout each term races are scheduled by the Sailing Club and, at the end of the term, trophies will be presented to the top two skippers in the competition. Boats missing Sunday's regatta are still eligible for the championship.

Shippen captured the first of three races Sunday and Wilder was first across in the next two.

Founded by George Morgan last spring, the Sailing Club has about 25 members and competes in regattas organized by the Florida Sunfish Association.

The Sailing Club hopes to gain fleet status in the Sunfish Association this term, requiring at least five boats and enthusiasm of the members. Presently, the group has four boats, but Bruce Blackman of Winter Park has three more and is interested in boosting the local organization.

The primary goal of the Sailing Club is promoting sailing at Rollins, especially sailboat racing. The members race in Sunfish and "Tech Dingies." They are awaiting the approval of an advisor.

Officers of the Sailing Club are Chris Wilder, commodore; Jack Roberts, vice commodore; and Cindy Carpenter, secretary-treasurer.

Gruhn Takes Scoring Lead

Boyd Gruhn of TKE continued his two-touchdown-a-game pace last week to gain the lead in intramural football scoring battle.

TKE's quarterback Dave Bussler retained his lead in the passing department with a 47-point bulge over Lambda Chi's Don Phillips.

Besides boasting the leaders in the top individual categories, TKE also leads the league in points scored with 128 and total defense with 0 opponents' points.

Gruhn picked up a pair of TD's and extra point to put his total at 27, a point better than teammate Al Curtis.

an intercepted pass rounded out the scoring.

Pi Rho's only tally was a 75-yard scoring pass from John Newbold to Lonnie Vosbury on the first play of the fourth quarter. The TD was also Pi Rho's only score this year.

TKE's offensive balance was evident against Pi Rho as seven Tekes scored. Quarterback Dave Bussler led the attack with seven touchdown passes, three of them to league scoring leader Al Curtis, four extra point throws and a conversion run.

Pi Rho's deepest penetration was to the TKE 15.

Lambda Chi's second string nearly outscored the varsity in their 54-0 drubbing of the Indies. Number one quarterback Don Phillips passed for three touchdowns and ran for another, but back up field general Bill Osborn also connected on three scoring strikes.

Cagers Name Two Captains

Junior forward Tom Sacha and sophomore guard Dave Pearlman have been chosen by their teammates as basketball captains for the 1965-66 season, according to Coach Boyd Coffie. Both cagers are Sigma Nus.

Sacha, 6-3 and a two-year letterman, was co-captain last season. In 1964 he led the Tars in field goal percentage with 49.3 per cent of his shots and posted a 10.1 point scoring average.

The only freshman letterman in 1964, Pearlman averaged 11.2 points a game and paced Rollins with an 85.7 per cent of his free throws.

Rollins women's tennis team won five of six singles matches with Florida State University in Tallahassee Saturday to coast to an 8-1 decision in their first match of the season.

Freshmen Wendy Overton, Gretchen Vosters and Mary Ann Foniri and veterans Guillian Peterson and Pam Lewis took five singles without being extended to three sets. The girls then teamed to sweep three doubles matches from the Seminoles.

FSU's Mary Morehead, playing in the number six spot, downed Tinkle Caler, 7-5, 6-4, for the only Seminole point.

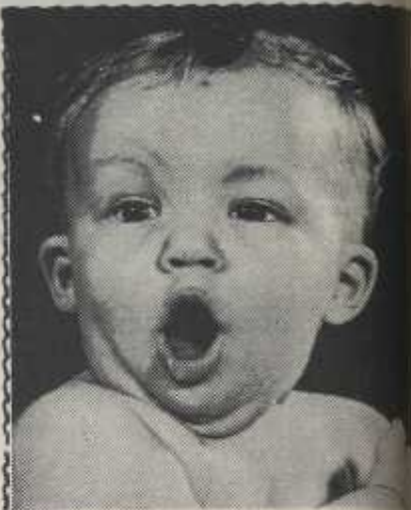

Miss Overton, Rollins' number one, opened the match with identical 6-2 set wins over Carol Castell. Miss Peterson, number two, dumped Carol Bitler, 6-2, 5-2, and Miss Vosters, a ranking Middle Atlantic player, blanked Lynn Chalmers, 5-0, 6-0, in the third spot.

Miss Foniri, second in New England standings, chalked up a pair of 6-1 wins over Lee Keyser in the fourth position, and Miss Lewis sewed up the match with two 6-2 wins over Bunny Smith.

In doubles, Miss Overton and Miss Vosters combined to down Miss Castell and Miss Bitler, 6-0, 6-0; Miss Peterson and Miss Foniri defeated Miss Keyser and Miss Morehead, 6-4, 6-0; and Miss Lewis and Miss Caler beat Miss Smith and Miss Chalmers, 6-3, 4-6, 5-1.

The women netters hope to play the University of Florida's women here Saturday.
