Envoy Will Join Cronkite For Founders Week Events

Ambassador Carl W. A. Schurmann

Carl W. A. Schurmann, Ambassador of the Netherlands to the United States, will be the featured speaker at the Founders Day Convocation this Monday at Knowles Chapel. Held to celebrate the 81st anniversary of the founding of Rollins, the college convocation will feature, in addition to the address by Schurmann, the awarding of honorary degrees, and a colorful procession of the faculty and Senior Class in full academic dress. Following the Convocation, the traditional Founders Week picnic will be held on the library lawn.

Ambassador Schurmann, besides participating in the Monday Convocation, will arrive here on February 26 to take part in the invitational Founders Week Dinner for Rollins patrons and will also be on hand for several activities of the "Country of the Year" observance, which this year features Holland.

Schurmann's presence on campus this weekend is just one phase of a Founders Week program that features events which will appeal to the students, faculty, staff, and general public.

A second highlight of Founders Week activities will be the appearance of Walter Cronkite, noted CBS news correspondent, at the Animated Magazine on Sunday.

Cronkite, managing editor and anchor man of CBS Evening News, is well known for his first hand coverage and knowledge of all the major news events of the last 15 years. His outstanding work has merited numerous awards, including the Peabody Television News Award. In addition to speaking at Animag, Cronkite will also attend the invitation Founders Week Dinner and will stay over to participate in the Convocation on Monday.

At the Animated Magazine Cronkite will be joined by six Rollins professors and Deans who will dramatize the progress and advances which Rollins is making in education. President Hugh McKean will speak on "A Glistening Center for the Arts;" Dr. Donald Hill, acting Dean of Administrative Affairs, will discuss the "School for Continuing Education, the Past, Present, and Potential;" Dr. Charles Welsh, Dean of the Crummer School, will speak on "The New Managerial Profile;" Mrs. Sara Howden, Acting Dean of Women, will highlight "New Patterns in Education for Women;" Dr. Herbert Hellwege, Chairman, Department of Chemistry, will discuss "Men, Molecules, Machines, and the A. G. Bush Science Center;" and Dr. Bruce Wavell, Honors Degree Program Director, will speak on "The Communication College Plan." Dr. Paul F. Douglass, Director of the Center for Practical Politics, was also originally scheduled to discuss "The School for Politics," but will be unable to participate because of illness.

Mr. Cronkite will present the editorial for the Animated Magazine and will comment on the plans of Rollins for the future and relate these developments to the great progress which is currently taking place in the Central Florida Area.

Immediately after the Animated Magazine presentations, students will have an opportunity to meet personally with Walter Cronkite and other Animated Magazine participants at an informal reception sponsored by the Union Educational Entertainment Committee in the New Hall lobby at 4:30.

A special feature of the Animated Magazine will be action demonstrations of some of the advanced scientific work regularly being taught at Rollins. To be held in the lobby of the Annie Russell Theatre, these demonstrations will feature a microscopic analysis of water from Lake Virginia, telescopic demonstrations, spectrophotometers, and the field ion microscope, built by Dr. Mulson, one of six in the entire United States.

Also on display in the Alumni House after the Animated Magazine will be a new scale model of the entire Rollins Campus. Built to a scale of one-quarter inch to 20 feet, this model will give the public its first 3-D impression of the new Crummer School of Finance and Business Administration, the Bush Science Center and the Enyart Alumni Field House. Also scheduled to be announced at this time will be the plans for another new building on the campus.

Johnson Says: "Field House Starts In '66"

Over 300 Rollins students met on the library lawn last night to discuss the future of the proposed Enyart Alumni Fieldhouse with President McKean, trustees, and alumni leaders. Taking part in the meeting, besides President and Mrs. McKean, were Chuck Olsen, Student Council President; Miller Walton, chairman of the Board of Trustees; J. Sands Schowalter, trustee; Tom Johnson, trustee and chairman of the Fieldhouse Committee; Marc Young, Alumni Director; and Joe Justice, Athletic Director.

The gathering, sponsored by the Rollins Men's R Club, saw President McKean unveil a scale model of the long discussed fieldhouse and heard college trustee and fieldhouse chairman Tom Johnson declare that construction of the new building will be gin sometime in 1966.

Opening the meeting, Chuck Olsen, R Club president, paid tribute to Howard W. Schowalter, Jr. and A. G. Bush, two benefactors of the college who were deeply interested in the development of a fieldhouse during their lifetimes. Mr. Schowalter worked very closely with Marc Young, Alumni Director, in formulating plans and obtaining finances for the project. Mr. Bush made the plans for the fieldhouse a reality by donating $100,000 shortly before his death.

Olsen presented two petitions signed by over 400 students which expressed the gratitude of the entire student body for the efforts of these men.

Also presented at this time was a report on student contributions to the Howard Schowalter Fund. Amounting to $1,102.50., this money will be used in the construction of the fieldhouse.

Following opening remarks by President McKean, Mr. Walton, Joe Justice, and Mr. Schowalter, Mr. Johnson delivered a progress report on the condition of the fieldhouse plans. "Of the $300,000 that the trustees have stipulated must be raised before construction can begin, we now have about $291,000 in cash and securities on hand," Johnson stated. "In addition we have around $80,000 in pledges. This means construction of the 'essential unit' can begin this year," he concluded.

According to Johnson the trustees will probably select the exact location for the building at their meeting today. This will make it possible for groundbreaking to take place some time this year.

The scale model of the fieldhouse which President McKean presented last night will be on display in the Alumni House during Founders Week.

Cronkite To Be At New Hall

Sunday, February 27, the Union Education Entertainment Committee is sponsoring a reception for Walter Cronkite and the faculty contributors to Animag. The reception will be held in the New Hall living room from 4:30 to 5:00. This informal reception will be the only time in which students will be able to personally meet Walter Cronkite. Refrshments will be served.

THE 'SPUR SPEAKS

"I'm satisfied with the revised plans and would like to see the Field House built tomorrow, but since that's impossible, the sooner the better. I'm confident that the Alumni will get behind this project and raise the money within two years."

Joe Justice November 26, 1963

"We do expect to have most of the answers to your questions as well as others shortly after Founders Week. (February 22, 1963)

Tom Nelson '53, President Rollins Alumni Inc.
"Ground breaking is planned for late 1964."

