Greeks to Begin Rush Tuesday, October 7

Rush. Bid. Pledge. Activation. These words and a few others, no doubt, will become a part of your vocabulary when Greek Rush begins on October 7. From this date until Greek Weekend in mid-November, you will become a part of the biggest group effort on the Rollins campus as the fraternities and sororities offer a variety of activities in an effort to get to know you and to make you feel at home on the Rollins campus. As Randy Taylor, IFC President, stressed in a presentation during Orientation Week, each Greek house has different characters, involvements, and interests just as each Greek member does. In fact, Greek members are involved in every activity on the Rollins campus creating a cross section of interests and personalities in each house which is second-to-none among the Rollins organizations. Speaking of houses, the Greek organizations presently occupy small-group living facilities providing the ideal on-campus living experience. These facts coupled with the definite social advantages of membership and the friendships made during Rush make the Greek system one that certainly deserves your interest and investigation.

For this reason the Rollins Greeks hold a six-week Formal Rush each fall enabling you to get to know each fraternity and sorority and to find out how much each one has to offer. During Rush, the houses hold a variety of activities from cook-outs to keg parties to semi-formal dances. Also, each house welcomes anyone to stop in anytime that each Greek member may get to know you individually.

During Formal Rush, the Panhellenic and Interfraternity Councils will hold a few informal meetings to help you with the procedures of Rush and to answer any questions that you may have. These meetings are listed in the Funny Book and will be publicized in this newspaper and by posters around campus. If at any time you have a question or problem with Fraternity Rush, feel free to contact Randy Taylor, Interfraternity Council President, Tony Waits, Interfraternity Council Vice-President, or any other IFC or Greek officer and they will all be glad to help you out. Sorority Rush questions should be directed to Patti Marx, Panhellenic Rush Chairman, or Pinkie Hutcheson, Panhellenic President, who are also eager to answer your questions or attempt to solve any problems with Rush that you may have.

With all of this in mind, the Greeks are planning for the best Rush yet at Rollins as each of you gets to know what we feel is the most important and active system at Rollins. The Greeks are as anxious to know you as you are to know them. With what we have to offer, can you afford to pass this up?

A Taste of The Meal

Contemporary Central Florida provides the backdrop for THE MEAL opening October 9 at the Seminole Theatre. It captures an event in the lives of the super-wealthy.

Dina Merrill plays the role of the daughter of an empire builder. She turns out to be an even bigger empire builder after her father's death. She threatens to withdraw her financial support of Central Florida businesses.

THE MEAL is the story of a dinner party at Miss Merrill's plush home. Each of the guests has their own motive in attending. Greed, power, domination, courage, lust, and jealousy, everyone has a reason.

Carl Betz, former star of 'Judd for the Defense', portrays a business man who is wrestling for control of his company from Miss Merrill. A game of "gun poker" is used to decide. Their "near love affair" complicates this daring game.

Leon Ames, Chairman of the Board, tries to hold onto the empire which has possessed Miss Merrill.

Her attempt to find love and gain control of her empire comes to a startling climax in Ambassador Releasing's THE MEAL.

Rated R.

Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation and the Central Florida Diabetes Foundation join hands in the presentation of many gala events in connection with the World Premiere of "The Meal," starring Dina Merrill, Carl Betz, Leon Ames, and Susan Logan, Miss Merrill, Mr. Betz, and Miss Logan will be in Winter Park the 7th, 8th, and 9th of October to participate in a series of fund raising efforts for the research foundations. On Wednesday, October 8th at 8:00 p.m., a "Meal" will be served at the Langford Hotel. And on Thursday, October 9th at 8:00 p.m., The World Premiere will be presented at the Seminole Cinema, 17-92 and 436. Following the premiere of "The Meal," an after-theatre champagne party will be held at the Beef & Bottle Restaurant and Patio in Winter Park. Tickets, good for all three events, may be obtained with a contribution of $50.00 per person. Reservations are limited to 300 and black tie is optional. Tickets for the Premiere only may be obtained with a contribution of $5.00 per person. You are cordially invited to "The Meal"...A gala World Premiere for the Benefit of juvenile diabetes research...Please call 644-4601 for reservations and information. Both Charlie Rodgers and Bob Juergens are featured along with several Rollins students.

Who Rates Highest on the Soccer Team?

by: BOB SULLIVAN

Soccer Team Bound Northward

Rollins' Soccer Team turns North for the beginning of a very difficult part of their season, perhaps winning an NCAA Tournament bid with the success of the squad. Starting at 6 am Thursday morning, the Tars headed to Chapel Hill, to take on the University of North Carolina. The Tar Heels today. With no rest, the team then travels to Durham, N.C. to take on the Blue Devils for Duke University the very next day.

