CLOVERLEAF MAY HAVE HOSPITAL FOR ATHLETES

Work will begin in the near future on the two empty rooms on the first floor of the west leaf of Cloverleaf, in order to convey these rooms into a suitable hospital ward. Cloverleaf has long been in need of an infirmary but the need seems to have grown by leaps and bounds this year with the incoming of organized athletics among the girls.

Several girls have sprained wrists

POLITICAL FORUM HELD IN ASSEMBLY

Assembly hour last Thursday was turned into a political meeting after Dean Sprague had put the Student Body in the hands of its president. The Freshman class came out strong in out-arguing Red Fralick in his attempt to force Bob LaFollette on the Republican and Democratic voters. Abbott distinguished himself in defending the "Silent Man." The girls were backward in coming forward until Kay Beale, insensed at Red's argument, rose to defend the rights of the Republican party of the Middle West. Guy Colado replied to the heated argument and all in all for such an impromptu affair the meeting could be considered successful. For local color some enterprising young men stuffed the ballot, so the first attempt is to be used as a preliminary one and the following Thursday, according to recent plans, speakers from Orlando will make the meeting more formal. Men from the audience are expected to have a word ready in defense of their nominees.

After this more serious business, a few Freshmen were "ratted" and a couple of entertaining speeches and an uplifting song were the results.

President Potter closed the meeting after asking the girls to nominate a head for girls' athletics in order that they might be represented in Student Association and obtain their show in the budget. Dickie Dickson was elected by a large majority to this position and so this year, with the help of Miss Jones, the girls are expecting to enjoy a full and exciting year in basket-ball, volleyball and tennis.

During the meeting plans were also

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION FOR GIRLS GETS START

On Thursday, October 16, Rollins acquired an organization it has heretofore lacked—a Girls' Athletic Association. Dickie Dickson was elected president and the other officers will be elected in the near future. The Athletic Board will consist of the officers of the association, the Athletic Director and the Managers of the various teams during their respective seasons. For instance, during the basket-ball season the basket-ball managers from the different classes will be on the Athletic Board and when track comes on the track managers will take their place. A point system is to be worked out whereby a basis will be established for awarding letters and cups. The major sports for gaining these points are: basket-ball, track, tennis and swimming.

PLANS FOR DELPHIC WORK ANNOUNCED

There are many students on the campus who do not exactly know just what the Delphic Society is. Therefore this article will serve towards enlightenment.

The Delphic Society was founded in 1892 at Rollins for the purpose of furthering literary activities of the college. It is of interest to know that it is the oldest organization of its kind in Florida, and that Rex Beach, whose books we have all read, was at one time its president.

The usual officers are elected and a program committee is appointed. Each member of the program committee serves as chairman over one of the following sub-committees: Literary, Debating, Music, Dramatic and Florida History, these being the activities which the Delphic Society sponsors.

The Florida History Club is expected to make great strides this year, due to the interest of the outside world in this state. It is interesting to note that most of Irving Bacheller's essays this year deal with Florida History. He is a resident of Winter Park and a staunch supporter of Rollins.

Among the functions of the Delphic is that of intra-class debates among the individual classes and the inter-class debates between students of different classes. There is a Delphic cup upon which the names of the winners of the class debates are engraved. This may be seen in Carnegie Hall.

During Founders' Week, the Delphic has a banquet, to which all members of the student body, faculty and friends are invited. Many prominent

STUDENT CHAPEL CHOIR TO BE STARTED FRIDAY

Influence of the conservatory students and instructors is making itself felt in many quarters this year. Glee club work has started with a vim and now Professor Jaynes announces another activity that will do much for the college—the Chapel Choir.

The Chapel Choir, composed of a double mixed quartette, will lead the singing at the chapel exercises and later on in the year will probably sing at vesper services. Members are Misses Ruth Amy, Ruth Richey, Edwina Parkinson, Eleanor Branning, Messrs. Philip Reece, Paul Hilliard, Homer Parker and Stanley Warner.

Seating of the faculty on the stage is to be rearranged and the choir will be placed where it will be most effective both as regards the faculty and the student body. According to

The Rollins yearlings held the varsity to 0-0 score here last Friday afternoon at the Winter Park Field. For once dope played straight with the score and the freshmen team was able to hold the upper men, who are not so strong this year because of the loss of a number of stellar stars. Two Rat players who came into the limelight were Zehler and Hilliard.

