VARSITY DEFEATS ORLANDO LEGIONERS THIRTEEN TO NOTHING

FRESHMEN VICTORIOUS IN FIRST DELPHIC DEBATE

SOPHOMORES PUT UP SOME STRONG ARGUMENTS BUT LOSE ON OPEN SHOP

The night before Armistice Day proved to be an ideal time for the first elimination debate looking toward the winning of the Delphic Debating Cup. At eight o'clock last Wednesday evening Knowles Hall was well filled with interested students and a number of townspeople and it was evident that something more than the ordinary rivalry between the Sophs and Freshies was in the air.

There was no mistaking the indications and the immediate cause of unusual dissension proved to be the Freshman-Sophomore Debate on the Open Shop question. The terms "open shop" and "closed shop" were defined by the Sophomores as: Open Shop—shop in which union and non-union members may be employed; Closed Shop—shop in which only union members may be employed. The question was "That the Closed Shop Should Replace the Open Open Shop" (Continued on page 8)

DR. ROBERT L. TURNER OF STATE BOARD VISITS ROLLINS

STATE RURAL SCHOOL INSPECTOR HERE TO CONFER WITH MISS KENDALL

A distinguished visitor to the campus this past week was Inspector Robert L. Turner of the State Department of Education, who spent several days in this section of the state in conference with Miss Amy Kendall, County Rural School Inspector.

Mr. Turner has made schools his life work and his present position as representative of the head of the

TER-CENTENIAL CELEBRATION IN HIGH SCHOOL IN EVENING

Armistice Day at Rollins College is Replete With Interesting Events

The Armistice Day celebration at Rollins opened Thursday morning at 9:30 with aquatics on Lake Virginia. These events were scheduled for the afternoon but were changed so as not to conflict with the Confederate Veteran-American Legion Parade in Orlando.

Although there were many other attractions in the morning a goodly number of water-sport fans lined the shores of good old Lake Virginia to witness the events. Back of them cars were parked the entire distance from the boat house to the boy's diving pier.

The meet showed decided progress over previous ones and the general success is loud praise for the work of the athletic coaches as well as for the contestants and augurs well for the success of the biggest regatta of year to be held in Founder's Week.

"Pat" Foley and Sarah Wight were the heroines of the events while Holiday and Byrd split honors for the men.

The schedule runs as follows;

1. 50 yard swim for men; Rogers, Brooks and Stewart.
2. 30 yard swim for women; Wight, Foley.

FORWARD STEP TAKEN IN RE-ORGANIZATION OF ACTIVITIES

STUDENT ASSOCIATION COUNCIL ELECTS OFFICERS FOR YEAR

Most Democratic of Student Organizations at Rollins

At the first meeting of the Student Association Council held last Friday afternoon, the following officers were elected: President, Chas. Speer, of the Freshman class; Vice-President, Alford Stone, of the Junior class; Secretary, Easter Russell, of the Sophomore class, and Treasurer, A. J. Hanna.

This council and the association of which it is the executive body are a new venture in the history of student activities at Rollins. The council is composed of the president of each of the college and academy classes, while the association itself comprises the whole student body. This association has as its object the promotion of all desirable student activities, and is the medium through which the student association funds are distributed among the various or-

MISS ROUS GIVES HER LECTURE-RECITAL IN NEW HAVEN

IS INTRODUCED BY DOCTOR DAVID STANLEY SMITH, OF YALE

Miss Rous Returns From Recital Tour in the North

Miss Rous, head of the Piano Department, returned to the college Sunday night after a most successful recital tour in the north. Miss Rous left October 26th, going directly to New Haven, Conn., and on the evening of October 29th gave her lecture-recital, "What Next in Music?" for the benefit of the New Haven Girls' Club.

Dr. David Stanley Smith, successor to Dr. Horation Parker, director of the Yale School of Music, introduced Miss Rous as a colleague at Rollins of Susan Dyer, a graduate of the Yale School of Music and member of the much-coveted Steinert Prize.

