STATE SWIMMING MEET STARTS TOMORROW MORNING AT 9:30

50 Yard Dash To Open Boys' Meet; Last Race Scheduled for 12:25

HUGE CROWD EXPECTED

Coaches Predict Records Will be Broken if Lake is Not Rough Tomorrow

At 9:30 tomorrow morning the official starter will fire the shot which will open the 1924 Florida Interscholastic Aquatic meet.

The boys' meet will open with the 50-yard dash, the fastest and closest race of the day, and will continue until shortly before 1 o'clock. At 2:30 P. M. the girls' meet will begin. It will probably continue until after 6 o'clock, according to the official program. All events will be started on scheduled time and the huge crowd which will throng the lake shore will not be kept waiting. One race will follow another in quick succession. Special events, canoe races, canoe tilting and probably aquaplaning, will add variety to the morning and afternoon programs.

The Sandspur will be represented at the meet by Homer Parker, sporting editor. Nine other newspaper men from state papers will be numbered among the press stewards.

WATCH RACES FROM LAKE

Many sport fans will watch the races from the lake. It is expected that Lake Virginia will be covered with small boats and canoes. Half a dozen motor boats are being decorated for the occasion and part of these floats will represent college organizations. Probably Kappa Epsilon, Sigma Phi, Phi Omega, Phi Alpha and Tau Lambda Delta will have floats on the lake.

Diving exhibitions promise to attract much attention tomorrow. Several dozen high class divers are with the various swimming teams.

All contestants will be photographed in "tiers" on the diving towers before the beginning of the races. The pictures will appear in magazines and newspapers all over the United States.

Fort Pitt to Furnish Music Tomorrow Night

Tomorrow night's aquatic meet dance will be the biggest and best in the history of Rollins, according to the chairman of the dance committee. The Fort Pitt orchestra, favorite of the college, will begin playing at 8:30 and will continue until midnight.

The gymnasium will be beautifully decorated especially for the occasion. Decorators will start work today and will complete the job by tomorrow afternoon.

All college students and faculty members, visiting contestants and coaches, and high school officials are especially invited to tomorrow night's dance. Others will be barred.

Tars and Tarettes Will Be Lifeguards

Head of Red Cross Life-saving Department is Also Here

Swimmers in tomorrow's meet will be well protected by Rollins life guards, according to Ray Greene, director of the meet. Twelve of the most expert men and women swimmers at Rollins will be ready at all times to assist any contestant who needs assistance. R. H. Yates of Atlanta, head of the Red Cross life-saving department in the south, will also be on duty. Half of the life guards will be stationed along the sea wall, while the others will patrol the race course in canoes.

Rollins students who will act as life guards tomorrow are as follows: Ray Colado, Fleetwood Peebles, John Bostwick, Hardin Branch, Merle Weaver, (Continued on page 9)

Outcome of Meet Still Uncertain

Dark Horse Entries Upset the Dope; Old Timers Confident

The probable outcome of tomorrow's swimming events simply cannot be foretold as The Sandspur goes to press. All dope is so upset just now that anybody's forecast is as good as another. It is certain that sport fans will witness the scrappiest fray of many moons when St. Pete, Hillsboro, Orlando and St. Augustine clash on the morrow. These old rivals are out for blood and all expect to carry away high honors. Besides these four old-timers there are several dark horse entries which may cause all kinds of surprises.

STARS ARE RETURNING

Harry Buell, record holder for the 50-yard dash, is a member of St. Au- (Continued on page 9)

VISITORS WILL RETURN FOR BASEBALL TOURNAMENT, MAY 15, 16, 17

CHAMPIONSHIP AT STAKE

College Will Again Entertain High School Athletes in Few Weeks

Next on the list of Florida high school athletic events to take place at Rollins college is the Florida high school baseball tournament, scheduled for May 15, 16 and 17. The state championship will be decided at this time, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and the Walter W. Rose cup, won by Bartow in 1922 and Williston last spring, will be awarded the victors. In order to gain permanent possession of this trophy, a team must win the state championship for three successive years.

Old Champions to Return

Bartow and Williston are both coming back stronger than ever, tho they will have more opposition this year from other schools in the state than ever before.

Each district championship team of the State High School Athletic association and one team chosen from the state at large will be eligible to enter the championship. Twelve players and one official from each district will be entertained by the college according to the Harvard plan (bed and breakfast).

Gold Baseballs

Gold baseballs will be presented to twelve members and the coach of the championship team.

