BRILLIANT PIANIST JOINS CONSERVATORY FACULTY

Miss Rous Becomes Head of Piano Department.

Mrs. Helen O'Neal Palmer, who had recently accepted the responsibilities of the Piano Department of the Conservatory, has found it impossible to carry out her duties because of her uncertain health. This will be regretted by all her many friends and pupils.

When informed of this unfortunate but necessary move, Miss Dyer, Director of the Conservatory, started at once for Baltimore to interest Miss Marion Rous. Miss Rous has been a member of the faculty of Peabody Conservatory of Music in Baltimore for several years, and Rollins is very fortunate, indeed, in securing the services of so gifted a musician.

"A brilliant musician and trained teacher, Miss Rous is very well known in musical circles in the north, where her charming personality combined with her remarkable musical ability will make her a very great addition to the Conservatory."—The Sentinel.

Miss Rous accompanied Miss Dyer back to Winter Park, arriving Thursday evening, and assumed her new duties immediately.

DR. HANCHETT GIVES LECTURE-RECITAL THIS AFTERNOON.

The first of a course of Beethoven readings to be given by Dr. Henry G. Hanchett in Knowles Hall took place this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Later readings of this course will be given on alternate Thursday afternoons, and it is hoped all the students, residents of Winter Park and tourists will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear such performances of rare musical interpretation as was given this afternoon.

WEKIVA TRIP.

During the mid-semester vacation a sixty-mile trip was made by a party which left Winter Park Friday morning and returned Monday night. They camped at Lake Jessup the first night, then crossed the lake and went down the St. Johns to the mouth of the Wekiva, and from there up the Wekiva to Clay Springs. The outing was well enjoyed by all, in spite of the freezing weather. Those who took the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Barbour and Geraldine Barbour, with several of their friends from the north; Prof. Palmer and Leonard Fletcher and Stanley Mansfield.

DR. THOMAS R. BAKER THE NEWLY CHOSEN MAYOR OF WINTER PARK BY THE ELECTION LAST TUESDAY

Greatly Honored Being the Sole Candidate.

Dr. Thomas Rakestraw Baker was formally elected mayor of Winter Park last Tuesday. Dr. Baker was the sole candidate for the office, as others withdrew upon his nomination at the town caucus held some time ago.

We would gratefully express our appreciation of the honor conferred upon Rollins in the election of Dr. Baker by the citizens of Winter Park to this position of responsibility and honor. The true nobility of Dr. Baker's life is indelibly bound up and molded into the character and framework of this institution, which he has faithfully served for such a long period of time.

Dr. Baker has had an unusually long, useful and varied career. He was born of Quaker parentage in Chester county, Pennsylvania, and was graduated from the scientific course of the State Normal School at Millersville, Penn. He then became a member of the faculty of Rollins, where he remained for a number of years, before again resuming his studies in Germany, where he received his degree of Doctor of Philosophy at the University of Gottingen.

After returning to America he was appointed Professor of Natural Science in the same Normal school at Millersville, and for the next fifteen years he made a specialty of botany, chemistry and physics. During this time he became a member of the Linnaean Association of Lancaster, Penn; also of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Later he returned to Rollins, again resuming the duties of a member of its faculty, and served in this capacity until 1908, when he was made Professor of Natural Science, Emeritus.

He spends the winters on the campus, to the delight of the Rollins faculty and student body.

Dr. Baker is the author of a number of text-books on Natural Philosophy and Chemistry, some of which have been used as text-books in this institution, whose student body has received the benefit of the wisdom and skill of his instruction.

During the years of his labor at Rollins Dr. Baker has had the ambition to see Rollins equipped with a valuable museum. Even though his first efforts in this line were demol-

ALUMNI LOYALLY SUPPORT THE TOMOKAN YEAR BOOK.

Heartily Approve of Dedication to Dr. Baker.

Every mail from north and south brings in some commendation of the work of the Senior Classes in publishing the Tomokan, and a number of subscriptions have already been recorded from far distant states. The consensus of opinion seems to be that the publication of such a book will serve a worthy purpose and fill a long-felt need. It will not only bring back bright memories to the alumni and former students and will bind them closer to the interests of their alma mater, but will also serve as the connecting link of interest between the departing graduates in years to come and the College.

