COVER

The United States Army Third Cavalry at Tampa, May 1898. When it arrived from Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont, the Third camped west of the Tampa Bay Hotel between West Tenth Avenue and West Nineteenth Avenue. Because of transportation problems only part of the unit sailed for Cuba where they were attached to the Dismounted Cavalry Division led by former Confederate General Joe Wheeler. From a photograph in the P. K. Yonge Library of Florida History, University of Florida, Gainesville.