District champions will be selected according to the number of games won from members of the State High Athletic association. One team will be selected from the state at large.

Glee Club Concert Slated For Tonight

Both college glee clubs will appear in concert tonight at Knowles hall, beginning at 8 o'clock. The concert is being given for the entertainment of aquatic meet visitors, all of whom are cordially invited to attend. No charge will be made for admittance. At the close of the evening's concert all final announcements of tomorrow's meet will be made by the director.

The Men's Glee club will give the larger part of the program, altho the Girls' Glee club will assist. Contestants will return to their temporary homes immediately after the concert in order to rest up for a strenuous day tomorrow.

The Henry Kart trophy shown above will be presented to the championship team in the boys' meet. A duplicate, the Marguerite Hamilton Kart cup, will go to the championship girls' team.

SWIMMING MEET TROPHIES WILL BE AWARDED TO THE WINNERS AT THE BANQUET TOMORROW EVENING.

"STICK TO IT"

Established in 1894 with the following editorial:

"Unassuming yet mighty, sharp and pointed, well-rounded yet many-sided, assiduously tenacious, yet as gritty and energetic as its name implies, victorious in single combat and therefore without a peer, wonderfully attractive and extensive in circulation; all these will be found upon investigation to be among the extraordinary qualities of The Sandspur."

WELCOME, VISITORS!

Rollins college is certainly proud to have as her guests such a large number of stellar athletes and fair mermaids as will roam the campus today and tomorrow. The aquatic meet which you, our guests, will stage is attracting attention all over the state and we are glad to welcome you to our midst. Rollins students will greatly enjoy tomorrow's aquatic events and all appreciate having you here.

In bidding you welcome, The Sandspur wants to call your attention to the fact that Rollins will soon be one of the leading colleges of the South. We hope some of you may choose Rollins as your alma mater when the time comes to decide where to go for a higher education.

So remember you are welcome. We will all do our best to show you a good time while you remain in Winter Park.

MARKHAM MEDAL

Edwin Markham has offered a gold medal for the best poem written by a high school student before the closing of the poetry contest next February. The medal will be awarded thru the college—in a way similar to the Bachelor medal for prize essays.

Mr. Markham's contest may discover a potentially great poet somewhere among the high school students of the state. Certainly his plan is a novel one and should create a great deal of interest. Many Florida people know Mr. Markham personally and this will go a long way toward making a real success of the poetry contest. Many will eagerly await the first results of the Markham award.

Other editors say:

CODDLED

High school and preparatory teachers along with parents are charged by freshman dean Roswell P. Angier of Yale with the failure of so many college freshmen. After questioning many freshmen whose scholastic records are unsatisfactory he finds that most of them have been coddled either by their preparatory teachers or by their parents. They are "coached up" to pass college entrance examinations with the teacher doing most of the work and with the student assuming a dependent attitude, which carried into college, is almost certain to lead to failure.

College administrative authorities have for many years been taking about the same general tendency, the failure of preparatory school instruction to stimulate intellectual interest and to put the student on his own. In the high schools the interest of school authorities and teachers they contend is to maintain enrollment at the highest possible level, with the result that students are frequently pushed ahead and encouraged to keep them in school, when under a more rigid system of marking they would be flunked and, as a consequence, would probably drop out entirely.

But the fault in many cases seems to be not with the students themselves. Under different conditions, compelled to stand on their own feet in business employments of one kind or another, most of them succeed. That they could have done creditable college work, once they had found themselves and made a reasonable effort, there can be little doubt.

The colleges blame the preparatory schools and the parents for the failure of so many boys and girls to find themselves by the time they are 17 or 18 years of age. Perhaps the colleges also have a certain function to perform in that connection. Perhaps they should share the responsibility with preparatory schools and with parents, for heavy freshmen failures. —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

WILL ELECT SANDSPUR EDITOR FOR NEXT YEAR

New Editor Will Take Charge of Three Last Sandspurs

The term of Herbert S. Mosher, Jr., present editor of The Sandspur, will expire with the issue for May 9, and the new editor, to be elected during the next two weeks, will have charge of the paper until May, 1925.

The retiring editor appoints his successor and the appointment must be approved by the faculty committee within one week, according to the custom of Rollins.

Wouldn't Stop Her

BANQUET FOR VISITING SWIMMERS SLATED FOR TOMORROW EVENING AT 7

Rollins' high school visitors will be entertained at a banquet at the commons tomorrow evening at the close of the aquatic meet. Doors will be opened at 7 o'clock.