From New Haven Miss Rous went to New York for the week-end and then on to Pittsburg, where she gave her recital at Memorial Hall, under

ROLLINS INCLUDED AMONG COLLEGES RECOGNIZED

It will be of interest to college people to know that the New York Stock Exchange is actively engaging itself in the distribution of high class books dealing with points of unusual interest in the business world. To further this particular work, the Exchange has appointed a Committee on Library, the chairman of which is Mr. R. T. H. Halsey. One of the colleges recently selected by Mr. Halsey for a gift of books by the Exchange was Rollins. The text book and syl-

Not unlike the editors of the past, we found many difficulties to be overcome in getting out these first few issues of Rollins' most important news organ. The chief one was the lack of help, because no staff had been organized and everyone is so busy. But with some rush work and the help of a faithful few these few issues have been gotten out. They are, of course, not up to the standard, but when the new staff is fully organized, we hope to give the college community a paper that will be satisfactory, at least to the ordinary critic.

Everything points to a banner year for Rollins. New students, new faculty, new courses, all indications of improvement and progress, and the strengthening of a number of branches stand as evidence. The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. are both planning very interesting programs. The Student Association has very capable officers and should be able to boost every line of activity to success.

Why should not this be Rollins' best year?

The Sandspur is your paper and needs your support. The staff alone cannot make the paper what you want it to be. They need your help and suggestion: constructive criticism and not destructive criticism, the kind that hurts and discourages. Make this your paper and make it the best ever. If you cannot boost, please don't knock!

PRESIDENT PROCLAIMS PILGRIMS' DAY

President Wilson has issued a proclamation in which he requests the observance by schools, colleges and universities of the three hundredth anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims. At the same time he named three members of the United States Pilgrim Tercentenary Commission. Six members had already been appointed by Congress.

The text of the proclamation follows:

"My Fellow Countrymen: December 21, next, will mark the tercentenary of the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth in 1620. The day will be becomingly celebrated at Plymouth under the auspices of the Plymouth Pilgrim Tercentenary Commission and at other localities in Massachusetts. While this is proper and praiseworthy, it seems to me that the influences which the ideals and principles of the Pilgrims with respect to civic liberty and human rights have had upon the formation and growth of our institutions and upon our development and progress as a nation, merits more than a local expression of our obligation, and makes fitting a nation-wide observance of the day.

"I therefore suggest and request that the 21st of December next we observe throughout the Union with special patriotic services, in order that great events in American history that have resulted from the landing of these hearty and courageous navigators and colonists may be accentuated to the present generation of American citizens. Especially do I recommend that the day be fittingly observed in the universities, colleges and schools of our country, to the end that salutary and patriotic lessons

ALPHA ALPHA SCANDAL

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Henderson and son, of Miami, drove up to the house Sunday to wish some hard luck on their other son, "Fat." This hard luck was in the form of a new Jordan touring car. "Fat's" younger brother, Arthur, age nine, drove the Jordan from Miami, all alone. We think this is no small feat for a boy of his years.

Our motive apparatus now consists of four touring cars, two flivver trucks, one bicycle, one pair of roller skates and innumerable odd shoes. Take your pick.

Mrs. Henderson presented Alpha Alpha with two new table cloths. Now we can have "Guest Night" twice a week. Thankful are we that one more handicap has been overcome.

All we need now is—nope, we can't mention just what the thing is, for in reality it's more than one thing; it's everything. Still our cuisine is rapidly being increased by the addition of new (?) articles. Max walked in with a set of salt and pepper shakers the other day. (Must have hooked them from Tampa.) Larry found a fork in one of his pockets yesterday and some of the others have had the same experience.

Have you seen Bill, Max and Hatch with their new caps? Look 'em over. Some more may blossom out soon. "Quien sabe?" It's a mystery!

Why Go to College?

By C. K. Hoyt

It occurs to me to make a summary of reasons in a mnemonic form, thus: "Why go to college?"

- 1.—For Fun:
No other period of a wholesome life can have more opportunities for real, rich, rollicking fun, fun that grows more deeply and also intellectually funny, fun that gives a man or a woman a happy expectation and attitude for all the more sober later years; freshman fun, green as grass, if you please, but just as lush and lively in growth; and then on through all the brighter wit and wisdom of the riper years; but always fun, plenty of it of all welcome sorts.
- 2.—For Fullness:
It is the one kind of training that delves deep into one's resources, and connects all parts of his many-gifted self with all other values of every kind in this rich old world. The average graduate is ready, resourceful, inventive, responsive—in a word, capable, because his dormant faculties have become active. Distinction in a broad sense has come to one in ten thousand non-graduates; to one in forty graduates—at least about thus it has been figured in various tests. The graduate is like a complex machine with all the parts in working condition; the non-graduate is like some one part or some few parts.

