LAKE OSCEOLA SCENE OF PAGEANT THURSDAY

WAR DANCE BY STUDENTS

Represented Return of Osceola, One-Time Chieftain of All the Seminoles

On Thursday, February 22nd, the City of Winter Park and Rollins College celebrated Founder's Day in honor of the forty-first anniversary of the founding of Winter Park, Florida and the thirty-eighth anniversary of the founding of Rollins College.

The afternoon was given over to a pageant on Lake Osceola, representing the return of Osceola. This pageant was very spectacular to behold the Indians paddling their canoes across Lake Osceola and giving a war dance on the eastern shore. Mr. George Arrants was acting the part of Chief Osceola, while his warriors were composed of a number of students of the college. As soon as the war dance was over, the war dance was over, the warriors returned to the hunt while many maidens crossed to the "happy hunting grounds" and gave many dances. Then, the Indian braves returned from the hunt and seized the maidens, dancing with them the Seminole dance. Chief Osceola then led the braves and maidens away in canoes, where they sink back into Lake Osceola, from whence they had come to help in the celebration of Founder's Day.

All eyes were immediately turned on canoes laden with students armed with padded poles. This proved to be a tilting contest, by a number of the Rollins students and is believed to be one of the most laughable events ever staged in Winter Park.

The prominent men of the town spoke on some of the important measures to be taken up by Winter Park during the coming year and it was announced that the old Town of Winter Park had ceased to exist as it had now become a City under the laws of the State of Florida. This is another step toward the development of Winter Park and it is hoped that the coming year will see even greater improvement.

During the evening a municipal reception was given at the Woman's Club, all the citizens and visitors being invited. It was a happy ending to a glorious day.

It is planned that the pageant and municipal reception be made annual affairs in Winter Park during the Founder's Week celebration each year. This means that each year the pageant will become better and more realistic.

DR. BURTON SPEAKS AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Lectures Under Auspices of the Phi Alpha Fraternity

Before one of the largest and most responsive audiences ever assembled in Winter Park, Richard Burton, famous dramatic critic of New York, spoke at the Woman's Club last evening under the auspices of the Phi Alpha Fraternity, using as his subject, "The Social Significance of the Theatre." Preceding Dr. Burton, the Men's Glee Club rendered two selections which were well received.

Speaking of the influence of the theatre, Dr. Burton said: "Twenty million people here in America go to shows and entertainments daily. Most of these attractions are moving picture shows, which means that one-fifth of the adult population of this country are so-called 'movie fans'."

Choosing neither of the two extremes on this subject, Dr. Burton takes the middle ground. He said one group of enthusiasts claim that the best in theatrical art will be found in the moving pictures. At the other extreme some people claim that the movies are a degenerate expression of the day and that the country is going to the "bow-wows." The lecturer stated that the moving picture industry is just 21 years old and has grown from a cinematograph show in New York City to an indus-

High School Essay Contest Is Decided

The St. Augustine and Lakeland High Schools Win in Finals

Miss Gladys E. Ridge, of St. Augustine, and Mr. Richard M. Naylor, of Lakeland, were the winners in the Irving Bacheller Prize Essay Contest for Florida High School boys and girls. This contest is an annual event during the Founder's Week program at Rollins and is anticipated with much pleasure by many of the high school students of this state.

Miss Ridge had chosen for her subject: "The Settlement of St. Augustine and Its Early History," while Mr. Naylor spoke on: "Florida's Future Among the States." These interesting subjects were delivered in such a way as to make them doubly entertaining and valuable to the audience. The fact that the judges picked out these two essays as the prize winners does not deny the fact that

FLORIDA COLLEGIATE PRESS ASSN. MEETS

Only Three Papers Represented at Annual Gathering

Last Saturday at high noon, the Florida Collegiate Press Association met in the offices of the Rollins Sandspur in the regular annual meeting. Only three of the college papers of the State were represented, but it is hoped that the absent members of the Association will be in accordance with the action taken at the meeting. The papers represented were the Florida Flambeau from the Florida State College for Women, The Southern from Southern College, and the Sandspur.

