ROLLINS LOSES HARD GAME TO CITADEL BY SCORE OF 27-0

ROLLINS GLEE CLUB TO VISIT FLORIDA TOWNS

Lend us your ears, O ye modern Orpheuses! For 'tis a tale of singing and joy we bring upon this glad morn. The Rollins Glee Clubs are once more tuning up for a prolonged period of glorious concerts, chorus work, solos, both musical and vocal, and instrumental renditions ranging from violins to flutes and from Jews' harps to harmonicas. In short, Glee Club rehearsals have begun.

In an interview Monday, Miss Edna Wallace, directress of both the Men's and Girls' Glee Clubs, stated that, although no absolutely definite plans had as yet been completed for the coming season, she expected an even more successful season than last year's.

"I shall concentrate on fewer members and better performances this year," said Miss Wallace. "Our only comparatively weak point in the Men's Glee Club is first tenor. We could use more tenors. But even at that we have every chance to make fine organizations of both our Glee Clubs this year."

"Last year we did not go to Miami. This year we must go there if possible. Miami is building colleges and

MINISTERS OFFICIATE AT DAILY CHAPEL SERVICES

In accordance with a plan devised by himself, Dr. Holt has arranged to have the ministers of Winter Park conduct chapel services during the week in Knowles Hall. Each pastor will conduct services for a period of one week, and they will rotate in order when it comes time for the first to start over.

Services were held last week by Dr. Vincent, of the Congregational Church of Winter Park. Dr. Vincent spoke on many subjects of interest to young men and women of our educational institutions. He spoke chiefly of the doctrine of work. Dr. Vincent is a strong advocate of work. He believes that nothing worth while can ever be accomplished without sincere effort backing the attempt to the limit. Dr. Vincent's belief is, not to withhold credit where it is due, merely the conclusion reached by a thousand other men before him. But the college student is prone to take life as an easy matter of course, and believe that the world "owes him a living." Dr. Vincent's message was in itself a warning.

This week, Dr. Thomas of the First Episcopal Church of Winter Park will conduct chapel services. Monday Dr. Thomas spoke on the Spirit of Research, as opposed to the Spirit of Propaganda. He will develop this theme as the week progresses.

Dr. Holt has thus presented the college with another means of breaking away from the routine of things.

FRESHMEN GIRLS

DON'T forget to touch buttons.
DON'T forget to wear green ribbons.
DON'T sass upper-classmen. Remember—there is no bail in a rat court.
DON'T go to bed with your clothes on.
DON'T fail to keep your shades up.
DON'T be caught on a necking party.
DON'T be too sociable with freshmen boys.
DON'T fail to obey all orders from your superiors. Obedience is a fundamental principle of education.
DON'T eat too much in the beanery—you might undergo a digestive collapse.
DON'T forget your measly station.
DON'T carry typewriters into biology lab.
DON'T be seen without your cap.
DON'T wake up the dorm before breakfast by being noisy.
DON'T go out at night. You might get kidnapped.
DON'T fail to shoot all window-peepers.
(Note: Male rats will be given their DON'TS next week.)

MISS M. FLOSSIE HILL OF FORT MYERS OFFERS PRIZE FOR BEST SHORT STORY; ALL MAY COMPETE

SENIORS ELECT OFFICERS FOR CLASS OF 1925-26

The seniors of Rollins got officially under way Tuesday morning, September 28, at 10:30 in Knowles Hall when they elected their class officers for the year 1925-26.

Robert Colville was elected president; Annabeth Wilson, vice-president; Lucille Waters, secretary, and John Scott and Eva Thompson, senior representatives on the student council.

In order to live up to the precedents and traditions established last year by the senior class, this year's senior class will have to set a record in organized achievements. The spade oration of last year presented one of the most impressive ceremonies ever carried out by a senior class of Rollins. This was the case with the reading of the class will and the class prophecy, especially the class will. Many and varied were the legacies bequeathed to this year's seniors, and much will have to be done to preserve those legacies.

From all outward indications, the seniors of 1925-26 are well on the road to even a greater success than those of 1924-25. Robert Colville, the new president, is a man of sound business ability as well as an able leader. Among other things, he holds the college tennis championship, and is a candidate for the varsity football squad. The college is looking forward to great things from this group of men and women, and it hoped and believed that the college will not be in the least disappointed.

The progress of Society consists in nothing more than in bringing out the individual, in giving him a consciousness of his own being and in quickening him to strengthen and elevate his own mind.—Channing.