The alumni are unanimous in their praise of Dr. Baker and the fitness of dedicating the book to him. H. E. Harmon, Jr., who is editor of the Concrete Age, of Atlanta, writes Editor Hanna of the Tomokan that: "It is a pleasure for me to subscribe to this book, as no doubt it will afford me great pleasure, as I am very much interested in the growth and progress of Rollins."

"The dedication of the Tomokan is most appropriate, as I consider Dr. Baker one of the finest characters I have ever had the pleasure of knowing."

RADCLIFFE CHAUTAUQUA CO IN KNOWLES HALL.

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, February 6th, 7th and 8th, the Radcliff Chautauqua furnished varied entertainment to the public in Knowles Hall.

On Tuesday Dr. Wm. Rader, well known orator and lecturer, delivered pleasing lectures to the audiences. The Columbia Concert company, consisting of Miss Ruby Stanford, violinist; Miss Marietta LaDell, reader, and Miss Patti Rude, vocalist, delighted the audience with their artistic skill and talent.

Wednesday, both afternoon and evening, Edwin Aldine Pound delivered most entertaining and interesting lectures to good audiences.

The Tyrolean Alpine Yodlers, in native costume, were well received.

On Thursday, Duro, the mysterious, entertained the Chautauqua

A SENIOR-JUNIOR TENNIS MATCH TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Promises to be Occasion of Great Class Spirit.

A tennis match, in which a great deal of college interest centers is that to be played Tuesday afternoon next, promptly at 3:15, between the teams of the Junior and Senior classes. Both teams have been practicing regularly for the past few days, and from the present indications the score will be a close one.

The match will be preceded by some swift singles played between the faculty advisors, Dean Enyart for the Class of '18 and Professor Palmer for the Class of '17. The Seniors will be represented by Freddie Hanna and Paul Thoren, while Jimmie Noxon and Bob Hutchinson will play for the Juniors. A feature of interest in the personnel of the teams is that the presidents of the two classes will appear against one another.

Class colors are expected to be in evidence. Those on the side of the Seniors will wave pink and green, while the opposing party will flourish gold and white. Of no little interest attached to the match will be the Rollins sandwiches to be sold by the Senior girls, and music by the Mandolin Club.

PRESIDENT OF BEREA COLLEGE VISITS ROLLINS.

Rev. William Goodell Frost, the president of Berea College, visited Rollins last Thursday. President Frost came to interview Dr. Ward. He is now in Formosa, at the Florida Sanitarium, where he is spending some time. President Frost is a personal friend of Dr. Blackman and a well-known lecturer on Education. At present he's Professor of Mental and Moral Philosophy. He was made Doctor of Divinity by Harvard in 1907 and received his LL. D. at Oberlin in 1908.

crowds with his display of magic and his skill in producing all kinds of objects out of airy nothing.

On the whole, the Chautauqua was a success, though the cold weather kept many from attending.

This is Winter Park's first venture of the sort, but it is hoped that each winter season will find a good Chautauqua course here.

Miss Dorothy Bennett has as her guest for a few days Miss Clarissa Organ, of Jacksonville.

Does anyone know where those interesting little birds come from whose paintiff note we hear as twilight deepens: "Woodrowill, Woodrowill, Woodrowill" ?

Are you reading the newspapers as carefully as you should? The sporting columns should not be the only ones to claim your attention in these days of vital happenings.

Are those second semester resolutions still unbroken? And is the second semester page still spotless? Remember that you want nothing on it save the record of clean work well and honestly done.

Have you reserved chairs for the Senior-Junior tennis meet? Be sure that you are with the crowd next Tuesday when the match begins. There will be more fun there than mere tennis can give. Come, have a laugh and show your class spirit, too.

St. Valentine's Day

The origin of the customs of St. Valentine's Day, as they will be observed on next Wednesday, has been lost in obscurity.

