THE LIBERTY LOAN

By W. G. McAdoo, Secretary of the Treasury.

For the purpose of Equipping with arms, clothing and food our gallant soldiers who have been called to the field;

Maintaining our Navy and our valiant tars upon the high seas;

Providing the necessary means to pay the wages of our soldiers and sailors and, if the bill now pending in the Congress passes, the monthly allowances for the support of their dependent families and to supply them with life insurance;

Constructing a great fleet of merchant vessels to maintain the line of communication with our brave troops in France, and to keep our commerce afloat upon the high seas in defiance of the German Kaiser and his submarines;

Creating a great fleet of aeroplanes, which will give complete supremacy in the air to the United States and the brave nations fighting with us against the German military menace; and for other necessary war purposes,

The Congress of the United States has authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to sell to the American people bonds of the United States bearing four per cent interest, with valuable tax exemptions, and convertible under certain conditions into other issues of United States bonds that may be authorized by the Congress. The official circular of the Treasury Department gives full details.

There is now offered to the American people a new issue of $3,000,000,000 of bonds to be known as the Second Liberty Loan. They will be issued in such denominations and upon such terms that every patriotic citizen will have an opportunity to assist the Government by lending his money upon the security of a United States Government bond.

It is essential to the success of the war and to the support of our gallant troops that these loans shall not only be subscribed, but over-subscribed. No one is asked to donate or give his money to the Government; but everyone is asked to lend his money to the Government. The loans will be repaid in full with interest at the rate of four per cent per annum. A Government bond is the safest investment in the world; it is as good as currency and yet better, because the Government bond bears interest and currency does not. No other investment com-

STUDENT GOVERNMENT NOW IN VOGUE AMONG THE MEN

Proving Both Successful and Popular

For more than a week, student government has been in force among the men of this college. This change in government was not unexcepted but has been advocated before, notably last year, but without the full conviction of all concerned. With the opening of this year, the time seemed especially apropos for the fostering of this movement which has steadily grown from the first day.

Both Pres. French and representative men in students committee have worked zealously to perfect a system of control which would operate harmoniously and with mutual benefit to the administration and student body. It is believed that this object has been realized in the form of a student council constitution which has been drawn up and work out following the several students committee meetings in council with Pres. French. This constitution was formally adopted by a unanimous vote of all the campus men on Thursday September 26th., following a complete understanding of all provisions and agreements.

By this compact, a form of honor system is in vogue, placing responsibility for the adherence to understood rules upon each individual through his own assent to the installation of the student council form of government. The men are responsible directly to a senate or council of their own choosing. The council stands responsible to the president of the college and holds in its power the enforcement of the necessary rules controlling student conduct.

The council as elected by the men stands as follows: James I. Noxon, chairman, Harold C. Tilden, Bertram Cleave, Leslie Hanawalt, Wilbur Waddell and Louis Miscowsky.

DR. VINCENT SPEAKS IN CHAPEL

Last Tuesday morning Dr. Vincent, pastor of the Congregational Church, gave the first of a series of talks to the students in chapel.

As the slightest bit of physical force expended in the world affects all parts of the earth, so does every act of our lives have lasting effect upon humanity as a whole. It has taken the best efforts of countless generations to Rollins Graduate in Training at Spartansburg, S. C.

Rollins people will no doubt be interested to learn that Dean S. Pike, of the Class of '13, is now in training at Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, S. C. It will be remembered that he and Miss Mabel Allen, a graduate of Rollins Academy, were married last June in New York. Mrs. Pike will join her husband in the South in a sort time.

In writing of the life in the Camp Mr. Pike says: "This Reservation is in a beautiful rolling country full of pine woods, cotton, and corn fields. On our practice rides we get glimpses of the Blue Ridge Mountains. We are well taken care of and comfortable." * * * Rollins and Winter Park mean much to us and you may be sure of our loyalty"

Y. M. C. A. HEARS PROF. HARRIS

The men of the Y. M. C. A. were given the privilege on Tuesday evening of hearing Prof. Harris speak on the appropriate subject, "A Budget of Time." The speaker illustrated his talk by vivid examples.

In former years, kerosene alone was manufactured from crude oil, to-day by-products, extracted from the waste, yield returns which are far in excess of those received from the one product of former times. So it is important that fragments of time, too often wasted, should be gathered together and used.

Concentration is the key note of success in saving the waste. A young man in college told Prof. Harris that he did not learn how to study until he had reached his Junior year. Upon his graduation, he received the Prince of Wales gold medal for excellency in scholarship thus outstripping a man, apparently much more brilliant who had not learned the value of concentration.

build up the great things which we now have—our part is to hold fast to our faith in the Divine and to make sure that we keep on building allowing nothing to retrogress.

Dr. Vincent will address the chapel assemblage from time to time during the winter.

THE DELPHIC

Business Meeting Held Last Wednesday.