— Raising the Roof at Rollins (Alumni booklet)

For the past years many comments have been made by the faculty, administration, and alumni about the groundbreaking date of the Enyart Field House. The question at this point is what has really been accomplished in making definite plans about the field house. We realize that funds are being collected and that people have worked extremely hard in attempting to solve one of Rollins College's main problems. It is also evident that many students have shown interest in raising funds for the field house. One instance of student interest was pointed out in 1961 when the Student Council allocated $2,500 to the Alumni Association for construction of the Field House. Even now, efforts have been made by students who have contributed $1,000 to be given to the Howard Showalter Memorial Fund which is allocated to the Field House. The contribution was given by the President of the Student Association to the members of the Board of Trustees just today.

It is now time for promises of a field house to come in the near future to end. The policy of indecision and passing the responsibility from one committee to sub-committees without definite progress being made has been typical of the past. Any future promises concerning the construction of the field house should be kept. It is owed not only to the students, but to the College itself. The field house is the main solution to the student apathy, basketball varsity losses, intramural stagnation, and many other problems confronting Rollins. It's about time for action !!!

Letters To The Editor

From my perch out here on the left wing with the Christians (Moral Rearmament is liberal?), the ABC (which my profession wants me to interpret as the Alcoholic Beverage Commission but which must of course be a purposefully evasive reference to the NBC news commentator Edwin Newman — everyone knows how left wing NBC and poverty are) and Leroy Jones (who is making my perch extremely uncomfortable because he wants to annihilate me, and who is as left wing as his other-racial counterparts, the White Supremists), I keep marveling that students such as Brian Smith with inaccurate glee attack the Union without ever bothering to bring their errant grievances to the Union's open meetings.

I personally would love to hear William Buckley's acid eloquence, Barry Goldwater's unique solutions to poverty and black supremacy (remember the Herblock cartoons?) and Dirksen's rolling, wheezing wisdom (although he'd disappoint you, Brian: he's at least as far left as Christianity). I encourage any interested conservative to take his suggestions to the Union meetings (every Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. in the Council room) at which active leaders are eagerly hunting for money to bring a right wing as well as a left wing speaker to campus (we haven't had either yet, you know, if these wings are to conventionally construed as political). As for me, I like it out here with ABC and the Christians. Respectfully,

Dean Lindquist

— Night At The Flics —

By Jean Colvin

The Knack . . . and How To Get It, currently playing at the Colony, is one of the funniest movies ever filmed. Taken from the Broadway comedy hit by Ann Jellicoe, it is directed by Richard Lester and done in the style of the recent Beatle film Hard Day's Night.

Rita Tushingham (whom you may remember from Taste of Honey) portrays a young country girl who comes to London, where she meets and makes friends with a student and his teacher bent on showing him how to acquire the knack of handling women.

The picture won the grand prize in the last Cannes Film Festival and is a must for every moviegoer.

Also playing at the Colony along with The Knack is another Rita Tushingham film — Girl With the Green Eyes. This is a charming, humorous, rather wistful story of a young store clerk and the older writer who becomes her lover.

One of the year's "ten best" movies, A Patch of Blue, is now showing at the Park East. Starring Sidney Poitier and Elizabeth Hartman, it is the story of a blind girl (Hartman) whose life is made miserable by her mother (Shelley Winters) until she finally "sees" life for the first time through the eyes of a new-found friend, writer Poitier.

Another film with Poitier, The Slender Thread, is playing at the Plaza Theater. Anne Bancroft co-stars in this story, based on an actual incident, about a woman whose life hangs on the brink of disaster. After taking an overdose of sleeping pills, she telephones Seattle's Crisis Clinic to announce what she has done, but refuses to reveal her identity or her whereabouts. Flashbacks reveal the circumstances leading up to her suicide attempt.

Judith, starring Sophia Loren, Peter Finch, and Jack Hawkins, and showing at the Parkwood Cinema, is a story of love and revenge based on the battle for life fought by Israel as a new-born nation. A woman living in the past crosses the path of a dedicated, deeply patriotic man, and sparks fly. Sophia Loren has the title role, Peter Finch is a rebel freedom fighter, and Jack Hawkins plays a British officer.

Movies to watch for: Doctor Zhivago — Amar Sharif and Julie Christie star in David Lean's breathtaking, romantic story of life and love in Russia half a century ago. The Flight of the Phoenix is an exciting story about the survivors of a plane crash in the Sahara, James Stewart, Hardy Kruger, and Richard Attenborough struggle to construct an airworthy vehicle from the wreckage. The Shop on Main Street, set in Nazi-controlled Slovakia, concerns a well-meaning Aryan who seizes the button shop owned by a feeble, trusting old Jewess and finds himself a partner in her fate. Josef Kroner and Ida Kaminska play the leading roles.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. Smith,

First of all I would like to thank you for showing some positive interest in the Rollins Union. I am glad to see that some students are really interested in what of programs the Union presents.

In answer to your plea for some representation on the conservative side, I would first like to point out that although the names you criticized were correct, the programs you complained of were incorrect. Edwin Newman is employed by NBC and his program was neither radical nor conservative. It was informative. Moral Rearmament

Meet Your Trustees

Rollins College trustees will meet from distant states and the Central Florida area to attend the annual meeting of the Board on Friday, February 25. The all day meeting is one of the important events of Founders Week.

The trustees will also participate in the traditional events of the week: The Founders Week Dinner at The Country Club of Orlando, Saturday; the Animated Magazine, Sunday; the Founders Day Convocation, Monday.

Trustees arriving on campus this week from out of town are: Miller Walton, Miami attorney, Chairman of the Board of Trustees; Dr. Oliver C. Charmichael, Asheville, N.C., distinguished educator, former Chancellor of Vanderbilt University and former president of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching; H. George Carrison, investment banker, Jacksonville; Mrs. Richard Conger, Princeton, N.J., Rollins alumna and recipient of the Sulli van Medallion and Rollins Decoration of Honor; Thomas P. Johnson, Pittsburgh attorney; Dr. Nelson Marshall, distinguished marine scientist, professor of oceanography, University of Rhode Island, and a Rollins alumnus; William B. Mills, president of the Florida National Bank at Jacksonville and director of the St. Joe Paper Co.; Irving J. Reuter, Palm Beach, Fla., former president and general manager, Buick Motor Co.

