DR. HOTARD COMPLETES RED CROSS SERIES

Last Lecture Given Monday Evening

On Monday evening, April 9th, the first meeting of the Red Cross class was held. Since then lectures and demonstrations have been given by Dr. Hotard every Monday and Friday evenings, the meetings closing Friday, May 4th.

The lectures have been very practical, instruction and demonstrations having been given concerning bandages and their application. Emergency treatment for wounds, burns, sprains, fractures have also been studied, in fact everything which is considered "First Aid to the Injured" has been thoroughly covered.

Dr. Hotard's interest and generosity in giving to this work so much time from his more than busy day is greatly appreciated by both faculty and students as was evidenced by the rousing cheer which was given him at the close of the last meeting.

Thanks is due also to Mr. W. H. Cook for having set on foot this movement and for having gained the interest and cooperation of those through whose efforts the organization was effected.

True patience was exhibited by Coach Royal at a number of meetings when he allowed himself to be used as the subject for the demonstrations.

As school nears its close, and Rollins students depart for their homes in various states, it is quite safe to prophesy that the knowledge which they gained under Dr. Hotard's instruction will be one of the most valuable things gained at Rollins whether or not they see actual service.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting last Tuesday night was in charge of the news and finance committees, Helen Waterhouse acting as leader. Tiny Hanchett read some extracts from the letters of Miss Elsie Greene, Student Secretary of the South Atlantic Field to Japan.

The meeting was then put in charge of Elizabeth Russell who gave a report of the Association's finances.

It is the custom of the Y. W. C. A. of Rollins College to send its president and as many others as possible to the annual conference at Blue Ridge.

The delegates elected for the coming conference are Virga West, president; Winifred Hanchett, Kath-

BEAUTIFUL MAY DAY FESTIVAL GIVEN ON CAMPUS

Good Crowd Sees Annual College Frolic

On Saturday afternoon last was held one of the prettiest exhibitions in observance of the May Day, that Rollins

Homage having been paid to the May Queen, Miss Gertrude Hall and Mr. James Noxon gave a pleasing duet following which, although a few drops of rain were falling, came a Swedish Dance starting from Cloverleaf and ending before the Queen's has ever seen. The Festival was promoted by the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations, and was managed under the capable supervision of Miss Enyart.

At four o'clock the two divisions started, the girls from Knowles and the boys from Carnegie, marching to the special music played by the Conservatory Orchestra which was placed on Cloverleaf porch.

Having met, the two lines turned, marched on either side of the throne, and brought up facing each other at the Studio end of the campus. Then the Queen, Mary Conaway, preceded by her maid of honor, Anna Funk, and two pretty little flower girls, Misses Evelyn Buckmaster and Katherine Estes of Orlando, and followed by the attendant maids chosen from all classes, walked slowly up to the throne.

Here, after a few words from the maid of honor, she was crowned by that dignitary.

Then the Seniors in single file, class presidents and the classes themselves four abreast, proceeded toward the throne, and as each line came opposite the Queen they bowed profoundly to her as a token of the love and esteem in which she is held.

throne. The girls were all arrayed in many colored aprons and hoods, and showed much grace in executing the dance. While the next number was being prepared the crowd was amused by the actions of little Bobbie Bellows, the Queen's train bearer, who calmly took a seat beside the Queen's chair on the throne, using the train of Her Majesty's robe as a cushion.

The May-pole dance which followed showed the great amount of practice and care which had been put into its preparation, and a dreamy spectator might easily have thought himself back at some mediaeval folk dance.

In the hoop-rolling contest Rose Powers out-ran all comers, and was presented with a prize hoop by the Queen. George Roberts won the archery prize after long elimination tests.

Following this final event, the crowd broke up and surrounded the ice cream, candy and lemonade booths, and although the out-door supper which Miss Hills had arranged had to be served in the dining room on account of the rain, everyone felt that the spirit of play which is the true spirit of May Day had been present.

THE TOMOKAN MAKES ITS FIRST APPEARANCE

Attractive Year-Book Published By the Seniors

The Tomokan, so eagerly awaited, made its appearance on the campus last Tuesday morning. Classes supposed to meet at 11.15 were late in assembling and the excitement evidenced by those who had procured their copies, as well as by those who had not, was suppressed with difficulty by the various professors.

The cover of The Tomokan is blue suede lettered in gold, and bearing the Rollins seal. So attractive is its outer dress that whoever sees it must feel impelled to acquaint themselves with its contents.

