CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS HEAR PROF. HARRINGTON

First Union Meeting This Year

On last Tuesday evening a union meeting of the Young Women's and Young Men's Christian Associations was held in the parlors of Cloverleaf Cottage. The program was prepared and carried out by the Y. M. C. A. despite the unfavorable weather conditions, the reception rooms were well filled by students.

The speaker of the evening, Professor Harrington, Director of the Business School, gave a very stimulating address, taking up an ethical problem which is always vital to young people of college age. All who heard him were convinced that he spoke from a wealth of experience and with a desire to aid most effectively those who now stood "At the Crossing of the Roads." His address showed clear thinking and a mastery of the problem.

Professor Harrington vividly pictured the problem by representing a puzzled traveler at the meeting place of many roads—no visible guides—no council or sympathy from a fellow traveler or from near-by dwellers. From this presentation he directly drew the application to the questioning period in the life of a youth.

The many paths of life lie before you. "You must make your choice." In childhood under the protection of home and parents, you appropriated the best of your environment as your ideals. Then you were content with less lofty ambitions than those which fire you now, for your experiences were held within the confines of a narrow sphere.

But as your experiences have extended into a larger life, your hopes are greater. With greater hopes have come heightened fears. You feel cramped for means and you doubt your capacities and all the time try to forget the gnawing desire of your heart. That which lies in a warm desire in your heart is the thing for you, not that which the means from your pocket can provide you.

The universe is a great whole, made up of many parts held together by the harmonious functioning and the perfect fitness of all parts. You have a place in the great design. If you do not find your place, the structure will be imperfect.

"Service is the watchword of life." This present age offers the greatest opportunities since the great deluge.

A SAILOR'S LETTER

Rollins Man In Service

George J. Cutler, formerly President of the Rollins Y. M. C. A. is now doing duty on the U. S. S. Niagara, S. P. 263 "on the broad Atlantic." The following excerpt from a letter recently received from him may be of interest to Rollins friends: Our boat is on steady patrol, putting to sea 48 hours and lying in dock 48 hours,—just enough of each to keep from becoming tedious. There is plenty of books that we have to study for the requirements for men on boats are many, such as thorough knowledge of boats, steam and sail gear, laws in passing boats, compass, lead lines, and all guns of the navy.

Have to tie 25 different knots and splice rope and wire cable up to three inch hawsers. I have the ship's log to write up every four hours. * * * There are eight of us in the crew; the boat is nice and roomy and we have the best of food. Our main hobby while out at sea is to fish. We managed to catch 3 sharks. The largest one was 11 1-2 feet long. Please remember me to all the Rollinsites."

ROLLINS GRADUATE ON WAY TO CHINA

President French is in receipt of a note from Miss Mabel E. Daniels, who received her A. B. degree from Rollins College in 1913, written on board the S. S. Tenyo Maru. The message was written the night before her ship landed in Honolulu. Miss Daniels is on her way to Canton, China, where she will teach music in a Missionary School. Her many friends in this vicinity wish for her a most successful and helpful career.

Professors Rheinhardt and Rencher were dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. Hotard last Sunday at their home on New England Avenue.

But you will take up also the greatest burdens. It is not for you to be merely a writer of history, you must be a maker of history. You must make the world the better for your being and not make yourself more comfortable in the world as it is. The world strife has added to your burdens. Now you must do two men's work. The soldier has served you, and you must serve him. But you will fail if you do not have your motive of life in Service. "Seek ye first the service of man and the kingdom of God will be added unto you."

SENIOR RECEPTION

Classes Get Together

This time it is the Seniors who entertained.

Early last week cards were received by all the College Students inviting them to a reception in the "Frat" rooms on Saturday evening Oct. 13. It sounded very grand especially to the little Freshmen.

But they received a shock when the president of the Senior Class during the first part of the evening announced that as the Sophomore Class was so small and thereupon unable to perform their duties towards the Freshman Class, they, the Seniors, would take it upon themselves to show the aforesaid Freshmen their "own little place." He then went on to welcome all the classes (especially the Freshman) and spoke of the good fellowship which should always be the keynote of class gatherings.