Local trustees who will be attending are: F. Monroe Alleman, Orlando investment banker; Col. Coulter Craig, U.S.A. ret., Winter Park, a former industrialist; Robert Crane, Winter Park, vice president, Rimersburg Coal Co. and a real estate developer; Clarence M. Gay, Chairman of the Board and president of the Citizens National Bank of Orlando and former Comptroller of the State of Florida; Joseph S. Guernsey, president, Orlando Federal Savings and Loan; Acting Dean of Women Sara H. Howden; President and Mrs. Hugh F. McKean; Mrs. Osburn Wilson, Winter Park, Rollins alumna and recipient of the Rollins Decoration of Honor.

Trustees not able to be present are: The Hon. Olcott Deming, United States Ambassador to Uganda and a Rollins alumnus; Herbert W. Hoover, Jr., North Canton, Ohio, Rollins alumnus and Chairman of the Board of the Hoover Co.; Warren C. Hume, Vice President, International Business Machines Corp., New York, and a Rollins alumnus; the Hon. L. Corrin Strong, Washington, D.C., former Ambassador to Norway; Mrs. Rose Skillman, Bloomfield Hills, Mich., philanthropist and benefactor of many colleges and universities, including Rollins.

The first annual meeting of the Rollins Board of Trustees was held February 17, 1886. The college archives state that a resolution was passed thanking George A. Rollins, brother of the founder, "for his faithful attention to the interests of this Board, in his care and supervision of the construction of the two new buildings thus far erected. Also that we make formal acknowledgement of the kindly interest of the various employees about the buildings, as evidenced by their contribution of the fine toned bell in the tower of Knowles Hall."

George Miller, Shelia Smith Win King, Queen Competition

by Tina Godwin

Every year around Valentine's Day, Alpha Phi sponsors the election of King and Queen of Hearts to raise money for the Cardiac Aid Fund. The contributions received are sent to the national office of the sorority and then forwarded to three children's hospitals for research in the cause and cures of the nation's number one killer, heart disease. In the past, each female social group has been asked to nominate a male candidate and each men's group a female candidate. The financial results of this nomination procedure have been somewhat less than phenomenal. At 1c per vote the total contribution has been $35 at best — a decidedly poor response.

This year, however, a change in the nomination procedure brought out some healthy competition between social groups. Each men's social group was asked to nominate a man from its own group, each women's group, a woman from its group. The stakes were two trophies to be presented to the two winning groups and subsequently rotated each year among the new winning candidates. The sults were an all-time record:

King of Hearts
Sigma Nu—George Miller	$20.01
Queen of Hearts
Phi Mu—Shelia Smith	$21.62
Runners-up
Sigma Epsilon	$ 8.55
Lambda Chi	5.42
X Club	1.83
TKE	.58
Phi Delta	.18
KA	.17
Independent Men	.02
Gamma Phi
Chi O	$36.93
Theta	$20.42
Kappa	2.65
Independent Women	1.80
Pi Phi	1.25
	.78
	$62.17
GRAND TOTAL — $99.10

The new King of Hearts is none other than the illustrious George Miller of Sigma Nu. Elected "most likely to succeed" as a high school senior, George finally met his calling in a landslide election as king. His fraternity brothers feel that George will be the first in a new line of worthy rulers.

Shelia Smith of Phi Mu is the new Queen of Hearts. A contestant in the Miss Alabama Contest for 1965, Shelia is an attractive and deserving candidate. As queen she will represent her sorority well.

The winning candidates were announced at the Union Dance on Friday, February 18. It was a close contest between Gamma Phi's Laurie Reger and Phi Mu's Shelia Smith, but after many long hours of counting money, Phi Mu came out on top by a narrow margin of $1.42. Better luck next year Gamma Phi!

Alpha Phi extends its thanks to all of the campus social groups for their cooperation and commendable contributions to a worthy cause.

Chapel Vespers Well Received

In the fall of 1955, two students, George Milam (senior) and Conrad Bollinger (freshman) presented our Student Council with the idea of having an evening service in the Francis Chapel. The proposal was approved by the Council and petitions were circulated to the various campus groups. The enthusiastic response resulted in the decision to have two fifteen-minute services each week for the College family, with students and faculty participating as speakers and an occasional minister from one of the local churches. After the plans were completed, they were presented to the Dean as a complete surprise. He was elated with this initiative on the part of the students and, thus, the first evening Vespers Service was held on Tuesday evening, November 8th, at 6:45. Met with much enthusiasm, the service has continued ever since on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

The Vespers Committee is composed of two members of each class, the Dean of the Chapel, the doorkeeper, and the organist as an honorary member. Two new freshman members are elected by the committee each winter term, and with their support the Vespers Committee has helped produce one of the most continuous and stimulating aspects of Rollins College.

Dean Darrah Takes Part In Honor Lecture Series

By Erich Sippel

This weeks honors series lecture was given last Monday by Dean Theodore Darrah. He spoke on "The Bible as a Normative Source of Religion in the West."

"The Bible may be used normatively to show what we mean by religion in the west," said Darrah. He expressed the view that every incident in the Bible should be interpreted in the context of the entire Bible, and this can be of positive value to us today.

Dean Darrah

As an example of this, he examined the "myth" of Moses and attempted to "demythologize" it. After quickly reviewing the story, he examined it to see if it has any historical veracity. He came to the conclusion that "there is not much either to affirm or deny the story."

"So," said Dean Darrah, "We should look at the story itself for whatever insights it might suggest." He used two examples to illustrate this principle.

First, he showed that the incident of Moses being found in the bull rushes by a daughter of the Pharaoh by itself may or may not be significant. Examined in the larger context of the whole story, however, it suggests they psychological motivations for his later actions.

Second, he showed that the burning bush in the story may not be significant literally, but symbolically, it is "anything that so arrested Moses' attention that he forgot his self-consciousness for a few moments" and led to his theophany, or meeting with God, on Mt. Sinai. This, Darrah said, is the most important part of the story.

