WATER MEET DANCE AT GYM TOMORROW NIGHT

Tomorrow night the Gymnasium will be the scene of the annual Water Meet dance. The Fort Pitt Collegians orchestra will furnish the music. All water meet contestants are invited as well as the college students. The event promises to be the biggest and best of its kind ever staged here. There are more contestants this year than any previous year, so there is no doubt that the dance will be a snappy affair.

In previous years the dance has always been held in the Woman's Club building but this year it was thought best to change to the college gymnasium because the floor is larger and will accommodate many more dancers. The dance will start at 9:00 and run until 12. A good time is assured for all by the dance committee.

STATE RELAY RECORD HOLDERS

Miami girls' relay team that turned impending defeat into glorious victory and a state championship for Miami at the Interscholastic Swimming Championship at Rollins College last spring and incidentally set a state record. They are Ruth Williamson, Betty Bailey, Louise Imperateri and Alice Pepper. None of these contestants will be entered this year. It is expected that Miami will not have a girls' team in the sixth annual meet to be held at Rollins May 2.

Last year this foursome of girls swam 110 yards each in a total of six minutes and 34 seconds, establishing a state record and bringing the girls' title of the state to Miami. Miss Williamson in addition to being a member of the winning relay team, was high point individual for the meet last year and holds the state record for the 50-yard dash, the 75-yard dash and the 50-yard backstroke.

"GYPSY ROVER" TO BE PRESENTED TONIGHT

Rollins College Glee Clubs have been hard at work for the past two weeks on "The Gypsy Rover," a beautiful three-act musical comedy which will be staged in the high school. Much interest is being manifest by the school in general and those of the town who are acquainted with the work.

The comedy is exceptionally well written, with no lack of pleasing musical outline. The plot is fresh and elevating. The work is under the direction of Mr. Jaynes, the director of the School of Music. Mrs. Gray, the head of the Expression Department, is coaching the spoken lines and stage deportment. A cast of unusual ability for college men and women, has been selected.

The story of the play is as follows: The Gypsy Rover is in three acts and is built around the characters of Rob, later known as Sir Gilbert Howe, of English nobility. Rob is stolen when

STUDENT ASSOCIATION ELECTIONS NEXT WEEK

The annual spring elections are to take place in Knowles Hall during chapel hour on May 7th for the purpose of electing officers for the Student Association.

Heretofore all nominations have been made from the floor on the day of election, but this proved to be very unsatisfactory, due to the confusion it caused and to the time it took, many times forcing the actual voting to be postponed for a week or more and dampening the interest on the part of the student body as a whole.

A new plan has been formulated whereby all aspirants for the offices must be endorsed by at least twenty students, and a list with the name of the candidate and the signatures of those endorsing him be submitted to the President of the Student Association at the beginning of the chapel

DR. WEIR RETURNS FROM CONFERENCE TODAY

Dr. Weir returns today from Jacksonville, where he attended the State Congregational convention. Before going to Jacksonville Dr. Weir delivered the commencement address at the Ocoee High school on April 27th. From there he proceeded to Jacksonville to the conference which lasted from April 27th to 29th.

Dr. Weir spoke to the conference on the subject of Rollins. He was accompanied by Miss Billie Mulligan, who entertained the conference with several of her inimitable readings. The president was also accompanied by Mr. Frank Abbott, who addressed the conference on the subject of Rollins from the student's standpoint.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

What's in a name, anyhow? Are we not assured that a rose by any other name would smell as sweet? And presumably Mr. I., who has just been discovered at Johns Hopkins University, would be a very similar individual to what he is, if his name was as long as his arm. In his particular case, however, philologists have declared that his name must be the shortest in existence because it is composed of but one letter, and that one the letter which uses less ink than any other of the alphabet. He certainly may lay claim, therefore, to a distinction which but few others can enjoy. His strange cognomen recalls the incident in which a boy named Mee attended a certain school. On some offense being committed, the teacher demanded to know who was responsible. Whereupon one pupil answered, "Please, sir, Mee did it," and the story goes that he was promptly punished both for the delinquency and also for making a mistake in grammar.

BETTER HOMES WEEK

Winter Park is getting her forces together for the celebration of "Better Homes Week," to be held May 11 to 17, various committees having been appointed to look after the work.

At a meeting of the chairmen of these committees it was decided that a Community Day will be one of the features of the week, when speakers will cover the following subjects: "How to Own Your Own Home,"

"Community Civics" and "Spiritual Forces in the Home." This will probably be held at the Woman's club, concluding a supper. Another day will be devoted to an educational program, which will be put on especially in the interest of the children.