It was then announced that the Seniors expected each class to give a "stunt" which was to demonstrate their ability.

To show that they were well drilled and all prepared, the Seniors gave their's first. "It" was a series of Shakespearian plays given in Charade form, the audience being expected to guess them. The first, "All's well that ends well," was guess by Miss Gerardine Muriel. The second "Much Ado About Nothing," by Miss Eleanor Backus, the third, "As You Like It," by Mrs. Harris, they were given well and received with much enthusiasm.

The Junior's turn came next.

The girls of the class rendered a song entitled "Did You Ever See A Whale." Mr. Shaw then presented each Senior with a token of regard.

The Sophomore Class, (is there any way to make Class singular?) then read a poem, which told of the Wandering of the Freshman Class of last year, and why they were not back at their post to keep her company.

Last but not least came the Freshman stunt. This was in the form of a Kindergarten class. The class was presided over by Miss Backus, who called the class to order sharply and asked each pupil to recite their lessons for the benefit of the "Company."

By request, Mr. Noxon sang a solo, without which no Rollins gathering is complete.

Later refreshments of punch and cakes were served, completing a very enjoyable evening.

Among the guests of the evening were Dr. and Mrs. French, Dean Short, Prof. and Mrs. Harris and Miss Dyer.

THE WAR WORK OF THE Y. M. C. A.

Letter To Students From Dr. Weatherford

The Y. M. C. A., up to the present time has played an important part in the great struggle that is going on in Europe. There is, however, much more work waiting to be done which can be accomplished only through the aid of the students of the various colleges.

The following letter, which was received by the president of the Y. M. C. A., shows the great need and how everyone may do his share.

The International Committee of Young Men's Christian Associations, 124 East 28th Street, New York. Oct. 2, 1917.

Dear Sir:

Since the meeting of the Southern Student Conference, where the representatives from the student bodies and faculties all over the South decided to raise $100,000 for War Work, the Committee of One Hundred for War Work of the Y. M. C. A. has held a meeting recently in New York, and decided to raise $35,000,000. It appears that the needs in the camps are going to be very much greater than we had anticipated, that the expense of serving our soldiers in France will be far greater than expected, that the suffering in the prison camps of Europe will be far more serious than we had known. It therefore seems we ought to go for even more than $100,000 in our Southern colleges. It has been carefully estimated that eleven million dollars will be spent on the million or more men in our camps of America, and that twelve million will be spent on the half million or more men who we may have in France. In other words, $10 will take care of and give the comforts of the Young Men's Christian Association to a soldier in an American camp, and $25 will give these comforts to one of our soldiers in the army in France. I can hardly believe that any student should stay at home and be satisfied to have the joy of his education and the comforts of home life and not at least share his money to the extent of taking care of either one soldier at home or one of our soldiers in France.

Added to this, we must remember that according to the statement of John R. Mott, literally tens of thousands of prisoners in the prison camps

DON'T FORGET THE BOYS WHO FIGHT FOR YOU

You feed your dog; you feed your cat; you feed your little canary bird. When dinner time comes are you going to forget the soldiers who fight for you in France.

The boy you cheered when he marched away will stand knee deep in trench mud; he will face poison gas and deadly flame. He will endure all the terrors of modern battle. That's his bit. Your bit, perhaps, is to save one slice of bread a day for him.

So closely is the world linked, that one phase of the world war is being fought out in the American kitchen, where the house wife will be the skilled general who will drive back the menace of privation from the flanks of our allies.

There must be more than war munitions in the hands we stretch across the sea. The cause of democracy must be fed as well as armed.

And just as YOU say that you will not change YOUR style of living, a starving baby dies in France.

The cause of food conservation offers to every American citizen a chance to render a patriotic service that does not entail a sacrifice.

FOOD CONSERVATION CAMPAIGN

Ten million food conservation pledges! Twenty-two million homes visited! A National campaign projected so large in its scope that the work to be accomplished is as great as though a census of the country were to be taken in a week!

Such is the program outlined for the Food Pledge Week Campaign, October 21st, to 28th.