Enthusiastic Alumni Aims To Further Journalistic Interest at Her Old Alma Mater

Every year there come more and more students to Rollins who seem to be deeply interested in literary work of all branches. This is natural. Rollins is situated in a literary center, and this year interest seems to be centered upon that most intellectual of all narrative forms, the short story. There is a special short story class held twice a week under the instruction of Mrs. Harris, of the English department, and this announcement should hold for Mrs. Harris' students a note of genuine interest. Through the courtesy and interest of Miss M. Flossie Hill, of Fort Myers, Florida, the Sandspur is able to offer to the student of Rollins producing the best short story during the year 1925-26, a prize of $25.

Miss Hill is an enthusiastic alumna of Rollins. She remembers the days of old when Rex Beach walked the halls of Carnegie and edited this paper. In her own words: "The purpose of the prize will be to stimulate journalistic interest among the students of Rollins."

Miss Hill's offer is only an example of the enthusiastic support being given Rollins all over the state by Rollins alumni. It was originally intended that announcement of this prize be deferred until a later date, but interest over the short story has become so evident upon the campus that it was thought best to give all who might wish to enter the contest a little time to think over the plot that is to produce the "Great American Short Story."

Several students have already signified their intentions of entering the contest, and it is hoped by the editor that stiff competition will result from

Rollins Played Chiefly A Defensive Game Against the Military Contenders for South Carolina's Football Championship; Zehler Plays Good Game

Coach Tallman's Tars played and lost the first game of their football season Saturday, October 3, when Citadel Military College of Charleston, defeated our aggregation by a score of 27-0. The game was played upon the Charleston Athletic Field; and, although the skies took on a threatening mein earlier in the morning, good weather prevailed throughout the entire game.

Rollins played chiefly a defensive game. The whole game was a repetition of the same old trouble which has handicapped Rollins for several years: experience, lack of men. Not inexperience resulting from lack of football knowledge, but inexperience resulting from not yet having played a game during this season. Citadel carried the ball practically all the time, Rollins being unable to successfully check the rushes of the militarists after the beginning of the second quarter. Citadel used twenty-eight men the first quarter against Rollins' eleven, and continued to run in fresh players whenever they were needed.

However, in spite of the shortage of men, Coach Tallman's players played good football. The work of Couch at guard, the big 210-pounder of last year's varsity, again and again stopped Citadel's offensive attacks. Couch is an experienced football player, and a consistent force in opening or closing holes.

Colado and Bowers, Rollins' two wingmen, smashed play after play, either making the tackles themselves or turning the plays into the arms of the line and secondary defense.

Wilson, at center, again and again caught line bucks before they made any great headway. Boardman and More also deserve special mention. Fralick, the diminutive tackle, played a consistent game. "Yankee Red" Winderneedle, big guard, also made a good showing, and promises to turn into a valuable man to the Tar line.

In the backfield, Charles "Zip" Zehler played a game which was commended by even the most enthusiastic Citadel rooters. "Zip", a hard tackler, fast on his feet, a man of several years of experience at the great game of football, proved a life-saving asset to the Gold and Blue. Seeds at quarter and Hilliard at half played good games. It was a pass from Seeds to Colado immediately following a five-yard penalty, which earned for Rollins her only first down.

The Tars were treated splendidly by their military opponents during their stay at Citadel. The entire gymnasium was completely turned over to the Rollins squad, and many and enthusiastic were the praises heaped upon the "cats." Cheers by both squads for their opponents during dinner hours, both before and after the game, displayed the true spirit of

DRIFTERS

The world has no place for a drifter.

The men who stand by the roadside, or lurk in the shadows of tall buildings, while busy people go on their myriad ways, has no place in the business of the world. The world despises the loafer, the idler, the ambitionless. The world will eventually express its disapproval.

If you are a college man at Rollins, you must not, and you can not, be a loafer. Rollins has no place in her class rooms, in her assembly, in her chapel, on her campus, or in her dormitories for the man who refuses to learn. If you come to Rollins, it is taken for granted that you wish to acquire more knowledge than you own at present. It is taken for granted that you are above the average in mentality and in ambition. Are you?

Rollins has approximately two hundred and fifty students registered. Of these, over one hundred are men. The male side of the institution is in the minority, and yet, with only one hundred men, we must compete with universities such as Mercer and Florida.

Have we any room for drifters? We have not. If you are here for a purpose, surge forward to that purpose with all the vim and zeal you possess. Since you are supposed to be here for a purpose, you must move toward that purpose. Unless you do, we don't want you.