It is also planned to have three homes thrown open for public inspection, each home of different value, size and style of architecture. Cards of admission will be obtained at the chamber of commerce and hostesses will be appointed to receive the visitors.

By opening different types of homes, Winter Park hopes to show the people what can be done to make a home attractive and reduce household drugery, whatever amount of money is expended.

The first consideration is the architecture of the home whether it is to cost $3,000 or $23,000, the lines can be beautiful, built for practical house-keeping and comfort. The "Better Homes Campaign" is being put on to encourage people to own homes, no matter how humble, and to suggest how to furnish them in as attractive manner as possible but not always in an expensive manner.

STUDENT ASSOCIATION ELECTION NEXT WEEK

hour, one week before the election day, which in this case was Thursday, April 30th.

Campaigning has already started, but at the time of going to press all names of candidates had not been submitted, so it was deemed wise not to print any of them. However, from the way in which petitions have been flying around it looks as though there will be plenty of excitement in chapel next Thursday morning.

The offices which are to be filled at the coming election are: President of Student Association (to be filled by male student); vice-president (to be filled by female student); secretary

(to be filled by female student); and treasurer (to be selected by the President of the College). By stipulating the classification as to those holding the offices it is hoped that partiality will be waived and that students of both sexes, along with the faculty, will meet on a common ground towards fostering one main ideal, that of making a bigger and better Rollins than ever before.

Recent research revealed that only three out of ten freshmen at Ohio State use tobacco.

And he has lived to see it

In 1881 Edison shipped to the Paris Exposition his "Jumbo" dynamo—eighth wonder of the world. It could light 1000 lamps. Now there are G-E generators large enough to supply current for over a million lamps, each with four times the candle-power of the lamp of 1881.

The General Electric Company produces other electrical apparatus which makes it possible to transmit power over great distances. It has put electricity in seven-league boots. In its laboratories, scientists are now experimenting with voltages ten times as great as the highest now in use.

If you are interested in learning more about what electricity is doing, write for Reprint No. AR391 containing a complete set of these advertisements.

Back in 1885, Thomas A. Edison succeeded in transmitting electricity at 220 volts for one mile—an achievement and a promise.

The promise was fulfilled a few months ago, when electricity at 220,000 volts was transmitted two hundred and forty miles to supply Los Angeles with light and power.

Now five billion dollars are invested in electric power plants. A stupendous figure that testifies to the alertness of thousands of college-trained men who have been leaders in the production and use of electric power.

The electrical era has only dawned. Each year some new machine or discovery makes it possible to apply electricity in unexpected ways. The graduate of today will find electricity directly or indirectly a means for even greater accomplishments, no matter what his calling in life may be.

K. E. BREAKFAST

The "family tree" was the scene of another sunrise breakfast last Sunday morning. The K. E.'s woke up the dormitory in their preparation, and after much noise and clamor they embarked in the war canoes for the family tree. The great surprise came when it was learned that fried chicken and hot coffee were in the basket, along with potato chips, rolls, pickles and olives. After all had eaten to their heart's content and when "Jimmie" and Eloise had done their daily dozen they started on the return trip, with Martha and Fay, clad in bathing suits and knickers, decorating the bows of the canoes. All went well until Elizabeth carelessly forgot and left her finger in the car door in such a way that the door when slammed nearly took her little finger with it. She soon recovered, however, with the aid of Dr. Hotard. Those who enjoyed the breakfast were: Virginia Davis, Eloise Arms, Trixie Larsen, Elizabeth Atkinson, Fay Hall, Kay Bealle Martha Mathis, Ada McKay, Ruth Richey, Eva Thompson, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Shiver, Vandine Logan and Laura Randall.

CANOE PARTY

Sunday afternoon four canoes started out. The occupants were: Blinker Draa, Louise Holland, (chairman), Robert Gaston and Martha (treasurer), Trixie Larsen, Carl Warner, (secretary), and Sap Draa, Gladys Wilkinson (guests). A small Victrola furnished the entertainment, but due to a lack of space no dance followed. After drifting around for awhile, and strenuous efforts in paddling, which had a bad effect on Louise, a landing was eventually made in a beautiful spot. A fire was made and then the "eats" were produced. While the steak was being roasted a hot time followed due to the fire of course. Sandwiches, iced tea, fruit, special orange juice for Blinker, crackers and marshmallows composed the lunch. Needless to say this was heartily enjoyed by all. On the homeward bound trip the parties in each canoe had the pleasure of watching the new moon—and then adjourned to church.