Since the Association has had no official meeting for two years, it was deemed expedient that the constitution should be revised to meet the requirements brought about by the advance made by all the papers since the original document was drawn up. According to the old constitution the President of the Association was the editor of the entertaining paper, that the editor of the paper where the annual meeting was held, and this meeting rotated from one school to another. Under these, the Editor of the Sandspur was automatically acting as President of the Association and Miss McAdams was appointed Secretary pro tem. An election of officers for the ensuing year resulted

Senior Word-Hurlers Defeat Junior Team

Debate Dealing With the Coal Question Won by Seniors

On Friday last, the Seniors won over the Sophomores in the long debated question: Resolved, "That the United States Government Should Own All of the Natural Resources in the United States and Territories Under Her Jurisdiction, and Should Operate Mines for the Purpose of Exploiting the Said Resources." The affirmative side of this question was upheld by the winning Seniors while the Juniors struggled to contend the negative side.

The arguments of both sides were especially good but the judges seemed to think that the Seniors had the most convincing "line" and awarded them the decision after a long discussion as to the merits of each point. The team debating under Senior colors was made up of: Miss

DR. MARKHAM SPEAKS IN ROLLINS CHAPEL

AUDIENCE DELIGHTED

Second Meeting Under Auspices Chapel Association Draws Packed House

The auditorium in Knowles Hall was packed Sunday night by students of Rollins and people of Winter Park, Orlando, and vicinity gathered to hear the address of Mr. Edwin Markham, famous American poet. All the available space, both in the balcony and on the main floor of the auditorium, was filled with chairs to accommodate the large number of people unable to obtain seats, but despite this fact seats were not to be had for late arrivals who were forced, therefore, to remain standing during the lecture. Mr. Markham spoke for approximately twenty-five minutes about poetry and poets and the relation of each to art. He also related a number of humorous stories dealing with his personal experiences, all to the great amusement of the audience. The latter part of his lecture was given over to the reading of selected poems, among which was his famous poem on Lincoln. At the request of a number in the audience Mr. Markham also read his "The Man with the Hoe."

In speaking about poetry Mr. Markham stated that poetry fills a need in human life just as much as does religion. Every great poem, he said, is in a certain sense a revelation and will live throughout the ages. He mentioned the works of Dante, Shakespeare, and others and said that their works are just as precious today as they were when written. The mere fact that a poet is famous does not mean that all of his poems will be great, on the contrary only a few can be, he continued. Mr. Markham told the audience that in his opinion much of Wordsworth's poetry would be better in the waste basket, but that some of it is immortal.

Upon finishing his lecture Mr. Markham was applauded by the audience for several minutes amid cries of "We want 'The Man with the Hoe'." He complied with the wishes of those making the request by reading this poem, first telling an interesting story about how it was written and how it became famous. "My clippings commenting upon it," said Mr. Markham laughing.

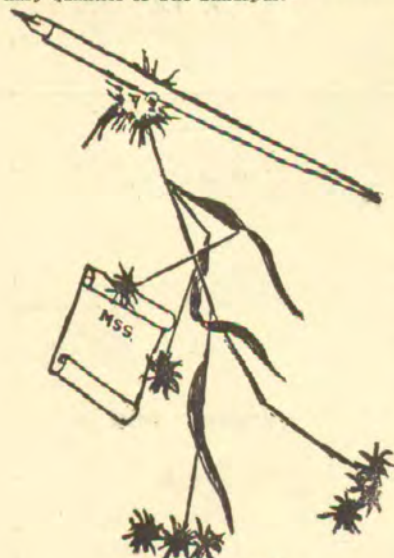

A reception was held immediately following the lecture where the students of Rollins College were given the opportunity of meeting the poet personally.

The Collegiate Press Association

With the reorganization last Saturday of the Florida Collegiate Press Association, a working basis has been established for co-operation among the collegiate publications of the state. An aim has been set up, to be sought after by these publications, an aim that makes the struggle an interesting one. This aim is, the idea of a state column published at least once every month in all the college papers. Therefore it behooves each and every paper to publish news that will be of interest to such a column, so that it may be clipped for the use by all the publications.

Although two colleges were not represented at the meeting, it is hoped that both will see fit to join the organization and take an active interest in it. It is believed that the Association will bring the institutions of the state closer together by making each one acquainted with the problems that are being presented at other schools, and the manner in which these problems are being solved. The ideal situation, of course, would be, when every school works as a supplementary organ to those already established. Then, there could be no cause for anything but friendly rivalry.

Can it be said that we are holding our breath until the U. of F. and Stetson come in? Hardly! Because we aren't exactly sure, and we are not in the mood for dying just now—in fact we have just taken a new lease on life. Nevertheless—c'mon, Gators and Hatters!!! We need you!