Rollins develops Men and Women.

CHAPEL ATTENDANCE

The question is arising before the universities and colleges of the United States whether or not chapel attendance should be compulsory. Yale only recently took a popular vote upon the question, and the "nays" won by a vast majority.

Rollins has always had trouble with chapel attendance. Some students just can't spare the time, and others can't be bothered—so chapel sometimes goes on without the august personages of some of our students. And that is wrong.

Chapel attendance is compulsory at Rollins. Therefore chapel attendance should be regular. Breaking chapel attendance rules is like violating the prohibition law—regardless of whether or not you want to break it, breaking it is breaking it, and is a sign of disloyalty to your college.

If you do not approve of chapel attendance, don't cut chapel regardless of any or all rules. Start steps to abolish that rule and replace it by one more acceptable to your conscience, and the dictates of your desires. Begin now to support law and order and later on you will realize the wisdom of such a beginning.

THE PLACE OF ROLLINS IN FLORIDA

With the University of Florida in the Southern Conference and Rollins in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association, this state may well be proud of its representation in Southern football circles. Such membership takes Rollins out of the old class of "Rollins, Stetson and Southern," and makes it now "Florida and Rollins,"—not that Rollins and the State University are on an equal basis but that the public in speaking of Florida football will think of the University as the state's representative among the big universities and refer to Rollins as Florida's representative among the smaller universities and colleges.

EDWIN MARKHAM WINS CONTEST FOR POEM ON EDGAR ALLEN POE

Edwin Markham, famous American poet, and part time lecturer in the English department of Rollins, has come before the literary world again, according to the New York Times, which says:

"After the judgment of almost a hundred years, Edgar Allan Poe stands apart in American letters without ancestors or descendants, the man who has made our most distinctive contribution to literature.

"Such is the conclusion of Edwin Markham, who at 73 has won the international prize for a poem on Edgar Allan Poe in a contest conducted by the English Poetry Review of London.

"Mr. Markham looked up from a littered desk in the seclusion of his Staten Island home, embowered with blooming hawthorn, where he is now arranging a collected edition of his own poems, and talked animatedly of Poe.

"His countrymen are beginning to measure the stature of this proud, sad, poet, whose figure casts from our shores the longest shadow across the world," said Mr. Markham. "Not only have we seriously begun to measure his genius, but we understand him better, more sympathetically, than did his own contemporaries. I am persuaded that we in this time would not have left him to die of poverty and heartbreak.

"Poe declares that the origin of poetry lies in a thirst for a wilder beauty than earth supplies; that poetry itself is the imperfect effort to quench this immortal thirst. Poe struck the rock and brought forth a limpid spring of ever-freshening flow. It is a heartening sign that in this struggling age we find time to drink a little from this fountain of the gods.

"Poe was in the world but not of it—a highly sensitive soul unfitted to it—a highly sensitive soul unfitted to it—

KAPPA EPSILON ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Harry K. Kelly entertained at her home on Interlachen Avenue Wednesday afternoon, September 23, at a tea honoring the active chapter of Kappa Epsilon fraternity, and Miss Eloise Arms, a former student and member of the fraternity. In the receiving line were Mrs. Kelly, Miss Arms, and Miss Eva Thompson. The color scheme of pink and lavender was carried out in flammé and favors. Those invited were: Eva Thompson, Ruth Richey, Martha Mathis, Elizabeth Atkisson, Rebecca Caldwell, Margaret McKay, Ada McKay, June Mosher, Edna Wallace, Vaudine Logan, Trixie Larsen, Miss Eleanor D. Flood, Mrs. R. H. T. Dode, Mrs. M. C. Compton, Mrs. R. J. Petticord, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. J. P. Williams, Mrs. A. Sutliff, Mrs. A. Hopkins, Mrs. J. K. List, Mrs. H. T. Harris, Mrs. Tommy Quinn.

KIDS' PARTY

Mrs. A. E. Sutliff entertained Saturday afternoon, September 26, at her home in Boulevard Apartments with a kids' party. The spirit of the occasion was carried out in "all day suckers," pop, animal crackers, whistles, and the playing of various games. Those present were: Helen McKay, Ruth Richey, Martha Mathis, Ada McKay, Margaret McKay, Eva Thompson, Mrs. H. K. Kelly, Mrs. R. H. Dode, Eloise Arms, Elizabeth Atkisson, Trixie Larsen, June Mosher, and Mrs. D. K. Dickinson.

