GIRLS' INITIATION SATURDAY EVENING WAS GREAT SUCCESS

New Girls Rejoice That They Are Now Old Girls.

Last Saturday evening a large number of teachers, old students and a few townspeople assembled in the Gymnasium to witness the initiation of the new girls, under the capable direction of Anna Funk.

The event this year took the form of a farce in which the principle character, Mrs. Jenkins, which was ably presented by Dolly Darrow, visits Rollins with the intention of entering her daughter, Mehitabel Ann, in the person of Leonora Fortner, in the Academic course.

Mrs. Jenkins seemed much impressed with the various Rollins activities, which she was permitted to view under the supervision of Mrs. Ferguson, cleverly impersonated by Pat Richards. The first of these activities to pass in view before Mrs. Jenkins and Mehitabel Ann was the basketball team, composed of Helen Shelton, Lucille Pike, Hope Townsley, Katharine Waldron, Olivia Taylor, Eloise Lavistadi, Irene Sims and Florence Smith. Mrs. Jenkins, in side remarks, eloquently voiced her approval of such "ladylike" playing and cheering.

The second activity to engage the attention of Mrs. Jenkins and Mehitabel Ann was a boat race, in which Olivia Taylor, Eloisa Lavistadi, Lucille Pike, Alice Waterhouse, Ruth Greene, Margaret, Florence and Gladys Smith took part. The race was very real in spite of the fact that the oars were brooms and the water and boats imaginary.

At the invitation of Mrs. Ferguson the visitors were accorded the honor of being present at a faculty meeting. Dr. Ward, Dean Enyart, Mrs. Ferguson, Professor Palmer and Miss Belows were ably represented by Hester Bedinger, Elenore Emery, Alice Waterhouse and Ruth Dockerty, respectively. The purpose of the meeting was to decide what should be done to the "laundry," which had been caught smoking on the campus this side of the "Dinky" track. The matter was finally settled by appointing Hope Townsley and "Pretty Baby" on a committee to superintend the removal of the laundry to the other side of the track.

Choir practice was "harmoniously" presented by Maxine Wilcox, as Miss Dyer, Ruth Dockerty, Laura Guiteras and Hope Townsley.

The "Gym" class, which was composed of Hester Bedinger, Olivia Tay-

DR. WARD RETURNS FROM FLYING TRIP NORTH.

Dr. Ward arrived on the Campus Wednesday morning, coming direct from New York, where he had gone a few days before on business. During his absence, which was almost a week, Dr. Ward performed a wedding ceremony at Hot Springs, Va., the contracting parties being Miss Prudence Sterry, a long-time friend of Dr. Ward's, and Mr. G. W. H. Smith of Providence. From Hot Springs Dr. Ward went to Washington for a stop-over, and from there to New York on a short business trip.

Mrs. Ward arrived home Wednesday afternoon from Tampa, where she visited her parents, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Sprague, during Dr. Ward's absence from Winter Park.

NEW MEMBERS OF Y. W. C. A. RECOGNIZED.

The Y. W. C. A. met Tuesday afternoon to recognize the new members and election of officers to fill the vacancy caused by last year's vice president not returning. Ruth Greene was chosen to fill this office.

After a few words of welcome and advice by the president, Sara Muriel, the meeting was turned over to the social committee, who entertained during the supper hour. Frankfurters, rolls, coffee and pickles were served in picnic style by the older girls. The weather man being very unaccommodating, it was necessary to have supper under the shelter of Cloverleaf porch.

lor, Dorothy Bennett and Irene Simms, gave a creditable performance under their director, Eloisa Lavistadi. The length of the tongue, gracefulness and the growth of the finger nails seemed to be the chief purpose of physical culture at Rollins.

The initiation ended with the rendition of the "New Girls' Pep Song," after Mrs. Jenkins' visit to the infirmary, during which "the twins and Pat" brought to her notice a marvelous cure for the "fat and lean."

After the initiation, which was conducted with much credit to the new girls, a number of the spectators and performers retired to Cloverleaf parlors, where punch was served, and the remainder of the evening spent in social enjoyment.

R. W. Greene spent Tuesday and Wednesday of this week at the University of Florida, in Gainesville, the guest of Mr. Nelson, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM ORGANIZED.