The team then has exactly 4 days to prepare for a baseball style schedule, with 7 games in 14 days. Heading the list are two schools which will put on a good show when they come into the Sandspur Bowl. These two are Quincy College and Florida International University (FIU). Who will Quincy College? Their soccer team only won the NAIA championship last year, which is the premier major organization of college athletics, along with the NCAA. FIU is currently ranked number 7 in the South. (Rollins is number 5.) Other games on the schedule, all at home, include Stetson (a 2-2 tie last year), University of West Virginia, University of South Florida (ranked number 7 in the South for Division I schools), and the Air Force Academy.ounding out the month are Eckerd College (Oct. 1) and St. Louis U. (Oct. 30).

We've Got Trouble.

Right here on the Annie Russell Stage, we're in terrible, terrible trouble because "The Music Man" will not be able to open on schedule Oct. 16 without help from the rest of the college community. This year the Theatre department is small and if "The Music Man" is to be up to the standards that both the College and the Theatre department expect, without losing the cast and crew to physical exhaustion, ulcers, or academic failure, we desperately need help.

If you are lonely, tired of your roommate, sick of homework, bored of the Pub, or depressed because of the weather, come work in the shop. If you have five minutes between classes, a half hour, or a free hour or more, please come paint a chair, hammer a nail, or carry something to the theatre. The shop is open from 9-12, 1-5, and 7-11 Monday through Fridays and on weekends in the afternoons and evenings. If you have ever secretly yearned to become actively involved in a show, this is your big chance. No experience is necessary and if you don't want to come alone, bring a friend with you.

If you would like to work on costumes or make-up crews, or move scenery and props during performances, we implore you to come and tell us NOW.

The entire cast, crew, and production staff have been arduously working for the past four weeks. They would like to have a completed set to act on, so PLEASE HELP US!

Letters to the Editor

To The Editor:

Please let my letter to printed in your college NewsPaper, So as to give me a chance to rid myself of the loneliness, that does not pass like pages of yesterday, but persists in my incarceration at the London Correctional Institution in London, Ohio.

I would like to correspond with someone, who cares about more than just himself or herself, someone who wishes to do more than accept the fact there are millions of people in this world who are lonely, for more reasons than just one.

I am a 25 year old male, and I have lost contact with friends and the current event knowledge of the outside world.

I am searching for a friend: That's not asking too much out of life, is it? So all letters and post cards would be appreciated. Please address them to: Gerald R. Williams #134-912, P.O. Box 69, London, Ohio 43140.

All letter and postcards will be answered. Maybe you are wondering why you should do this kind favor for me: A letter to me is a dream come true!!!

Thank You In Advance!!
Gerald Williams

Dear Editor,

It has come to my attention that Rollins will not be having a large concert this year, instead we are to have a few mini-concerts. Correct me if I'm wrong, but I do not recall anyone asking the students if this is what they want done with their money. After all, we should have some say in how we would like our money spent!

I agree whole-heartedly with Don Best in his letter to the editor last week, referring to the possibility of having Bruce Springsteen as our concert performer this year. He is truly a fantastic performer, as all of you who have seen him, in concert, would know.

Now would definitely be the time to get him, because I'm sure his rates are going to go way up. He probably could use the publicity here in the south, since he is well known primarily in the North-East.

I also hope that the committee who is planning our concerts will start planning ahead this year. We don't need another mess like last year, when it comes to the end of the year and we still don't have a concert lined up.

So far, as I've been writing this letter, I've been relatively formal and, in my eyes, very unemotional. But, actually this is something that really aggravates me. I think it's about time the students in this school get their ass' in gear and let the Student Center know what they want for entertainment. Let's hear it from those who want to see Bruce Springsteen here!!!

Do we have to wait for some alumni to get us interested? Even if you don't want Springsteen, let's hear who you do want!! How else is anyone to know? Even if you don't know who to contact just ask around or write the paper. Let's show some concern and interest. IT'S OUR MONEY, THEY ARE SPENDING!! Remember that!

A Springsteen Fan

Dear Friends:

Can you believe that we are getting the 1975 PROJECT CHEER underway? If you are among the generous, wonderful people who have helped us through the years, that one sentence is enough. If project cheer is new to you, please finish this letter, and join us in this heart-warming effort.

We are gathering gifts to be distributed during the holidays to our patients at the state hospitals in Chattahoochee and Macclenny. Please look over the suggestions below, and do what you can to help.