The Delphic Literary society held a special business meeting on Wednesday evening of this week for the purpose of electing new members. It was first decided that the constitution be so amended that the meeting of the society take place on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month, and these meetings begin at seven o'clock and end at eight. The membership committee then presented the following list of names of college students who were voted into active membership: Gardine Muriel, Marion Phillips, Hildegard Slaughter, Lella Russell, Lillian Sawyer, Raymond Phillips, Benjamin C. Shaw, Edward Douglas, Norma McFadden, Madeline Appleby, Eleanor Bacchus, and Evelyn Haynes.

The following were then elected to honorary membership: Dr. and Mrs. French, Dean Short, Prof. and Mrs. Harris, Miss Conway and Mr. Hanna.

MRS. BLACKMAN SPEAKS AT Y. W. C. A. MEETING

Mrs. Wm. F. Blackman represented the Surgical Dressings Committee of Winter Park at the Young Women's Christian Association meeting on Tuesday.

Both Mrs. Blackman and Mrs. Temple exhibited a large number of the dressings which are being made at the town hall on Wednesday and Friday afternoons of each week and which the Cloverleaf girls hope soon to make on the campus. The suggestions for the work were received with much enthusiasm by the students and a committee was appointed consisting of Miss Wilkins, Katharine Gates, and some off-campus girls, to make plans for the Cloverleaf work.

Florence Smith led the devotional part of the meeting. Margaret Smith was elected to the office of vice-president of the association.

CLOVERLEAF HOLD SUNDAY NIGHT SINGS

One of the innovations of the new year has been a Sunday night Sing in Cloverleaf. For two Sunday evenings now the Rollins campus folks have gathered after supper for the singing of favorite hymns and a few moments of worship. Sometimes special music is a feature of the evening.

The boys are trying to show their "pep," have a little fun and give themselves as well as others a bit of recreation by performing an athletic "stunt" of some kind every Thursday afternoon. They ought to be more loyally supported.

Let us go out next week and show them that we like fun and that we appreciate their efforts.

We heard a remark the other day which made us realize that even yet there are those who have not grasped the significance of the war and who seem not to know why we are engaged in it. It seems almost impossible that there should be persons who still look upon the great struggle as one which our nation would have done well to avoid, that in the conflict we are to gain nothing really worth while. And yet the remark we heard showed clearly that even among students in our colleges which are trying so hard to help teach the lessons the present day would have us learn, there are those who remain indifferent, not realizing that this is a war of every man and woman in our nation, for themselves and for the generations to come.

As a nation we are awake. There are still some individuals who have not yet heard, or have not heeded the call, "Wake up!"

pares with it for safety, ready convertibility into cash, and unquestioned availability as collateral security for loans in any bank in the United States.

People by thousands ask the Treasury constantly how they can help the Government in this war. Through the purchase of Liberty Bonds every one can help. No more patriotic duty can be performed by those who cannot actually fight upon the field of battle than to furnish the Government with the necessary money to enable it to give our brave soldiers and sailors all that they require to make them strong for the fight and capable of winning a swift victory over our enemies.

We fight, first of all, for America's vital rights, the right to the unmolested and unobstructed use of the high seas, so that the surplus products of our farms, our mines and our factories may be carried into the harbors of every friendly nation in the world. Our welfare and prosperity as a people depend upon our right of peaceful intercourse with all the nations of the earth. To abandon these rights by withdrawing our ships and commerce from the seas upon the order of a military despot in Europe would destroy prosperity and bring disaster and humiliation upon the American people.

We fight to protect our citizens against assassination and murder upon the high seas while in the peaceful exercise of those rights demanded by international law and every instinct and dictate of humanity.

We fight to preserve our democratic institutions and our sovereignty as a nation against the menace of a powerful and ruthless military autocracy headed by the German Kaiser, whose ambition is to dominate the world.

We fight also for the noble ideal of universal democracy and liberty, the right of the smallest and weakest nations equally with the most powerful to live and to govern themselves to the will of their own people.

We fight for peace, for that just and lasting peace which agonized and tortured humanity craves and which not the sword nor the bayonet of a military despot but the supremacy of vindicated right alone can restore to a distracted world.

To secure these ends I appeal to every man and woman who resides upon the soil of free America and enjoys the blessings of her priceless institutions to join the League of Patriots by purchasing a Liberty Bond.

Y. W. C. A. STUDY CLASS

Sunday morning the newly organized Y. W. C. A. Bible study Class met with Mrs. French in the Congregational Church.

The class will take up for study the Y. W. C. A. text-book, entitled "Student Standards of Action," and, under the capable instruction of Mrs. French, it is hoped to make this an interesting part of the week's work.

The Class meets every Sunday morning at 9:45 at the Congregational Church. All members of the Y. W. C. A., teachers and girls, are urged to attend.

NOTICE TO "NEW" ROLLINS PEOPLE

The Rollins College year book—"The Tomokan"—is published bi-annually, in odd years. A limited number of copies of the 1917 edition have been carried over for the "new" people of 1917-18 inasmuch as the next volume will not be published until 1918-1919.