A short program promises to add variety to the dinner. Dean Sprague will represent the college in welcoming the visitors to the campus. Franklin O. King, chairman of the governing committee of the Interscholastic Aquatic board and toastmaster for the evening, will speak for the board. E. L. Robinson, principal of Hillsboro high school of Tampa, will reply for the high schools of the state. W. M. Glenn, editor of the Orlando Morning Sentinel, and Billy Buhner of St. Petersburg, will also speak during the evening.

AWARD TROPHIES

At the banquet the 24 sterling silver trophies will be awarded to the winners in the aquatic events. School songs will be sung by contestants.

Shortly after the awarding of trophies both college students and visitors will journey to Lyman gymnasium for the dance of the evening.

FIELD DAY PICNIC

Prof. Dresch's cabbage patch across the lake was invaded by an army of Tars and Tarettes Tuesday evening at the close of Field day activities. After a wait of some minutes, tho it seemed like hours, the serving committee got busy and dished out the food to a long, noisy line of picknickers. None of the cabbages were done away with by the hungry visitors because of the fear of dire consequences.

The picnic lunch consisted of baked beans, sandwiches, hot dogs and coffee. Owing to a shortage of forks and spoons some of the late-comers were forced to eat with knives and other improvised implements. Students returned in canoes and cars at the close of the picnic.

Because of a strong wind the Field day picnic was not held on Virginia Heights point as first planned. Those who went there moved to Prof. Dresch's estate soon afterwards.

T. L. D. THEATRE PARTY

The T. L. D.'s entertained last Saturday night with a theatre party. The crowd gathered at the house at 7.15 and went to Orlando in cars. After the first show of Keith's the crowd returned to the house and a "dainty" luncheon, consisting of a bucket of lemonade and a bag of cakes, was served. Dancing then was in order until after eleven when Miss Treat said the girls must go home because they were all going to church on Easter Sunday.

The guests were: Billy Mulligan, Eddie Parkinson, Fannie Barnes, Mildred McConnel, Dora Gasten, Dickie Dickson, Verdelle Crabbe, Hellyn Randall, Lucille Kingsley, Fannie Mae Maddox, Jerry Sledge, Sylvia Perez, Kay Bealle, Eva Jones, Virginia Richardson, Rhoda McCall, Amelia Hinson, Mrs. Cass, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Podmore and Norman Lloyd.

ALUMNI PICNIC COMING

NEXT MOONLIGHT NIGHT

The Alumni picnic for all college students which was postponed last week will be held the next good moonlight night, according to the announcement of the secretary of the Alumni association this week. A definite date will be decided on as soon as possible.

TAU LAMBDA DELTA

Tau Lambda Delta wishes to announce as pledges: Orja Sutliff, Warren, Ohio; Charles V. Roberts, Winter Park, Florida; Harold Daniels, Oberlin, Ohio; Robert Gasten, Oxford, New York.

PHI OMEGA TEA

At the tea the Phi Omega Sorority gave at the Country club Thursday afternoon the receiving line included Misses Susanna K. Peschmann, Eva Jones, Fern Dakin and Helene Luttman.

The girls presented a delightful musical program which Miss Marcia Converse opened with Rheinberger's powerful composition, "The Chase"; Miss Fern Dakin sweetly sang "My Lovely Celia," by George Monro; Miss Madeline Leinard read "When Dreams Come True," by Dorothy E. Brooks, with the idealism of the thought showing in her face and voice; Miss Gretchen Harrell gave the whimsical musical reading "The Top Shop Heroes," by Wakefield Smith; Miss Charlotte Wettstein expressed the soul of an artist in her playing of "Phantasietecke," by Schumann, and Miss Ruth Amy concluded the program with a song, "Yesterday and Today," by Spross, which called forth the encore "Dandelion," by Mary Falter.

KAPPA EPSILON

K. E. girls held a rummage sale over in Hannibal Square last Saturday. The proceeds will go towards their endowment to the college. The sale lasted all day and was very profitable.

Sigma Phi Sorority announces as a member Margery Ufford of Conastata, New York; as associate member, Eleanor Sprague of Amherst, Massachusetts; as a pledge, Grace Jaquith of Fairlee, Vermont.

DINNER IN HONOR

OF PHI OMEGA

A delightful dinner party was given to the members of Phi Omega at the Green Parrot Thursday evening by Miss Susanna K. Peschmann, sorority mother. Pastel effects were carried out in all the decorations.