However, it is thought that the custom of sending valentines is the remnant of an old Roman festival held in honor of Pan and Juno during the month of February. The names of the young women attending the festival were drawn by the young men and so the entire company was divided into couples. The church fathers, hoping to eradicate all pagan practices, substituted for the young women's names the names of saints. But our authority does not tell us of just what benefit this was to the revellers.

According to later English and Scotch traditions, there was a mysterious influence in the day sacred to St. Valentine, the martyred saint, which made birds mate and caused the thoughts of youths and maidens to "lightly turn to thoughts of love." It was supposed, too, that "the first unmarried person of the other sex whom one met on St. Valentine's morning in walking abroad was a destined wife or a destined husband." Thus Gray makes a rural maiden remark:

"Last Valentine, the day when birds of kind

Their paramours with mutual chirpings find,

I early rose just at the break of day,
Before the sun had chased the stars away:

Afield I went amid the morning dew,
To milk my kine (for so should housewives do),

Thee first I spied—and the first swain we see,

In spite of Fortune shall our true love be."

As the day was one of merry-making, we find later that it became a time for practical jokes and for sending caricatures with rhymes setting forth some peculiarity of the person addressed. The latter custom, never in high favor, has gradually fallen into disuse.

The celebration of St. Valentine's Day at the present time more nearly resembles the customs of the 17th century in England when gifts, often of no small value, were given by lovers to their "Valentines."

It is a far cry from the old Roman revel to the heart-adorned bauble bearing messages of love, which we call a valentine; but at the same time the spirit of the day seems to have remained almost unchanged.

By the wise direction of Miss Dyer another very talented musician has been added to the Conservatory faculty. Miss Rous comes, with wide experience and a very fine reputation, and will indeed be a most splendid addition to the force of music teachers.

The loss to fruit growers and truck farmers of Florida, caused by the recent cold, can only be estimated now. Straited circumstances and hardships will be experienced by many, but the ever-present optimism and enthusiasm of those who believe in Florida will not be blighted by the same cold which ruined the crops.

Stetson Basketball

The Stetson five has competed its season's work. The boys are now back in lecture halls and engaged in regular college work, after quite an extended and sensational tour. For the players this tour was no doubt one of pleasant experience as well as one of hard work, for the team traveled as far north as Asheville, N. C., and was gone three weeks. During these three weeks fifteen games were played and all with credit to the Stetson athletes. The sportsmanship of the Stetson players is evident by their endurance and the results of their games. The Sandspur's record of this tour is at present incomplete, but we judge on points of the games the tide was broken about even. The defeats at A. & M. College and at Davidson were canceled in the praiseworthy victory over Trinity. In the main the excursion was athletically a great success and Stetson may support their "Five" as of great credit to them. Special comment should be voiced with reference to the business-like management of the trip. The Sandspur congratulates the Stetson Five.

Florida's Clamy Breezes

We view with regret the black remains of the erstwhile cheery and blooming nasturtiums which have added so much beauty to the campus. Even the poinsettias, which are frequently seen in close company with snow—on Christmas postcards—were unable to resist this bit of Florida winter weather. And the flame vine, which was just coming into its full glory, now hangs dark and discolored from verandas and trees. The loss of the beauty of the mid-winter flowers will be keenly felt even by those to whom the financial loss occasioned by the cold has meant nothing.

VALENTINE'S DAY QUOTATIONS

"In the springtime a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love," or it should, and a young girls, too.

"Each woman creates in her own likeness the love-tokens that are offered to her."—George Eliot.

"Wherever affection can spring, it is like the green leaf and the blossom—pure and breathing purity—whatever soil it may grow in."—George Eliot.

"Ye could na blame the ads at a' for following forbye, Because of the conie hiltier—conie hiltier in her eye."

A slight forgetfulness in class
A blush that to the cheek doth stray!
A diamond ring upon the hand—
Another heart has gone away!

NEWS FROM THE ALUMNI.

Mr. Ira J. Johnston, manager of the Arcadia Mercantile Company, expects to visit Rollins some time this month. Mr. Johnston was for three years business manager of The Sandspur while a student here.

Mr. Wayne Stilwell, who was a student at Rollins in 1904-05, is now prosecuting attorney of Holmes county, Millersburg, Ohio. While a student here Mr. Stilwell contributed numerous articles to The Sandspur, and also did some cartoon work for the publication.