At last—at last! The girls' basketball team has finally been organized. A meeting was called in the Gym, and the goodly number of twenty-two turned out. My, but it did our hearts good—we old girls who could barely scrape up ten last year. Keep it up, girls, and we'll "clean the slate," with that pep which you showed today.

Gertrude Hall, last year's manager, presided, and a new captain and manager were elected as follows:

For captain a unanimous vote for our earnest player, Gertrude Hall, or "Peg."

For manager, Winifred Hanchett, commonly known as "Tiny."

Now, the captain and manager have said they'd do their best and they will, but it is up to you. Show us.

CLASS OF '17 SELECT AN IMPOSING PINE

Tuesday afternoon the Seniors held an "open air meeting," the purpose of which was to select a suitable tree that is certain to remain as a symbol of their spirit after Commencement days. A large pine in the center of the Rollins Horseshoe Drive, which was thought to be the most distinctive in appearance received the highest number of votes. This makes the fourth pine that has been chosen by a Rollins class as a class tree, and will in time receive proper markings in the form of a stone slab, and further carry out the custom which originated in the Class Eighteen several years ago.

But the Class of Seventeen intend to go a step farther. They plan to have a class garden, which will be typical of the word "Florida," and preparations are already in store for a small but attractive arrangement around the class tree. The general outline is to take the form of a star, each point representing a member of the class, and each point to be marked with a fine specimen of the Paul Neyron rose, the class flower. It is expected that by the early spring the entire garden will be in process of development and reach a fitting climax at Commencement.

The many friends of Grafton O. Charles, '19, were delighted Wednesday afternoon to welcome him back on the campus, even if a little late. "Chollie" has been putting up a building in his home town and was forced to remain until its completion; hence his late matriculation.

Paul Thoren and Harold Tilden spent Sunday and Monday at Tildenville.

I-HOO-ES-CHAY CANOE CLUB TO GIVE REGATTA SOON

Important Meeting of the Club Held Last Week.

A special meeting of the I-Hoo-Es-Chay Canoe Club was called by the president immediately after chapel on Friday morning for the discussion of certain matter of business and that questions might be brought up on the coming regatta. As the former secretary-treasurer is not back this year, nominations were made for that office, and Elizabeth Russell was elected.

The motion was carried that there be a regatta on October 28th, the program to be in the hands of a committee. Arrangements were made for the entire school to have a picnic supper near the boat house at the close of the water sports, and also for an illuminated parade in the evening. It looks so far as if this will be an unusually successful affair and all the Canoe Club members are looking forward to it with great anticipation. Another important item concerning the Club is that word has been received that the Commodore, Leonard Fletcher, will be here early in November. Mr. Fletcher is by far the most active student member, and well deserves the title of Commodore, which places him in the most prominent position in the Club.

Miss Julia B. Reed, whose fine service for Rollins College and Winter Park is so well remembered, is now teaching Expression and Literature in South Georgia College at McRae.

The work of this college is sincere and thorough, and Miss Reed has the satisfaction of working with an efficient faculty, each member having prepared for his or her department in the best institutions.

Dr. F. G. Branch, president of the college, is a progressive educator, well known throughout the state.

Miss Reed's work is bringing in splendid results, in building up the college, and inspiring her pupils with enthusiasm for good literature and truthful interpretation. Winter Park people can well believe that Miss Reed personally is, in all ways, an influence for good.

Mrs. Etta Crumpacker Hoke writes from Roanoke, La., where she lives with her husband and five children on a rice farm. She was a student here in 1898-9, and writes with greatest love and appreciation of her Rollins days.

Get the Bulletin Board habit. Too often we hear: "I didn't know that," "Is there a new chapel list," and remarks of a similar nature. Why didn't you know? Quite often, no doubt, because you failed to read the notices posted on the bulletin board. Keep posted! It's a good habit to form at school, for it is one of the things essential to good citizenship.

One of our literary editors, Ben Shaw, has been assisting the circulation managers of late in getting out the paper on Saturday. A rare combination of talents this—the practical and the poetic.

The spirit shown in the Rollins-Columbia game by both players and spectators is just the sort of spirit for which Rollins is striving. We are more than pleased to see that the entire school seems to have adopted as a part of their athletic creed the "Hard and Clean" spirit recommended by Coach Royal. And, better still, the team as well as all the loyal friends of Rollins have shown themselves good losers.