ALUMNI GOING AFTER FUNDS FOR PUBLICITY CAMPAIGN NEXT YEAR

The executive committee of the board of trustees at a recent meeting gave to the Rollins alumni the job of handling the publicity of the college for the coming year, the securing of funds for current expenses, the directing of the athletic program and the presenting to the public the advantages of the college and its opportunities for service.

WILL FINANCE CAMPAIGN

With the job also went the task of financing the program, and the Alumni association is now preparing a campaign to meet its budget. The plan is to make it popular by going after a large number of persons with the request for a relatively small contribution. This scheme is highly favored, for the burden will be light on each person and the interest widespread. More persons will have a keener interest in Rollins development than before, for they will have a little financial interest in that development, it is expected.

Mr. Irving Bacheller, the noted author and a trustee of Rollins, started the ball rolling by an appeal at the close of his "The Quest of Happiness" lecture in Winter Park. A total of $910 was raised in the one evening.

MARKHAM OFFERS POETRY MEDAL TO AMATEUR POET

In order to stimulate interest in poetry in the high schools of the state Edwin Markham offers thru Rollins college a gold medal for the best poem written by a high school student before Founder's week next February.

The contest will be known as the Edwin Markham Poetry contest and will be an annual affair hereafter. Mr. Markham will be one of the judges, the others to be selected in due time. Any poem from a quatrain to a poem of thousands of words may be entered. All entries should be forwarded to the Markham Contest committee, care of Rollins college.

The poetry committee expects that this poetry contest will stimulate the same amount of interest in poetry that the Bacheller Essay contest has stimulated in essay writing.

Y. M. C. A. PLANS ELECTION NEXT WEEK

Y. M. C. A. officers for next year will be elected at the "Y" meeting next Wednesday night at Lyman gym. The present cabinet asks every Y. M. C. A. man on the campus to be present at the meeting. Entertainment will follow the business session.

NEW YORK TIMES AND ATLANTA JOURNAL TO GET PICTURES OF MEET

Ten or twelve photographs together with news of tomorrow's aquatic meet will go to the New York Times for use in the Rotogravure section, Mid-week Pictorial and World Wide News service, as a result of a letter to Director Greene from C. M. Graves, editor of the Sunday Times, requesting this service.

The editor of the Atlanta Journal has also asked for pictures of the meet.

Pathe News has been granted exclusive movie rights on the meet and James Buchanan, camera man, will be on duty all day tomorrow with regular and slow action cameras.

The Interscholastic Aquatic meet is attracting much attention outside of the state.

ROLLINS STUDENTS SEE "CLARENCE" THURSDAY

Several dozen Rollins students saw "Clarence" presented by the Winter Park high school players at the auditorium last Thursday night. Jim Keezel as Bobby Wheeler and Annie Campbell as Cora Wheeler were probably the best on the cast. They put some real life into the play, which is more than can be said of most of the others. The play netted quite a large amount of money it was reported.

DIVIDE FREEMAN SONG AWARD INTO 4 PRIZES

The Freeman Song Award fund of $60 will be divided into four prizes and each class learning the words of all the college songs will be presented with one of the prizes, according to this week's decision of the contest committee. No other requirements were mentioned.

Mrs. Hazel Linfest, '17, will award the prizes thru the Alumni association.

ANCESTOR WORSHIP

Although Americans are fond of sending missionaries to disengage the Chinese from their ancestral worship, they are guilty of much the same reverence with regard to the political institutions of their forebears. A few still take the attitude that because the fathers of the country made a law, it is "good enough for men," neigh, even infallible. Frequently a law which the founders of the country enacted with admirable good judgment is now an anachronism because of the changing times. Such a law is the present one for the beginning and ending of presidential and congressional sessions. Unless a special session is called, Congress does not meet for thirteen months after its election. Several months elapse before the president is ushered into office.

These laws are vestiges of the time of the stage-coach when plank roads alternated with quagmires and the only way to get to Washington was over roads like Iowa has after a heavy rain. Present methods of transportation have made such provisions as those of the old law unnecessary. By a bill recently introduced into Congress, both president and congressmen would take office in the January following their election. This would do away with many evils, the evil of a repudiated congress sitting through a session while the new Congress is waiting to take office, the evil of a new election being less than a year away before the members take their places in Washington. Many of the mysteries of law-making the public cannot be supposed to understand, but the humblest novice can see this defect in our governmental structure.—Daily Iowan.