Our Contemporaries

The Clarion, from Belmont High School, Belmont, N. C., is putting out a bi-weekly instead of the previous monthly. An editorial states: "There are only 52 students in the High school. This will give you an idea of the job we have undertaken, but with the faithful backing of the student-body and advertisers, we feel confident of measuring up to the standard." This is the spirit one likes to see in a small paper, and we must say that the Clarion is one of our liveliest exchanges this year. We wish it the best of success in its undertaking.

The Birmingham College baseball team has the hardest schedule ever drawn up at the college. This schedule provides for 14 games at home and the same number on the road. Among the "big games" are those with Virginia, Wesleyan, the University of Alabama, Vanderbilt, Louisiana State and Cumberland University.—The Birmingham College Reporter.

The February number of the Orange and Black has just come in, with an unusually good literary department.

It certainly is an evidence of the high cost of paper when you are requested to step into the office and put up $5 for a mere registration card.—The Tech Collegian.

By the way, have you seen the Tech Collegian yet? The students print this paper themselves, and are to be complimented on its freedom from typographical errors.

JUNIORS HOLD AN IMPORTANT MEETING.

The class of 1918 held a brief but important meeting in The Sandspur room of Knowles Hall last Wednesday noon. James Noxon, president of the class, presided during the short business session. Several matters of importance were considered. It was decided that the challenge of the Senior class to a tennis match, men's doubles, be accepted.

LAKESIDE 29, WINTER PARK 13.

Lakeside trimmed the Winter Park town team in a fast basketball game by the score of 29 to 13, last Monday night, in Lyman Gymnasium. The Lakeside boys played together well, in spite of the fact that they had no practice for a couple of weeks. They outclassed the Winter Park five in all points of the game. S. mut Fletcher was the big point-getter for Lakeside, with Al Faulkner a close second.

The line-up and summary:

Lakeside. Position. Winter Park.
 S. Fletcher—R. F.——— Hughes
 N. Fletcher—L. F.——— McCann
 Arrants —Center——— Hunter
 Faulkner —L. G.——— Ward
 Hanawalt —R. G.——— Higgins
 Field goals: S. Fletcher 5, Faulkner 4, Hanawalt 2, N. Fletcher 2, Hughes 2, McCann 2. Free throws: Hughes 5, S. Fletcher 3. Substitutions: Stone for N. Fletcher, Trovillion for Hunter. Referee: Chauncey Bowyer. Umpire: B. Blackman.

CANOE CLUB.

The I-Hoo-Es-Chay Canoe Club met in Knowles Hall in regular session last Wednesday evening. President Mansfield presided. Important business was transacted.

At Play Rehearsal—

K. G.: "Would you mind being fired from The Sandspur staff?"

Noxon (shivering): "No, just so the fire was a hot one."

Nearly everyone is knitting for the soldiers. Not to be left out, Howard Weaver "is knitting his eyebrows."

"The young men do not sit near the young ladies when they sing."

Ray Greene: "I'm sure I never could sing under such circumstances."

AMERICAN AMBULANCE
FIELD SERVICE.

To the Editor:

May I ask the privilege of your columns to call to the attention of your readers the pending formation by the American Ambulance Field Service in France of several new sections and the opportunity which will be available during the next few months for an additional number of volunteers who are interested in France and who would like to be of service there?

We have already more than 200 cars driven by American volunteers, mostly university men, grouped in sections which are attached to divisions of the French army. These sections have served at the front in Flanders, on the Somme, on the Aisne, in Champagne, at Verdun (five sections including 120 cars at the height of the battle), in Lorraine and in reconquered Alsace, and one of our veteran sections has received the signal tribute from the French army staff of being attached to the French army of the Orient in the Balkans. We are now on the point of greatly enlarging our service for the last lap of the war, and a considerable number of new places are available.

Every American has reason to be proud of the chapter which these few hundred American youths have written into the history of this prodigious period. Each of the several sections of the American Ambulance Field Service as a whole and 54 of their individual members have been decorated by the French army with the Croix de Guerre or the Medaille Militaire for valor in the performance of their work.