On October 17th The Florida Alligator commented editorially and well on Procrastination as a Sin of a College Career. It is well worth passing on to Sandspur readers at least in this brief excerpt:

"Procrastination is the chiefest sin encountered in a college career—you put off that lesson; and so goes the time.

"The same process continues until the end of the month and the time for examinations. It is then a matter of having to 'cram.'

"There is only one way of avoiding such unpleasant situations, and that is to be prepared with every lesson—get your work on a systematic basis.

Have certain periods to study and let nothing short of Providence hinder you.

" * * * Make out your schedule of study hours and follow it just as seriously as you do your class schedule. * * * By using this method you have time for many things that are now crowded out."

This is certainly the right idea and a practical suggestion.

A college man is a marked man. Marked, because he gets things done. Since we are at college to learn to live and to do, why should we not start at the basis of efficiency and learn each day to "put through" the tasks before us, whether pleasant or not, whether immediately important or remotely pertinent to the ultimate success. Let us do our work for the moral of the doing if nothing else.

There is too much of this opinion that college is a preparation for something to follow. It is, but only as one day prepares for another. "Tomorrow fulfills its work irresistibly, and it is already fulfilling it today."

Some athletic authorities assert the legality of five "backs" in the make-up of a football team. Rollins may be conservative, but one thing sure: She will not submit to this addition, or, as it is, subtraction, for this fifth back is such a fellow as is no help to any live organization.

His name is Draw-Back and has no place at Rollins.

Of all players of this position, the fellow that is called Quitter is the most efficient. He is a stranger on Rollins' Campus. (We like to assume the positive attitude at least.)

All are gratified in the work and progress on the Gridiron. All are looking for gratifying results and that now shortly. It is good work in a good work.

"Line upon line; Precept upon precept," is the way The Sandspur is made up each week. Sometimes much material is sent in, sometimes little, but always the same sized paper issues forth and the same amount of space is filled up. The Sandspur contributors have worked well and earnestly, but all editors know the story. The Stetson Weekly Collegiate said editorially last week: "If you want a bright, newsy paper, it is up to the student body to make it so. Remember there is a lot of space to fill." If you are not real sure about it, try an eight-page paper.

The very bright "star" seen in the eastern sky, just above the dining hall as we go to supper, is the planet Jupiter—not a star at all. It is visible all night, and is in opposition (its position in the heavens directly opposite that of the sun) on Oct. 26th.

Jupiter is the largest of the planets, being nearly 88,000 miles in diameter, and its distance from the sun is 866,000,000 miles. T. R. B.

Teacher (music): "Now then, altogether, once more: 'Little drops of water'—and for goodness sake put a little more spirit in it."—Ex.

JUNIOR-FRESHMAN MEETING.

The Juniors invited the Freshmen to a "get-together" meeting in the Phi Alpha Fraternity rooms Thursday evening, the 19th, at 6:30. The purpose of the meeting as explained by President Noxon was to express to the Freshmen the co-operation and sympathy of the Juniors in anything they might undertake; provided, of course, that such an undertaking would be compatible with the Junior dignity. In response, President Darrow of the Freshmen class, voiced the appreciation of the class of '20 for such co-operation and sympathy. At the close of the speeches candy was served by the Juniors. As the 7:30 bugle called the students to study-hall the Juniors were given a rousing cheer by the Freshmen.

PROSPECTS FOR THE GLEE CLUB ARE PROMISING.

The Boys' Glee Club met Monday evening at 6:30 for their first practice, while the girls met at 7:30. The prospects seem very bright for two splendid organizations this year, under the capable direction of Miss Waterman. Miss Waterman intends to have twenty-four voices in each club.

HALLOWE'EN SOCIAL.

Have you your costume ready for tonight? If not, get busy. Indications point to the fact that the masquerade this year will not be behind others of past years in interest and fancy costumes. The grand march, as usual, will be the star feature of the evening.

Next Friday evening has been set aside for a rehearsal of the College orchestra—which in the past has been a very live and useful organization and which promises this year to be unusually large and interesting.

PERSONALS.

D. Henry Fordham, former cheer leader and football player, who is now in business with his father in Miami, was on the campus Tuesday for a short visit. After visiting in Orlando for a few days, he returned home on Wednesday.

The Y. M. C. A. meeting was postponed until a future date on account of the illness of the speaker, Dr. R. T. Jones.