All gifts must be NEW and should be delivered unwrapped to the Mental Health Association office at 608 Mariposa Street in Orlando. Come by with your donations any week day from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. We want our volunteer wrappers and taggers to have plenty of time for their own families, so we ask that donations for the hospitals please be delivered by November 15 so that we can have everything ready to ship by December 1.

Knowing that your gift will be a sign of your human warmth and will bring to those receiving gifts a feeling of not being forgotten should make your shopping a pleasant experience. However, if you find you just can't find time to shop, gifts of money are most welcome. We will shop for you, or your gift may be used to purchase Canteen Coupon Books for those patients who simply have no money. Visits to the Canteen with one's own money are great for patient morale.

Every gift and every cent collected will be used for patients...not only those patients at the state hospitals but to the five facilities here in Orange County. Any expenses incurred will be paid by the Mental Health Association of Orange County.

Here is a suggested list of gifts for the patients:

FOR LADIES

Cosmetics, purses, slippers, gowns, underwear, blouses, skirts, dress materials, sewing supplies, hair rollers, swim suits, hose.

FOR MEN

Underwear, socks, caps, cosmetics, hair cream, tobacco, pipes, shirts, slacks, belts, trunks, sneakers, loafers.

FOR MEN OR LADIES

Wallets, jeans, stamps, pens, writing materials, games, records, books, playing cards, rain gear, beanbag ash trays, bibles.

As always, when we say thanks for your help with project cheer, we speak for the hundreds of men, women and young people who, temporarily, cannot say thanks in person.

Let us hear from you.

Sincerely,
Kyle B., Mitchell, Jr., Chairman
1975 Project Cheer Committee

CAMPUS NOTES

A REMINDER

I am interested in establishing a Young Republicans Group at Rollins, and I am looking for members of the campus community students, faculty and administration, to form this organization. I feel that such a group is desirable in this pre-election year, but I would also like this group to continue after the election. I hope that all those interested will contact me at Box 1871 or extension 2239 before October 15. Thank You.
 Lew Lerman

Last Friday evening at 5:00, Rollins top administrators and Winter Park Entrepreneurs met at the Yankee Trader, 328 Park Avenue, in the Dart-Throwing Semi-Finalist Championship game. Amidst a comfortable atmosphere of edging darts, drinking beer and wine, eating, and playing backgammon, each semi-finalist demonstrated his own classic style.

LaRue Boyd, Director of Public Relations, threw his whole body into the game, showing intense concentration and vigor, while Bill Artog, Director of Admissions, pursed his lips with each thoughtful throw. As the tension mounted, Ronald Pease, Dean of Student Affairs, closed his eyes as each dart flew from his fingertips. Mark Kirkland, owner of the Yankee Trader, was the most aggressive player. After a powerful thrust from his right arm, each dart whistled through the air and stuck into the target with a resounding thud.

The finals will be held this Friday, Oct. 3, at 10:00. All Rollins Students are invited! Free beer will be given with any food order from 6 p.m. to midnight. Students dartboard competition will start this Thursday. Winners of this game will be able to compete in Friday's game.

RECREATIONAL WATER POLO - Tuesday and Thursday nights from 7-8 p.m.
 ***No experience necessary***

WIM CLUB
 Meeting to be held at 3 p.m. October 7 for all men and women interested - Mr. Meisel hopes to arrange meets with Stetson, St. Leo, Florida Southern, and FTU.

ANNUAL COMPETITION OVERSEAS

The 1976-77 competition for grants for graduate study abroad offered under the Mutual Educational Exchange Program (Fulbright-Hays) and by foreign governments, universities and private donors will close shortly. Only a few more weeks remain in which qualified graduate students may apply for one of the 550 awards which are available to 52 countries.

Most of the grants offered provide round-trip transportation, tuition and maintenance for one academic year; a few provide international travel only or a stipend intended as a partial grant-in-aid.

Candidates must be U.S. citizens at the time of application, hold a bachelor's degree or its equivalent by the beginning date of the grant, have language ability commensurate with the demands of the proposed study projects, a cum. G.P.A. of at least 10.5 and good health. Preference is given to those between 20 and 35 years of age who have not travelled extensively. For further information call Kate Reich, Ext. 2306. Deadline for filing applications is October 4, 1975.

S.C.S.C. HAPPENINGS AT PINEHURST

The Student Center for Social Concerns is now in full swing. Along with the Student Legislative Action Center (Jed Stander coordinator), which was already an active organization, the College Internal Affairs Committee, Ernie Velez coordinator, and the College-Community Affairs Committee, Bill MacLean coordinator, have begun their programs.

The College Internal Affairs Committee invited President Critchfield to speak at Pinehurst last Tuesday. Upcoming events:

C.I.A.C. will be starting a recycling program on Monday, October 6, beginning in McKean and gradually building up in other dorms. This will be aluminum cans only.