A college editor should be a superman, endowed with the patience of Job, the editorial ability of Horace Greely, the managing and directing ability of Charles Schwab, the diplomacy of Woodrow Wilson, and the judicial qualities of former Chief Justice Marshall; he needs the keen humor of Lincoln, the dignity and philosophy of Socrates, the religion of John Wesley, and the agnostic tendencies of Ingersoll; he should have the literary ability of Shakespeare, and the lack of conscience to perpetuate the atrocities of Amy Lowell.

In addition to these few qualifications he needs the physique of Jack Dempsey, the nerve of a hold-up man, and Edison's ability to do without sleep. His brain should be so constituted that he could absorb the essentials of a twenty-credit course by means of the barest perusal of the subjects contained and to pass the final exams with honors so that the faculty will respect him and allow him to remain in school. He should be absolutely foreign to the needs of rest, sleep, eating, recreation, the love of society, the inclination for glory in athletics, school activities, and love.

Having these few requirements, he should be able to qualify as a fairly competent editor, and there is a possibility that he would not be hauled on the faculty carpet more than once a week and kicked by the student body more than once a day.—Idaho Argonaut.

FOUNDER'S WEEK BANQUETS HELD IN COLLEGE COMMONS

Last Friday evening the College Dining Hall was the scene of a banquet given in honor of the thirty-first anniversary of the Delphic Literary Society. The Toastmaster was Mr. D. A. Cheney of Orlando, and the address of welcome was given by Miss Miriam Stewart, President of the Delphic Society. The guests of honor were the representatives of the college and high school literary societies of the state.

Saturday noon, the Annual Alumni Luncheon was held in honor of the Seniors. Mr. J. H. Hill of the class of '20 was the Toastmaster and introduced several speakers of note.

On Saturday evening, the Commons was the scene of the twenty-ninth anniversary dinner of the Sandspur. The Toastmaster was Mr. W. M. Glenn, Editor of the Orlando Sentinel, and the address of welcome was given by Mr. C. E. Ward, Editor of the Sandspur. The guests of honor were the representatives of the college and high school publications of the state. Each representative was given a humorous subject to speak about and some very clever wit and humor was displayed.

Community Dance and Reception.

On the evening of Founder's Day, a Community dance and reception was held at the Woman's Club. Great numbers of towns-people and students attended. The Club was attractively decorated and dance music was furnished by Jumps Jolly Jesters. This is the first community reception ever held in Winter Park and it is hoped that more will follow for it promotes a feeling of closer relationship between the towns-people. During intermission, some pupils of Mrs. Hart's dancing classes at Rollins gave two very pleasing dances. The Misses Wilhelmina Freeman, Maureen Faulkner, and Katherine Faulkner gave a Clown Dance and the Misses Virginia Richardson and Eva Thompson gave a Doll Dance which they had given with so much success at the masquerade the Tuesday night before. After this, orange ice with cake was served attractively in orange shells. Every one who attended hopes that the Community Reception will become a permanent event.

Reception by Trustees.

On Saturday night after the Glee Club and Orchestra Concert, the Faculty and Trustees of Rollins College gave a reception in Carnegie Hall to the students and visitors of the College. Carnegie was decorated in a very pleasing manner and delicious punch and ice cream was served by the co-eds. All in all, a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Last Wednesday evening, the members of the Phi Alpha Fraternity served tea at their house on Chapman Avenue in honor of the Pan-Hellenic Association of Orlando. Those assisting in the serving were Miss Margaret Davies, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Miss Olga Simmons, Alpha Xi Delta and Miss Helen Meeker, Delta Delta Delta.

On Thursday, the Phi Alpha Fraternity members were the hosts at a very delightful luncheon at their home given in honor of the Inter-Fraternity Club of Orlando. Quite a number were present and a very pleasant time was had in singing college and fraternity songs, not to mention the 'eats'.

DANCE

The Woman's Club was the scene of a delightful entertainment and masquerade dance Tuesday evening, February the twentieth. The first half of the evening was taken up with the showing of living pictures. These pictures were characteristically beautiful of many foreign countries, including China, Japan, India, Turkey, Ireland, and many others. The pictures were followed by several old fashioned dances and then general dancing for the masqueraders. Many college students attended and enjoyed the evening.