From the first pages, wherein it is dedicated to beloved Dr. Baker, to the last page of its ads, The Tomokan is of great interest to those who know and love Rollins College. Familiar faces and familiar scenes peep forth from its pages while the dignified senior and grave professor find themselves cleverly caricatured by the dexterous pen of the witty artist.

Athletics, the Alumni association, the Christian associations, various clubs, the fraternities and all classes and campus organizations appear in picture and in written description to remain as pleasant reminders of happy days spent at Rollins.

The Tomokan Board is to be congratulated upon the beauty and success of the book for which it has worked so earnestly. Especial mention should be made of the tireless efforts of, Editor-in-Chief Alfred J. Hanna, under whose direction the work has been done, and upon whom has rested the entire responsibility of this book.

TOMOKAN POSTERS WORK OF "NONIE" EMERY

The hand painted posters announcing the arrival of the 1917 Tomokans which decorate windows at the Winter Park Pharmacy and at Curtis & O'Neal's in Orlando are the work of a Rollins sophomore, Elinor Emory.

The posters are large and artistic and contain in the center a full-sized water color painting of the Rollins annual in blue and gold.

Coach Royal left last Sunday for Atlanta, where he took examinations for entrance to Ft. McPherson. Coach passed his examinations with high marks and returned to the campus Tuesday to await his call.

SATURDAY, MAY 12, 1917

The Tomokan in its garb of blue suede and gold letters, lies before us. Surely Editor-in-Chief Hanna and his Editorial Board must feel well repaid for their work, sometimes pleasant, sometimes monotonous, which has made possible this book. We congratulate them upon its success.

Faces of dignified seniors and school officers appear as we turn The Tomokan's pages; scenes on and near the campus greet us, and cause us to feel more than ever before that ours is the most beautiful of campus.

All classes and campus organizations are represented therein, by pictures and by written descriptions while The Sandspur is described historically in a lengthy sketch of the ups and downs of journalistic effort here at Rollins.

We greet this sister publication, whose purpose is "to supplement this (The Sandspur) work, and to present in comprehensive form a college memorial."

We have watched with interest the enthusiasm for the Red Cross work which has been shown by the students from the time that such work was first proposed until the final lecture was completed.

As a member of the Rollins family who is grateful for anything which contributes to the welfare and uplift of the students, we have felt deeply indebted to those who have made the Red Cross class possible.

To Mr. Cook who first proposed such work much credit is due, for it was largely through his efforts that the wish of many became a reality. Dr. Hotard very generously gave his time to the work which without doubt will be of untold benefit to all who receive his instruction.

To these men as well as to all who aided the work in any way, we extend a heartfelt "Thank you."

Much is being said of late about patriotism, patriotic spirit, loyalty to the flag and the necessity of each and every citizen doing his "bit." Many are fired with patriotic enthusiasm and a keen desire to enlist in some special branch of service, but because of handicaps they are unable to render that service which appeals most strongly to them.

There are many ways however, in which every one can manifest his devotion and loyalty, and some of these are within the reach of every man, woman and child. For instance, every one can learn the words of our national anthem so that when it is sung at public gatherings, no one need stand ashamed, unable to express the love which every true American feels for Old Glory.

That some persons, even Rollins students do not know the words of "The Star-Spangled Banner," was clearly shown in Knowles Hall last Saturday evening, when, at the close of the concert, the audience and the Glee Club were asked to join in singing this much-loved song.

The first stanza was sung with great enthusiasm, but before the end of the second stanza was reached, more than one of the singers was embarrassed because the words were not familiar to them.

Show your true patriotism by learning the words—all of them—of "The Star Spangled Banner."

EXCHANGES

Why we have an exchange column is a question that many students ask and quite naturally so, for it is only indirectly that the student mass receives any benefit from it. Owing to the fact that the department does not make very interesting reading, it is very often scorned by the students.

Nevertheless the exchange department is a necessary part of all school papers and for the following reasons: First, because through it, the staff of a paper receives other school papers containing suggestions which may prove valuable; secondly, because a school having sent its paper to another school receives a criticism of it from that school and in this way improvements may be made.

Through the efforts of the former editor of this department, our exchange list has been much enlarged.

We are pleased to acknowledge The Arlington High School Clarion as a new exchange. It is a very neat and prosperous looking paper, but a few good cuts would greatly improve its attractiveness.

In The Lawrentian, appears a very interesting article on the subject "Do students ever think for themselves?" we quote extracts below.

"College! What is it all about anyway? Have you ever stopped to think what it is, and why you are here, and what you are doing with it, and who will be the loser if you don't put the realest kind of living into it?"

How many of us have ever thought of this?

"Oh, why don't you think, think for yourselves, think straight, think through, think all around, think about the things that will make your life, big, fine, and LIVE!"