Dean Pease will be speaking at Pinehurst Wednesday, October 8, at 7:30 p.m.

The College - Community Affairs Committee's upcoming events:

C.C.A.C. has invited LaRue Boyd to speak at Pinehurst Thursday, October 9, at 7:30 p.m.

George Westwood will be organizing a group of volunteers to work at Sunland Hospital for the mentally retarded.

A speaker and demonstration on stereo equipment will be provided soon.

Everyone is cordially invited to come and participate in any or all of the above events.

Because of the prevalent uncomfortable feelings among students concerning the dangers of walking across campus at night, the S.C.S.C. will provide a 24-hour escort service to anyone who wishes to go anywhere on campus but in his taxi. So, if the situation arises, feel free to call # 2287.

Finally, the Student Center for Social Concerns is having a party this coming Saturday in Pinehurst at 9:00 on. Everyone is welcome! Check out the happenings at Pinehurst.

HOW DO YOU GET INTO GRAD SCHOOL?

That question will be answered Tuesday, October 7 at 6:45 PM by members of the Student Affairs staff in the French House (behind New Womens Dorm). If you would like to hear the answer, plan on attending the only large-scale informational meeting on this topic scheduled this year. Topics to be discussed will include: Choosing a grad school, the Admissions Process, Financial Aid and where to get it, Housing for grad students and more.

TO ALL PEOPLE INTERESTED IN POLITICAL SCIENCE [MAJORS AND NON-MAJORS]:

Are you trying to decide which graduate school

Are you trying to decide which graduate school has the best program for you? Are you worried about getting a job with a degree in political science? Are you just looking for a place where you can talk with other students and professors about the ins and outs of political science?

There is now a club designed to cater to these and many other related needs. In addition to finding solutions to these questions, the Political Science Club hopes to provide various activities concerning political science, such as having guest speakers, visiting "models" of governmental bodies, or even organising picnics and other get-togethers where students and professors can enjoy informal discussions of foreign policy, points of law and government, and many other aspects of political science.

We think the Political Science Club has great potential for both students and faculty. If you are interested in finding out more about political science, or if you are looking for an informal outlet to enjoy your major field, come to the lounge of Knowles Hall on Friday, October 10, at 2:00; come and see what your efforts in such a club can do for you.

SOUTHERN POVERTY LAW CENTER

Two Rollins students may have an opportunity to work for the Southern Poverty Law Center during this winter term. The Center was founded by the Honorable Julian Bond, U.S. Congressman from Georgia, is based in Montgomery, Alabama. One of its major roles is the preparation, financing, and staffing of significant court cases. The Center has, for example, recently handled cases dealing with the sterilization of welfare women, the substandard conditions on women's prisons, the lack of equal opportunity for appointment to state institutional positions of influence (such as prisons, parole boards, trustees of orphanages, etc.), and the discrimination involved in community recreational facilities. The Center's most famous recent case is the successful defense of Joanne Little, accused of murdering a prison guard that was attempting to sexually assault her.

The most likely role for Rollins students is that of investigative journalists for the Poverty Law Report, the Center's newspaper. This was the task given to Clark Leming, now a Rollins alumnus, who participated in the internship last year. Very likely, Rollins students will be provided with adequate housing; but will not receive pay or travel money. The internship will be treated as an Off-Campus Independent Study, and will necessitate all the appropriate paper work and committee approval.

Journalism experience is not required, but an applicant should be a capable and proficient writer. This is a very fine opportunity for pre-law students, communications majors with an interest in social issues, and for those "activist" students who are looking for social action projects.

All interested students should contact Dr. Daniel R. DeNicola (French House 4-A or Box 1013) before October 10.

Society and Leisure at Rollins

"Jumpin' Jack" and "Randy Tayl... (oops) Rollins" WPRK Presents

"Jumpin' John" and "Rockin' Randy Rollins" are 'comin at you' every Sunday evening between 9 and 12:00 over Rollins College's own WPRK - 91.5 MHz FM on your dial. Their show - "Top 40 Take Off" - the mono to stereo switch, lots more rock music and other good things are going around down, down under Mills Memorial Library. The broadcast studio located there has been undergoing installation of new equipment which will not only allow stereo output, but should increase the quality of sound reproduction for all those earphone experts in Rollinsville.

General Manager Randy Taylor (alias above) indicated that two new direct drive turntables and tape consoles (currently rated best by those who should know) have been added to that end and that pending FCC approval (possibly mid-November) the station would also acquire use of a stronger new transmitter.