If we are to be victorious in the war, the people of the United States of America must set themselves seriously to the task of saving food waste. Moreover they must be sufficiently self-sacrificing not to use the foods which our fighting men and our allies need—which they must have. Every man, woman and child can help.

If the United States were an autocratic country there would be no popular appeal for the conservation of food. There would be automatic food control. The mailed fist would rule the kitchen. Imperial food decree would be enforced at the point of autocratic country. Food control is in the hand of the people themselves, and it is to the people that the Food Administration has appealed in the Food Pledge Card.

RESTAURANTS TO AID IN FOOD CONSERVATION

It was from a suggestion of The State Board of Health that the State Food Administrator is evolving a scheme to enlist restaurants and cafes of the State in an educational campaign to show the people who eat their meals in such places how they can best reduce the cost of their living, and at the same time, derive the most nourishment from foods grown in Florida thus refraining from consumption of foods necessary to the soldiers of America and her Allies.

This scheme will mean that restaurants and cafes will blazon in a few days with posters bearing suggested menus and sound advice on selecting diets which will be both economical and nourishing. They are now being prepared for the State Administrator by the Board and Miss Agnes Ellen Harris and Miss Gertrude York, of the Home Economics Department at Tallahassee.

"The position of editor and assistant editor will receive full credits during the current year, upon the approval of the English Department," says The Middlebury Campus. The faculty of Middlebury College, after due consideration, has made the above decision in order to encourage those who edit the college paper.

We feel sure that the decision will not be reversed if the staff maintains its present high standards in conducting "The Campus."

FACULTY MEMBERS ENTERTAINED

On Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 10, the ladies of the faculty entertained at an informal tea in Cloverleaf in honor of the new members of the teaching force. A large number of ladies from Winter Park and Orlando were present, and seemed to enjoy welcoming the new-comers. The parlors were very charming with their artistic draperies and interior decorations, and were much admired.

PRESIDENT FRENCH TO PREACH IN JACKSONVILLE TOMORROW

President French has accepted an invitation recently extended by Rev. R. Marsh, pastor of the Union Congregational Church of Jacksonville, to spend Sunday, October 21, in that city and to occupy the pulpit of the Union Congregational Church at both services. The many former students of Rollins who now reside in Jacksonville will be delighted to hear of this.

While in Jacksonville, President French will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. March at their beautiful home 1728 Ionla Street, which has just been completed. Mr. Marsh was last spring elected a Trustee of Rollins College.

Notes From the Conservatory

The string quartette which so beautifully assisted in the exercises at the opening of school has begun rehearsing. The members are Dr. Allen, 1st-violin; Mrs. Krauss, 2nd-violin; Miss Dyer, viola; and Miss Warner, cello.

The Girls Glee Club, an organization of which we have been very proud, has reorganized. They held their first rehearsal on Wednesday afternoon, beginning work in earnest working towards their regular concerts.

The first Vesper Service in commemoration of the 400th anniversary of Luther's nailing the Thesis on the Church door of Wittenburg will be held Sunday night, Oct. 28 at 7:30 in Knowles Hall. The Vesper choir is now rehearsing old German chorales, and promises to make this a very interesting service. The Orchestra will begin practising next week.

STEAK ROAST

A jolly party of College folks enjoyed a steak roast on the picnic ground near the Seminole Hotel last Saturday evening. After supper the party was entertained by the strains of a ukulele until time for the homeward trip.

Those composing the party were: Miss Meriwether, who acted as chaperone, Misses Frieda and Elsa Siewert, Norma McFadden, Florence Keezel, Dorothy Richards and Isabel Foley, and Messrs. Wright Hilyard, George Arrants, Wilbur Waddell, Louis Mis-kovsky, Bert Cleave and Smith Fletcher.

Exchange Items

"The Clarion," Belmont, N. C.:—A good, all round paper, each department is well written and interesting.

"The Ring-tum Phi," Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., is a paper which would be well nigh impossible to criticize. We are glad to put you on our exchange list and look forward to your next coming.