The first quarter started with the varsity kicking off. The ball remained almost entirely in the center of the field during the period. The second quarter found both teams well matched but no threat towards either goal—the varsity have a slight edge on the Rats. In the third quarter the upperclassmen attacked the freshmen good but the young Tars rallied furiously and rushed the older boys down the field.

Warner, for the varsity, gained three yards at the beginning of the second quarter. Poole's booting for the freshmen was one of the outstanding features of the final few minutes of play. The game ended with the ball in mid-field.

Evans, Abbott, Couch and Scott were unable to play because of injuries sustained in recent practice. Parker, veteran tackle, had to be taken from the game on account of an injured knee which may possibly keep him out for the rest of the season.

The lineup:

Varsity	Position	Rats
Potter		Bowers
	Left end
Lafroos		Eichstaedt
	Left tackle
Draa		Winderweedle
	Left guard
Wilson		Boardman
	Centre
More		Armstrong
	Right guard
Daniels		Poole
	Right tackle
Parker		Shoesmith
	Right end
Fralick		Joyce
	Quarterback
Colville		Zehler
	Left halfback
Mattingly		Colado
	Right halfback
Warner		Hilliard
	Fullback

SANDSPUR STAFF MOVES OFFICE TO KNOWLES HALL

The staff office of the Sandspur has recently been moved to the campus from its former rooms in the Rollins Press, downtown.

The faculty has given over the room which formerly housed the Co-op to the staff for this purpose. Desks, office fixtures and typewriters have been installed which will add a businesslike atmosphere to the place.

There is a twofold reason for do-

ANENT POPULARITY

Beware, oh lowly Frosh, the germ of the egotism is abroad. Its chief breeding places are beneath the verdant tufted thatch of the young and inexperienced. If you observe in yourself indications of its attack, get out from under early and avoid the rush, there may not be time later. The first symptom is a swelling above the ears. Act now and reduce it to music; the next warning will be an invitation to visit the Dean. For the "awfully popular" list doesn't generally tally with the honor roll. With the rushing season on and the kindly efforts of the Sophs to make the school seem like home, it's easy to drop a study hour once and a while. Many have slipped already as returns from the first round of tests show. But double up on it, make up the first month's work now, you may not have a chance to do it next month.

Remember what you come to college for. The student activities and social life are big factors in what you will get, but without the scholastic work to back it up it will be more harm than use to you.

On the other hand there are those who study to the exclusion of everything else. They head most of the classes but in the structure of student life they are only so much dead wood. There is a happy medium. Fight for it.

LET'S HAVE PEP!

The purpose of a pep meeting is to get the student body together and build up that without which a school is nothing. We've got some snappy cheers, snappy yell leaders and one of the snappiest bunches Rollins has ever had. So come on, snap out of it. Get into the crowd at pep meetings, don't spread out in bunches, you may be yelling, but in union there is strength and we crave strong noise. There is a flurry of pep meetings before each game which is good and as it should be. But why isolate them so? They are contagious, but that is also as they should be. We need contagion of that sort. How about one every week, at least? That's the way to keep her rolling.

There are some wonderful songs here, and "Rollins Keeps Rolling Along" isn't all of them. The Frosh, with inspired fervor, memorized the words of all of them, but even then they don't know the music. The real old Rollins spirit is in these songs and the best way to spread the spirit is to learn them—and sing them.

Overheard on the horse shoe: "The game's been called for tomorrow, so let's don't bother with that snake dance tonight."

A good snake dance takes practice and so far the Rats have been the only ones inspired to a rehearsal. Everybody will be at the Piedmont game so come on out and when the time comes let's give a sample of real reptilian terpsichore. P. S. Real Snakes don't have flapping coats nor girls hanging on it that fall down.

CHASE HALL RECEPTION

The Chase Hall boys gave their annual reception last Saturday night in Chase Hall and the gym. The guests, who were the Cloverleaf girls and the faculty, arrived at Chase about eight o'clock. They were then conducted through the dormitory by the boys who proudly displayed and explained each room. That the Chase Hall boys are not without an eye for the beautiful was shown in Bob Wilson's cretonne curtains, and in the dainty pink ruffled ones in Walker and Townsley's abode. The boys must have been straightening their rooms for weeks, as not the least thing was out of order.