This transmitter would quadruple WPRK's power output (350-1320 watts), and enable the tasteful citizens of south Seminole and Lake, North Osceola and Orange counties to hear the voice of Rollins College. That voice should be somewhat new indeed, what with $500.00 of new rock albums on order; the possibility of extended late night rock broadcasting (we must hear that $500.00 outlay); varied rock programming to include some jazz, folk and nationalized (British, Latin Amer.) pieces; experimental thematic classical programming (emphasizing periods or instrument(s)); and a few special interest items.

Especially... 1) that "Sport Scene at Rollins College" with John Pattysen will be heard during both classical and rock periods; 2) an interview short spot (15-30 min.) featuring VIP's connected with 'happenings' here on campus; 3) both Earth News and Earth Starship News (the new music world outlet) will be heard every night during the rock show period; and last but not close to least the satirical (synonymous with entertaining) "Top 40 Take Off" on Sunday nights.

It should also be remembered that during midterms and final exam weeks the station will be airing a call in show designed with the caffeine tripping crowd in mind, asking for responsiveness from you alert students.

WPRK is entirely student run with Dr. Charles Rodgers acting as faculty advisor, Jim Rice (Rock Program Dir.), and Phil Moore (Classical program Dir.) ask that anyone interested in becoming part of this developing facet of the 'Rollins Experience' to please drop a line to them via Box 2172 Campus mail. Fun in the programming and broadcasting of the station is available, not to mention the experience and sense of involvement gained. But if you can't participate that way, then just tune your radio in for these shows:

Mon - Sat. 4-9 Classical programming
9-12 Student Programming
(Rock, Interviews, Specials)
Sun. 12-6 Classical
6-7 Jazz of 30's & 40's
7-8:30 Easy Listening
8:30-9 Scan
9-12 "Top 40 Take-Off"

TO WHOMEVER IT CONCERNS:

This letter is written in conjunction with the first Edition of the Sandspur; an Article called "Bit and Chew." I am appalled at the narrow-mindedness of Miss "Patsy Post". I felt that being at such a liberally minded institution, cultures and beliefs other than that of a bigoted norm would be accepted. I have obviously been proven incorrect. The assimilation of distinct Ideology is what has made this country great! If Miss Post has so little appreciation of America's lore, she should be sent to a reservation, or better yet... AN ASYLUM.

The Owner of "The Vest"

BITE AND CHEW

This week I have some good news and bad news.

Buzz, Buzz, Buzz, - by now I'm sure rumor has it of former editor Grover Gardner's departure from the Sandspur (inside information has it that Grover had a nervous breakdown. I personally think that's Grover's rumor.) Really Grover we will miss you. Tisk Tisk.

The Lambda's threw a party on Friday nite with 4 kegs - however as parties go, it was not a tasteful event. Lambda's have the tendency to turn all social gathering into assimilated locker room situations. The house smelled with dirty socks, mildewed towels and the odor of a reigned king, Lambda dear you are rating zero on the social scale - clean it up mon jocks.

A quick note to Running Turtle, your lit style is so over whelming that an open show your letter will be on view in the French (for our readers). Running Turtle is an supporter of the Indian delegation from homa - isn't that quaint..

Wrong, Howard. If luscious Lois is going to be part of your life, insurance should be, too. And the best time to invest in a policy is now. While you're young and in good health, it'll cost a lot less.

Wondering about your financial future can be a drag—until you figure out what to do about it. That's where we can help. "Phone or write me today and take advantage of being young."

The exploitation film is as old as the motion picture itself. The essence of the exploitation film is to milk as much money out of a trend or a fad as humanly possible before the subject becomes dogged and dated. For instance, when Billy Jack was released, a whole spate of "redneck-hero-who-has-had-enough" films were made to capitalize on the audience's reaction to Billy Jack; Walking Tall, Mr. Majestic, A Man Called Challenge, all were, essentially, reworkings of the themes of the initial film. Likewise with the success of French Connection, a number of films have been released that exploit the "tough-cop" syndrome. Therefore, the films that follow a successful movie into its specialized genre are usually of inferior quality, relying on the groundwork preset by other ventures.

Indeed, Beyond the Door is being hyped as an "Exorcist" movie. You can see it in the ads; the darkened room with the single shaft of light creeping in the doorway, the prominent display of Juliet Mills in demonic guise, and the overuse of the word "possession" in the ad campaign. This type of blatant plagiarism is not illegal, rather it is acknowledged as approved ad technique. The public is not totally naive of this manipulation, however. Many people shun those same movies that purport to be better than their progenitor, and with ample cause, but it is unfortunate with Beyond the Door.

