JULIEN CHANDLER YONGE

On April 25, 1962, Julien Chandler Yonge passed away at his home in Pensacola. Born on January 20, 1879, the son of Philip Keyes and Lucie C. Davis Yonge, Julien Yonge spent most of his life in his native state. For more than a generation he was editor of the Florida Historical Quarterly and a mainstay of the Florida Historical Society. Known to generations of historians for his magnificent collection of Floridiana, remembered with warm affection by all who worked with him, Julien Yonge's name will always be found where Florida history is written. The memory of this kindly, self-effacing, and gentle man will always live in the hearts of those who loved him.