The nature of this work, and the reason for these remarkable tributes from the Army of France is clearly presented in the official report of the first year and a half's service published by Houghton, Mifflin & Co., of Boston, under the title of "Friends of France."

Information as to the requirements of and qualifications for the service will be gladly sent by Henry D. Sleeper from the Boston headquarters of the Field Service at Lee Higginson & Co., 40 State street, or may be obtained from Wm. R. Hereford, at the New York headquarters, 14 Wall street.

The American Ambulance Field Service has recently been described by a member of General Joffre's staff as "The finest flower of the magnificent wreath offered by the Great America to her little Latin sister."

There are surely many more of the sterling youths of America who would like to add their little to that wreath.

A. PIATT ANDREW,
Inspector General American Ambulance Field Service.

BLUE RIDGE NOTES.

Strangely enough, it seems, the State College for Women is $320 ahead of the State University in their race for funds for a Blue Ridge cottage, in spite of the fact that the University at Gainesville has a strong association and a new general secretary.

The ranking on February 1 in the Blue Ridge cottage fund campaign was: Florida State College, $414; University of Florida, $94, which was published in the Flambeau, with the warning, "Wake Up!" to the Gainesville Association. That the State University and the State College should unite their forces for a cottage at Blue Ridge is indeed splendid, and we wish them the best of success in their undertaking.

LEARNING FROM TUMBLES.

It does not matter how many tumbles you have in this life, so long as you do not get dirty when you tumble. There is the greatest practical benefit in making a few failures in life. You learn that which is of inestimable importance—that there are a great many people in the world who are just as clever as you are - - - and you very soon find out if you have not found out before, that patience and tenacity of purpose are worth more than twice their weight in cleverness. —Huxley, by Exchange.

Personals

Jack Shannon, a former popular baseball star, arrived on the campus last Tuesday. Jack is now active in Y. M. C. A. work, being an assistant secretary of one of the Boston organizations.

Dr. William H., secretary of the physical department of the international committee of the Y. M. C. A., spent a few hours on the campus last Tuesday morning.

W. M. Lenhart, director of the Business School, spent the inter-semester in Tampa, where he attended the Gasparilla Carnival.

Miss Susan Dyer, director of Rollins Conservatory of Music, was called to Baltimore the first part of last week.

Harriet Mansfield spent mid-semester vacation with Alice Waterhouse at her home in Maitland.

George Roberts has enrolled in the College Special Course, having come from Albany, N. Y., where he has been attending the Albany Law School, of Union University.

Benjamin Purdy, of Jacksonville, Fla., arrived at Rollins last Tuesday afternoon, and has registered in the Academy.

Marjorie Tallman of Kenmore, N. Y., has returned to Rollins for the second semester, much to the delight of her many friends of last year.

Dr. George M. Ward was called to St. Augustine last Monday evening on college business, his return to Rollins being thus postponed until the coming week.

Marie Pellerin arrived last Monday evening to resume her studies at Rollins. Her many friends are more than glad to welcome her.

Evelyn Haines, granddaughter of Mrs. C. H. Abbott, has returned to Rollins from her home in Daytona, and has entered the Academy, from which she will graduate this year.

Anna Funk returned last Tuesday morning from Pine Castle, where she spent the mid-semester vacation.

Mrs. E. B. Ferguson and Dorothy Richards were visitors to Orlando last Thursday afternoon.

Winona Butterworth, who was recently operated upon for appendicitis at McEwan's hospital in Orlando, is rapidly convalescing.

News has been received by Ray and Ruth Greene of the death of their grandfather, whose illness recently necessitated the return of Mrs. R. E. Greene and her son Robert to their home in Providence, R. I.

RAY GREENE, SUPERVISOR OF WINTER PARK BOYS' CLUB.

Under the supervision of Raymond Greene an organization is being formed among the boys of the town between the ages of 10 and 18 years. This organization has been given the name of The Winter Park Boys' Club. The club will be run along the line of the Y. M. C. A. plan for boys, that of developing the boy through clean and practical experiences into a good citizen and Christian.