"The High School Q," Quincy, Ill.—Yours is one of the brightest exchanges we have received. It is full of life from the artistic cover to the end and gives evidence of a progressive school.

"The Tech Collegian," Kansas City, Mo.:—There is splendid material in your paper, but if you had a few good headings and things arranged more systematically, your paper would be improved greatly.

"The Middlebury Campus," Middlebury, Vt.:—Your editorials are fine. This paper gives evidence of an enthusiastic school in the different branches of sport.

It is interesting to note the editor and assistant editor of "The Middlebury Campus," upon the approval of the English Department are to receive full credits in English for the work done in editing the paper.

The telephone call for Cloverleaf is Long-short.

Howell Sawyer, a brother of Lillian Sawyer, arrived last Friday from Savannah. He has registered as a Freshman.

FORMER ROLLINS

STUDENTS WED

The following is the account of the marriage of Miss Gayle Davis and Ensign D. Henry Fordham which appeared in The Morning Sentinel of October 11. Both Mr. and Mrs. Fordham are well known in Rollins circle where they have many friends who wish them well.

The marriage of Miss Gayle Davis, daughter of Mrs. M. B. Davis, occurred yesterday at nine o'clock when she became the bride of Ensign D. Henry Fordham, U. S. N., the ceremony being performed at the beautiful home of the brides mother on Lake Lucerne. Dean Glaso of St. Luke's Cathedral read the impressive Episcopal marriage service. The only persons present at the wedding were members of the family and Miss Elbeth Mulholland of Winter Park, the bride's only attendant.

The wedding was of special interest as it signified the union of the two military branches of the government—the Army and Navy. The bride is a daughter of the late Maj. John G. Davis, a distinguished army officer who lost his life in the Philippines in 1900 and was buried with military honors, in Arlington Cemetery.

The bride was married amidst a setting of asparagus fern and roses. Mrs. Fordham was attired most charmingly in a gown of white channense and Georgette crepe, carrying a bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Ensign Fordham wore his Navy uniform, carrying side arms giving an impressive military aspect to the occasion. Following the ceremony a dainty breakfast was served.

The happy couple left immediately in their automobile for the navy training camp at Charleston, S. C., where Ensign Fordham is stationed.

Mrs. Fordham is a graduate of National Park Seminary, being a member of Kappa sorority. Later she attended Rollins College where she met her future husband. She is a popular member of the younger society set and has lived in Orlando virtually all her life.

Ensign Fordham received his commission in April. His home is in Miami where he is the Junior member of Fordham & Son, wholesale paint manufacturers. He is a young man of most genial personality, and has countless friends.

Maurice Wheldon, '20, is now holding a position in the Land and Tax Department of the New York Central Railroad of Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Barbour and daughters, Misses Geraldine, Vivian and Antoinette, arrived in Winter Park last Monday. They will occupy their new home which has been completed recently. The Misses Barbour have resumed their studies at the College.

STANDING BEHIND

OUR SOLDIERS

You are undertaking a great duty. The heart of the whole country is with you. Everything that you do will be watched with the deepest interest and with the deepest solicitude not only by those who are near and dear to you but by the whole Nation besides, for this great war draws us all together. * * *.—From President Wilson's address to the soldiers of the National Army.

If the heart of the whole country is with our soldiers of the National Army, and it is believed that it is, the money of the Nation will be back of them. The Liberty Loan is to be used to arm, equip, and maintain our soldiers, to prepare them for the conflict in France, and make them as effective and powerful as possible, and safeguard them in every way possible. In addition, it will be used to give them life and indemnity insurance and provide for their dependents. The uses of the Liberty Loan appeal to every patriotic American, for it is used for our soldiers and sailors and the principles which they uphold, which the heart of the whole country is with.

The foundation of our great country is liberty; its superstructure, peace.—William McKinley.

THE BONDS.

The second issue of Liberty Loan Bonds will be of two kinds registered and coupon.

The registered bonds will be registered at the Treasury in the names of their owners and will be of the denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, and $100,000. Checks for the interest on these bonds will be mailed from the Treasury to the owners each semiannual-interest date.