Don't misunderstand, Beyond the Door is far from being an excellent film, but in my estimation, is far better as a film than the Exorcist. The problem with the latter film is that 90% of the film was based on initial shock value; if you go back a second or a third time, you will be amazed as to how shallow the film really is. After you have recovered from the shock of seeing a twelve year-old child twist its head around and spout four-letter words, you realize that the film has a "tattered fabric of inner logic" and does not work as a rational film. Beyond the Door does not fall into the pitfalls of exploiting vulgarity and obscenity like Friedkin's work. The emphasis is on establishing a logical basis for action and events to be based upon. The characters are more clearly defined and believable: the tortured mother, the worried father, the obnoxious children, and the enigmatic satan-worshipper. The drawback to this is that if it is not handled with the utmost of care, these characterizations become cliché and stereotyped; The Exorcist went to the opposite extreme of loose characters with little depth.

"Life and the Structure of Hemoglobin"

"Life and the Structure of Hemoglobin," a 30-minute film about efforts of physical scientists to understand biological processes, will be transmitted by the Public Broadcasting Service to all PBS stations on Saturday, October 4, at 2 p.m.

"I believe that it is possible to understand more and more about the nature of the world and about living organisms. I do not believe there is any aspect of life that in the course of time we shall not understand." These words are spoken by Dr. Linus Pauling in the new film "Life and the Structure of Hemoglobin." The belief expressed by those words is just one reason why physicists and other physical scientists hope to be able to make fundamental contributions to biology and the study of life.

"Life and the Structure of Hemoglobin" is about the contributions of physical science to the study of how hemoglobin, the protein molecule found in blood, binds, transports, and releases

The special effects, as with The Exorcist, are uniformly excellent. There is one truly remarkable scene involving the children wherein their dolls become "possessed" and start moving voluntarily, eyes gleaming yellow while their room's floorboards are shaken apart by Hell. There is also the terror of the imagined which never entered into the former film. There is one moment in the film when the mother holds her child away from the camera softly murmuring to it. We think ghastly thoughts for we have seen what she has done before, but when she turns around to face her worried husband, the child appears normal...all except for a singular tooth-like bite on the chest.

Though Beyond the Door has its roots deeply embedded in Blatty's book and movie, it is much more than "just another exorcism movie" such as Abby, Voodoo Black Exorcist, or Blood Couple, for only the idea of demon-possession is used from the previous movie. Beyond the Door takes off on its own direction and postulates on immortality, death, and the trick of the Devil. The main story deals with a man called Dimitri (Richard Johnson) who, ten years ago, had gained entry to a black mass and freed a young maiden from a cult of satanists who were about to use her body as the vehicle to bring Satan back to Earth. This opening scene is one of the most atmospheric and eerie ever put down on film: the soundtrack suggesting a coven of witches surrounds a glowing dias on which lies the nude form of Jessica (Juliet Mills), the music builds to a peak (in actuality, I believe either a Moog or VCS3 synthesizer was used for the weird noises), and the girl rolls her head from side to side, each time looking more and more like an embodiment of Satan. Dimitri rushes inside in time to rescue her, but not before being noticed by other members of the coven. The scene then switches to the Golden Gate Bridge, ten years later, and Dimitri driving his car through a railing, into the air, and towards the water. Time is frozen. The picture proper begins.

Another aspect of Beyond the Door and other horror movies that was lacking in the movie The Exorcist was the including of a surprise or shock ending to the movie. With Beyond the Door, there is a double twist ending. I do recommend this film for buffs of the horror/mystery genre, as well as those who enjoy all types of good filmmaking. This movie has played four weeks at the Interstate Six Theatres, which almost guarantees a return engagement in the Central Florida area.

Student Center Presents

Midnight Cowboy

This Sunday in Bush Auditorium there will be two special showings of one of the greatest movies made this decade. "Midnight Cowboy" is far from being a wild western, rather it is a powerfully moving drama set in the busy streets of New York.

The story is concerned with the friendship of two of society's misfits. They find trust and devotion in each other in a desperate world of cruelty and harshness.

A beautiful and poignant film, Midnight Cowboy earned three Academy Awards. It is a moving experience that no one will want to miss. This Sunday at two showings, 3 p.m. and 8 p.m.

"JENNIE"

"Jennie: Lady Randolph Churchill," the seven-part English television drama starring Lee Remick as Winston Churchill's beautiful and spirited American mother, will premiere Wednesday, October 8, at 9 P.M. on public television WMFE-TV/Channel 24.

In addition to Lee Remick in the title role, "Jennie" features an outstanding cast of English and American actors, including Ronald Pickup, Cyril Luckham, Rachel Kempson, Dan O'Herlihy, Helen Horton, Barbara Parkins and Warren Clarke.