CHARLOTTE WETTSTEIN
GIVES RECITAL MONDAY

(From the Critic's Chair)

Charlotte Wettstein was her usual charming self at her recital Monday evening at the Woman's club. The stage was beautifully decorated with flowers, Japanese screens and bamboo, and Charlotte wore an attractive gown of orchid georgette. The first number was "The Wooing of Minnehaha," by Longfellow. This was a lovely reading and given with perfect interpretation by Miss Wettstein. After this, Fern Dakin, attired in an Indian costume, sang an Indian love song. Miss Dakin has an extremely clear voice and was well suited to the part.

Miss Wettstein then read "The Famine and Death of Minnehaha." This is a very sad poem and was delivered with wonderful pathos. Among other readings Miss Wettstein gave "Jocko." In this she displayed a great variety of expression. "Jocko" calls forth humor as well as a touch of pathos. Also in a selection from "The Little Minister," Miss Wettstein was able to very successfully take the parts of four very different characters.

The last number on the program was a very clever play entitled "His Japanese Wife." Miss Wettstein took the difficult part of an American's Japanese wife. She managed to make a great deal of her part. She was a coquette as well as a shy, obedient wife. She was ably assisted in this by George Bishop, who played the part of the loving, yet intolerant, American husband. Mr. Bishop took his part well and he and his wife took part in many humorous situations. The other minor characters were Virginia Nagel, the sister; Billy Mulligan, the Irish maid; Robert Chandler, the butler, and Ted McCowan as the houseman. In all, it may be said that it was one of the cleverest amateur plays ever put on by the students of Rollins college.

Miss Wettstein was the recipient of many beautiful bouquets of flowers, and is to be complimented by all for giving one of the most entertaining programs ever held at Rollins.

Judge—"Thirty days hath September."—Sun Dodger.

Welcome

FLORIDA HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS to the

FIFTH ANNUAL WATER MEET

You are the guests of Rollins College and while here you are invited to inspect the educational plant of Florida's oldest college. Faculty and students will be glad to show you about the campus.

YOU SENIORS who plan to enter college are requested to note the courses of study offered by Rollins:

1. General course leading to A. B. degree.
2. Scientific course leading to B. S. degree.
3. Four year course in Business Administration leading to degree.
4. Four year course in Music leading to B. M. degree.
5. Two and four year Pre-Medical courses.
6. Two and four year Pre-Engineering courses.
7. Two and four year Pre-Law courses.

Your attention is also called to the HONOR SCHOLARSHIPS for FLORIDA HIGH SCHOOLS.

In order to show its interest in the work of the Florida high schools and to encourage graduates of these schools to pursue a college course, and to do this within this state under broad, Christian influences, Rollins College places at the disposal of the standard preparatory or high schools in Florida ten Honor Scholarships of Two Hundred Dollars each.

These Honor Scholarships will be awarded by Rollins to honor students in the graduating classes of Florida high schools. The granting of the awards will be based upon these points:

- (1) Recommendation of the high school faculty.
- (2) Moral Character.
- (3) Scholastic Accomplishments.
- (4) Leadership in student activities.
- (5) Physical superiority.

The total amount of each scholarship is $800. It covers a period of four years and is payable in installments of $200 annually, subject to the maintenance of a high standing in college.

Believing that the future of America depends largely upon the moral development of its leaders, Rollins College makes this heavy financial sacrifice to raise the quality and character of its student body and thus do her part, as a high class educational institution, in building up civic and moral standards of the country.

Andrew Carnegie, whose great gifts to colleges, libraries and foundations have doubled the worth of educational training many fold, had the following to say regarding the ideal form of college work: "I have been looking largely into small colleges of late. I think a young man who goes into a small college receives a better education than in a large one." It is the aim of Rollins to offer the best advantages of the highest class of small colleges, and it is hoped that these Honor Scholarships will assemble on the Rollins campus an ideal working group of outstanding students who desire intensive development.

Rollins is co-educational, is on the Associated List of the Southern Association of Colleges, and is endorsed and supported by the Southern Presbyterian Church, Northern Presbyterian Church, and the Congregational Church of Florida.

OFFER PRIZE FOR

COLLEGE PLAYLET

For the purpose of fostering keener interest in the writing of one-act plays Milton Hocky and Howard J. Green, producers for the high class vaudeville theatres, are offering a prize in addition to royalty for the best playlet submitted to them, under the following conditions:

1.—The author must be an undergraduate of an American university.

2.—The playlet should be written with practical vaudeville production in mind. That is, a manuscript calling for an exceptionally large cast or an exceptionally high production expense would not be likely to receive consideration for the prize. The manuscript must also be written with a view of keeping the "running time" of the playlet within a limit that is practical for vaudeville's purposes, that is, fifteen to twenty-five minutes.

