THE FLORIDA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

It is expected that before the next number of the QUARTERLY is published payment of our grant from the State through the State Library Board will be resumed and we shall be enabled to resume our former size.

THE ANNUAL MEETING

As this issue of the QUARTERLY is expected to reach the members before the annual meeting, President Tebeau's official notice is reprinted from our last number for their information:

Notice of the Annual Meeting of 1950

At the invitation of the University of Florida the Annual Meeting of the Florida Historical Society will be held at the University in Gainesville on April 13, 14, 15. The Board of Directors will meet on Thursday evening the 13th; there will be historical programs throughout Friday, with a program luncheon, and the annual dinner on Friday evening. A program meeting on Saturday will be followed by the annual business meeting and election of officers at noon. Professor Rembert W. Patrick is General Chairman, and Mr. Edward C. Williamson is Program Chairman

The programs have largely been planned and will be interesting as well as historical. Gainesville is centrally located and can be reached from much of the State in a few hours, so a large attendance is hoped for, especially of members at the business meeting. The P. K. Yonge Library of Florida History, a division of the University Library, is an attraction to the history-minded. The growing interest in Florida history at the University makes it a stimulating place to meet, and we have not met there since 1936. Your friends will be welcome at all except the brief business meeting, during which they may visit the Florida State Museum, which is the outstanding museum of the Southeast.

Will you not be with us.

CHARLTON W. TEBEAU, President