At the election of officers of the Christian Endeavor Society on Tuesday night two Academy students were honored with office. These were Paul Harrison, vice president, and Herbert Campbell, treasurer.

Jean Wagner has returned and resumed her work in the School of Music.

Mary Noe has also registered in the School of Music.

Arthur Williams was on the campus Tuesday, visiting Maurice Whelden. Arthur is a brother of Jennie Williams, who graduated from the Academy last year. He is connected with Dickson & Ives' Department Store in Orlando.

Charles Sherman, who graduated from the Academy last year and was one of the fastest men on the tennis team, was on the campus a week ago Monday. "Mutt" is now a citrus canker inspector, with headquarters at Fort Myers.

Constance Chamberlain, who has been visiting Dorothy Bennett, left Wednesday for her home in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Abbott, a former popular teacher in the Normal and Sub-Preparatory department, gave an interesting talk to the class in Pedagogy last Saturday morning.

Dean Enyart preached in Sanford Sunday morning. Miss Enyart and Miss Margaret Rogers accompanied him to Sanford.

Mrs. Abbott, who has been visiting her niece, Miss Hills, for a week, went to Sanford Saturday evening, where she spent the following day with Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Philips. She returned to her home in Daytona Monday.

Mrs. Roxby and her daughter, Evelyn Haines, were the guests of Miss Hills Saturday evening, when they attended the girls' initiation.

News has been received that Leonard Fletcher is intending to return to Rollins this year.

Elenor Emery is now living with her parents at the "Anchorage."

RICHARD G. DARROW.

FOOTBALL NOTES OF THE WEEK.

The football squad boasts a new player, Ivo Harper. Harper attended Vanderbilt Training School year before last, and did not go to College last year. He lives in Orlando, but expects to remain on the campus. His brother is playing on the O. H. S. team, so it seems that football runs in the family.

Harper is trying to make our back field; he is fast, running the hundred in 10-2. He weighs 150 stripped, and looks the logical man for the much-needed fullback's position. He has had considerable experience as a back field man, and we are looking for him to make good.

Harper showed up pretty good in the first practice, and the two Musselwhites say that he will continue to do so. We hope so, for those fellows have worked hard to get him to attend Rollins this year rather than go north to school, as he had intended. Here's luck to him.

Hard Luck Lewie got "busted" in practice Tuesday afternoon. Lewis has always headed the casualty list, and he certainly starts out at the head this year.

Lewis is the first man who has been bungled up to any extent this year. This is unfortunate, considering having played one college game, and two practice games, without even one man knocked out.

The team looks better than ever in practice, and by the way the fellows are going after it we are beginning to believe that Coach is making a real team.

ROLLINS SQUAD WATCHES OR- LANDO DEFEAT LAKELAND BY SCORE OF 50-0.

By courtesy of the Orlando eleven, Coach Royal took the Rollins men down to watch the contest between the fast Orlando team and Lakeland, on the Orlando field, last Friday. The game was not what we could conscientiously call "hotly contested," as the ball was not in Orlando's territory more than eight minutes during the entire match, which lasted through three quarters.

From the first, it was easy to see that the superior coaching of the Orlando eleven and the more evenly distributed weight had the advantage over the Lakeland boys. Coach Hawes certainly deserves credit for the way he has developed the Orlando High into a fast and unified team. Lakeland has good weight and good players, but they lack team work and proper distribution of weight.

The spirit of fair play and gentlemanly conduct displayed by both sides is deserving of the highest commendation. The Lakeland men put up a hard fight and stuck to it like men, although outmatched from the first.

The line-up was as follows:

ORLANDO.		LAKELAND.
Ziegler	Center	Watson
Magruder	L. G.	Skipper
Overstreet	R. G.	Arrinder
Harper	L. T.	Simms
Lott	R. T.	Adair
Davis	L. E.	Franklin
Musselwhite	R. E.	Lane
B. Anderson	Q. B.	Urwiler
Ivey	F. B.	Bower
C. Anderson	L. H.	Strain
Branham	R. H.	Mathian

Touchdowns—Orlando: (1) C. Andersonson, (2) B. Anderson, (3) Ivey, (4) Branham, (5) C. Anderson, (6) Ivey, (7) B. Anderson, (8) Harper. Lakeland: None.

Goals—Orlando: Ivey, two. Lakeland: None.