Members of the Sigma Phi Sorority were the guests of Mrs. C. M. Greene at a party held at her home in Virginia Heights last Sunday evening.

A delightful series of original readings were given by Miss Dorothea Thomas, assistant director of expression at the Rollins Conservatory, after which a delicious buffet supper was served by the hostess.

All of the members were present and helped to the fullest extent to make the evening a complete success.

Among the friends of the Sorority who were present were: Miss Gretchen Cox, new associate member and instructor of violin, Conservatory; Miss Edna Wallace, instructor of public school music, Conservatory; and also the new faculty advisor of the Sorority, Mrs. Orpha Grey, head of the expression department, and Mrs. Podmore, Sorority Mother.

universities and a trip there will be a good advertising scheme for Rollins. Tryouts for the Men's Glee Club were held last Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, September 29 and 30, in Pinehurst, at 7:30 o'clock. Tryouts for the Girl's Glee Club were held Monday afternoon, September 28, at 5:00 o'clock, in Pinehurst.

It is encouraging to note that many new names appear this year in the rolls of both Glee Clubs—especially that of the girls. This goes to show that musical interest is gaining way among the students of Rollins, rather than losing out as is, unfortunately, the case in many colleges of the country.

Personnel:

Men's Glee Club

First Tenor: Aaron Shreve, John Smith, W. L. Porter.

Second Tenor: Phillip Reece, W. B. Johnston, Lloyd Armstrong, O. Bandy, Paul Nelson.

First Bass: Paul Hilliard, Frank Abbott, Frank Larkin, George Hohannes, Clifford Milspaugh, Allen Cutter.

Second Bass: Stanley Warner, Carl Warner, Homer Parker, W. LaFroos, E. Upmeyer.

Regular attendance at rehearsals is required.

More than two unexcused absences from rehearsals automatically drops member from Glee Club roll.

Those men who have not had a tryout for the Club will please come early before the rehearsal tonight.

Girls' Glee Club

First Soprano: Elizabeth Atkisson, Ruth Richey, Catherine Adams, Miriam Boyd, Lillian Baldwin, Hazel Darlington, Dora Gasten, Eleanor Upmeyer.

Second Soprano: Grace Jaquith, Louise Mathis, Gladys Miller, Louise Brown, Mildred Stagg, Lois Briggs, Stella Weston.

First Alto: Virginia Richardson, Jeannette Dickson, Beatrice Larsen, Leila Hale, Dorothy Duffield, Catherine Hicks.

Second Alto: Ada McKay, Eva Thompson, Marion Mulligan, Margaret White, Helen Wilson.

Regular attendance at rehearsals is required.

More than two unexcused absences from rehearsals automatically drop a member from the Glee Club roll.

Although no schedule has as yet been made out, it is generally understood that the Glee Clubs will visit such places this year as Miami, St. Petersburg, Daytona, Mt. Dora, Orlando, several of the best hotels in Winter Park and Orlando, and perhaps several towns on the West Coast in an extended tour.

There is also a possibility of a trip to Havana, Cuba.

TEN REASONS WHY YOUNG PEOPLE SHOULD ATTEND ROLLINS COLLEGE

(A. J. Hanna, in Alumni Record)

1. As Florida's oldest college, Rollins possesses a traditional and historic background combining the highest ideals and providing an unequalled atmosphere for character building.

2. Rollins is Florida's only interdenominational college, thoroughly Christian, and strongly endorsed by Presbyterian, Congregational and other churches.

3. Rollins is one of the outstanding small colleges in the South and as such offers unusual advantages for development of personality, social and intellectual powers through close contact between faculty and students.

4. Rollins is rated as an "A" grade college by the University of Florida, by the Florida State Department of Education, is the only college in the lower South to retire professors on the Carnegie Foundation, and as a member of the Association of American Colleges possesses a national reputation that draws students from nearly every state in the Union.

5. Rollins concentrates on the standard departments of liberal arts and sciences, omitting the so-called university departments, and is thus able to retain meritorious results. A highly developed department of Business Administration offers a four-year course leading to the bachelor's degree combining with the cultural subjects sufficient practical training in accountancy, banking, real estate, salesmanship, etc., to enable graduates to assume positions of leadership in the business world.

6. Rollins is the most centrally located institution of higher learning in Florida, is located on the Dixie highway, four miles from Orlando, and is easily accessible from all parts of the state.

