ANNUAL ELECTIONS OF CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS

Miss Sara E. Muriel Chosen
President Y. W. C. A. for
'16-'17—Jas. I. Noxon
Heads Y. M. C. A.

The annual election of Y. W. C. A. officers took place in Cloverleaf Tuesday, February 29th. The results were as follows:

President, Sara Muriel.
Vice-President, Florence Sherman.
Secretary, Winifred Hanchett.
Treasurer, Virga West.

The recognition and installation of the officers occurs April 1st.

The regular meeting of the Y. W. C. A. was held Tuesday evening in Cloverleaf, led by the Vice-President, Florence Sherman. After the devotional service, Mrs. Ferguson gave us a very interesting and helpful talk. Her subject was "noblesse oblige" which may be interpreted "rank obligate service." In application to our college life, opportunity obligates service, and one of our many opportunities, is not to forget the small courtesies in our every day life. Courtesy springs from kindness and from the heart.

Elizabeth Russell, the president gave a few words of explanation about the Vesper services, Sunday afternoon in observance of the fiftieth anniversary of our Y. W. C. A.

Y. M. C. A. Election

A special business meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was called in Lyman Gymnasium, Wednesday, March the first at six forty-five p. m. The purpose of the meeting was for the annual election of the association officers for the ensuing year.

The meeting was in charge of Oswald Heydrich, the chairman of the nominating committee. He first presented the candidates for the offices as drawn up by the committee and appointed Warren Ingram and W. Ray Martin teller. Formal balloting followed and the following men were announced as elected to cabinet offices:

President, James I. Noxon.
Vice-President, Aaron A. Taylor.
General Secretary, Raymond W. Greene.
Treasurer, Ben Shaw.
Assistant Treasurer, W. Ray Martin.

Following the election, extempore remarks were called for and received from the president elect.

Dr. N. M. Pratt, former Vice-President of Rollins, arrived in Winter Park Friday. Tuesday he left again for New York City where he is engaged in relief work among the Armenians.

Jubilee Celebration of Y. W. C. A. Draws to a Close---a Review

To those of our friends who have not come in touch with some Young Women's Christian Association during this month of February perhaps a word of explanation in regard to our Member's Jubilee is needed. The occasion for our celebration is the completion of fifty years of association work since the first organization was formed in February 1866. While reviewing the growth and development of the association along new lines of usefulness and making a grateful appreciation of these real achievements of the past, one of our most heartfelt aims, we feel that this is a time, too, when we may look joyfully upon the past as a founda-social service work. During the Jubilee our Association has striven thru these weekly meetings to emphasize especially that deeper sympathy which the true purpose of the World-Wide Organization which will lead to a wider knowledge of the work and a stronger interest on the part of each member. The first of these meetings was given over to a comparison of Girls of Yesterday and Today which Mrs. Mary B. Patterson discussed in so characteristic a manner. A review of the opportunities for women of today was instructively given by Miss Stone and Miss Thomas who visited the Rollins girls for several days in the early part tion for an even more useful future. Most people of this day and age know at least the general outline of Y. W. C. A. work as it is carried on in cities; but they probably wonder what there is in the past of a student association which is tangible enough for true appreciation. Perhaps our hearts would turn first to the earnest effort and energy put into the organization on our campus of that association which was ever after to meet and welcome each girl as she came into the college and to make her feel that the year or years spent there were to be for her and for each student who would help to make it so a "Journey along the Road of Friendly Hearts." But a student Y. W. C. A. has not simply meant Welcome plus Every Day Friendliness with nothing farther. It has meant not only helpful service in the readjustment to the new college environment; but also, a strengthening and maintaining of the higher ideals of college life, a sharing of the school's loftiest purpose. One of the association's many methods of working towards this end is in arranging weekly meetings of the girls, sometimes for a simple service of devotion, other nights for practical instruction and sometimes with the idea of of February, inspiring with new energy and added interest every branch of the association. Other meetings of the Jubilee have been devoted to the study of fascinating social service, the work in Jewish Missions being discussed by Mrs. Albert Weaver, while Miss Davidson, a volunteer Y. W. C. A. worker of Jacksonville, charmed her hearers and gave helpful insight into the work of a city organization. Daily the interest and enthusiasm in the work has increased so that the Rollins Association can join with the others of the nation in rejoicing in the success of our Member's Jubilee.