Subs—Brown for Treacher, Treacher for Ziegler, Lewter for Davis, Black for Adair, Boulder for Urwiler (shoulder injured in first quarter).

The two Anderson brothers stood out supreme, while Ivey and Harper played their usual good games. On the Lakeland side, Strain was conspicuous for his star playing.

SNAP AND PTP.

That was some game with Columbia, and the fellows are a unit in believing the team is going to clean up on the return game at Lake City.

Too bad Dud didn't get a chance to play Columbia in the game. We have tried hard to figure out why the coach didn't put him in, with orders to step on the quarterback. He would never have gotten out from under Dud's foot in time for the next play.

Now that Miss Rogers is gone, we hope all this tennis enthusiasm will not die out. She certainly created the spirit, but we have doubts about it's staying any length of time.

The tarvia on the Pinehurst court is looking fairly good, but we can't prophesy anything until after it is played on.

Coach is going to carry eighteen men on all trips this year. Dudley Wilson has the entire list made out. Just see him for particulars. Who, Dud? No, the Coach.

The team had only three practice before the Stetson game; but I don't believe they could have gotten in any more, do you? Yes, we heard that remark. And this is an institution of higher learning!

Faulkner and Froemke better start a minstrel show; they are both pretty good ends.

Coach took the football men out after the Orlando game with Lakeland, and put them through kicking practice. How about a little holding practice, so they will learn how to hold the ball before they kick it?

We are glad to see the good feeling between the O. H. S. football men and our squad. There is no reason for our not getting together at these games and pulling for each other. We will have some real pep displayed later on if this co-operative scheme is kept up.

Work is started on the girls' tennis court! Maybe now we can have some tennis at Cloverleaf.

The basketball manager is already getting his schedule made out. That's the idea. We want to know when these games are coming off, so we can arrange ourselves accordingly. Give us some college games this year, and then we will let you alone.

Difficulties have arisen in the football schedule again. We have a return game with Stetson, though, on November 12th. So save plenty of pep for that time.

The spectators' dock at the boat-house will be a great help to our water sports. We have need of this sort of dock, and certainly have to hand it to the Canoe Club for starting the idea. If you haven't done your share to help out, perhaps it would be a good thing if you got to work.

Did anyone notice the way the football men talked after they came home from seeing Orlando trim Lakeland? Gee! They mustahad a regular time—50-0!

Notice the Pep the cold weather started? No! Where did it go? Well, there wasn't any. What's the idea, froze out, or just not there? This is real football weather (if it is hot when you read this, it was "closely cold" when it was written—use your imagination, you boob.)

The latest thing in indoor sports in Chase Hall, is the Cubo-Americo grip contests. Pat Sullivan deserves honorable mention; and F. Meade, by reason of superior build, has become the well known champion. It is to be noted that Mr. Cook and the Dean do not consider this sport as highly amusing. Nevertheless, we have seen them grin a time or two, anyhow. When did this take place? Why, between Saturday night and Sunday morning, to be sure!

Gym has not been forgotten, anyhow. Weren't they after us Monday for our measurements, though? Seems as if it were going with a rush. See our column of indoor sports for further gymnastic reports.

DR. WARD RECEIVES INVITATION TO BIG DINNER—IN HONOR OF LATE DR. STRONG.

Dr. George Morgan Ward has received during the past week an invitation from the executive committee of the American Institute of Social Service, whose headquarters are at the Bible House, Astor Place, New York, to attend a memorial dinner to be given in honor of the late Dr. Josiah Strong on Thursday evening, Nov. 16, at the Hotel Astor.

Hon. George McAneny, formerly acting mayor of Greater New York, will preside, and many notable guests will be present.

The Executive Committee of the American Institute of Social Service is composed of many prominent men, among them being Hon. Gifford Pinchot and Prof. Nathaniel M. Pratt, D. D., formerly vice-president of Rollins College.

SUNDAY VESPER SERVICE.

A cordial invitation is extended to the faculty and students of Rollins College to attend the first Winter Vesper Service of the Epworth League of the First Methodist Church, Orlando, to be held tomorrow afternoon, October 29th, at 4 o'clock.

The following musicians will participate: Walter Drennen, E. O. McIntosh, Mrs. W. M. Murphy, Misses Millie Smith, Eliza Wright, Roberta Branch, Brueser and others.