3.—For Force:
No other experience can surpass the genuine college training to give power—power to think, to speak, to

Miss Knowlton Makes Her First Appearance in Jacksonville

Miss Jean Knowlton, head of the Voice Department, who has recently come from Chicago, where she was well known as a singer and teacher, made her first appearance as a concert singer before a Jacksonville audience on November 5th. The concert was given under the auspices of the Springfield Improvement Association of that city.

Miss Knowlton presented her Costume Recital before an appreciative audience. Her recital was such a success that a return engagement is anticipated.

On November 22nd Miss Knowlton will give a recital at the college in Knowles Hall.

Press Comments of Miss Knowlton's Recitals

The Jacksonville Times-Union pronounced Miss Knowlton's recital a distinct artistic success.

"Jean Knowlton is one of the most attractive and gifted of the younger singers in Chicago, and her ambitious program last evening brought forward to advantage all the good points of her work. Her voice is of a lovely warm quality and there is intelligent purpose in her interpretations. It is easy to see why so many clubs like to have her on their programs."—Chicago Herald-Examiner.

"Miss Knowlton has a voice of good quality and her tone has carrying power. She sings with appreciation and interpretative feeling."—Chicago Evening Post.

"Miss Knowlton is a splendid young artist, with a voice of good quality and flexibility, which she uses exceptionally well."—Musical Leader.

the auspices of the Tuesday Musical Club. Among her audience was Miss Jean Wagner, a well-remembered Rollins student, who sent greetings to her many friends here.

Miss Rous gave a third successful recital at the Foxcroft School in Virginia, near Washington, on November 4th.

On her way home Miss Rous stopped over in Baltimore for a day, most of which she spent at Peabody Conservatory, her Alma Mater.

Miss Rous will appear later in the season in Detroit, Duluth, Atlanta, Savannah, Jacksonville and other points in the south and middle west.

Y. M. C. A.

A very interesting meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held last Tuesday evening in the fraternity room. The meeting was thrown open to discussion and the subject was: "Chances for Christian Leadership in Rollins College." Some very novel ideas were brought to light on this subject.

There are many channels through which one may serve his college. As Christians it is our duty and pleasure to uphold some corner of this organization which is such a large measure in our lives.

ganizations of the college.

Following is the provisional constitution by which the affairs of the association will be managed, pending the adoption of a permanent one for next year's work:

Article I

The purpose of this Association shall be to foster and encourage all desirable student activities of Rollins College.

Article II

tion is required of all students living on the campus and of all students residing in Winter Park whose family residence is not in Winter Park.

Article III

The affairs of this Association shall be managed by a Council consisting of the president of each college and academy class and a faculty advisor appointed by the president of the college, or by his representative.

Article IV

The officers of this Council shall consist of a President, Vice-President and Secretary elected by ballot by members of the Council and their number.

Section 1. The Treasurer of this Association shall be appointed by the Council. (It is suggested that it is desirable that the Assistant College Treasurer be appointed to this office.)

Article V

The Faculty Advisor shall be present at all meetings of the Council and shall have veto power but no vote.

Article VI

It shall be the duty and function of the Council to equitably apportion all funds received through the Association on fees and from any other course; to provide all members with Association tickets; to determine all other matters coming under its jurisdiction. While serving in an advisory capacity to already existing committees, etc., it shall in no way supplant them or usurp their functions.

Article VII

Meetings of the Council shall be called by the President of the Council or by the Faculty Advisor or at the request of two student members of the Council.

Article VIII

Five student members and the faculty member shall constitute a quorum to do business. The head of the Conservatory Department, the President of the Delphic, the Editor-in-Chief of The Sandspur Staff, the Directors of Athletics, and the Assistant College Treasurer shall be ex-officio members of the Council without voting power, and their presence in an advisory capacity may be required at any time.

Article IX

This Constitution and By-Laws may be amended at any time by a majority vote of the Council and the approval of the faculty member and a majority vote of the Student Association.