7. Rollins possesses a beautiful campus of twenty-five acres, sloping to the shores of Lake Virginia. Connected with this lake are four other lakes, offering unexcelled advantages in canoeing and boating of all kinds. The water course is the scene of the largest aquatic event in the state's program each year and is considered one of the best in the country. Hence water sports may be enjoyed throughout the year.

8. Rollins is the only member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association in Florida and maintains intercollegiate schedules in football, baseball, swimming and tennis.

9. Rollins is located in Winter Park, one of Florida's most beautiful cities. It is the home of distinguished authors and other people of culture who take a great interest in the students.

10. Rollins possesses a large number of alumni residing in all parts of the world whose challenging achievements reflect credit on and give prestige to this Florida college.

To fall and rise again is more heroic than by greater strength never to fall; to do wrong and make amends, to sin and to repent belongs to a nobler nature.

CHANGES IN FOOTBALL RULES FOR 1925

With the inauguration of the 1925 football season last Saturday, more than usual interest attaches to the changes in the rules made by the Intercollegiate Rules Committee. The changes, which are few in number, are intended for the improvement of the game.

One of the changes, the working out of which will be observed with interest, is that relating to the kicking off, where no tee is permitted and the ball is kicked off from the kicker's 40-yard line. Another important change is that relating to blocked kicks, which provides that if the ball does not cross the scrimmage line it shall belong to the side recovering the ball. If the kicking side recovers, it shall count as another down.

A partially blocked kick which crosses the line of scrimmage will rank just as if the ball had not been touched. Besides there is a new interpretation of the scrimmage line which provides that instead of an imaginary line on the ground, there shall be a vertical line which shall be constructed as the line of scrimmage.

There has been a change made also in the penalty of offside play. This offense still carries with it a loss of five yards, but the point to be gained for first down remains the same unless the distance penalty places the ball in advance of that point. The winner of the toss has been given another option, namely, the choice of receiving the kick-off in addition to the choice of goal or of making the kick-off. The loser of the toss is also given a choice of options. The penalty for "clipping" has been made the loss of 25 yards from the spot of the foul.

There are the chief alterations in the rules for the 1925 season, although a number of other changes have been made, notably one permitting the doctor to come upon the field of play without permission.

Why does a sculptor die horribly?
Because he makes faces and busts.

"That's no fare," said the conductor, as I dropped in a slug.—Pelican.

Stage hand (to manager): "Shall I lower the curtain, sir? One of the livin' statues has the hiccups."

A new club has appeared on our campus. The Liberty Bell Club. The members are all cracked.

COLLEGIATE WIDOWS
Collegiate! Collegiate!
Yes, we're College Widows!
Each year, one year younger.
Yes, Sir!
Bobbed hair shaggy,
And we're never naggy,
So our dates are steady.
Yea!
Corsets are the things we never wear,
And we haven't any use for
Ice-cold Papas!
Very, very seldom do we tarry;
Never ever marry,
College Widows, Rah! Rah! Rah!

Kappa Alpha,
Delta, Chi Phi, Beta,
Alpha Tau Omega,
Sig Alph!
Necking, Petting,
Where we lead they follow,
And we never holler
Loud!
Kappa Sigma, and Pi Kappa Pi,
That's the Greek for all the frat pins
We have sported!
Short skirts, bare knees, dorin, and
fur choker;
Ready for our "Smoker!"
College Widows, Rah! Rah! Rah!

"Are they very strict at Cornell?"
"Huh. Are they! Why, when a man dies in a lecture there, they prop him up in his seat until the end of the hour."
—Widow.

He: "This steak reminds me of a co-ed."
She: "Why?"
He: "Darned good looking but inclined to be a bit tough."

"Hello, you a frosh?"
"No, this is my fifth year."
"What's the matter, taking your Master's?"
"No, taking my time. —Voo Doo.

"What kind of noise annoys an oyster?"
"Why, a noisy noise annoys an oyster, of course!"
—W. Va. Moonshine.

"Who killed cock robin?"
"I did," admitted the professor.
"He perched on the window sill listening to my lecture and fell asleep and dropped to the sidewalk. I could not help it."
—Cornell Widow.

"It's not proper but it sometimes shows good form."
—Humbug.

Well?
"Hello, sweetness, will you dance with me?"
"Sir, I'm the Dean of Women."
—Oregon Orange Owl.

Belle: "Do you college boys waste much time?"

Hop: "Oh, no, most girls are reasonable."
—Belle Hop.

"I've come to fix that old tub in the kitchen."