Using the same principle, he placed the entire story of Moses in context of our own time. "Moses is still our contemporary," said Darrah. "He has been an inspiration to generations of oppressed peoples and his influence is not unfelt in the current civil rights movement."

This principle may be applied to all parts of the Bible.

The next lecture in the Honors Lecture Series will be given March 6 by Professor Robert Jurgens at 2:00 in Bingham Hall. These lectures are open to the entire college.

KA Parking Lot Closed

The cooperation of all Rollins students is asked, especially those who customarily park in the K.A. lot behind the theatre.

On Sunday of Animag, February 27th the lot is urgently needed for the efficient parking of campus guests.

With approval by the Student Government, the Traffic Committee has decided to close the K.A. lot to student parking from 9 P.M. Saturday evening, February 26th, through Sunday evening after Animag.

The Traffic Committee asks all students to please remove their cars from this lot prior to 9 p.m. Saturday; The Park Avenue school playground will be made available for parking during this period.

Student Council Reports

By Fred Gittes

Union	14,786.00			14,786.00
Fiesta	5,000.00	1,620.00		3,380.00

The above comptroller's report helped open the Student Council meeting of February 21st which, on the whole, appeared to be preparation for what is developing to be a climactic meeting next Monday. The report indicated that for the time being at least, student association funds and function allocations seem to be in extremely good condition, all being almost intact. In regards to the net income of the Sandspur, Al Hollon pointed out that the paper's accounts do not include advertising and subscription fees which are yet due to come in.

Prior to discussing Old Business, President Olsen brought up several announcements. First he reminded the legislature of the coffee which is going to be held following the Chapel meeting on Supnday, February 27th, and the picnic following the convocation on Monday. The picnic and coffee, Olsen pointed out, are an excellent chance for students to introduce themselves to the trustees and familiarize them with student attitudes. Olsen emphasized that it is the responsibility of the students to attend these functions, especially those concerned with any phase of college developments and programs.

Participation in the convocation on Monday was also discussed at this time. The legislature as of yet has not been invited to march in the procession, but Patsy Blackburn reminded council members that all seniors are being required to march and requested that the representatives remind their respective groups.

There being no Old Business, New Business now came under discussion. First, Fred Gittes (Independent representative) brought up the constitutional amendment concerning class presidents. The amendment, which was defeated last week by a vote of 11-10 in favor of the constitutional change reads as follows:

Article V, Section 2, Subsection A to read:

The Legislative Body shall be composed of one representative elected annually from each fraternity, sorority, two independent men, two independent women and the non-voting chairman of the Women's Rules Committee as elected by the Chairman of the House Councils.

Little debate occurred as there was a five minute limit placed on the discussion. The amendment will be voted on next week.

Following this move, Gittes made an announcement concerning reapportionment. After passing out copies of a brief on reapportionment which had been sent to the members of the Faculty-Administration Committee, Gittes announced that he is to appear before the committee on Tuesday, February 28th to request faculty action on reapportionment. President Olsen requested that it be recorded in the minutes that he hopes the committee will take no action until it has consulted either with him or the entire executive board.

Bill Blackburn (Sophomore Class President) requested that while the trustees were on campus a meeting between the group and the executive board be held. He pointed out that such a meeting between the group and the executive board would be invaluable to the trustees in learning of student attitudes, and an excellent opportunity for the board to present its concerns. The motion died for lack of a second, however, after Dean Hicks pointed out that the trustees are extremely pressed for time during their stay at Rollins.

Dean Hicks then brought a memorandum from Dr. Burnett requesting social group assistance for the students working at the parental and juvenile homes. She indicated an urgent need for any old clothes, knick-knacks, possible gifts and other such material. Anyone wishing to donate may leave their contributions at the Travillion building.

Finally under New Business, Al Hollon moved that the legislature donate 250 dollars to the Chapel Fund. This was automatically tabled for one week.

Out of this conglomeration of motions and announcements, it should be noted that there are indications of the importance of next weeks meeting; the Faculty-Administration committee considering reapportionment and the class presidents will be discussed next week.

Olsen Discusses Issues

Founders Week is well under way, but the best part is yet to come. It certainly is a pleasure to have our trustees and honored guests with us this week. During the next few days many very important events will be taking place on our campus.

This Sunday the annual Rollins Animated Magazine will unfold. We are especially proud and fortunate to have such a distinguished person as Walter Cronkite with us. Mr. Cronkite is well-known to millions and millions of people all over the world, and we at Rollins certainly appreciate the time and effort Mr. Cronkite will take to make this year's magazine one of the finest the school has ever had. Along with Mr. Cronkite, the magazine will feature such noted Rollins personalities as President McKean, Dean Hill, Dean Welsh, Dean Howden, Dr. Hellwege, and Dr. Wavell. These people will talk to us about Rollins' future. Therefore, this magazine should be especially interesting to the students since it will concern them directly.

Another distinguished person will also join Walter Cronkite for Founders Week. His Excellency, The Ambassador of the Netherlands, Mr. Carl Schurmann, will speak at the Convocation which will be held on Monday, February 28th. It is hoped that every student will go to this convocation to hear His Excellency speak, especially since Holland is the Country of the Year at Rollins. Mr. Schurmann will arrive on the Rollins campus on the 26th of February and on Sunday there will be a luncheon in his honor at the Union. It is hoped that each and every student who is invited to this luncheon will attend and make every effort possible to make His Excellency's stay here on campus a most enjoyable and rewarding experience.

Also, students are asked to go to a coffee after Chapel on Sunday in honor of the Rollins trustees and honored guests. This will afford each and every student the opportunity to meet and talk with these distinguished guests personally.

Another opportunity to meet these guests will be afforded to the students when a picnic will take place on the library lawn following the Monday convocation. At this picnic all our trustees will be present and again our honored guests will be there to talk to you. These people are vitally interested in Rollins and especially want to help us. The reason they are here this week is to make Rollins a better school for us. Therefore, we must cooperate with them and talk to them so that they can get an idea of what we as students expect from Rollins. It is almost an obligation on our part to do as much as possible for these people.

I hope each student, in the remaining few days that are left in this week, will make every possible effort to do his part in making this 1966 Founders Week the best one Rollins has ever had.

George Filippone discusses his talk for the next Cafezinho Book Review with Dr. Fletcher.