BY-LAWS

Article I

The Secretary shall keep a careful record of the minutes of all meetings.

Article II

All funds shall be received and disbursed by the Treasurer of the Association through the College Treasurer's office and duly accounted for in the annual financial report of the College Treasurer.

Article III

Organizations receiving financial apportionment from the Student Association in accordance with Article

VI of the Constitution, are as follows:

Athletic Association.
Conservatory.
Sandspur.
Delphic Society.

Article IV

The following apportionment for the school year 1920-21 of the regular Student Association fee of 15 dollars shall be made:

The Athletic Association shall receive 7 dollars.

The Conservatory Department shall receive 3 dollars.

The Sandspur shall receive 3 dollars, and

The Delphic Society shall receive 2 dollars.

Article V

All surplus receipts, held at the end of the present school year (1920-21) by the following organizations:

Athletic Association, Sandspur, and The Delphic Society, together with funds from any other source, shall be turned over to the Treasurer of the Student Association and shall then be handled by the Council of the Student Association as specified and provided for under the provisional constitution for the current year 1920-21.

Article VI

For the year 1920-21 all organizations included in this Association shall have the right to manage their own finances, apportion such funds as they may receive and expend them as they may see fit, but they shall be required, at the end of the year, to give the Treasurer of this Association a complete report of all such transactions and a statement showing their financial status.

Article VII

An Advisory Board, composed of Dean Sprague, Mr. Hanna and Mr. Podmore, with such other members

All duly registered students in the Institution, on paying the regular association fee, hereby automatically become enrolled members of the Association and receive a membership ticket entitling them to all benefits of the Association. The fee in ques-

PLANS ALREADY ON FOOT FOR SUCCESSFUL BASKETBALL SEASON

Nearly All the Old Men Return. Trip to Georgia is Being Contemplated

The outlook for a successful basketball season is very promising, as most of last year's team is back in college and there is an abundance of new material. Just how good the new men are remains to be seen, but they at least have the "pep." The call for candidates will be issued immediately after Thanksgiving, when football will be over and all attention will be devoted to basketball. All men who plan to go out for basketball and who have not been playing football should begin at once to put themselves in good physical condition. Practice will be held every afternoon between 4 and 6 o'clock and evening practice will be done away with entirely.

A tentative schedule is already made out, which includes games with the University of Florida, Stetson, Southern and the Carlstrom Aviators. In addition it is hoped to make a northern trip into Georgia if satisfactory games can be arranged, and the expenses covered. There will also be many local games in addition to the above.

As an incentive to all men to work hard for the team, games for the second team will be arranged with high schools and a regular schedule carried out. Plans have been made to improve the conditions existing in the Gymnasium, which should aid a great deal in the development of first-class teams.

FOOTBALL NOTES

The team is considerably weakened by the loss of Cotting from his position at right tackle. He had the misfortune to break his collar-bone while practicing on the "dummy" last week.

"Bob" Wright is laid up with a strained back, due to his recent automobile accident. "Bob" is a fast man and his absence has been a blow to the team the past week.

The return of Captain Boyle to the team is welcomed by all. With Wright at quarter, Boyle at left half, Froemke at right half and Dow at full, Rollins will have a backfield combination to be proud of. It is hoped that all these men will be in good condition soon, as they are badly needed. Starr and Seeley have been doing well as "subs," but lack the experience of the other four.

Ward at center, Evans and Williams at the quarter positions, and Thayer and Warner at the tackles make a good line. All these men are new at the game, but they have worked hard every day and will give a good account of themselves in every game.

Robbins and Palmer make a strong pair of ends and, barring accidents, these positions should worry no one.

Butler, Tom King, Rominger, Vincent and Bell are all working hard and make a reliable bunch of subs, though they are all new to the game.

Froemke and Starr are bothered with wrenched knees and their work is handicapped on that account. These two men have been "hoodooed" all season with minor injuries.

Sigma Phi Gives Charming Dance at Altamonte Springs

Rollins Jazz Band Furnishes Peppy
Music for Lady Greeks

On Monday evening the Sigma Phi Fraternity and their guests motored through the starry night in search of diversion. The Altamonte Hotel, by special courtesy of the management, was the Mecca sought and found. A gay Mecca of bright fires, inviting floor and tantalizing music. It is said—"the mesmerizing, hypnotizing, tantalizing strains of the Rollins Jazz Orchestra (in full regalia) that play so welcomingly upon the ear and flirts so coyly with the feet."

