A GIFT TO THE LIBRARY

Until now, the Society's Library did not have copies of the publications of the Florida State Historical Society, 1922-1933. Through the gift of these publications, Mrs. T . Frederick Davis has filled the important gap on our shelves. They were a part of the library of Mr. Davis who for many years was treasurer of the Society and who carried on single-handed and gratuitously all the work of our headquarters. As this series is unequalled as a contribution to the writing of Florida's history, the gift makes a fitting memorial to our former treasurer who himself did so much to uncover the truth of our history and make it better known.

THE FLORIDA STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Those who have recently joined with us in the Florida Historical Society are doubtless confused by the title above, which has no definite connection with our Society.

In 1921, Mr. John B. Stetson, Jr., then president of the Board of Trustees of John B. Stetson University, because of his great interest in Florida's history, determined to seek out and bring together Florida historical material, largely from foreign archives, and support the writing, editing, and publication of a series of vol-