The "PRACTICAL" Alchemist and "THEORETICAL" Robert Boyle

THE alchemists wrote vaguely of "fluids" and "principles." Copper was potentially silver. Rid it of its red color and the "principle" of silver would assert itself, so that silver would remain. With a certain amount of philosopher's stone (itself a mysterious "principle") a base metal could be converted into a quantity of gold a million times as great.

This all sounded so "practical" that Kings listened credulously, but the only tangible result was that they were enriched with much bogus gold.

Scientific theorists like Robert Boyle (1627-1691) proved more "practical" by testing matter, discovering its composition and then drawing scientific conclusions that could thereafter be usefully and honestly applied. Alchemists conjectured and died; he experimented and lived.

Using the air pump Boyle undertook a "theoretical" but scientific experimental study of the atmosphere and discovered that it had a "spring" in it, or in other words that it could expand. He also established the connection between the boiling point of water and atmospheric pressure, a very "theoretical" discovery in his day but one which every steam engineer now applies.

He was the first to use the term "analysis" in the modern chemical sense, the first to define an element as a body which cannot be subdivided and from which compounds can be reconstituted.

Boyle's work has not ended. Today in the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company it is being continued. Much light has there been shed on the chemical reactions that occur in a vessel in which a nearly perfect vacuum has been produced. One practical result of this work is the vacuum tube which plays an essential part in radio work and roentgenology.

THE GENEALOGY OF A KISS

Long years ago when Adam and Eve first saw this earth, such a thing was entirely unknown, but things have changed now. That fatal apple of knowledge first put this in Adam's mind, and before Eve realized what was happening she had received the first kiss of the world.

With the succeeding years and the change in the world's thoughts, so this, too, became changed. With the advent of Cleopatra, and, a little later, of Helen of Troy, Adam and Eve from their perch in Heaven saw the change from their first kiss of pleasure to the omnipotent, all-commanding power shown in Helen's. Desire, pure desire, led the forces on to battle seven long years for Helen and her love.

Each succeeding year brought more change in the kiss family until today—what do we find? They are divided in two classes: A flirt's kiss and the real thing. No doubt a number of college students have met the former, but the latter—ah, let us wait!

MRS. KNOWLES, CAMPUS GUEST FOUNDER'S WEEK

One of the most distinguished guests of Rollins College during the Founder's Week celebration just closed was Mrs. Frank Knowles, daughter-in-law of the donor of the largest building on the campus, Knowles, about which centers the life and work of the college. It was Mrs. Knowles' first visit to Winter Park in many years and she was delighted with the splendid development of the campus and organization of the institutions.

Knowles Hall was the first building erected on the Rollins campus and was completed during the latter months of 1885. Its tower was a much-loved land mark to the hundreds of students who started their higher education within the walls of Knowles Hall. In 1909 a disastrous fire entirely destroyed old Knowles Hall, but in 1910 with the help of Andrew Carnegie, Mrs. Francis B. Knowles, widow of the donor of the original building, made possible the present magnificent specimen of Spanish architecture which rises in the center of the Rollins campus.

On Monday Mr. Markham was entertained on the campus by the Phi Alpha Fraternity.

Thursday morning, February the twenty-second, the Girl's Glee Club sang in Chapel. The audience seemed to enjoy the program and that which followed. Mr. Charles Taylor, an evangelist from the Presbyterian Church of Orlando, whistled and sang. Mr. Taylor had a very pleasing baritone voice.

WINTER PARK DIAMOND DICKS WIN GAME FROM TAR HORSEHIDE HURLERS

The "pill-sliding" season opened last Saturday afternoon on the local diamond with the Tars featuring in the nine-act comedy. The All-Stars from Winter Park proved to be a collection of big leaguers that were about as strong as any baseball team seen in these whereabouts in a long time. The final score of 16 to 3 in favor of the All-Stars does not show just what sort of a scrap it was. The Tars were confronted with the problem of trying out a lot of new material for the first time, but even at that this material showed up wonderfully well under fire. The defeat will only tend to put the Tars on their toes and make them fight all the harder. Coach Ashburn should be able to iron out the weak spots before very long as there is plenty of material turning out for practice, and with this the team should be whipped rapidly into mid season form.