Owing to the rainy weather, the program which was scheduled to take place on Chase Hall back porch, was staged in the gym. So, about eighty-three, the crowd adjourned to the gym. The program which followed was one that would put to shame any Keith's vaudeville ever witnessed. Much credit is due to Mac McRoberts who was program-chairman. Mac has proved himself so able an entertainer that his future is assured in helping Mr. Keith run his shows.

The first number on the program was the overture by the college orchestra, composed of Stan Warner, Pinky Blevins, Mac McRoberts and Doug Potter. The boys were even better than last week. Next, the school's famous comic orator, Abbott, gave a representation of a captain of a polo team journeying through Hawaii. After the audience had almost fully recovered, it was then entertained by Walker in a solo dance. Walker can certainly strut and was encored several times. Next, Hilliard entertained with two very clever vocal selections. He was followed by Bob Williams, who gave an interesting act on Lessons in Art. Evans and Abbott then staged a comic act in which Evans featured with a monologue. Red Burchall and Doug Potter then played a saxophone duet, followed by two vocal duets, sung by Blevins and Hughes.

The last number on the program was a Wood Simp dance by Sid Carlson and Walker. They were attired in rather décollete bathing suits. Walker was enhanced in beauty by a straw hat, while Sid had a sheet draped across his shoulders. Sid was the pursued Wood Simp and Walker the bold pursuer. Their dance was encored four times, and would have been more, but the two-winded participants fled to change their clothes.

After this excellent program, dancing took place. About eleven o'clock refreshments were served and the reception came to a close at midnight.

PHI BETA MEETS

Phi Beta fraternity held a very interesting meeting Monday night in Pinehurst. After a short business meeting, the evening was turned over to Prof. Harris, who gave a very interesting talk on France and his travels in Europe. As the fraternity consists of girls, the most interesting topic to them that Prof. Harris touched on was the wonderful creations in Paris, and Mrs. Grey, with her eyes wide open, asked him, "What the price was?"

Phi Beta expects to hold many more interesting meetings, similar to this one, and they appreciate the time Prof. Harris gave Monday night.

K. E.'S GIVE PARTY

Orlando thought a young woman's seminary had turned loose last Monday evening when Kappa Epsilon gave a theater party at the Beacham to see "America." During the more exciting scenes when sustenance was needed popcorn and peanuts were served. These were followed by weeping when the lovable brother died, and cheers when "our side" was winning.

After the show the co-eds went down to McElroy's where tables were prettily prepared in red and white. The "K. E. Special" constituted the refreshments.

The guests of the fraternity were: Eloise Arms, Willifred Carswell, Martha Mathis, Beatrice Larsen, Barbara Sheffield, Vaudine Logan, Mariea La Flure, Ruth Richey, Elizabeth Atkisson, Gladys Wilkinson and Maurine Lilly.

KAPPA EPSILON

Kappa Epsilon fraternity announces its faculty advisor and two new honorary members. Mrs. H. F. Harris is the faculty advisor for the fraternity and Mrs. W. C. Weir and Mrs. H. E. Shiver.

PERSONALS

C. C. Cromin, from Salem, Ohio, spent a few days on the campus as the guest of Bob Wilson. While here he refereed the Freshman-Upper Classmen football game.

Winderweedle's white knickers made such a hit the first time he wore them that he has had them on ever since. Wonder what he'll do when they get dirty.

Everything would have gone along fine about Bob's and Guy's curtains if the freshman hadn't attended the Chase Hall reception. Oh, well, Eddie and Billie got the candy anyway.

Dickie motored over to Mt. Dora Monday night where she enjoyed a good night's rest.

Woof Bowers ought to read that Shakespeare saying, "Oh, what a tangled web we weave, when first we practice to deceive."

The interpretive dancing given by Foster Walker and Sydney Carlson revealed to the world the talent they had so long been concealing.

Chase Hall reception certainly was a grand success. The next thing we know, with so much talent, we'll be hearing about the Chase Hall Vaudeville Company.