In Mecca does one eat ambrosia? Perhaps. But punch, wafers and ice cream can substitute, and did. The punch was further etheralized by vases of roses placed on either side of the bowl.

The strains of "Home, Sweet Home," rhythmical and slow, stayed the dancers and the pitying Pans, seeing the looks of discomfiture upon their faces, changed the arrangement to a ringing jazz and everyone was swept out the door and into the waiting cars to the more hilarious rendition of that melody.

act, to direct, to be a leader somewhere. Wherever you may go you will find a college man or woman here and there at the forefront in some activity. Statistics again suggest that the chances for leadership are increased seventy per cent by the college training.

4.—For Finish:

It has always been the belief that college education in its best form gives discipline, culture, a finish that is not of the superficial kind—mere suavity and glitter—but a liberal-mindedness, a large heartedness, self-reliance commingled with consideration for others, the finely tempered character that wins affection and wields influence. And even in our rough-hewn America, much of this finer product of a well-rounded discipline has helped make many communities homes of the graces. But, in any case, every graduate may carry out of the college halls a refinement of manner and a nobility of character that he could have found in no other way.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY OFFERS GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS

The Board of Trust of Vanderbilt University has established in the Graduate Department ten scholarships, which offer to the holder free tuition and fees and $100 (tuition and fees for next session will amount to $150 to $200). These scholarships are open to graduates of standard 4-year colleges, who will, presumably, be able to qualify in one session for the master's degree. The holder of a scholarship is expected to devote his full time to graduate study in the College of Arts and Science and to have no outside occupation.

The Committee on Graduate Instruction has charge with the administration of these scholarships. Applications and requests for additional information may be addressed to the Secretary, Committee on Graduate Instruction, Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee.

Thath Tho?

Ma: "Well—what did your caller talk about last night?"
Daughter: "Kith and kin."
Small Brother: "That's right. He said, 'May I kith you?' And she said, 'Yes, you kin.'"—Ex.

BACHELLER PRIZES FOR HIGH SCHOOL JUNIORS AND SENIORS

ORATORICAL CONTEST CLOSES
DECEMBER 20TH

The Bacheller Prize Contest Committee, composed of Dr. Charles K. Hoyt, chairman, Mrs. Rose Mills Powers and Principal W. M. Okerlund, has recently issued to the Florida high schools a complete set of regulations governing the oratorical contest, prizes for which the well-known author, Irving Bacheller, has offered. A number of the principals of high schools have already written in that interest is being shown by those eligible (it being limited to the 11th and 12th grades), and it is expected that some very excellent papers will be submitted.

In offering these prizes, it is Mr. Bacheller's desire to stimulate among the students thought on present-day problems in America, to emphasize careful consideration of the questions confronting us, and to encourage diligent research. Repeated revision of the oration for clear, concise, simple but impressive word structure will be needed. In the drill for delivery, effectiveness in conveying and impressing the thought naturally and without overstrain will be the criterion.

Subjects for the contest are: "The Making of a Man," "What Is Americanism?" "The Kind of President We Need," "Americanization in the High School," "The Character of Roosevelt," and "What Is Really Worth While in Life?"

Dow: "Where is the island of Bevo?"

Butler: "It's somewhere near beer."—Ex.

Heard in Church

Palmer: "That was a fine sermon on economy."

Speer: "Most convincing. Here comes the collection plate, have you change for a nickel?"

Well! Well! Well!

Dow: "Why is death and a can tied to the tail of a dog alike?"

Pat: "I don't know; why?"

Dow: "Because they are both bound to occur (bound to a cur)!"

He Belongs to the Union

Prof: "Harry, don't whistle while you are working."

Wendler: "I ain't workin', only whistlin', Prof."—Ex.

Caught You That Time

Frosh: "I want leave of absence over Thanksgiving to go see my sister."

Dean (quickly): "How long have you known her?"

Frosh (absent-mindedly): "About two weeks."—Cornell Widow.

Naturally

Old Lady: "And what are you going to be, little girl, when you grow up?"