As was promised a prize was offered to the girl selling the most tickets to this game, the proceeds to be used in providing the team with better uniforms. The prize was awarded to two girls as they tied in selling the greatest number of tickets. The prize turned out to be a box of candy and was presented to the lucky co-eds by "Manager" Draa. The lucky ones being Miss Maureen Faulkner and Miss Hardesty.

GLEE CLUB GETS INTO ACTION FOR A WEEK

Following the Sandspur banquet Saturday evening the Rollins Orchestra and the Girls' Glee Club presented a musical program in Knowles Hall. On account of the illness of Miss Ruth Amy, Miss Jean Knowlton consented to sing several numbers.

The audience seemed to enjoy the entire program.

The concert was followed by a reception by the faculty and trustees of the college in Carnegie Hall.

Among other places the glee club appeared Monday night at the Altamonte Hotel and appears tonight at Tarpon Springs.

RACQUETEERS DEFEATED BY GATOR TENNIS TEAM

Playing fast and hard games, the Rollins tennis team was barely nosed out in defeat by the University of Florida team in both singles and doubles in the college courts last Saturday. Thompson, Captain of the Tar netters, was easily the outstanding star of the matches, winning both of his sets in the singles and playing the stellar role in the doubles. Seeds also deserves a great deal of credit for the manner in which he played and to him goes a lot of the credit for the winning of the doubles sets. Line and Crawford were the satellites for the Gators. A resume of the sets follows:

try reaching into every corner of the United States, ranking fourth in magnitude of all the industries in this country. As an indication of an improvement and new ideas in productions, Dr. Burton cited the use of pictures in churches, schools and other educational institutions. He said that two companies at the present time specialized in making religious films.

The Phi Alphas have arranged for Dr. Burton to give a second lecture which will be delivered at the Sorosis House in Orlando this evening at eight o'clock. His subject this evening is to be even more popular than the one used last night. Tonight he will discuss present day fiction, the full title being "Fiction We Are Talking About." This is a subject which will be of compelling and general interest as never before in the history of the world has the public consumed so many new books at such a rapid rate. An intelligent review of these books and a prophesy as to future books is, therefore, appealing to the vast multitude.

A number of prominent Orlando ladies are sponsoring Phi Alpha's appearing at the Sorosis House and Dr. Burton's second lecture will no doubt prove to be an even greater success, from a literary standpoint and also from a financial standpoint, than did the affair of last evening which exceeded all expectations.

Phi Alpha is hoping to realize a neat sum to be added to the House Fund which is being raised, and these men hope to be able to erect their greatly needed chapter house at an early date.

in the election of the Editor of the Southern as President and the Editor of the Sandspur as Secretary-Treasurer. The meeting next year will be held at Southern College some time during the month of February.

The meeting also discussed the possibility of publishing a column of news devoted to the colleges and universities in this state; this column to appear at least once every month in all the college publications in the state. This system is to begin action immediately and it is expected that the near future will see columns in all the papers carrying items of interest about the neighboring institutions. This resolution in the part of the Association should bring the various institutions into closer contact with each other and will make each one feel a sort of responsibility toward the Association.

This meeting of the Press Association marks a step forward in journalistic achievement of Florida, due to the fact that it means the reorganization of the Collegiate Press Association on a working basis.

It is hoped that the institutions not represented at the meeting will see fit to join the organization under the revised constitution, so that a co-operation of all the collegiate publications in the state may be had.

'S ALL WRONG, RUDOLPH!

One evening, not so many Moons ago, as our fellow Poets would glibly express It, we took the future Sharer of our troubles and Woes to see that beautiful Rudolph Sweet-perfumed Vaseline, Who was doing his stuff at The Rialto. Well, we'll admit The allegations as pleaded in Paragraph one of said petition! Rudolph is sure some hot baby?

Howsomever, be that as it may, He is a nature faker! Why? Why? did we hear you exclaim In unision, gentle reader—Why? Well, its this way—Rodolph Grabs the sweet young thing to His manly 2 inches of chest Expansion, against her own free Will and accord, and smothers her With promiscuous osculations.*

*(High-brow for kisses)
And the fair young thing fought Like a couple of tigeresses UNTIL sweet Rodolph plants a Kiss upon her pulsating lips (If lips pulsate), and then She swoons into his arms content To live or die, and they live Happily ever afterward. Well, Gentle reader, it looks good Upon the silver screen, and it Might work with romantic wimmen, BUT OUR GIRL AIN'T ROMANTIC Worth five cents. It's all wrong, Rodolph!