Among those who saw the Florida-Wake Forest game at Tampa, Saturday, were D. B. McKay, Fleetwood Peoples and Phil Boardman. They arrived there safely after a good deal of bumming.

Eleanor Pressey and Violet Sutherland spent last week-end at Violet's home in Daytona.

The student body doesn't realize how near they came to having a holiday last Saturday, when Eddie, Eloise, Eleanor and Billie came near ending their lives coming home from Orlando. However, the car finally descended not to stand on its head and the gas station is still in its proper place.

Ada McKay motored to Tampa Saturday with Mr. Gary, returning Sunday afternoon.

Ask Zehler if he wants to go shopping and if he won't tell you, ask Annabeth.

The Coach says Billie is the world's worst stenographer.

Several of the boys are planning on motoring over to DeLand Saturday to see the Piedmont game.

Pledge Tilden is going in for botany. If anyone notices a waterlily floating around it's what he cultivated from a wild specimen native to Texas.

Whither disappeared John Joyce during the Chase Hall reception? Must have been a strong attraction, because the show was good.

Carl says he is going to read Webster from now on. It's good for his health.

Sam—What am you don' now?
Bo—I'se an exporter.
Sam—An exporter?
Bo—Yep, the Pullman Company just fired me.

WORK

"Work!"

Thank God for the might of it,
The ardor, the urge, the delight of it—
Work that springs from the heart's desire,
Setting the brain and the soul on fire—
Oh, what is so good as the heat of it,
And what is so glad as the beat of it,
And what is so kind as the stern command,
Challenging brain and heart and hand?

Work!

Thank God for the pride of it,
For the beautiful, conquering tide of it,
Sweeping the life in its furious flood,
Thrilling the arteries, cleansing the blood,
Mastering stupor and dull despair,
Moving the dreamer to do and dare.
Oh, what is so good as the urge of it,
And what is so glad as the surge of it,
And what is so strong as the summons deep,
Rousing the torpid soul from sleep?

Work!

Thank God for the pace of it,
For the terrible, keen, swift race of it;
Fiery steeds in full control,
Nostrils aquiver to greet the goal.
Work, the Power that drives behind,
Guiding the purposes, taming the mind,
Holding the runaway wishes back,
Reining the will to one steady track,
Speeding the energies faster, faster,
Triumphing over disaster.
Oh, what is so good as the pain of it,
And what is so great as the gain of it?
And what is so kind as the cruel goad,
Forcing us on through the rugged road?

Work!

Thank God for the swing of it,
For the clamoring, hammering ring of it.
Passion of labor daily hurled
On the mighty anvils of the world.
Oh, what is so fierce as the flame of it,
And what is so huge as the gain of it?
Thundering on through dearth and doubt,
Calling the plan of the Maker out.
Work the Titan, work the friend,
Shaping the earth to a glorious end,
Draining the swamps, and blasting the hills,
Doing whatever the Spirit wills—
Rending a continent apart,
To answer the dream of the Master heart.
Thank God for the world where none may shirk—
Thank God for the splendor of work!"

YOUNG MANHOOD, ATTENTION!

Young manhood, a game is on! Look upon the gridiron—it is world wide. Latitude and longitude mark off the field. The world is interested—your future, the world's future, both are at stake. Who are the players? Look through the eyes of your imagination! Visualize! Think! Behold that solid line there before you—a bulwark of defense; a whirlwind offense.

Prejudice is playing center, and a giant he is in build, weight, and strength. Awkward and clumsy he looks, too, but there he is nevertheless—a mogul of power. He is flanked by the guards Satisfaction, on the right, and Contentment, on the left. See how firmly set they are. Immovable, it would appear. The tackles are lanky, nothing but bone, sinew and muscle; and their names are Avarice and Gain. Look at those ends, wiry, nimble, keen, Indian-eyed. See how far out they play, one hand on the ground, the other shading the eyes. It is Trade on the right, Bargain on the left.

Behind the line there is first the captain and quarterback, and Self is his name. He is built like a brick, he is a bullet head, he is foxy and he is bubbling over with intrepid confidence. He drives his team. Spectacular is his play, the limelight he covets. Here he calls his signals—And those backs—see their formation, too! Stocky are all three. They are all built right on the ground and without one ounce of superfluous fat. They sprint like the wind, kick like an ostrich and hug like bears.