The coupon bonds will be payable to bearer and will have coupons attached for the interest. They will be in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, and $10,000. The coupons can be cashed like a Government check at any bank.

The coupon bonds of this loan will have only four coupons attached, representing the semiannual interest for two years. Between November 15

THE WAR WORK

OF THE Y. M. C. A.

1919, and May, 1920, the holders of coupon bonds must exchange their bonds for new bonds having full sets of coupons. These temporary bonds are issued because the work of engraving so many bonds with so large a number of coupons attached can not be completed within a reasonable time for delivery.

THE LOAN MUST SUCCEED.

We must make this loan a success. We can make it a success. The failure of a single issue of Government bonds would be worse for America than a disaster upon the field of battle. We must never let that happen.

A few days ago I read the following manifesto issued in Berlin by the League of German Municipalities:

"If money talks, the President of the United States may learn by October 18, when the subscription lists fund given by the German people will close, that the echo of the new war have drowned out completely the clamor of unending protests to which his reply to the Pope has given stimulus."

Let us meet that challenge by a subscription to our Second Liberty Loan on the 27th day October, nine days after the close of the German loan, which will make clear to the German military despotism that America marshals not alone her brave soldiers upon the field, her invincible Navy upon the high seas, her industries throughout the length and breadth of this land, but as well her financial resources, and that she is determined to use them all without stint and regardless of sacrifice to vindicate American rights, outraged too frequently by German infamies.—From Secretary McAdoo's speech before the American Bankers' Association September 28, 1917.

PURCHASE OF BONDS

Bonds of the Second Liberty Loan can be purchased by filling out an application blank made on the form prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, which can be obtained from any bank or Liberty Loan committee, and sending it or having it sent to the Treasury of the United States or any Federal Reserve Bank or branch accompanied by the payment of 2 per cent of the amount of bonds applied for.

These applications must reach the Treasury Department, a Federal Reserve Bank or branch thereof, or some incorporated or trust company in the United States on or before the close of business October 27, 1917. Practically every bank in the United States will willingly receive these applications and handle the whole transaction of the purchase of bonds for any subscriber.

Miss Idabel Edwards, a former Rollins Student, spent the summer in New York, and is now a senior in Oberlin College.

THE FRESHMAN

CLASS ORGANIZES

In the early part of last week, a meeting of the Freshman Class was called, Miss Lelia Russell presiding as temporary chairman.

The election of officers by blind ballot resulted as follows:

Mr. Harold Tilden, president; Miss Lelia Russell Vice-president; Mr. Raymond Phillips Secretary and Treasurer; Miss Eleanor Backus Official Reporter; Other matters of business were discussed after which the meeting adjourned.

A second meeting of the Freshman Class was called later, which resulted in the unanimous election of Professor Harris as Faculty Advisor.

As there was a tie in the vote for class colors it was put off until another meeting.

A very snappy yell was adopted which will soon be setting the "Wild Echo's Flying" on the campus.

It has been said that the Freshman are quite a remarkable Class this year, and that they acquitted themselves very well Saturday evening

Word comes from Mrs. Erik S. Palmer, who recently left Winter Park to join Mr. Palmer in New Haven, that they are now comfortably settled in their own home. Mr. Palmer received an appointment during the summer as ballistic engineer in the Produce Department of the Winchester Repeating Arms Co. They will be greatly missed this year by their many friends.

I once knew an artist who died because he couldn't draw his breath.

PRESIDENT FRENCH ATTENDS

ST. JOHNS PRESBYTERY

President Calvin H. French, LL. D., left Winter Park Tuesday evening on the 5:50 train going South to make connections for Fort Meade where the annual meeting of the St. Johns Presbytery of Florida convened that evening at 7:30.

The Rollins College President received the most courteous treatment from the members of the Presbytery whose guest he was for the time. He attended the sessions of Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning and afternoon and returned to the campus late Wednesday evening.

A Trustee of the College, Rev. J. C. Tims, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Tampa, was also present at the meeting and was on the program. Dr. Tims received his honorary doctor's degree from Rollins College in 1910 and is an honorary member of the Alumni Association of the College.