FRENCH LUNCHEON

Miss Doris Lingenfelder dragged her conversational French class to the Green Parrot tea room last Thursday for luncheon. There was a fine of sixty cents for anyone who spoke a word of English. Salice, or Geimall. Such "parley vous-ing" and "vouley-vous-ing" was never heard before. Were there any breaks? Well, rather. Eloise and Fay were along, you know. Those attending the French luncheon were Mlle. Lingenfelder, Mme. Winginder, Mlle. Ruth Richey, Barbara Sheffield, Eva Thompson, Dorothy Grey, Eloise Arms and Fay Hall.

Methinks Carl Warner is too serious about his "typing." Just come over to the business room some day at 2 o'clock and see for yourself, if you can't believe me.

Now that the Sigma Phi play is over we are all keyed up for the "Gypsy Rover." Hope it will be as good.

INFORMAL PARTY

The Theta Nu house was the scene of an informal party last Monday night, nine o'clock. The refreshments, which furnished the main attraction for the evening, were provided by Mrs. Bartlett and were composed of ice cream and cake. A very enjoyable time was had by all and a unanimous vote of thanks was given Mrs. Bartlett.

PERSONALS

Frank and Billie journeyed to Jacksonville Thursday morning on the A. C. L. for the Congregational convention. They returned Friday in President Weir's car.

Don't you think the boys look just darling in silk stockings and ruffles around their necks? So romantic.

Red Collany, from Stetson University, is visiting Billie Mulligan for the water meet. Eleanor Branning is also staying at Cloverleaf.

Jack and Scotty have found a new sport in trying to kill garfish with canoe paddles. Hope they don't fall in one of these days.

Frank Abbott has proved an expert hairwasher. However, let him do it at your own risk and if he drowns you remember this advice.

The new raft has proved a great success for conveying passengers who are not in a hurry across the lake.

Everybody is excited about the dance Saturday night. Fort Pitt will play and it is to be given in the gym.

Virginia Richardson will leave for the north May 9th. We hate to think of how DeWitt will look after that time.

Bill Evans thinks he knows a lot but just the same, he didn't know when Columbus discovered America.

Jack Evans is up for the water meet. It certainly is fine to see him again and he says he feels real sleepy and at home here.

Ginny Davis left Tuesday for Chicago where she was called by the illness of her father.

Gracie didn't come back until Monday afternoon this week and Johnnie and Ike likely both went crazy with anxiety.

The way some of those "wood simps" hop about over at the gym every day, it looks as though the May Day festival is going to be the "real thing."

Stan, Bozo and Dudley Calhoun spent the week-end in Daytona Beach the guests of Fred Hanna.

"For I'm to Be Queen of the May, Tra La," now being sung daily by Fay Hall.

Prof. Harris has the real Rollins spirit. He is cutting out some of his classes these hot days. Wish some more Profs. would catch it.

Bill Evans is the champion story teller but he can't seem to say a thing unless he has something in his hand. What's the matter, Bill?

Violet and Eleanor spent the last week-end in Daytona and gave the new pool a try-out. They say it is real good and will pass.

The candidate for Congress, speaking from the stump, had been asked by someone in the audience if he was in favor of prohibition.

He replied, "I am"—cheers from the dyes—"not"—cries of "Attaboy" from the scofflaws—"going to tell you." Dead silence from all.

What promises to be a rare treat to lovers of musical comedy, will be presented in the High School tonight (Friday) by the combined glee clubs of the college.

"The Gypsy Rover," a three-act comedy, is recognized as one of the highest type of musical productions, combining dramatic art with comedy.

The production has been coached and directed by Mrs. Dundine K. Bass, of Nashville, Tenn., who will also sing the leading role. Mrs. Bass possesses a beautiful rich soprano voice and though she has been here but a short time has won much praise from the music lovers of the college. Mrs. Bass has had a great deal of experience in amateur productions and has done many plays with great success of similar type in the Middle West.

The cast is unusually strong, having players of ability for the portrayal of the characters which they represent.

Mr. Redding, the leading man, "The Gypsy Rover," has a most pleasing voice of power and flexibility.

The counterpart, Lord Craven, as will be cast by Mr. Frank Abbott, will not fail to add much to the humor and enjoyment of the production.

The strong comedy scene between Marto and Sinfo will be another high light.

Mr. Jaynes has arranged an orchestra to accompany the choruses. He will accompany the entire performance.

MAY DAY FESTIVAL TO BE THIS AFTERNOON AT 4:00

Ten of the college girls will give a nature dance called Eccosais.

Violet Sutherland, Charlotte Foster and Pearl Wright will also give a nature dance.