PARTY AT WARDS

Saturday evening, February 26th, a jolly crowd of young people from the college assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward. After enjoying an evening of games, delicious ice cream and cake was served. Just before leaving everyone gathered around the organ and sang familiar songs. They departed laden with beautiful sweet peas declaring that they had been delightfully entertained by their host and hostess. Miss Denison was chaperone for the evening.

ROLLINS BASEBALL SEASON OPENS MONDAY

Three Game Series Rollins vs. Gordon Institute—Other Athletic News

The opening of the baseball season is at hand and Monday afternoon Rollins will play the first game of a three game series with Gordon Institute, from Barnsville, Ga. The team has been hard at work and a fast game is anticipated. Tuesday and Wednesday the second and third games of the series will be played.

Winter Park vs. Ocoee

Last Monday afternoon a nine composed of college and town men motored out to Ocoee, for a game with the fast west Orange team. The game was close and exciting throughout, ending in a 9-9 tie. This was the second game played with Ocoee, the first resulting in a victory for Ocoee.

Tennis Tournaments

Announcements for the Spring Tennis Tournaments were posted Thursday. The tournaments, five in number will start at an early date, and some fast and interesting play is expected. There are a number of crack players on the campus this year and practically all of the students play the game to a certain extent, interest in the approaching tournaments is intense.

GLEE CLUB

The Rollins College Girls' Glee Club gave a most pleasing concert at Winter Haven, Wednesday, March 1, under the auspices of the Library Association. The Club had its largest audience of the season which showed their appreciation of the program by their hearty applause. Dr. Allen was as usual especially appreciated.

On Thursday, the Club was entertained with a delightful picnic dinner at the Pavilion given by the ladies of the Library Association.

Thursday evening the Club sang to a fashionable audience at Florence Villa Hotel. The appreciation of those present and the beauty of the place made the occasion very pleasant to both the Club and the guests of the hotel.

Miss Barbara Weston, of Brooksville, a former music student, spent Tuesday on the campus. She was joyfully welcomed by many college

A delightful masquerade dance was held at the Winter Park Country Club last night, many guests from the town and college being present. Among guests from Rollins were Dean Ferguson, Prof. and Mrs. Powers and Alfred J. Hanna.

THE PURPOSE OF THE Y. W. C. A.

The Young Women's Christian Association is an organization with a purpose so broad, so comprehensive, that there is not one single phase of the life of any of its members which the Association does not touch.

Its national motto: "I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly," expresses in very few words the purpose of the organization as a whole, while the purpose of the student organization though essentially the same is expressed more fully in the following words: "The Women's Christian Association shall be to unite the women of the institution in loyalty to Jesus Christ, to lead them to accept him as their personal Saviour, to build them up in the knowledge of Christ, especially through Bible study and Christian service, that their character and conduct may be consonant with their belief. It shall thus associate them with the students of the world for the advancement of the Kingdom of God. It shall further seek to enlist their devotion to the Christian Church and the religious works of the institution."

But how shall the institution bring this knowledge of the Christ to its members so that they will be willing to give to Him their sincerest loyalty and to accept Him as a personal Savior? The chief means of bringing this about is, as the purpose states, through Bible study and Christian Service, that is, the members by first-hand study learn what ideal Christian service is and then through social service and other association activities they are given the opportunity of living their religion by daily service in many different directions.

No association can be said to exist of itself for each one is a member of the great world-wide organization; now proudly boasting of having encircled the earth. And everywhere it is carrying its glad message of the joys of the life abundant and is striving to aid the advancement of the Kingdom of God.