What are your brains for? Then think!

TOMOKANS GOING FAST

Good Demand for Remaining Copies

Following the arrival of the 1917 Tomokan Tuesday morning the demand for the copies remaining unsold for has increased daily. Wednesday afternoon the out-of-town subscriptions were filled which left only a limited number to be sold to former students and townspeople.

The management wishes to announce that copies have been held back in accordance with pledges made many weeks ago, especially on the part of former students. Unless these people live up to their contracts and redeem their pledges within the week, copies will be held no longer but will be disposed of to the first purchaser.

The remainig lot of books are on sale at Carnegie Hall on the Rollins Campus, at the Winter Park Pharmacy (through the courtesy of Dr. Freer) in town, and at Curtis & O'Neal's and Branch's book stores in Orlando. The Tomokans sell at $3.00 each.

BILLY WILSON ENTERTAINS FRIENDS AT FAREWELL PARTY

William W. Wilson, of Cleveland, entertained a number of his friends Monday evening at the San Juan Hotel in Orlando at an enjoyable dinner party. After the appetizing chicken dinner was served, Mr. Wilson took his guests to the Grand Theatre and later to The Palace for refreshments. Those invited were: Miss Gonzalez, chaperon, Miss Conaway, Miss Smith, Miss Bedinger, Mr. Hanna, Mr. Lake. Billy left on the mid-night, a number of his friends going down to the station to see him off.

DELPHIC SOCIETY

The Delphic Society held the last meeting of this semester last Wednesday evening in the Phi Alpha Fraternity rooms. The meeting opened promptly at 7.30 at the sound of the gravel, with the President, Alfred J. Hanna, presiding. A short business session was held, followed by a very interesting program. To a Water Lily, McDowell, Vanetta Hall. Essay on Friendship, Emerson, Winifred Hanchett. The Birth of St. Patrick, Samuel Lover, Sadie Pellerin. Military Activities in the Colleges, Current Events, Hester Bedinger. Calm as the Night, Bohn, James Noon. Reading of two War Poems, Allan Seeger, Sara Yancey. Personally Conducted Tour to the Moon, Original Short Story, Maurice Wheldon. The musical selections were rendered in a very artistic manner showing the musical talent of those who took part to great advantage. The reading of Allan Seegar's war poems was a splendid feature of the program. They gave a greater insight into the comradeship of those on the battlefield and of the horror of the war. The original story by Maurice Wheldon was indeed very clever and the skill of the writer certainly deserves praise. As all of our colleges are aroused by the war spirit it was only appropriate that the vital issue be brought before the society. The critic's report brought to a close the enjoyable evening. The Society by a rising vote thanked Miss Gladwin for her interest and help in getting the Society started. As this was the last meeting of this semester we can feel assured that the efforts which have been put forth this year in making the meetings a success have not been spent in vain. The society takes this opportunity to thank those who have helped in making the organization a success and it is only hoped that the same interest will be shown next year.

ORCHESTRA AND GLEE CLUB GIVE MAY-DAY CONCERT

The Rollins College Orchestra, assisted by the Women's Glee Club, gave the final touch to the May Day Festival with a well-prepared concert. In spite of the rain earlier in the evening, which made it necessary to give the concert in Knowles Hall, a good number turned out to hear this latest product of the efficient efforts of Misses Dyer and Waterman. The program was as follows: War March from "Athalia." Mendelssohn, Orchestra. "In May," Horatio Parker, Glee Club. Reading, Mrs. Barze. (a) Albumleaf, Grieg; (b) Ballet Suite from "Rosamunde," Schubert, Orchestra. (a) A Thanksgiving Fable; (b) Dolladine, Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, Glee Club. Scene de Ballet, de Beriot, Mrs. Krauss. "In Maytime," John A. Loud, Miss Gertrude Hall. "Fly Singing Bird," Elgar, Glee Club, (with double violin obligato.) Dances from "Henry, VIII," (a) Shepherd's Dance, (b) Morris Dance, Orchestra. National Airs, Orchestra, Glee Club and Audience.

BAPTIST CHURCH

A unique Temperance meeting will be held on Sunday evening at 7.30 in the temperance cause, presented by a number of people. Morning service 11 o'clock; Sunday School at 9.45 a.m. and B. Y. P. U. at 7.30 p.m. Old Lady—"Stop the train, conductor! I lost my wig out of the window." Conductor—"Never mind, lady; there's a switch at the next station."—Ex. Cheesy—"The only way I can get my name in the Sandspur is by saying something funny." Teacher—"What is a civilian?" Pupil—"One who fought in the Civil War."—Ex.