Miss Frances Gonzales went to Jacksonville last Saturday to meet Mrs. Guzman and daughter and son of Havana who accompanied her to Winter Park Monday. Miss and Mr. Guzman are enrolled in the Spanish-speaking Department.

Mrs. Christine R. Harcourt, of the Rollins Conservatory of Music, presided at the pipe organ in St. John's Church in Sanford last Wednesday evening when the organ which was recently installed was dedicated.

BASKET-BALL TOURNAMENT

The boys' tournament in basket-ball excited much interest. The individual playing was closely watched because the best players in this tournament will be selected for first team. The teams were evenly matched, each team winning a game.

The first game was played Wednesday. The boys played half an hour straight and the game was as fast at the close as the beginning which speaks well for endurance. The score was 17-7, in favor of the Blues.

The line-up was as follows:

Blue.	Red.
Ward c.	Cheesey c.
Tompkins f.	Hanawalt f.
Hunter f.	Miskovsky f.
Tilden g.	Williams g.
Phillips g.	Conway g.
Referee—Fletcher.

The second game was played Thursday.

The final game was played Friday between the Whites and the Blues. The former winning by a score of 13 to 6.

The play was hard and snappy from start to finish and the resulting score was due largely to the excellent team work of Fletcher and Hutchinson of the Whites. The line-up was as follows:

Whites	Blues
R. F. Fletcher	R. F. Tompkins
L. F. Hutchinson	L. F. Vincent
C. Cleave	C. Ward
R. G. Schofield	R. G. Phillips
L. G. McGaughey	L. G. Tilden
Referee—L. S. Hanawalt.

THURSDAY GAME.

The Boy's orchestra of wind instruments rendered many noisy selections, the greater the enthusiasm, the greater the noise. Cheesey was leader. The balcony of the gym was filled with spectators to hear the music and witness the double header.

The girl's teams of Blue and Yellow competed, the latter winning with a score of 5 to 3. Individual playing was excellent and an attempt at team work showed that the girls realize its importance.

The line-up was as follows:

Yellow	Blue
Norma McFadden f.	Florence Stone f.
Hildegard Slaughter f.	Isabel Foley f.
Mary Conaway c.	Pat Richards c.
Helen Waterhouse s.c.
	Alice Waterhouse s.c.
Sadie Pellerin g.	Annie Stone g.
Lillian Sawyer g.	Gladis Smith g.
Referee—Hanawalt.

The Boy's game was exciting, the second of the tournament. Bob Hutchinson and Fletcher quick passes were the feature. Cheesey took a high jump and sat down hard.

The Reds' won over the Whites with a score of 6 to 3.

The line-up was as follows:

Red	White
Cheesey c.	Fletcher f.
Hanawalt f.	Hutchinson f.
Miskovsky f.	Cleave c.

WAR WORK AND

THE Y. M. C. A.

of Europe will die this winter unless they are given support and funds for securing more blankets and clothing. Dr. Mott estimates that from five to ten dollars will take care of and save the life of one of these prisoners. Surely no man of us can afford to live in luxury when the money he wastes in the course of a month would save the life of a human being.

Before you get this letter, you will have received the full printed matter concerning the needs of War Work. You will doubtless also have had correspondence with your own State Secretary, who will keep you in close contact with all the facts. Either through this office or through the office of your State Secretary, there will be sent to you in the near future a syllabus as to how to handle a campaign. We undoubtedly must raise not only the hundred thousand but far more than this if we do our share to relieve ourselves the sense of being slackers. I hope you will unite with us in prayer that we may do far more than that which we have indicated.

Yours most sincerely,
W. D. Weatherford.

ROLLINS MAN MICHIGAN HALF-BACK

The Sunday issue of the Detroit Free Press gave "some of the factors involved in giving Michigan a good 'ar time' foot-ball eleven." Rollins was proud to see Gerald Froemke was one of the players. The notice occasioned little surprise but much pleasure as he had so ably played half back on Rollins' foot-ball team in the good old days before the war. No doubt the half-back on the Michigan team will be a strong point in their formation while Gerald holds it.