Shrewdness, Sagacity, Fortune, these are the names of this seemingly indomitable trio.

This is our team. Does it look pretty form-i-da-ble? A husky eleven, to be sure. Let us see the other team.

Facing old Prejudice there is Endurance. He looks pretty solid, does he not? See how he digs his heels in the turf. Look at those broad shoulders. He is a Sampson, a tornado in action.

On his right there is Patience, and on his left Confidence. What have you to say against those two guards bending there with determination written in every line of their rugged faces? Behold those tackles! Old Caesar's battering rams could not beat holes through Integrity and Uprightness. Gibraltar-like they are, well nigh invulnerable. And there are the ends. Like deer in fleetness, they dive like seals and hold like leachs.

Bravery is guarding the right, Courage is defending the left end. Now look behind the line. The captain is quarterback on this team, too, and Service is his name. Not over one hundred fifty does he weigh, a little fellow but keenly intelligent, clear headed, quick to act, but decisive. Like a flash he sees the chance for the other fellow and sends him through for a gain, blocking the way for him all along. And who are behind him? A winning combination—fleet runners, bull's eye passers, long distance punters, chain length ground getters, vicelike tacklers! And do you see how they work together—perfect formation, blocking interference? Vision, Knowledge, Training, these are the names of this backfield.

Now what do you think of the outcome? You must think. You cannot be neutral—you must take sides with one or the other.

Here then are the teams: Selfishness vs. Service, and it is a fight to the finish. It is a world series and destinies are in the issue.

Grandstands are overcrowded. Bleachers are taxed. There is no room in grandstand or bleacher for you if you are a forward looking, red blooded American man. You must get into the game. You must line up with Prejudice and Contentment and Satisfaction, Avarice, Gain and Trade, Bargain, Shrewdness, Sagacity and Fortune on the side of Self; or with Endurance, Patience, and Confidence, Integrity, Uprightness, Bravery, and Courage, Wisdom, Vision, Knowledge and Training on the side of Service, for the final victory depends upon you.

Because the final victory does depend upon you there is, therefore, a rigid search being made for recruits.

Scouts are scouring the country. High school stars are being especially watched, their records being carefully examined. Flattering offers are being made, big inducements, gilt-edged and guaranteed.

This is the team, says one, that will win for you honor, fame, success. This, says another voice, is the eleven through which you can serve, rebuild, reconstruct, win.

Men of Rollins—have you made your decision? Have you decided which team to go out for?

It is a question of making the team. It is a question of WHICH team; and there ought not to be any question about that.

To you at present, the winning team may seem in doubt. You cannot, however, mistake the winning team in the end, for right must finally triumph.

You can right now determine victory as far as you personally are concerned; and it is your victory now that is the determining factor in the victory in the end.

Make your decision, then—Get into your togs. Get into action. Play the game and play it to a finish with all the manliness at your command. Make yours a winning team.

VOLLEY BALL

The girls have been practicing volley ball every afternoon this week but the real inter-class games will begin next week. Every class with the exception of the Senior class has a team and the captains for these teams are: Eva Thompson, Junior; Dickie Dickson, Sophomore, and Dorothea Forbes, Frosh. There will be no cups or letters awarded for volley ball but it is a fine game to get the girls in condition for basket-ball, which will begin a little later in the year. We are still hoping for some inter-collegiate basket-ball games this year, so get out for volley ball, girls and get in trim for basket-ball.

It's a smooth man that gets on top nowadays.

Yes, he is usually smooth on the top when he gets there.

Snoring is not "sound sleeping"—it's "sheet music."

He—Did you hear about Mabel losing her petticoat at the Pan-Hellenic?
She—Did you ever?
He—No; I don't wear 'em?

There are two ways of reducing the size of the student body.

1. Gym.

2. Exams.

Both are very efficient.

Johnnie—Mother, I just seen—
Mother (reprovingly) — Johnnie!
Where's your grammar?

Johnnie—I was just trying to tell you. She's down at the barber shop getting her hair bobbed.

Mother's Voice—Are you entertaining Harold?

Daughter—No, mother, we're just talking.

First Co-ed—Did Harold propose last night?