John K. Boone, who left Orlando last week for Asheville, is motoring down from that city through Atlanta, Macon and other places, and is expected to reach here next Monday.

Joe Musselwhite is rapidly recovering from a muscle bruise which he received on the football field.

"Pretty Boy" Fugitt and Billie Wilson spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Fugitt on a fishing trip on Lake Apopka.

John W. Humphries, representing the United States Casualty company of Miami, is in the city. Mr. Humphries hasn't been to Orlando for a long while, and he is much impressed with the prosperous appearance of things here. "This is the best inland town of Florida," he said.—Reporter-Star.

A number of the passenger agents of the southern railroads, who are holding their association in Orlando this week, drove through the campus Wednesday, when out on a sight-seeing tour in and around Winter Park.

Question: "Why are people shot at sunrise instead of sunset?"

Answer—

Trillis: "So they can get an early start."

Elizabeth: "So they can travel by daylight."

Anna: "Come early and avoid the rush."

ALUMNI

The former students of Rollins College who live in the vicinity of New York City are indebted to John LaMontagne and Herbert Martin for the dynamic display of Rollins spirit which these two men turned loose during the very hot days of last July. They succeeded in locating about fifteen former Rollins students. Of this number, nine met at the Imperial Hotel on the evening of July 13th. Several of the others were out of town or kept away by other appointments.

For the benefit of those who would like to get in touch with the New York contingent of Rollins, the writer lists below the names, home and business addresses, as well as the phone numbers of those who dined well, organized a New York Rollins Alumni Association and who talked singly and in chorus of the good old days at Rollins. All of this on the supposedly unlucky 13th:

Philip P. Edwards, 1910-11; 9 Lincoln Apts., Youngstown, O.

Luis G. Estefani, 1911-12-13; 5 Neptune St., Havana, Cuba.

W. Clay Inman, 1912-13; 225 W. 69th St., Apt. 22-A, N. Y. C.

John M. LaMontagne, 1905-09, inclusive; 181 W. 73rd St., Tel. Columbus 4550. West. Elec. Co., Tel. Chelsea, 1000.

W. A. H. Loveland, 1909-10; New York City, Tel. 71, New York City.

Herbert A. Martin, 1908-9, 10-11, 12-13; 1 Grammercy Park, Tel. 4830 Grammercy; The Morning Telegraph, Tel. Circle 2400.

E. H. Pearson, 1910-11; 106 Morningside Drive, George Batten Co., Tel. Madison So. 7500.

Dean S. Pike, 1910-13, inclusive; 157 Montague St., Brooklyn, Tel. Main 7558; Robert Gair Co., Brooklyn, Tel. Main 5500.

Ralph S. Twitchell, 1907-10, inclusive; 556 W. 113th St. Tel. Morningside 640.

These men elected D. S. Pike president; Miss Cornelia Shaw, vice president; E. H. Pearson, secretary and treasurer. They did not think it necessary to draw up a formal constitution at this time. It was voted to let President Ward know of our desire to help and support him in any way possible and to notify our parent alumni association that we are line.

It was suggested that the following persons would be especially interested in this organization and in order that they and those who were present on Thursday evening may keep in touch or get in touch with each other, this communication is being sent to the following persons as well as those before mentioned:

Miss Emily Allen, Miss Mable Allen, Mr. Marshall Allen, Clinton Corners, N. Y.

Berkeley Blackman, Wekiwa Ranch, R. F. D. No. 2, Sanford, Fla.

Erroll Bryant, 955 Tupper St., Montreal, Can.

G. Conrad Bucher, care Reid-Moore, Antilla, Cuba.

Herbert Duncan, John Duncan, Slo-cum, L. I., N. Y.

Devol "Pop" Gates, care J. Heinz Food Products Co., New York City.

Miss Marie Gottrau, 504 West 112th St., N. Y. C.

Miss Alice McCready, New Castle, Pa.

Hubert Price, Bretton Hall, 86th St. and Broadway, New York City.

George D. Romeike, 115 West 71st St. Tel. Columbus 8015.

Miss Cornelia P. Shaw, 299 Orange Road, Montclair, N. J.

Cary Twitchell, Owatona, Minn.

D. D. Wetherill, 1749 Coutant St., Lakewood, O.

Jim Wilson, 8 West 10th St., New York City.