For more information please call Linda Mayfield at (305) 855-3691.

oxygen in one of the most important biological processes. The way in which structure determines the function of hemoglobin is discussed, with reference to some of the various ways scientists are studying the molecule, such as with x-ray crystallography, nuclear magnetic resonance, and laser spectroscopy. Computer animation, itself used as a research tool, is a unique and integral feature of the film.

Appearing in the film with Dr. Pauling (Stanford University) are Drs. Max F. Perutz (Cambridge University), Robert G. Shulman (Bell Laboratories), Robert Langridge (Princeton University), and John Hopfield (Princeton University) who also serves as narrator.

The film was produced by PBS station KCET, Los Angeles, for the American Institute of Physics under a grant to AIP from the National Science Foundation. Subsequent to nationwide transmission by PBS, the film will be widely distributed by AIP to schools and colleges.

Mr. Bert Shapiro, writer and director of "Life and the Structure of Hemoglobin," has been making science films for over 20 years. His film "Birth and Death of a Star," which has been widely used by PBS stations, was also produced by KCET for the American Institute of Physics under a grant to AIP from the National Science Foundation. Executive producer for both of these films was Richard S. Scott, M.D.

A distinguished group of scientists organized by AIP served as science advisors: Dr. Franklin Hutchinson (Yale), Chairman; Drs. Richard A. Cone (Johns Hopkins), John S. Laughlin (Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center), Cyrus A. Levinthal (Columbia), Benno P. Schoenborn (Brookhaven National Laboratory), and Robert G. Shulman (Bell Laboratories).

Campus Safety-Who are They? What Do They Do?

The Rollins College Department of Campus Safety, located in Carnegie Hall, is designed to serve the students, faculty, and staff of the college and to protect their persons and property. Police service is provided to the college community 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Campus Safety personnel may be contacted by dialing extension 2401 on campus or 646-2401 from off campus between the hours of 8:00 A.M. and 5:00 P.M., Monday through Friday. During hours other than these, Campus Safety personnel may be contacted by calling the campus switchboard operator at "0" from a campus phone or 646-2000 from an off campus phone. In the event of an extreme emergency dial 2299 on campus and 646-2299 off campus.

Among the main duties of a Campus Safety officer are the enforcement of Federal, State, and local laws as well as all rules and regulations of the college. The position of Campus Safety in relation to violators is one of consistency in order to provide fair and impartial treatment, and those found in violation of the college rules and regulations will be referred to the Dean of Student Affairs. Campus Safety also tries to provide other services to the members of the college community in many ways ranging from escorting coeds to or from their residence halls to registering the personal property and bicycles of students which is explained below.

A program initiated by Campus Safety last year, and which will be in operation within the next few weeks is the personal property and bicycle registration program. This program was started in an effort to reduce the number of thefts of personal property and bicycles in and around the residence halls and to help aid in the recovery of these items in the event they are lost or stolen. Each student's social security number will either be engraved, or stamped (bicycles) on their property and all information about the items, such as make, model, serial number, etc., will be recorded on the provided form, which will be kept on file in the Campus Safety Office.

Students, who registered their property and bicycles during the last school year, that have anything they may wish to add or delete from their registration form may do so by contacting the Safety Officer when he is conducting registration in their residence hall. Schedules for each residence hall will be set up with the head residents and he or she will inform the residents of the respective halls as to the date and time, when Campus Safety will be present to register their items.

In addition, students may check out the engravers and other equipment from the Campus Safety Office by leaving their I.D. card.

We are providing the following information about our personnel so that you, the college community, may get to know us a little better. Names, titles, and brief work and educational histories are provided below:

Robert Sutley, Director of Campus Safety - Eight years law enforcement experience with the Orlando Police Department, A.A. degree in law enforcement, B.S. degree in Criminal Justice and a Masters degree from the Crummer School of Business, Rollins College.

John Beaumont, Deputy Director-Traffic-Management Supervisor - Two year veteran of Rollins College Campus Safety, two A.A. degrees from Valencia Junior College. Presently at Rollins working towards a Masters degree in Criminal Justice.

Joe Vinski, Night Supervisor - One and a half year veteran of Rollins College Campus Safety, two year veteran of Stetson University Security Guard, B.B.A. from Stetson University and currently working towards a Masters degree (accounting program) from the Crummer School of Business, Rollins College.

Clet Fort, Investigator - Nine years law enforcement experience with the Orlando Police Department. Currently working toward a degree in Criminal Justice at Rollins.

Glory Rodgers, Safety Officer - Three year veteran of Rollins College Campus Safety. Graduate of the Lincoln Business College.