3.—To say that originality in theme and treatment will be an important consideration in judging the winning manuscript is rather bromidic, but nevertheless true. Novelty in subject matter and presentation is an important factor in vaudeville production.

4.—The winning contestant shall receive a prize of $250 which shall be payable simultaneously with the appearance of an advertisement announcing the winner in the July 10th issue of Variety, which is the representative trade paper of vaudeville.

5.—The producers guarantee that the manuscript will receive production and will pay the writer a royalty of $50 every week that the playlet appears.

6.—The judges of the contest will be:

John Pollock, playreader for the B. F. Keith and Orpheum Circuits.

Edgar Alan Woolf, foremost writer of vaudeville sketches.

Milton Hocky and Howard J. Green, vaudeville producers.

The decision of the judges shall be considered final.

7.—Manuscripts must be mailed not later than May 30, 1924. The manuscript should contain the name and permanent address of the sender, also the name of the college that the writer attends.

8.—The manuscript will not be returned to sender unless accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

9.—The producers shall own 50 per cent of all possible foreign rights and moving picture rights that may accrue from the playlet, and shall possess sole vaudeville production rights to it.

10.—All manuscripts should be addressed to The Intercollegiate Prize Playlet Committee, care Hocky & Green, 110 West 47th street, New York City, and the sending of the manuscript shall be considered as an acceptance of the above rules by the sender.

"I hear they are going to import sparrows to kill worms. Don't you think sparrows are worse than worms?"

"Don't know, I never had sparrows."

"Your advertisement said that at this hotel there is a beautiful view for miles and miles."

"So there is. Just put your head out of that window and look up."

Why Shoes Wear Out

The average step is 26 inches. This means 2,437 steps to the mile, or 12,185 in a five-mile day. A person weighing 160 pounds, in a day has pounded into his shoes 974 tons and 160 pounds of meat, bone and troubles, and all this he carries above his shoes. A steel hammer weighing 160 pounds coming down at that rate for four months would have to be renewed each day and would have to be fished out of the deepest hole in the earth at the end four months.

24 Football Season to See Heavy Schedule

(By Manager Sloan)

With several varsity games already scheduled and others practically assured the outlook for 1924 football at Rollins is probably brighter than at this time in any of the past seasons. Especially is this true in view of the fact that quite a number of first-class players from Florida high schools have signified their intentions of matriculating at Rollins in September to add to the already strong nucleus of football material.

Negotiations are now going on to procure as coach a man most prominent in northeastern football circles and one who without a doubt will put a team in the field that will be able to produce as Rollins should and will produce. For obvious reasons it is advisable at the present time to mention no names but the outcome of present negotiations will no doubt be made known within a short time.

The first road trip of the season is planned for October 3 when the team will leave for a three game series with St. Augustine, North Georgia Agricultural College at Dahlonaga and Piedmont College at Demorest, Ga. These three games will be played respectively on October 4, 7 and 11 and should shape the men up in first-class condition for the rest of the season.

The Stetson game which has always been one of the biggest events of the college year will be played this year in Winter Park on Thanksgiving day. The "Southern Classic" is to be staged in Lakeland and several other colleges from the southern states are now on the correspondence list for games in Winter Park.

It is probable that while quite a few road trips are on the schedule, the 1924 season will be more satisfactory to the people of Winter Park and Orlando than that of 1923 and 1922 as more and better games are to be staged locally.

To cap the climax of what will be a Rollins year in football the "Annual Cuban Excursion" to Havana is to be continued and once more the Tars will be able to show Cuba what football is while Cuba is showing the Tars what Cuba is.

As the work of shaping up the schedule progresses announcements will be made in the Sandspur so that every one may know just how things are going along. It is of utmost importance that every one in the College talk football to their friends at home during the summer vacation. Two full squads must be made up in September, the varsity first team and scrubs and the freshman team. There is a chance for every Rollins student next year to make a team or get a first class start for the 1925 team. The alumni are doing their part to bring in new material and the student body is expected to hold up their end of the line, and if they do WATCH OUR DUST BROTHER.

MAX SLOAN TO SPEAK HERE THIS MORNING

Max Sloan, newly elected graduate manager of athletics, will speak this morning in chapel on the outlook for next year's sports.

Max Sloan is the recent old-timer who was chosen by the Alumni association to be the first graduate manager of athletics under the plan recently arranged for by the executive committee of the board of trustees. Under this plan the athletic program of the college is to be directed by the Alumni association.