"Offering," a solo dance, will be done by Grace Jacquith.

Last of all will come the May Pole dance by 20 of the college girls.

This week has been one of many activities. With exams, musical practices for the "Gypsy Rover," and tripping the light fantastic toe for the May Day festival (Fay Day Festival) the students have had no time to consider the warm weather. Visitors who arrive early will have the privilege of witnessing some of Rollins' dramatic talent. The festival promises to be one of the prettiest and best planned of the season. It has to its advantage a naturally beautiful setting and many good looking students for the court scenes.

DR. WEIR RETURNS TODAY FROM CONG. CONFERENCE

Dr. Weir returns today to view the May Day pageant and the "Gypsy Rover" tonight. Dr. Weir's schedule for speeches for the month of May is as follows: May 22nd, commencement address at Winter Haven High school; May 26th, commencement address at Stetson University, DeLand; June 3rd, DeLand High school address; June 4th, Daytona High school address; June 5th, Rollins commencement; June 5th, New Smyrna High school address; June 8th, Barberville High school address.

an infant, by his nurse, Meg, who later becomes the wife of Marto, a gypsy. Rob grows to manhood among the gypsies believing Meg and Marto to be his parents.

It happens one day, while riding with her fiancée, Lord Craven, Lady Constance Martondale becomes lost in the woods. They wander to the gypsy camp where Constance and Rob meet and fall in love at first sight. Craven objects to Rob's attitude, but in a very funny comedy scene with Marto and Sinfo, he is made to tell Sir George, who later comes in search of Constance, that Rob is a charming fellow. In act two Rob goes to the home of Constance and serenades her. They plan to elope but are overheard by Craven who informs Sir George, and plans are made to capture Rob. This is successfully carried out and Rob is thrown into prison, but later escapes.

Two years later and Rob has come into his estate, his identity having been proven by Meg. He becomes a successful composer, a friend of the Prince, and a social lion. Constance has remained true to her love for Rob and on his return to England he woos and wins her for his wife. As Rob says, "The good fairies have led me to the beautiful country after all, and our story, Constance, can end in the proper manner"—"They lived happily ever after."

There are also pretty love affairs between Nina and Capt. Jerome, and Zara and Sinfo, and many comedy scenes between Sinfo and Marto.

COACH LEO G. FRANK

year, according to information from the President's office.

Coach Frank has a reputation unexcelled by any other man in the west. He is well known for his ability as an athletic trainer and director. A fitting example of his marvelous ability as a coach was his success last year, with a limited number of men at Pacific University, defeating such large institutions as the University of Montana and holding the Oregon Agricultural College to a 12-0 score.

A graduate of Coe College, Iowa, Mr. Frank was a lieutenant in the field artillery during the war. While in the army he also served in the capacity of physical director for Camp Cody, training thousands of soldiers in all the major sports.

In 1920-21 the University of Oregon called Coach Frank to be instructor of physical training in that institution. Since 1921 he has served as head of physical education department of Pacific University.

One of the strongest indorsements of Mr. Frank's athletic ability is the fact that he was chosen as a member of the All-Iowa conference teams in major sports.

Some exceptionally creditable reports have been received at the college concerning this man's ability as a football coach. He is able to instill in his teams the ability to fight and the spirit to play the game fairly at all times. His system of football is largely his own. His manner of dealing with his men always wins their confidence, admiration and respect. He has been called by L. H. George, sports editor of the Oregonian, "one of the ablest athletic coaches in the entire northwest."

"Rollins is indeed fortunate in being able to secure a man of the ability of Mr. Frank," said President Weir in a recent interview with a member of the staff. It was only through friendship with Dr. Weir that this able instructor was induced to come to the southeast.

Having been admitted into membership in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association, and under the leadership of such a man as Coach Frank, the athletic prospects of Rollins for next year have never been brighter.

Evening worship—7:30 p. m.
B. Y. P. U.—6:45 p. m.

The Churches and their Ministers extend a cordial invitation to the students of Rollins to worship with them.

Winter Park alone, but the whole state, a place of beauty, where all interested in these arts can gather to enjoy the great opportunities to be offered along these lines. It is to be a memorial to the Dyer family—George L., his wife, Susan Palmer, and their daughter, Susan Hart, the noted composer, whose lives and gifts so stimulated the civic and cultural life of Winter Park and the whole state that their memories should be treasured for all time. Work on the grounds, grading, planting etc., will begin at once, and all Orange county is looking forward to the completion of the theatre.

Lafayette College in Pennsylvania has added a course in radio to its curriculum.

The graduates of Yale University, if assembled, would constitute a city of 40,000.