Denny Settles, Safety Officer - Nine years as an Officer with the U.S. Navy in Ordinance and Underwater operations, B.S. degree from Western Michigan University and presently working towards a Masters degree in Criminal Justice at Rollins.

Robert Dewald, Safety Officer - Former Rollins Soccer Player. One and a half year experience with the Florida Parole and Probation Commission. Presently a senior at Rollins working toward a degree in Criminal Justice.

The Campus Safety Department needs both the cooperation and assistance of all the members of the College community and encourages all students, faculty and staff members to offer suggestions for resolving existing problems and for the prevention of potential problems. Campus Safety personnel are available at any time to meet with groups or individuals to discuss any matters concerning problems on campus.

Get a Parking Ticket Lately?

The Traffic Management Office at Rollins serves the college community by insuring the best use of available facilities within the limitations of existing laws and ordinances. While parking is a necessity, it is also a privilege and must be regulated for use in a fair and impartial manner.

During the summer a number of changes were applied to the traffic system: 1. Operational control was consolidated with the Department of Campus Safety, 2. The Winter Park Fire Department assisted in locating areas with accessibility to fire-fighting equipment mandatory. These areas have been marked Red-painted curbs. Any person parking on a curb is showing a total disregard for public safety and will be ticketed accordingly. Campus Safety Officers are empowered to write City of Winter Park tickets if the situation warrants and tickets are handled by the Municipal Court System. 3. Winter Park Police provided advice regarding the use of standardized traffic control signs, erection of "No Thru Traffic" signs and "Stop" signs at the Holt Cross walk have reduced the amount of non-college traffic and lessened the tendency to exceed the speed limit. 4. This year a new style parking decal was instituted. The material improvement in vehicle registration time will be evident next year as a result of realizing that the only ones to get a space in the Lot is to be born there, this year's Junior's will be given the opportunity to preregister their cars the end of this school year. 5. In order to permit use of parking spaces in high-demand areas 10-minute zones have been placed in front of the Admin. Building and the Student Union. These are indicated by a white curb with red lettering. Anyone may park in these areas for the time limit indicated. 6. A standardized "Visitor Parking Permit" is available in the Campus Safety Office for guests, substitute vehicles, etc. At no cost they will permit parking up to a one week limit. You are held responsible for advising your visitors of parking regulations on Rollins College.

All resident lots have been filled to their capacity. The cooperation of all is required if parking is to be a tolerable experience.

Short term goals regarding parking improvement are being met with the paving of the "G" lot the latest one completed. Long term plans are envisioned with traffic improvement a primary factor.

Any problem areas with traffic should be brought to the attention of the Traffic Supervisor, normally a solution can be devised to the advantage of all concerned. In order to permit better access the traffic office will be open Tuesday and Wednesday night from 6-6:30 p.m. We will be here to assist you — if we can find a parking space.

Save the Whale

The great whales are being ruthlessly hunted to extinction by Japanese and Soviet whalers. Their vast whaling fleets use airplanes, helicopters and sonar to chase down the terror-stricken whales, then grenade-tipped harpoons blow up the whales in agonizing death. Every 14 minutes another of these gentle, intelligent animals dies.

Why are whales still killed? To make petfood, fertilizer, soap, cosmetics, mink food and lubricating oil. How "civilized" is mankind to wipe out these magnificent mammals for such selfish purposes?

More than 2,000,000 whales have been killed in the past 50 years. The economics of whaling are the economics of extinction. Species after species of whales has been driven to commercial extinction. The Blue Whale, the greatest creature ever to live on Earth, was so overhunted that scientists now believe it will never regenerate. Japan and the Soviet Union have defied unanimous appeals by the United Nations, in 1972, 1973, and 1974 for a ten-year moratorium on whaling. Japan and the Soviet Union have consistently opposed whale conservation measures adopted by the International Whaling Commission.

In response to the whaler's defiance, every major American conservation, environmental and humane group has joined to call a boycott of Japanese and Soviet products. The Japanese whaling companies are owned and controlled by the great manufacturing and trading companies that produce and market the vast array of Japanese products sold in America.

The only creatures on earth that have bigger brains and maybe better - brains than humans are the Cetacea, the whales and dolphins. Perhaps they could one day tell us something important, but it is unlikely that we will hear it. Because we are coldly, efficiently and economically killing them off.

Please take a minute out of your time and sign your name to the below petition.

THE WHALES NEED YOUR HELP!

To the government of Japan and the Soviet Union.

I, the undersigned, deplore and detest the thoughtless commercial slaughter of the world's whale population and I demand that this barbaric practice ceases immediately.

I hereby pledge that unless you cease the killing of the Great Whales, we shall not knowingly purchase any product from, travel to, or have any traffic with your countries.