Filippone To Present Next Book Review At Cafezinho

The ninth annual Cafezinho Book Review continued this past Saturday with a review by the Hon. C. Montagu Pigott, a former diplomat, who discussed a current study of Colombian society — economic, sociological, religious and environmental.

As an engineer, businessman and diplomat, Pigott lived, worked and traveled extensively throughout Latin America and the Caribbean for 35 years, notably in Mexico, Brazil, Uruguay and Colombia. Mr. Pigott has held posts during this time in the Far East, Europe and Latin America, his most recent service being that of counselor of embassy and charge d'affaires at Bogota. He retired in 1962.

The book that Mr. Pigott reviewed is the result of research by Pat M. Holt, a staff member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Having received a fellowship grant for study in Colombia in 1961-1962 from the Institute of Current World Affairs, his studies and experiences form a helpful framework on which to review Colombian history in the post-World War II era.

A Thousand Days, by Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., will be reviewed at the Founders' Week Cafezinho Saturday, February 26, 10:00 a.m. at the Casa Iberia. The speaker at this Cafezinho will be George Filippone, a Rollins senior and history major.

Schlesinger is a graduate of Harvard and an eminent historian. He won the Pulitzer Prize in 1946 for his book, The Age of Jackson, and has written an epic three-volume work on The Age of Roosevelt. The author has also served in various government positions since World War II.

A Thousand Days is the most controversial of the recent works on Kennedy. It covers the late president through the primaries to the White House and eventually to Dallas. This controversy has stemmed from the authors treatment of Dean Rusk, Secretary of State. Of particular interest to students of Latin America are the chapters which deal with the formation of the OAS and the Bay of Pigs invasion.

Amateur Radio Club To Meet

On Tuesday, March 1, 1966, the Radio Amateur Club of Rollins College will have a meeting in the studios of WPRK (Mills Memorial Library) at 7:00 p.m. The express purpose of this meeting will be to acquire new members. Everyone with the slightest interest in the amateur radio field is invited even if he can't tell the difference between a Ham and the Beanery's mystery meat. This particular meeting will be an introduction to the thrill of communicating over the electro-magnetic medium. It will be the first of a series of meetings aimed at helping the beginner in the field to obtain his novice class license.

Lower Court Head States The Role Of Student Courts

By Jim Johnson

For the past several years the operation of the Lower Court has been surrounded by a guise of mystery. This is not as it should be for the Lower Court is an integral part of the Student Association, of which every student is a member.

Jim Johnson
Lower Court Chairman

A rule infraction is reported to the Chairman of the Court to determine whether the case should go before the Upper or Lower Court. The Lower Court has original jurisdiction in all cases except those involving drug or alcohol addiction and sexual deviancy.

After it has been decided that the case is to go before the Lower Court, the Chairman assigns two of the ten member Investigation Committee to interview the defendant and investigate the case.

The defendant then reports to the Court and is questioned. After discussion and the examination of precedents, the eight member Court votes on what action should be taken against the defendant. They can dismiss the case, issue an oral or written reprimand, place the defendant on social warning or social probation with whatever stipulations they see necessary, or refer the case to the Upper Court for possible separation from the college.

Rollins has one of the most independently operated student governments in the nation. Although it is often times difficult for the members of the Court, being brought before fellow students is an advantage because students can best understand the problems of other students.

Early in the spring term applications are received for the Chairmanship of the Court. After the new Chairman is decided upon by the retiring Chairman, the President of the Student Association, and approved on by the Student Legislature, he then accepts applications for his Court and Investigation Committee. The new Chairman and the newly elected President of the Student Association interview prospective candidates and their choice is referred to the Student Legislature for its approval.

The only requirements are that Court members be from the Junior and Senior Class and in good standing with the college. Sophomores are able to apply for the Investigation Committee and often times this is good training for people who would like to gain membership on the student courts. It is hoped that there will be more qualified applicants this year than ever before because it is the students that keep the court system strong.

Girl Cagers Name 'Stars

Intramural representatives and the women's R Club have selected the 1965 women's honorary varsity basketball team, an aggregation of 12 of the best cagers in women's intramurals last fall.

Second-place Kappa Alpha Theta led the way with four all-star picks, followed by champion Kappa Kappa Gamma with three. Pi Beta Phi and Chi Omega had two representatives apiece.

Named were Theta's Pat Marshall, Alice Clement, Jeanne Maurey and Pam Sullivan; Kappa's Wendy Overton, Janie Blalock and Gretchen Vosters; Pi Phi's Carol Bowersock and Sue Gregory; Chi O's Mary Grantham and Sue White; and Independent Nona Gandleman.

Nine of the top ten scorers in league play last fall were chosen for the honorary squad with only Gamma Phi Beta's Margie Fifer omitted.

Miss Vosters took the scoring title easily with a 16.3-point average. Miss Bowersock was second at 11.3.

Other top scorers were Miss Maurey (8.0), Miss Marshall (8.0), Miss Grantham (9.2), Miss White (8.7), Miss Overton (5.1) and Miss Gandleman (4.9).

Although she was not among the top scorers during the regular season, Miss Blalock led the point making in the playoffs with a 17.0 mark.

Former Tar Athlete Dies

DALTON, Ga. — Carl (Goose) Kettles, 55, former Rollins athlete died here recently.

Kettles, a 1938 Rollins Graduate, starred in football and baseball for the Tars, playing on the same teams with Joe Justice, Rollins' director of athletics.

He was a catcher and pitcher for the Tars and, according to Justice, was headed for a professional baseball career when his foot was crushed in an auto accident.

Despite the injury he returned to spark Rollins in both sports and played in the Florida State League 13 seasons. Kettles also umpired in that circuit.

After completing his athletic eligibility at Rollins in 1937, he returned the next year to coach the freshman gridders while finishing his studies.