Definite work has not been laid out as yet; but, in all probability, one night will be given over to basketball practice, followed by regular gymnasium work. This is made possible by the kindly interest of Dr. George M. Ward, who has granted the use of the Gymnasium for this purpose. Another evening will be devoted to a Bible study course, led by Mr. Greene, and followed by a social hour. A third evening of each week will be a business meeting, or the time used in some manner that is deemed wise.

The Boy Scouts, who have temporarily disbanded for lack of a scout master, will be blended with the Boys' Club until it is found advisable to resume the work again.

DR. WARD ASSISTED IN SERVICES BY MUSICIANS

Ponciana Chapel.

The impressive character of the services of the Ponciana Chapel, of which Dr. George M. Ward is pastor, will be enhanced by the voices of Miss Lena Conkling, a celebrated soloist of New York, who has just concluded a tour of the south. At DeLand she will sing at the music festival of Stetson University, where she was formerly a student.

Another added attraction during the present season will be the presence of Harry Rowe Shelby, the great composer, whose name in New York is a synonym for the best of musical productions. The 20-minute organ recital, which precedes the usual service, will be especially pleasing under the inspiration of such an artist.

Teacher: "What happens when a man's temperature goes down as far as it will go?"

Scholar: "He has cold feet, ma'am."
—Ex.

Teacher (in Phys. Geog.): "What is a mountain range?"

Pupil: "A large cook stove."—Ex.

Teacher: "What is the oldest piece of furniture in the world?"

Johnny: "The multiplication table."
—Ex.

Tried to kiss,
And they landed
'sht like this

—Ex.

Pupil (as lesson is assigned): "Are we obliged to remember dates?"

Teacher: "No. I don't think dates are very important. I never did believe in them."—Ex.

Freshie: "How can I keep my toes from going to sleep?"

Bright Senior: "Don't let them turn in."—Ex.

Judge: "Did the man shoot you in the ribs?"

Defendant: "No, sir. He shot me in the backyard, behind the pig-pen."
—Ex.

"Why are the Freshmen Real Estate?"

"Because they are a vacant lot."
—Ex.

He: "Do you like tea?"

She: "Yes, but I like the next letter better."

Editor's Note:—Study this one out; we can't explain them all.—Ex.

"I have 800 people under me."

"Quite a reasonable job. What is it?"

"Night-watchman in a cemetery."

AN APPOINTMENT TO WEST POINT GRANTED STUDENT

Paul Harrison Honored.

Paul Harrison, who recently was given an alternate appointment to West Point, has now been more highly honored with a principal appointment. He has already passed his mental tests, and has only to successfully undergo the physical tests which will be given at Fort Dade, near Tampa, on March 7th. Paul has worked hard for his appointment, winning it through sheer stick-to-it-iveness than through political pull. He also has passed mental examinations in his junior year that graduates from high schools have failed on.

The Sandspur heartily congratulates Mr. Harrison and wishes him success.

Miss Bellows (in English): "What did you read?"

Froemke: "Not much."

Miss Bellows: "What was it?"

Froemke: "Nothing."

First Youth: "And, believe me, she's some girl."

Second: "Clever?"

First: "Well, I guess! She's got brains enough for two."

Second: "Just the girl for you, old man; why don't you marry her?"
—Ex.

Automobilist: "I have just killed your dog. May I replace him?"

Spinster: "Oh, this is so sudden!"
—Ex.

Fair Y. W. C. A. speaker in chapel: "Seventy-five per cent of the babies in China die on account of ignorance before they are one year old."

Voice in Alcove: "Most of our one-year-old babies don't know much, but they don't die of it."

—The O-High.

Woman Suffrage Debate.

Negative: What is woman but a rag, a bone and a hank of hair?

Affirmative: What is man but a drag, a drone and a tank of air?

—Winchester Recorder, Winchester, Mass.

At the Newlyweds' Christmas, Tildenville:

Irene: "Why do you always laugh when I break a dish?"

Clarence: "Because it always strikes me funny."

"So you confess that the unfortunate young man was carried to the pump and there drenched with water? Now, Mr. Fresh, what part did you take in this disagreeable affair?"