Fresh Kid: "An old woman."—Ex.

Burning Question

Stuart: "Prof, how long can a man live without brains?"

Prof.: "I don't know. How old are you?"

Well, Now, Say!

Miss Perry: "Translate 'Rex fugit.'"

Knowles: "The king flees."

Miss Perry: "But the verb is in another tense, you should have a 'has' in there."

Knowles: "Alright—The king has fleas."

Easy Way Out

Prof.: "Miss Sedgwick, when rain falls, does it ever rise again?"

Margaret: "Yes, sir."

Prof.: "When?"

Margaret: "Why—in dew time."

Where Else Could It Be?

Evans: "Where is Solomon's Temple?"

Rominger: "On the side of his head, of course."

There is no comparison between wine and women—wine improves with age.

New Additions to Rollins Library

How to Bum Through College—Frank Evans.

Football—As I Play It—Kenneth Warner.

Treatise on Love — Donald Knowles.

Swimming As I Teach It—Charles Speer.

How to Pass Without Study—Orin Rominger.

Ways to Cut Class and Get Away With It—Charles Lawrence.

Fifth Year Latin

Ward says that Latin is as easy as falling off the Woolworth Building. Here is the way he does it:

Fortē dux in aro—Forty ducks in a row.

Passus sum jam—Pass us some jam.

Boni leges Caesaris—Caesar's bony legs.

Now You Stop That

Cop (to fair motorist): "The next time you don't stop when I give the signal, I'll pinch you."

She (coloring): "Sir—how dare you!"

How Y'a Get That Way?

He: "I dreamed last night that I proposed to the most beautiful girl in the world."

She (breathlessly): "And what did I say?"—Ex.

Knowles: "Your suit begins to look a little rusty."

Starr: "Yes, my tailor guaranteed that it would wear like iron."

Freshmen Win First Interclass Delphic Debate

in the United States, supported in the affirmative by Florence Bumby, Mary Rourke and Frank Palmer for the Sophomores, as against Paul Potter, Ruth Scudder and Elnora Mendel for the Freshmen.

Prof. J. A. Podmore acted as chairman of the debate. Both sides, in well balanced and clear delivery, developed their arguments in a logical and interesting manner and it was doubtful even after the final rebuttal which side had won.

Prof. W. L. Corbin, who reported for the judges, announced the result in such a unique way that the entire audience was drawn with intense expectation before he awarded the victory to the Freshmen.

New York Stock Exchange Gives Valuable Books

labus on Securities Markets which the Exchange now has in process of preparation will be presented to the Rollins Library also.

In his letter conveying the gift, Mr. Halsey wrote as follows: "We appreciate your highly encouraging interest in our efforts to bring about a better understanding of the forces which make for integrity, competence and public service. In the comments on the problems that beset us there is found a general agreement on the need and importance of inculcating an understanding of the essential interdependability of our economic groups. This, however, can only be brought about by teaching the fundamentals of business, industry and finance to those who later from the forum, pulpit, press and institutions of learning, direct public sentiment in safe and sane channels."

The Exchange has also extended to the members of the Rollins faculty, who may in the future be sojourning in New York, to personally visit the Stock Exchange.

Member of State School Board Visits Rollins

school system of the state of Florida is based on his thirty years' experience. For sixteen years he was Superintendent of Schools in Citrus County.

His especial call to this part of the state was to further a most important part of the school system, that of issuing standardization certificates to Orange County schools. Florida is the only southern state that has a state standard and there are only twelve other such states in the country, and it is due mainly to Mr. Turner's diligent work in this field of service that Florida is forging ahead in this direction.

Mr. Turner expressed himself as highly pleased with the work which Rollins is doing and he said there was a great field for the extension of her work.

President Proclaims Pilgrim Day Observance

previous to the addresses caused the air to be surcharged with the spirit of the day and recalled the great deeds which made the celebration of Armistice Day a patriotic duty.

Rollins 13, Orlando 0

At four o'clock as the rain slackened the Football team met the Orlando American Legion, defeating them in a hard fought battle on a wet field. Although the Legioners considerably outweighed their opponents, the Rollins men by speed and good team work rolled up the score, and were especially good on defense. A detailed account of the game will appear in next week's issue.