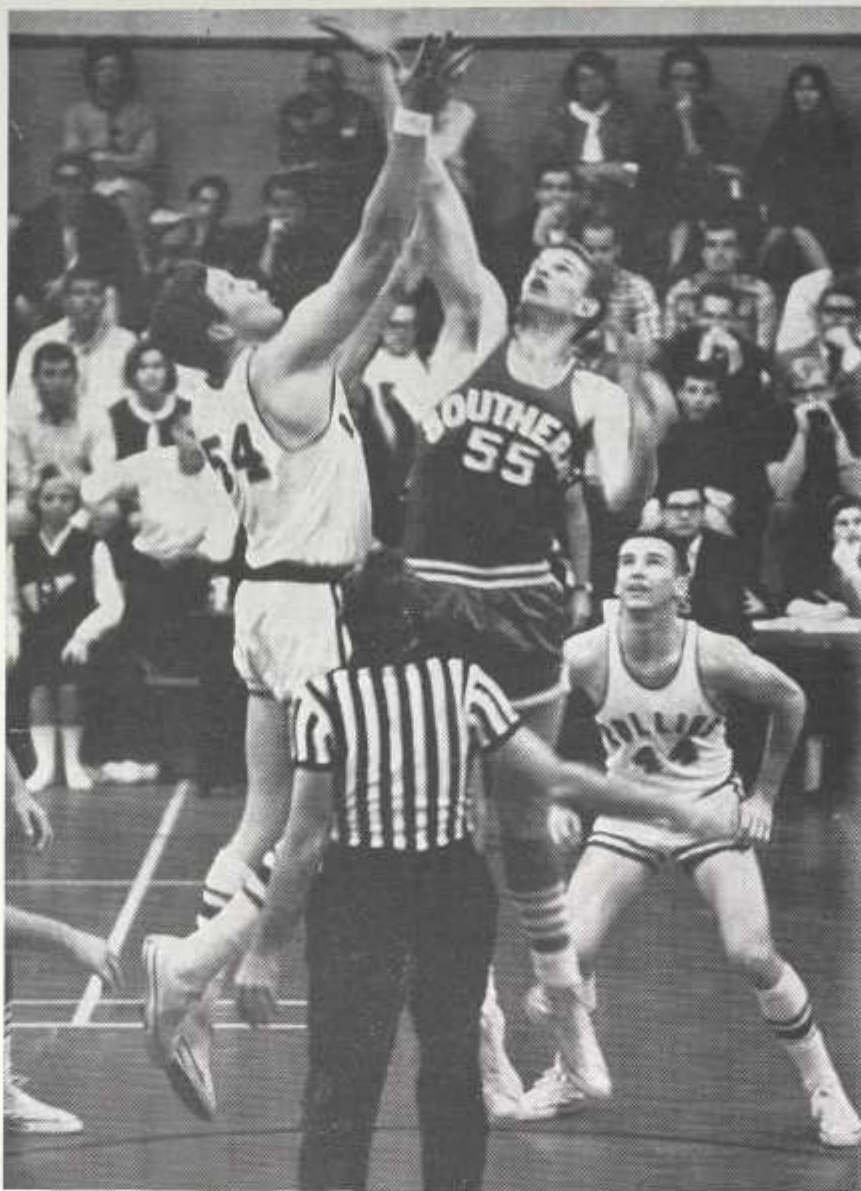

Kettles continued his coaching career at Seminole High School in Sanford where his football teams posted a 39-31-2 slate from 1945-1951. He coached baseball at Sanford for nine seasons.

Palm Beach Opens Races

Palm Beach International Raceway opens Feb. 26-27 with the Sports Car Club of America's annual race. The event is worth points for both the national crown and the Florida regional title.

Ferraris, Corvettes, Porsches, Lotus BRM's and Mustangs have already been entered in the competition. National Champion Jim Baker heads the list of drivers, including Don Kerney, Mike Rina and Charlie Kolb.

Palm Beach Raceway is about 12 miles northwest of Palm Beach Gardens on Rt. 710.

Cagers End Season, 4-16

The Tar cagers wrapped their 1966 season just as they started it Monday night, losing to Florida Intercollegiate Conference foe Florida Southern 104-75 before the biggest home crowd this season.

The loss was Rollins' seventh straight after opening the season with six consecutive defeats. Between the droughts Coach Boyd Coffie's Tars won four of seven, including three in a row, to salvage a final 4-16 season mark.

All was not black Monday as the Tars turned in their best performance against Southern in three meetings this season and nearly matched the visitors in the second half.

However, the loss was Rollins' first to an opponent over the 100-point barrier and dropped the Tars into the FIC basement for the fifth straight year.

Hitting 56% of their shots and out-rebounding the Tars 36-11, the Mocs galloped to a 58-36 halftime margin, taking an 8-6 advantage they never lost with 17.24 left in the half.

In the final frame, though Rollins matched Southern's 43% shooting and trailed the visitors only 30-22 on the boards to keep FSC from breaking away.

The 29-point losing margin was an improvement over previous 30 and 32-point deficits earlier this year.

Southern presented a balanced attack with all five starters scoring double figures. Forward Scott Fitzgerald led the Moc scorers with 19 points and center Dan Doherty was tops in rebounding with 19.

Millard Nixon, Rollins' top-scorer, didn't miss a field goal attempt enroute to a 17-point, 12-rebound performance. Bob Chandler also hit 17 while Ed Siemer checked in with 11.

In a preliminary game the Faculty, led by Boyd Coffie and Dean

Jack Lindquist, dumped a band of former Tar cagers 51-45.

Coach Joe Justice and Bob McCarty, Winter Park High School coach, were two of the big guns for the alumni.

Last Friday the Tars were defeated by a play-making Frederick College team 99-85 in a game played in Sanford, Rollins' third home.

Moving the ball well against the Tars, Frederick's Lions hit 30 lay-ups to pull away. Rollins led 26-25 with 6:07 left in the first half, but the visitors tallied 11 straight, then added 10 more after Rollins registered a field goal to put the game away.

The Tars could not shave the margin to less than 11 markers in the final frame.

Center Neil Hodges and guard Jerry Shell paced the Lion attack with 29 and 26 points each. As a result of the game Frederick lost two top players, Hodges and guard Pete Johnson for their season's finale at Florida Southern.

Nixon again sparked the Tar offense with 25 points, backed by Siemer (17), Ken Hill (14) and Chandler (11). Nixon led all rebounders with 15, while Siemer's 14-rab total was matched by two Lions.

Tar Netmen Host Florida Saturday

With one of the largest and strongest schedules facing this year's Rollins tennis squad, the Tar netters begin a 30-match season at 1 a.m. Saturday, hosting the University of Florida.