This book is one of the surest and quickest means of becoming acquainted with Rollins customs and it is hoped that both faculty and students will take advantage of this opportunity. The price of the book has been reduced from $3.00 to $1.00 and the sale will continue until Oct. 15. Copies may be secured at the Registrar's office.

The girls basket ball teams will not begin work until the weather is invigorating. From the promising material at hand, a first class team worthy of the name of Rollins, will be produced.

Max Dill, American (Mutual) ran away and got married the other day? The girl was Josephine Clarke, who appeared with Dill and Kolb in "A Peck O' Pickles."

Alpha Alpha Fraternity announces as pledges, Bertram Campbell Cleave of Trenton, New Jersey, and Wyman Wyke Stubbs of Oakland, Fla.

Mr. Fred Hall of Oberlin, Ohio was on the campus Thursday morning in company with his daughter, Mrs. Muselwhite. He states that he plans to spend the winter in Winter Park and will return with Mrs. Hall and Gertrude the last of November.

DR. MERRILL'S ADDRESS IN DETAIL

The following is a complete report of the address made by D. James G. Merrill in chapel on September 27th.

Fifty eight years ago this year I entered college. It was the year of the great comet which superstitious ones declared portended war. War did come so that like you I attended College in war times. And I have always been glad that I did. It gave college life an earnestness that peace rarely affords. When I entered college when we sang America, as you have just done, we ordinarily added a coda "The Dutch Company is the best Company." All this ceased when war broke out and when our class—the largest in Amherst up to that time sent into the Civil war on one side and the other more than half its numbers and word O so often came back that one of our classmates had fallen on the field of battle.

I congratulate you therefore in view of the fact that you are in College in these serious hours.

I remember, when a Senior, being reminded by an old college friend of my Father's that much as I thought I was appreciating the issues of the great war, vast it was then called, I could not do it as did he and my father. I resented his remark at the time a bit, but since then have concluded that he was right. Perhaps today one of my years can therefore be of service to you in reminding you of some things that should make you feel that you are now, while in college, to be congratulated.

First. You are fitting yourselves to face the greatest problems that humanity has ever faced. The questions that are to be answered are not only vast but varied. In the political life of our nation and of all nations the U. S. is to have a controlling voice. In finance the staggering debts that the civilized world is heaping up, our own financing in terms of billions where we used to be satisfied with millions are to present problems that no man living has ever tried to solve. The ethics of national living must be clarified in the thought and expressions of the future. Religion itself can not be the same in form and expression when it faces the hard thinking and tremendous experiences of the boys in the trenches who will return home vastly different and in most cases larger men than they could possibly have been had they remained in the walks of peace. To solve these problems the college graduate of these days is to be the most important factor.

Second. Remember that in facing these vast problems you will belong to a decimated generation. Already in Europe and Asia this is very evident and should this war continue a

SUNDAY SING

One of the most interesting and home-like features of Rollins is the Sunday night gathering of the boys and girls with the faculty at Cloverleaf cottage. Can students pay a deeper respect to God than to meet on this day to sing his praises?

Yes, we must attend church, but it has not been said that we must meet in the Cloverleaf parlor, yet, who has not been there everytime? We go not only because we enjoy it, but because it reminds us of the evenings spent in our own homes.

Ruth (to Chesty)—"Why don't you enlist? You would make a fine General."

Chesty—"Yes. General nuisance."

twelve month or longer it will be true in relation to our own land. Each college man and woman will not only be called to do his own life work but the work of his fellow who has fallen in battle, in fact the work of more than one so great has been the carnage of this frightful war. But there is a bright ray of hope in this direction owing to

A third factor of which would remind you—that as never before womanhood is by college training fitting herself to meet these amazing matters. A woman College-graduate was hardly known in my day. We had some "cousins" in Mt. Holyoke which has since become a college this year Smith College miles nearer than Holyoke had on its roster 1917 young women the precise number of the year when this was a fact. A feminine world in business and perhaps in politics and surely in religion is the outlook for the days that are coming. This is a source of hope but also of solicitude as we consider the attendant depletion of the ranks of those who have in the days past done woman's work without which there is no future for the race.

In view of these tremendous issues can we not all in answer to the questions "who is sufficient for these things?" say our sole hope is in the hand of Him on whom Rollins College is founded The King of Kings and the Lord of Lords. The educated man of the future as never before must link his life with the Eternal.

room had been prettily decorated under the direction of Percy Dale. A mass of coral vine over the piano showed up well against the white wall, and in the center of the room stood a pedestal banked with moss and roses, surmounted by a large palm.

An informal musical program was a pleasant feature of the evening's entertainment.

After refreshments were served the young people gathered around the piano and sang a varied collection of songs with much enjoyment, which made an appropriate finale to the evening.

There is no sport more suitable to this climate than swimming, yet a very small percentage of girls indulge in it. If you cannot swim, go across to the point and learn. It is only a matter of confidence in yourself. When you can jump off the spring board and do the "porpoise" you are accomplished indeed. Come out and show your "pep."