The association does not seek to take the place of, or supplant the church in anything. It does not stand instead of the church but for the church, seeking to act as the stepping stone to the church, or, as has been said, to stand as the open door or vestibule of the church. It seeks to give its members opportunities for Christian service, to lead them through this service to become more closely related to the church and to all religious work.

And all of this is made possible and accomplished only because the association seeks to give to its members the life for which our Saviour stood as the most wonderful champion—the life abundant. This means that not only the religious and spiritual part of a persons nature be developed but the intellect and the body must be given their proper share of attention for each aids the other as it grows more nearly perfect.

And so it is almost universally true that Association members have a distinguishing helpfulness, friendliness and gladness which comes to them because they have learned that all good is accomplished in the words of the world motto, "Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit Saith the Lord of Hosts."

WHAT ONE GIRL SAYS THE ASSOCIATION HAS GIVEN HER

"A program for splendid living.
A busy day.
A peaceful night.
A growing interest in people of other lands.
A desire to stand by the church.
Two glorious summer conferences.
Hundreds of committee meetings.
Thousands of happy thoughts.
A serious joyfulness.
A purpose in life.
A personal Savior."

NOTE OF APPRECIATION TO SANDSPUR STAFF

During the past week the editors of the Sandspur received a note of appreciation from a former editor which is in part as follows:

Editors Sandspur:

Greetings and congratulations on being able to issue the Sandspur weekly.

Having at one time been an editor myself of the Sandspur I fully appreciate the work you are accomplishing and feel that you should be cheered.

Hoping for the success of the paper, I am,

Very sincerely,

COMMENT FROM THE COMMONS

It has been highly noticeable the last few weeks that at the dining hall there is one table of students that has really a commendable variety of family spirit. This congenial group of seven young people (three young women and four young men) is presided over, at least a portion of the time, by Dean Enyart. Many good as well as bad reports have been made current concerning this seemingly inoffensive aggregation of students. To these eight is due all the honor and glory of starting a certain reform. In some mysterious manner the idea of fine penalty for offense was originated at this table. Spots on the table cloth had to be covered by pennies by the offending party and the proceeds thus obtained were pooled in the general treasury. When the cash book would warrant an investment was made in various kinds of "nick-nacks." Upon one occasion strawberry short-cake, at another time candy and again a special salad. The fad is catching for already we find on one of the other tables (Prof. Pope's) a Treasury establishment in the form of an elephant bank. We sincerely hope it shall not prove a White Elephant.

SPECIAL VESPER SERVICE TOMORROW

The usual vesper service will be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Knowles Hall, under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian Association.

The Month of Jubilee which the local organization has been celebrating with the nation-wide movement will culminate in this service which is in celebration of the fiftieth birthday of the Association. The real birthday is the third of March, but as it was not possible for this organization to observe that day the service will be held Sunday afternoon.

The principal feature of the special program will be an address by Dr. G. M. Royce, which will be of great interest to both students and townspeople. Music will be furnished by a special choir composed of the entire membership of the Association.

All students and friends in the town are cordially invited to this service.

There are still a number of students who have not paid their subscription bills. This is not business. Half the year is gone, and this money is needed by our business managers to defray the expenses of publishing the paper. Surely if our outside subscribers have paid their bills, which they have done, and if our advertisers have paid their bills, which they have done with few exceptions, our own students who are the ones most interested should do their little part. See the Circulation Manager and square up!

Mr. Mason Noble, of Inverness, one of the college trustees, spent several days at the college this week.

SOCIOLOGICAL INVESTIGATION

Last Saturday afternoon a number of the girls visited the packing house to make a Sociological survey. They were disappointed to find that the machinery was not running because the packers were having a half holiday, but the foreman and his assistants were very kind in explaining to them the packing process from the bringing in of the fruit until it is ready for shipment,—also giving them information regarding the working hours and wages of the packers, where and how they live, and what they do when the packing season here is over. The most delightful—although less educational part of the visit was the "testing" of the fruit which every one agreed was of excellent grade.