Coach Norm Copeland's netters have added five new schools to their slate. The Tars will be meeting the University of Tennessee, Middle Tennessee State, Oglethorpe, Furman and St. Leo for the first time in dual match competition.

Rollins also faces such squads as the University of Pennsylvania, Amherst, Columbia University, Florida State, the University of Miami and will host the F.I.C. tournament April 16.

Last year Coach Copeland's squad recorded an impressive 16-4 record as well as being runner-up at the state championships in Cape Coral, Fla.

Returning letter winners from last year's team are seniors Dick Woltmann and Pete Cowin plus juniors Bob McCannon and this season's captain, Niels Menko. Three freshmen who appear to be regulars are Cliff Montgomery of Roslyn, N.Y., Chick Hawley of Cincinnati, Ohio and Jim Griffith of Ocala, Florida.

Montgomery was the National Juniors Consolation Champion last summer in Kalamazoo, Mich., while Hawley won the Ohio State Junior Championship and Griffith took first in the Orlando Mid-Summer tourney.

Coach Copeland is beginning his eleventh campaign as head of the Rollins' tennis program. Since taking over the coaching reins, the former Rollins tennis star has compiled an enviable record against formidable opposition of 123 triumphs in 176 matches.

The junior varsity netment take on Miami-Dade Junior College at 2 p.m. Friday and face the Florida freshmen Saturday.

Problems Face Tar Nine

Facing a rough 34-game slate, the Tar baseball squad has been preparing for its Mar. 11 opener with Florida for three weeks.

So far, Coach Joe Justice, entering his twentieth season as Tar manager with a 358-207 record, is unwilling to make any pre-season predictions, but readily admits that Rollins faces a number of major problems.

Graduation of 1965 starters Allen Burris, Terry Williams, Bob Ennis, Larry Johnson and Mickey Clark left gaps on the mound staff, in the outfield and at third base.

... takes cut

A good crop of freshman hurlers seems to leave the pitching chores in safe hands, especially since Justice finally has an abundance of southpaw strength.

Sophomore Jack Ceccarelli, who posted a 5-0, 2.33 record last season to gain a spot on the Florida Intercollegiate Conference team, combines with veterans Charles Schoene (5-3), Ken Sparks (1-4) and Ed McNair (1-1) to form a right-handed hurling nucleus.

Portsidars available are freshmen Gale Coleman, Rick Shotwell and Gary Mercer and sophomore Tony Le Vecchio. Joe Lasorsa, a righty, is another promising freshman hurler.

The third base picture is not so rosy with sophomore Bob Schabes the only candidate with veteran credentials. Several freshmen and transfers, plus sophomore Sandy Sulzycki, are also in contention for the hot corner slot.

Experience is abundant in the battle for the open left and center field spots, but the competition is turning into a full-scale war with nearly ten prospective gardeners involved.

The best bets thus far seem to be 1964 lettermen Tom Flagg and Chuck Olsen. Olsen, injured last year, batted .381 in 1964 to tie Bob Gustafson for the team title.

Flagg, a 1964 starter in center field, promises to win back his position despite competition from sophomores Rick Heath and Dave McKibben.

Following in the footsteps of Terry Williams, Ken Sparks hopes to make a successful switch from the mound to the center garden spot.

An interesting battle has also developed for the catching assignment as lettermen Boyd Gruhn and Gordon Lynch face a challenge from freshman Jeff Burns. Burns, a defensive standout, was a N.Y. Yankee draft choice.

Returning regulars include right fielder Gustafson, second baseman Bob Chandler, shortstop Pedro Fonts and first baseman Don Phillips.

The Tar nine opens its 34-game slate Mar. 11 and 12 with a two game homestand against Florida.

Unbeaten Snakes Clinch Cage Title

By Tom Sacha

With one game remaining, Sigma Nu has claimed the basketball title. They have to play the Delts but a loss would not change the standings. When the tournament opens Monday Sigma Nu will be seeded number one. The Faculty Grads and X-Club, who tied for second, pose the biggest threat to the snakes.

In the past week Sigma Nu won its only game defeating Sig Ep 81-38. Fred Suarez led the Snakes with 31 points. Close behind was Rat Flohr with 21. High man for the Sig Eps was Tom Eaton with 12 points.

The biggest game of the week was the X-Club Fac-Grad match. The Fac-Grads won 57-50 and managed to tie for second place with the X-Club. The Club pulled to a first quarter lead of 10-8, then went cold in the second quarter. As usual the scoring was led by Boyd Coffie with 27 points. Right behind him was Jack Lindquist with 21 points. High for the Club was Elliott Stedman with 21 points.

TKE ran its winning streak to three games by defeating the Indies 48-46 and the Delts 55-53. Both games were won in the final minute. In the Indies game Dan Pin-cetich had 15 points while Allan Curtis had 16 points.

High for the Indies was Bill Myers with 15 points. In the Delta Chi game scoring honors went to Van Lawrence with 20 points and TKE's Allan Curtis and Dan Pin-cetich had 12 and 18 points respectively.

KA managed to secure a fourth place win with a win over fifth place Lambda Chi 42-37. Gary Dering had 18 points for the winners. Terry Law was the high man for Lambda Chi with 16 points.

In an overtime game Lambda Chi defeated Delta Chi 46-45. Ted Alford sank the winning free throw in the extra time period for a total of 19 points. Delt Van Lawrence was the high man with 23 points.

X-Club came from a halftime tie to defeat Delta Chi 57-51. This victory secured their second place tie with the Faculty Grads. Clubbers Scotty Green and Jim Oppenheim tallied 19 points and 17 points respectively. Van Lawrence led the Delts with 16 points.

Kappa's, Theta's Remain Unbeaten

By Jane Blalock
Sports Staff

Now that the girls' softball season is more than half over, tension begins to mount as two teams remain undefeated.

Only Kappa Kappa Gamma and Kappa Alpha Theta have endured the hard-fought battles to remain unvanquished. Thus the decisive game, if all goes according to schedule, will be played on March 8, as these two powers tangle.

Only two of the four games originally scheduled were actually played last week. On Monday, the Alpha Phi's pulled out a real squeaker over the Phi Mu's.