Second Co-ed—No, he is like an hour-glass. The more time he gets the less sand he has.

"You say that you flunked in German? Why, I can't understand it."
"Same here. That's why I flunked."

"I'm glad you came over. I just wanted to dance the worst way."

"Too bad, the chaperon's awfully strict."

Charlotte—Why do you wear your stocking wrong side out?

Pearl—Because there is a hole in the other side.

NO SOAP

"Let me hold your 'Palm-olive?'"

"Not on your 'Life-buoy!'"

Clarence—I was out with Jenny last night and she fell down and sprained her ankle.

Oswald—Did you have to carry her back home?

Clarence—Yes, I carried all of her home.

Congrats.—

STUDENT CHAPEL CHOIR TO BE STARTED FRIDAY

Professor Jaynes the choir will have its first public try-out today.

"Members of the Boys' Glee club are working for a trip this year," declared Professor Jaynes, "and with the co-operation of the students they will have it. Several attractive numbers for their club have already been sent for. The encores are exceptionally clever." The personnel of the Boys' club follows: R. Redding, J. W. Smith, A. S. Shreve, H. Birchall, W. B. Johnston, G. Fralick, F. Abbott, W. Hohannes, J. Shoesmith, S. Warner, P. Reece, Paul Hilliard, James Blevins, W. Evans, H. Parker, W. Lafroos, F. Hughes, C. Warner.

The Girls' club is making great progress. Their first appearance will be at an entertainment given at the Orlando Chamber of Commerce for the governors, on November 19. The Winter Park Chamber of Commerce has offered to provide transportation for the club at that time.

"There is good material in the Girls' club," said Professor Jaynes, "and they are going to work with pep and enthusiasm."

ing this. The first is: it will promote more interest and instill a greater spirit toward the college paper to have it on the campus.

Secondly: it will give anyone who has suggestions or news for the paper a chance to step in and talk things over, thus making every student feel that he or she has a part in the paper.

This is a banner year for the Sandspur, due to the enlarged student body, but we all must remember that it takes co-operation on the part of both the students and staff to make it a success. Let all of us do our part toward making it a success by handing in all the news items and humor we hear on the campus, making a peppy news sheet, typical of the college it represents.

Office hours will be announced later.

CLOVERLEAF MAY HAVE HOSPITAL FOR ATHLETES

and ankles from weilding a wicked tennis racket while others have disabled themselves in strenuous volleyball and canoe practices. However, severe as these aches and pains may be, they will not compare with those obtained by the girls who have been riding the Kentucky thoroughbreds, and it is reported that the casualty list is rapidly increasing.

A certain young girl had been complaining of the softness and sandyness of the Florida soil but she has not been heard to mention it since one of her falls from the thoroughbred. A few young men have volunteered to try out the horses before pronouncing them safe for the girls to mount, and it is hoped that a few less bones will be fractured in this way. At present, as a result of so much cavalry practice, the most popular song in Cloverleaf is "The Skid-right Ride of Paul Revere."

It is hoped that the football men will not keep the monopoly on the one and only pair of crutches since there are some girls in Cloverleaf who need them most terribly.

PLANS FOR DELPHIC WORK ARE ANNOUNCED

literary men enliven the gathering. Last year the society was honored by the presence of Edwin Markham as toastmaster.

The officers are as follows:

President—Charles Lawrence.

Vice President—Eddie Parkinson.

Sec. and Treas.—Robert Chandler.

President Lawrence wishes to bring out the fact that the Delphic is a democratic society and that all Rollins students automatically become members upon registration. He also wishes to state that all students should make suggestions which they think will improve the organization. A greater interest and support is wanted this year than ever before in order to carry out the purpose for which this society was organized.

POLITICAL FORUM HELD IN ASSEMBLY

discussed for Delphic and President Lawrence expressed the hope that there would be full attendance. With credit being given by the college to those participating in debates, certainly there should be some interesting Wednesday evening meetings.

Musician (doing badly)—Ah, gentlemen, if we all 'ad our rights, I should be ridin' in me own carriage as I 'ave done before.

Skeptic—Yus, but your poor old mother couldn't push you now!

Soph—I usually get to bed between ten and eleven.

Fresh—That's too many in one bed.