If anyone knows the addresses of any former Rollins students who are near New York, please notify the secretary so that as many of us as possible may get together to enjoy ourselves and support Rollins as befits Rollins men and women.

Not the desire to beat the secretary to his position, but easy access to a copying machine is the reason why this is signed by yours truly,
D. S. PIKE.

Little Mary Louise Nickel of Sanford, born September 12, 1916, is the daughter of Carrie Louise Gusminger Nickel, '06.

Anne Bellows, '15, and Kathleen Hill, '14, were students in the Summer Session at Columbia University. They report a most delightful and inspiring time.

"Tony" Landstreet was a visitor on the campus at the opening of the school year. He is engaged with the Wilson-Toomer Fertilizer company, and his home at present is in Winter Garden.

SENIORS' PHILOSOPHY.

"In days of old, when knights were bold,"

Pythagoras established a plan.
He sought to express, and all to impress

That the universe, all, he could span.
His plan, though simple, was, for example:

"Opportunity's numbered at seven,"
And marriage, he thought, could only be wrought

At five, the portal of heaven.
Our Seniors so wise, as all can surmise,

Have sought to learn of Greek Seers.
"Let us add to our fold and heaven's blessing hold,"

Said they, in calming their fears.
Their plan, it is good and just as they would,

For to five their number has grown.
May nothing of harm, break into this charm,

Or pull up the seed they have sown.

UNFOUND MEMBERS OF THE COLLEGE FACULTIES.

In preparing for publication a list of the College faculties from the organization of the College to the present time, I have been unable to locate the members whose names make up the following list. Any help in doing this from readers of The Sandspur will be greatly appreciated.

THOS. R. BAKER.

Abbott, Emily, 97-8.
Adkins, W. L., 96-7.
Bibbins, Anita R., 98-9 to 01-2.
Blair, J. W., 01-2.
Bosworth, Anna V.
Curtis, Laine W., 89-0; 94-5.
Earnest, Caroline, 92-3.
Estes, Hortense, 05-6.
Fairfield, Helen F., 05-6; 07-8.
Field, Isabel C., 08-9.
Gibson, P. B., 01-2.
Hartman, Carl, 89-0; 90-1.
Hollister, Bertha, 99-0; 00-1.
Hover, Mercy L., 00-1.
Hubbard, Ida F., 93-3.
Hunn, D. W., 86-7.
Ingraham, Roberta H., 92-3.
Jones, V. Moss, 92-3.
Kimball, Annie B., 02-3.
McMurray, Charles A., 94-5.
Merrick, Prof., 86-7.
Moreno, Ramon, 04-5.
Rehn, John C., 05-6.
Smith, Prof., 88-9.
Treat, Ella, 86-7.
Wallace, A. D., 03-4.

Dr. Baker wishes us to say that names of students not found in the list published in The Sandspur supplement of March 18th were not omitted through oversight or inadvertence, but because the persons whose names were omitted could not be located, although diligent and long-continued search was made for them; that the list of our "unfound" men and women contains about 400 names; and that readers of The Sandspur who are able to locate any of these will confer a great favor by promptly giving him their addresses, occupation, etc.

ESSAYISTS OFFERED PRIZE.

One Hundred Dollars for Best Essay.
Subject: International Arbitration.

For the best essay on "International Arbitration," written by an undergraduate man student of any college or university in the United States or in Canada, a prize of $100 has been offered by the Lake Mohonk Conference. This prize is the gift of Mr. Chester Dewitt Pugsley of New York City, and a graduate of Harvard. The judges of these essays will be Hon. William Howard Taft, Rear Admiral Austin M. Knight, U. S. N., and Mr. Arthur K. Kuhn, Ph. D. The contest will close March 15, 1917. A list of the rules to be observed in the writing of these essays will be found on the Carnegie bulletin board.

SPURS

Mrs. Ferguson—I find on looking over these papers that Christianity was introduced into England in 597 B. C.

Ingram—What is electrolytic dissociation?

Darrow—Dey don't have any electroliter in dis 'sociation.

Freshman English: "We use clearness in exposition because it is necessary, and correctness for the beauty of it."

Student to Visitor: "Say, how did you like our philosophy class?"

Visitor: "Oh, I always did like dialogues. Does Sara Yancey know as much as the Dean?"

Professor Palmer: "What do 'endothermic' and 'exothermic' mean?" Then, receiving no answer, "What well known instrument gets its name from the same root?" (meaning thermometer).