During his days at Rollins Max was the most outstanding cheer leader and fan on the campus, and the part he played the year Rollins won four straight in baseball from Stetson, by developing a cheering section that out-shouted the Hatter's own outfit on their home ground, will long be remembered by those who saw Max put the stunt across. "Let's help Max make a big 'go' of his new job, just as the old crowd did the other one," said the Alumni association in making the announcement of Mr. Sloan's appearance.

Good Grounds for Suit

An electric specialty company in our home town has a most peculiar suit filed against it. The plaintiff's petition contains these words:

"Plaintiff alleges that this defendant represented to her that this range would not become heated on the upper surface of the oven. That plaintiff, relying wholly upon this defendant's representations, placed her bath tub in the kitchen near the range. That, upon emerging from the tub, plaintiff's foot accidentally came into contact with the soap upon the floor and she was thus compelled to sit upon the range. That, although she arose therefrom in all diligence, she discovered she had been branded.

The Mattingly boys, Curt Atkisson, Happy Johnston and Weber Haines, motored over to Daytona Saturday for a dip in the brine.

Hildegard Robinson and Madeline Leonard spent the week-end in Haines City.

Dorothy Grey, Annabeth Wilson, Chick Lawrence and George Bowers were in Babson Park for the week-end.

Raymon and Guy Colado spent the week-end with relatives in Tampa.

Brandt Watson, a member of the T. L. D. fraternity, left Wednesday for Twin Lakes, Pa. He expects to return to Rollins next fall.

Grace Jaquith spent the week-end in Windemere with relatives.

The "Bums" held their secret meeting Sunday evening. Plans for the future were deferred until next Sunday.

Max Henderson, well known Englishman, spent several hours Tuesday morning looking for a left-hand monkey wrench to assist Field day workers. His search was not successful.

BACHELLER MEDALS ARE ORDERED FOR NEXT YEAR

Medals which will be presented in the 1925 Bachelier Essay contest have been ordered by the committee on awards and are due to arrive here soon. Rules, regulations and subjects for the coming contest will be announced within a few weeks, it is expected. Regulations will be similar to those of this year's contest.

TARS AND TARETTES WILL BE LIFEGUARDS

Thomas Quinn, Ray More, Kay Beall, Eva Thompson, Billy Mulligan, Dickie Dickson and Grace Jaquith.

At last year's races only one swimmer became exhausted so as to need assistance. One girl entered in the 50-yard backstroke race was rescued by the Red Cross life saving expert just as she was sinking for the first time.

It is thought that tomorrow's life guards will be able to handle any emergency that may arise. They may give an exhibition of life-saving work during the afternoon, if present plans materialize.

OUTCOME OF MEET STILL UNCERTAIN

gustine's crack team again this year. Tho Jack Geier of Orlando will not be entered, his brother Dick looks promising when it comes to cleaning up in a little financial interest in that de-the long distance swims. Tampa reports a wonderful plunger in Fred Woods, tho one plunger from a nearby town has been plunging six feet over Harris' record of 59 feet. Fred Earnhart, the breast stroke record holder from Daytona, will be with his team again this year. Billy Buhner, crack swimmer on the St. Petersburg boys team, will give Buell a fight in the dashes and will probably clean up in at least one of these events. The relay race is a toss-up at this stage in the game.

GIRLS' TEAM STRONGER

Among the girls, Gretchen Allan and the three McCord sisters will swim for Hillsboro. The St. Petersburg girls' team is a record breaking crew. Orlando's junior high team is going to make its mark on the score, while Miami reports excellent swimmers en route to the meet.

WAIT AND SEE

Not until Saturday night will it be safe to say what the results are because just now it is impossible to predict anything with certainty. At least, sport lovers will witness the greatest exhibition of swimming that has ever taken place in the Peninsular state when the meet starts tomorrow morning.

VISITORS WILL RETURN FOR BASEBALL TOURNAMENT, MAY 15, 16, 17

Coaches must keep a record of the number of games played, won and lost and state who these games were played with. The eligibility rules of the High School Athletic association will be enforced. Results and eligibility lists must be received by Ray Greene, director of the championships, Winter Park, Florida, not later than May 5, 1924.

EDITOR OF SUCCESS TO SPEAK NEXT WEEK

Editor Seeley of the "Success" Magazine, one of the foremost journalists of the country, will speak to the students of Rollins college Tuesday morning, April 29, during the regular chapel hour which begins at 10:15. Bum—"I've never had no luck. I've always been left out in the cold."