Mr. Ira J. Johnston, Arcadia, Fla., who was a student here in '89-90: "With all sincerity I can state no one has ever left the institution with a kindlier feeling or with more love for it than I carried with me on leaving there ten year ago, nor more than I still feel. I think it the best located, the cleanest and one of the best institutions in the entire South. * * * I hope some day to be able to do something which will in a measure benefit the college as the years spent there benefited me."

Some cheery lines come from Miss Isabel S. Strong who was connected with Rollins College during part of the winter of 1891. She was not entered as a regular student but pursued some special courses and did some tutoring. She is now a trained nurse in Washington, D. C.: "At a recent meeting at Miami of the Royal Palms State Park committee, Mrs. Gifford, who is its chairman, appointed Mrs. Hiram Byrd, of Princeton, Fla., as chairman of her advisory board. Mrs. Byrd is an old student of Rollins College; she has an excellent record here, and in her work and worthiness was great credit to the institution. Her recent appointment as chairman of Mrs. Gifford's advisory board is an honor not only to her but to Rollins College."

Mr. Herbert A. Martin, 239 Fourth Avenue, New York City; student at Rollins 1910-11; graduated from Colgate University in 1913 with B. S. degree; now in advertising business: "For an avocation, I am a member of the Metropolitan Rowing Club and last summer 'stroked' a four-oared crew in five rowing regattas. Expect to do more rowing the coming summer."

Jimmie's Tactics on Football Field
Jimmie (to man on opposing team) —"I beg your pardon Mr. ——— but may I Tackle you."

Isn't it nice to have a teacher taken for a "little girl"? The hotel proprietor where Miss Denison was staying while away bade Miss O'Neil a very respectful adieu, and then turning to Miss Denison said, "Good-bye little girl."

SOCIETY

SOCIAL AFFAIRS OF Y. W. C. A.
1915-1916

The season's social affairs began with a house party on the Saturday before Rollins opened for the fall term. Miss Stone, the South Atlantic Field Secretary met with the girls to make plans for the Association work for the year.

The first Saturday evening of the semester a "new student mixer" was held in Cloverleaf parlors. Both new and old students became acquainted with each other and with the faculty.

The annual bazaar was held on the afternoon of Monday, December 13th, to raise funds for the support of Amparo, a little Cuban girl whom the Rollins Y. W. C. A. is keeping in a Tampa mission.

The bazaar was successful financially as well as socially.

The Saturday evening before Christmas vacation Rollins students enjoyed an informal social evening in Cloverleaf. Everyone participating in the games found a delightful little Christmas package by which to remember this holiday party.

On the evening of December 4, the Y. W. C. A. girls gave a marshmallow toast in the dining hall. Work for the bazaar and games were indulged in by all.

Two pleasant informal afternoons in the form of sewing parties were held in Cloverleaf during the fall. The first one was in honor of Mrs. Halverstadt, the other in honor of Mrs. Noxon.

Another afternoon Miss Helen Thomas, Educational Secretary of the National Board of the Y. W. C. A., and Miss Stone, our Field Secretary, were the honorees at a pleasant reception given by the association.

There are many social events which the Association still looks forward to. Closet at hand is the Glee Club Concert to be given in Knowles Hall under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. With the new month comes the Installation banquet, held annually in the dining hall.

A May morning breakfast and the May Day Festival are the closing features of our program.

Of course it must be understood that this is only the social phase of the Young Women's Christian Association, and that there are other and equally important phases of our work.

Noxon—"I can't see that we're getting anything out of this lecture, can you?"

F. Stone—"Bob seems to be."

Nox—"How's that?"

Flo—"Look at the sleep he's getting."

MR. ROBERT EKVALL SPEAKS BEFORE Y. M. C. A.

On Tuesday evening, February twenty-ninth, the weekly Y. M. C. A. meeting was held in Lyman Gymnasium at 6:45 p. m. The program of the evening was directed by Alfred J. Hanna, who, after the devotional preliminaries, introduced Mr. Robert Ekvall as the speaker of the evening. Mr. Ekvall was already known to a large number of the students present in as much as he has been taking special work here at Rollins under Prof E. S. Palmer for the past few weeks.