Undergraduate (meekly): "The left leg, sir."
—Ex.

"Did you ever notice one thing about a ship?"

"What's that?"

"She can't make knots when she's tied up."—Ex.

SPURS

"My brother bought a motor here last week," said an angry man to the salesman who stepped up to greet him, "and he said if anything broke you would supply him with new parts."

"Certainly," said the salesman;
"what does he want?"

"He wants two deltoid muscles, a couple of knee-caps, one elbow and about a half a yard of cuticle," said the man, "and he wants them at once."—Ex.

We Wonder!

"Father, when people go to Heaven do they get to be angels right away or do they have to pass a lot of darn old examinations?"—Life.

Noxon: "Darrow was cranking his Ford and it jumped out of his hands and bounded over to Carnegie."

Tilly: "Guess I'll study a little Virgil."

Ingram: "Pleasant dreams."

Backus (writing a composition):
"The boy was so frightened he jumped on his horse and rode off in all directions."

"Billie," said his mother to a little boy who was putting a piece of money that his father had given him in his mouth, "don't put that money in your mouth. It may have germs on it."

"Oh," said Billie, "I didn't know daddy had germs in his pocket."—Ex.

"I see Jack Harrison was married to Miss Richley the other day."

"Yes, I was sorry to see it."

"Sorry! For her sake or his?"

"For mine. I wanted her."

—Ex.

Cheesey: "Some people around here are so cruel that if they can't find anything else to kill, they hang around Lakeside and kill time."

Stranger: "Have you seen a man around here with one leg named Jones?"

Old Timer: "What was the other leg named?"—Ex.

"I see that you advertise that you retail canaries," remarked the man as he entered the shop.

"Yes, to be sure," answered the proprietor, briskly. "Can I sell you one?"

"No," was the reply, "I just dropped in to ask how the canaries lose their tails."—Ex.

Olivia (in English class): "Burns was very studious — he carried his books into the field when he went to work; and even at meals he would eat with one hand and study with the other."

Freshman: "My finger is bleeding."

Soph: "I told you what would happen if you cut the fool."

(What else could he say?)

Cat: "You wouldn't have a show in a fight with me. I have nine lives."

Frog: "You're not in it. I've croaked hundreds of times."—Ex.

Senior: "Doctor, will you give me something for my head?"

Doctor: "I wouldn't have it as a gift."

"So you think Katherine made a very suitable match?"

"Yes, indeed; you know what a nervous, excitable girl she was. Well, she married a composer."—Ex.

Teacher: "What are the natives of Paris called?"

Pupil: "Parisites."—Ex.

DR. BAKER ELECTED MAYOR OF WINTER PARK.

ished when old Knowles Hall was burned to the ground, his ambition has materialized through his untiring efforts, in the present museum, of which Rollins is justly proud, and which is at present accommodated in the new Knowles Hall.

Personals

Misses Vanetta Hall and Hope Townsley were Rollins visitors to Orlando last Saturday afternoon.

Vivian and Antoinette Barbour enjoyed the movies in Orlando last Monday.

Elinor Emery entertained Edith Foley, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Webster, Mabel Allen, Ruth Greene, Frieda Siewert, Ray Greene, Freddie Hanna and Randolph Lake Thursday evening, February 1. A delightful informal evening was enjoyed, refreshments were served and plans were considered for a camping trip to Lake Howell, which has been postponed because of the cold weather.

Mrs. Manchester, the mother of Morris Manchester, who is recovering from his recent accident, was on the campus Tuesday afternoon.

The regular meeting of the Fortnightly Club was held last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. C. H. Morse. Mrs. J. L. Dyer read the paper of the evening. Dr. Julia Allen and Miss Waterman rendered pleasing musical selections, which added to the enjoyment of those present.

The rehearsal of the Elijah chorus by the Community Chorus was omitted last Tuesday evening. The chorus under the direction of Walter Drennen, is progressing nicely.

Miss Geraldine Muriel arrived on the campus Friday evening to visit her sister, Miss Sara Muriel, for a few days.

See Dean Enyart and Professor Palmer play snappy tennis next Tuesday.