Priest—"Courage, my friend. Your lot will change in the next world."—Tiger.

"But, my dear Alice, you can't really mean your aunt was actually caught-er-spooning with your fiancé."

"Certainly, my dear Charles. She believes in putting old heads on young shoulders."—Goblin.

"Waiter, bring me a demi."

"Yes, sir, tasse or john?"—Virginia Reel.

Dot—"And then he put his arms around me and I wanted to scream and couldn't, and when I finally could I didn't want to."—Jack-o-Lantern.

"Sorry, waiter, but I've only got enough to pay the bill and nothing left for a tip."

"Let me have another look at that bill, will you?"

"O say, Edith, George is back from vacation dead broke and so changed you'd hardly know him."

"I'm sure I won't."—The Beanpot.

"So you went to a class this morning?"

"What makes you think that?"

"Your suit looks as though it had been slept in."

First Ebony—"Say, look out, niggah; I'se tough—where ah comes from dey calls me wood alcohol."

Second Chocolate—"Dat ain't nothing—where ah's from dey'd call you milk shake."—The Toreador.

"But, darling, don't you want to marry a man who is economical?"

"I suppose so; but it's awful being engaged to one."—Flamingo.

"I will! I've got my hand all ready, just waiting."

Tom—"I know so many girls that I have a hard time keeping them straight."

Jerry—"Well, who wants to?"

(On the Front Porch)

She—"Don't sit on those steps, you will ruin your clothes."

He (wearily)—"I don't care. I'm going to take them back in the morning anyway."

Director—"And would you like to go behind the wings, young man?"

Stude—"No, the neck is far enough for me."

He—"May I kiss you good night?"

She—"No, Blinker, it is my principle never to kiss any one good-night."

He—"Well, let's drop the principle and show some interest."

Femme One—"What do you think of the Ouija board?"

Femme Deux—"I never ate there."

New Measurement System

American Poker Player (on board liner)—"Say, steward, how far are we from New York?"

Steward—"Roughly, about three and a half bottles, sir."

Cop—"Where are you going?"

Mac—"Don't tell me, mister. Let me guess."

Scotty—"Well, I had a date the other night with the one I love best."

Mac—"Didn't you get tired of talking to yourself?"

Dumb—"Do you think he heard me say he had a face like jelly?"

Belle—"I think so. It seemed to set at once."

Pat—"What are you laughing at?"

Pegrum—"Ha! ha! Our old cow swallowed my knickerbockers."

Pat—"How did it effect her?"

Pegrum—"Why her breath is coming in short pants."

The One—"Is your Packard friend coming here tonight?"

Her Sister—"No."

The First—"Dodge Brothers?"

T'other—"No, Sis. This is Willys-Knight."

U. S. GEOLOGICAL

SURVEY AS A CAREER

The United States Geological Survey, in the Department of the Interior, offers a career to the three types of engineers that constitute the technical staff of the organization—the topographic engineer, the hydraulic engineer, and the geologist, who may also be properly termed an engineer.

The engineer's work is many-sided, but most of his tasks lead him out of doors and often far afield. The engineer in the public service spends his life among men who do the world's work; in no sense is a shut-in, either physically or mentally; all his powers have wide fields for expansion.

The work of the topographic engineer embraces the mapping of the surface of the country, and owing to the fact that nearly all the topographic surveying of the United States is done by the Geological Survey itself the engineers engaged in this work are trained in the technique of their work chiefly in the Survey, although they should possess as a basic preparation a sound engineering education.

The work of the hydraulic engineers in the Geological Survey embraces every phase of the study of the surface waters of the United States, including stream flow in its relation to drainage, power, irrigation, flood prevention, and the municipal use of water. The work leads up to but stops at construction. Basic education and training in construction are, however, desirable.

The work of the geologist is directed in the main to the determination of the mineral wealth of the United States. It includes also a study of the history of our part of the planet as revealed by the rocks, each layer of which may be compared with a page in human history. The time and the manner in which the records were inscribed on these rock pages, the fossils and the minerals that make up their text and illustrations, and the ways in which the record may be made useful to man are objects of the geologist's study.

Practical requisites for technical employment in the Geological Survey are college courses in engineering or geology, preferably supplemented by post graduate studies. Employment in the Survey then becomes for the first two or three years a further and more practical postgraduate course, after which the member of the Survey may be assigned to individual or co-ordinated research work.

All the positions described are filled through civil-service examinations, which are held on an average about once a year. Requests for information as to examinations should be addressed to the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington,