It was a see-saw battle all the way until the Alpha Phi's used a late surge to pull out a 10-9 victory.

This was the closest game of the season, as well as being the most exciting. The cheers and applause of the enthusiastic fans literally rang out over the entire campus.

Due to an inability to scrape up enough girls for a full team, the Independent women were forced to forfeit their game to the Pi Phi's.

The Kappas defeated Gamma Phi Beta by a fairly comfortable margin, 13-1. However, this score is not indicative of the brand of softball that was played between the two previously undefeated teams.

The Kappas were held to only a few runs during the opening innings and it looked like a defensive game was in the making. But the Kappas broke the game wide open in the third inning with an eight run rally, insuring their victory.

Margie Fifer again did an exceptional job holding the big hitters to single base hits, if not keeping them hitless.

The Thetas and Chi O's were rained out in Thursday's contest and will play the game at the end of the season.

This week the spotlight shines on the game between the Kappas and the Chi Omegas. Both teams are in contention for the title, despite Chi O's single defeat.

TKE Hold Slim Lead In I.M. Race

TKE extended its intramural lead to more than 75 points over runnerup Delta Chi by ranking second to the Faculty in tennis competition completed recently.

The Tekes edged by X Club by one match to pick up the 25 second-place points, giving them a 489½-point total for the year, 75½ better than Delta Chi's 414. The Delts were fourth in tennis.

Sigma Nu, making a strong bid to take basketball and soccer this term, slid to 94 points behind the leaders at 395¼ after finishing fifth in tennis.

The Faculty, run-away net champs with a 41-4 record, used its first place points to vault from ninth to seventh in the intramural race.

Colony Theatre Bookings Now Aimed At Rollins Students

By Benjamin Morrison

A few weeks ago the Colony Theatre in Winter Park bean a booking policy aimed directly at Rollins students and faculty. Miss Joanne Starr, manager, said, "It has been felt for some time in this area that really good foreign and 'art' films were simply not being booked. As an experiment, the Colony is attempting to bring to Rollins students, in particular, the best films available to us."

"Our first film, Repulsion, despite help from Dr. Brackney, was not as successful as we had hoped and could have been better supported. Many students who did come returned to see it a second time and seemed to be most impressed. In order to keep this policy of art films, business will have to improve."

Miss Starr mentioed some of the films which are planned to open soon. The Knack and Girl with the Green Eyes, both British and both starring Rita Tushingham (Taste of Honey, The Leather Boys, Dr. Zhivago), are the newest attractions. The Royal Ballet with Rudolf Nureyev and Margot Fonteyn opens March 4, followed by Life at the Top on March 1, a sequel to Room at the Top, starring Baurence Harvey and Jean Simmons.

Children of Paradise opens March 18 and was quit successful in the North. On March 25th a French comedy, High Infidelity, starts. Walt Disney's Fantasia, the cartoon with music by Bach, Beethoven, and others, conducted by Leopold Stokowski, begins April 1. All of these films will run for six days, with the Operetta Series continuing on Thursdays.

Future plans now under discussion are foreign language subtitled films, separate matinee and evening showings, possible Rollins discount rates (which will definitely be effective for the Royal Ballet), and free coffee before and after showings.

"We'd like to continue showing art films at the Colony," Miss Starr said, "and would also like to institute new features into the showings. But we've got to have an audience. Rollins can do a lot to see that the Colony Art Theatre is successful."

Possessing some of the nation's top ranking tennis players, the Varsity Girls Tennis Team is expecting to post a perfect record by the end of the season. Having already defeated Florida State University, 8-1, University of South Florida, 4-3, and the University of Florida 9-0, the team's next match will be in Tallahassee for the Florida State University Invitational. Over thirteen schools from the south and southeast will be represented at this tournament. The remaining matches are with University of South Florida on April 9 and Stetson University on April 23.

Playing in the number one position for the girls is freshman Wendy Overton. Ranking number six in the nation in the Junior Division. Wendy, a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, has been undefeated this year. In the number two spot, Mary Ann Foniri is also undefeated in season play. Ranking number two in the Juniors and fifth in the Womens for New England, Mary Ann has proved to be an asset to the team this year. Guiliana Peterson, one of the two returning members of last years team, plays in the number three position. Last year Guiliana ranked first in the Juniors in the Mid-Atlantic and fourth in the Florida Intercollegiate. Holding down the number four spot is sophomore Pam Sullivan. Last year Pam was ranked sixth in the Florida Intercollegiate and teamed with Guiliana was the winner of the doubles trophy at the FSU Invitational. Rounding out the team is Nona Gandleman. Nona has moved from the ninth position to number five since last year. Missing from the team at this time is Gretchen Vosters, who due to illness will not be able to play on the team until spring term.

Rollins should be proud of this hard working group of girls for they deserve recognition for the time and energy that they put forth as a team.

Foes Slice Ky. Margin

Top-ranked Kentucky boosted its rating slightly, but runnerup St. Joseph's still gained ground, pulling to within a point of the Wildcats in Dunkel's College Basketball Index this week.

With the NCAA tourney only two weeks away the college race is tightening up with 20th-ranked St. John's only 11 points behind the leaders.

Dunkel's ratings were slightly shaken last week when three newcomers moved into the nation's ten best and four more invaded the second ten.

Heading the newcomers in the top ten is U.C.L.A., which vaulted from 15th to third. Utah and Syracuse also advanced from the second ten.

Providence set the pace in the second decade, leaping 38 spaces from 57th to 19th. Cincinnati, Wichita State and Michigan also gained ground.

In collegiate ranks Indiana State retained the top spot while Tennessee State was the only newcomer to the top ten, jumping from 11th to seventh.

Delts, Snakes Tie for Crown

Delta Chi tallied a pair of fourth quarter goals to tie Sigma Nu 2-2 Feb. 11 and throw the intramural soccer race into a dead heat.

No playoff is scheduled, Clarence Varner, intramural director, said, and first and second place points will be divided between the two teams (5-1-1 apiece).

Tom Alexander knotted the count on a penalty kick after he had cut a 2-0 margin in half with a regulation tally.

Rick Mello and Carter Dye scored for Sigma Nu.

Lambda Chi finished third at 4-2-1, while TKE and the X Club tied for fourth with 4-3 marks.
