THE ROLLINS SANDSPUR, JAN. 8, 1971

Due to a definite lack of news a regular SANDSPUR was not published this week. However, a few important announcements must be made at this time.

ELECTION

This Wednesday from 9 A.M. to 4 P. . the polls will be open in the Student Union to elect a student member to the College Senate Standards and Ethics committee. Two candidates, LESLIE SHIREN and BOB WALIS, are running. Over 50% of the student body must vote to validate this election.

Interested in spending your junior year in Germany, Switzerland or Spain? At 8 P.M. Thursday, Jan. 14, representatives from the AMFC Junior Year Abroad Program will meet interested students in the Woolson House. One student who has been to each of the countries will speak and answer questions.

Mort Sahl, one of the country's best known political satirists, will speak at Temple Israel on 4917 Eli Street(off Fairbanks) on Sunday, Jan. 10 at 8 P.M.. His topic is: " Due to Lack of Interest, Tomorrow will be cancelled." Tickets are $ 1.50 for students at the door.

Graduate School applications are due in shortly. For advice and information see Mr. Loving in the Financial Aid and Placement office on the Second Floor in Carnegie.

Next week another fascinating and vivacious SANDSPUR will grace your grace your mailbox. Remember: no news is good news.

EDITORIAL COMMENT OF THE WEEK: " There is only reality in action."