The speaker chose as his topic "Chinese Education, Old and New." In the first part of his discourse he took up in a very creditable manner the old educational system setting forth very clearly the influence of the old learning upon the minds and habits and life of the Chinese students of today. Little by little he presented the gradual transition from the old learning to the new and the effect and the reception of the Western Educational methods. He gave a brief review of the present schools and colleges showing the work of the missionaries and the work of the government in this department. Last of all Mr. Ekvall reassured the young men of the ever closer coming impact of the east and west and urged more concentration and seriousness in the matter of educational training. He said it would be an ever increasing struggle to assert the traditional supremacy of the Occidental over the Oriental.

Mr. Ekvall has lived the greater part of his life in China being the son of a missionary from this country and thus he was able to speak very directly and with a force of personal experience. A rather large attendance enjoyed and were benefited by the address.

All the students are looking forward with a great deal of interest to the coming of Dr. Weatherford, Secretary of the Southern Division of the National Y. M. C. A. Dr. Weatherford is perhaps better known as the man who has refused a number of positions of fame and honor in national politics, to carry on what he perceives to be his life work—work among the students of the south.

DR. BAKER IS A SPEAKER
AT SOROSIS MEETING

On Tuesday, February 29, the members and guests of the Sorosis Club of Orlando had the very great pleasure of listening to a most interesting and delightful account of Dr. Baker's travels of the past summer. It was a rare account of a wonderful trip, heartily enjoyed by all present. The great Exposition, the San Diego Exposition, The Petrified Forest of America, The Grand Canyon of Colorado, and Honolulu and its neighboring volcano were all presented to his hearers in a most alluring manner. The personality of a beloved instructor made the account a rare treat to several of the Rollins Alumni who were fortunate enough to be present.

This story is told of a certain young lady's resourcefulness at the Y. W. C. A. bazaar.

Business was in full swing, when a young man passed around the various booths, without pretention of purchasing, the young man passed a beautifully decorated booth, and the young lady seller detained him. "Won't you buy a cigarette holder sir?" she asked.

"No thanks, I don't smoke"

"Or a pen-wiper, worked with my own hands?"

"I don't write."

"Then do eat this box of candy."

"I don't eat sweets."

The young lady's patience was exhausted. "Sir," she said grimly, "will you buy this box of soap?" He did!

"WHERE STRENGTH IS GIVEN"

(Lines for April 6-10)

"A sensitive plant in a garden grew,
And the young winds fed it with sel-
ver dew,
And it opened its fan-like leaves to
the light,
And closed beneath the kiss of Night."
—Shelley.

And so we would wish for our girls to grow,
With only breezes of blessing to blow,
And their sensitive souls to expand
to the light,
In an atmosphere charged with all things bright.

But because of the press of the present day,
Many girls from their homes must
hasten away,
And bear on their shoulders the burden of work
Which their noble souls will not let them shirk.

So now the growth of the soul, in part,
Must spring from inside the mind
and heart,
And these must be given a chance to feed,
On things life-giving which all girls need.

And to take the place of the garden
of old,
(Filled by the sun and sheltered from cold,)
There has grown a place, where strength is given
For adverse winds, by winds blown from heaven.

Here coming close the girls can grow,
Each helping each, howe'er winds
blow,
Here soul and body, spirit and mind.
The fullest blessing of life can find.

But just as gardens need water to keep them alive,
This place must be fed to make it
thrive,
This blessing give, counting happy
the day;
Lettered on its doors is Y. W. C. A.

Tiny—"Wonder why it turned so
cold."

Tilly—"Nobody caught the thermometer when it fell."

There was a little Sophomore once,
A-walking down the street,
And as he turned a corner
There a Freshie he did meet.
The Freshie, as his name must show,
Was awful Greene at that,
And passing by the Sophomore
He failed to raise his hat.—Selah.