Cutler: "Thermos-bottle."

Professor Palmer (after about half the class had failed on the law of definite proportions): "There have been three in the class with the same idea, but they can't get it out. Lake, what is it?"

Rannie: "I have the same idea, too."

This was found in the "Personals" column of an exchange: Wanted, smoothe lemons in any quantity.

Poetic thought!

Trillis (trying to think of a rhyme for "bean"): "Lean, mean, pean—O, say! couldn't we end this line with 'pean' and begin the next with 'nut'?"

Miss Bellows "pulled a bone" (chicken) on the Snake Run Picnic, Monday. For further particulars, see Peg or Tiny.

Miss Dyer (ear training class): "Miss Hall, you and Miss Stewart should keep together better. Beat time for each other."

Peg: "I don't want to beat Frieda's time!"

Miss Gonzales: "Translate 'Have you anything?' Mr. Darrow, please."

Dick: "No, not even brains."

The class agreed.

Miss Gonzales (in Spanish): "Say 'I have eaten meat.'"

Tiny: "Yoe he comido caballos" (I have eaten horses).

She: "Now, that you got that $60 a month raise, Tom, we can afford a more expensive flat."

He: "But we're very comfortable here. How would it be if I asked the landlord to raise the rent?"—Boston Globe.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS FOR THE WOUNDED

The American Fund for the Allied Wounded sends an appeal for "Comfort Bags" to be given as Christmas presents to wounded soldiers in English and French hospitals. These bags should be about 15x15 inches and made of cretonne, denim or any substantial material. They may contain any six of the following articles:

Pair of socks or muffler, razor or pocketknife, handkerchief, pencil and writing pad or post cards, pipe, mouth organ or game (no playing cards), box of hard candies or bouillon cubes, wash cloth (knit or Turkish toweling, made like a fingerless mitten), and a cake of soap, pocket mirror and comb, jar of vaseline.

Anyone willing to donate a bag or any of the above mentioned articles is asked to give the same before Nov. 12th to Miss C. Brebner, Rollins College, who will forward all gifts to headquarters.

A little American flag and a card with the address of the donor should be enclosed in each bag that the recipient may know who has tried to make Christmas a little happier for one who "did his bit."

Henry Fordham, who is well known in Orlando, is a business visitor in the city, coming here in the interest of his paint manufacturing plant, which he and his father have in Miami. Though the establishment is in its infancy, Mr. Fordham has the good wishes of his many friends in Orlando for the continued success of his new undertaking.—Reporter-Star

Ruth Dockerty left this afternoon for Clermont, where she will attend a Hallowe'en dance.

Margaret Rogers, the charming guest of Miss Enyart, left Sunday for Tampa.

Dixie Hill was the guest of Dolly Darrow Saturday evening, when she attended the girls' initiation.

JAMES NOXON AND ELLIS STUBBS ARE SUCCESSFUL CON- TESTANTS.

James Noxon and Ellis Stubbs are the recipients of many congratulations upon winning the two scholarships in vocal, which are offered by the Congregational Church through the courtesy of the School of Music. The try out took place Monday morning from 10 to 12. There were five contestants for the honors.

The judges were Miss Dyer, Miss Waterman and Mrs. F. W. Shepherd.

A letter from J. Ward Caldwell of Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands, the only former Rollins College student in Hawaii, states that he recently discontinued his business as "Constructing Engineer" to become a member of the firm of Child & Caldwell, "Sales Factors," located in the same city. He sends best wishes for the college and is greatly pleased with The Sandspur.

Mr. Caldwell was a student here during the year '94-'95, and is remembered by one of our old teachers as a very interested and interesting little boy.

The many former student friends of Prof. Theodore Peet, connected with the college from '05 to '08, as Professor of Modern Languages, will be interested to know that he is doing high grade private instruction work in Winchester, Mass. (10 Lebanon street). He says: "Every good wish to Rollins."

One of the boys stumbled at the feet of Miss Russell.

A Voice from the Crowd: "You missed your step."

Another Voice: "No. You missed your golden opportunity."

Mr. John Crilly of Tampa spent the past week-end with Freddie Hanna at Chase Hall.

Stubbs to Mutt: "Mutt, you don't look as tall as you used to."

Mutt to Stubbs: "No, Stubby, I've settled down."
