BABY TARS LOSE FIRST GAME THIS YEAR WHEN THEY ARE DEFEATED BY SOUTHERN FRESHMEN BY SCORE 33-0

Sweeping Off-Tackle Plays Smash Defense of Rollins Freshmen and Bring Victory To Southern.

Rollins experienced a surprising shock last Tuesday, Nov. 3, when word reached the college from Lakeland that the Baby Tars had suffered their first defeat of the year at the hands of the Southern College freshmen.

Our freshmen never seemed to play the brand of football they usually exhibit until the last five minutes of the game. Time and again the Southern aggregation crashed off tackle from punt formation with plays which netted anywhere from five to ten yards. Perfect interference punished our tackles severely. If defeat could be attributed to any alibi, it might be that of over-confidence. Never having lost a game, the Baby Tars seemed to be more or less confident in their ability to trample any opponent which they might meet.

However, that one defeat has awakened in the freshmen team a determination to win its next game with the Florida freshmen. We make no predictions, but we feel sorry for the men who next come up against Captain "Hub" White and his Baby Tars.

The team was accompanied to Lakeland by three sponsors: Misses Margaret White, Catherine Hicks, and "Billy" Jones.

IRVING FISHER FAVORS WORLD COURT ENTRANCE

This is the first of a series of six articles which will be published in the Sandspur dealing with all phases of the World Court question. These articles are syndicated and come from men who are foremost in American thought and influence.

AMERICA'S ENTRANCE IN THE WORLD COURT A NECESSITY

(Courtesy of the Yale Daily News)
The political disputes over the World Court and the League of Nations have so confused the issue by discussion of details that the fundamental reasons why America should join have been too often overlooked.

Let us, then, go back to first principles. I believe that anyone who would forget the bitter political discussions and would devote an hour's honest thought to the subject would see that if America is to do anything to co-operate with other nations for world peace the least we can do is to

ATTENTION!

DO YOU KNOW that December 17th marks the opening of the debate in the Senate on America's entrance into the World Court?
DO YOU KNOW that the decision of that debate will be one of the most important actions in international affairs taken by the United States in the last five years?
DO YOU KNOW that, if we join, it will mean the first step toward a new assumption of international responsibility?
DO YOU KNOW that the final vote in the Senate is still uncertain?
DO YOU KNOW what student opinion on the World Court question could accomplish if it were effective?

DELPHIC DEBATING CLUB REORGANIZES FOR YEAR

Under the stimulus of Dean Sprague, interest in debating is reviving to such an extent that a committee has been formed for the express purpose of forming a club under the heading of the Delphic Debating Club of Rollins College.

Dean Sprague has always been a strong advocate of debating, but as many people thought Floridian climate was not conducive to it, Rollins has never attempted it to any great degree, although when attempted, it has met with a fair amount of success. Last year the inter-class debates were largely attended. They brought forth spirited support from all classes.

This year it has been planned to form a regular club under the name mentioned above, to hold regular meetings at a specified time at which topics of current interest will be discussed and debated upon by the members. This will tend to stimulate interest and promote competition on the part of the various contenders. Under the able direction of a suitable coach a perfect representative team should be chosen to represent Rollins in any collegiate contests which may be arranged.

All members of the Rollins student body are eligible for membership in this club and need only to present their name to Stanley Warner or Gene Buzzell in order to become affiliated with it.

There are very few things in this world of ours which tend to develop keener minds or greater clarity of speech than debating. With these thoughts in mind the college is considering the plan of giving either credits or some sort of suitable reward for any merited effort in that direction.

It may also be mentioned that debating is one of the requirements for membership in the honorary fraternity of Alpha Phi Epsilon, a chapter of which is extant at Rollins. This is an honorary national fraternity and one to which any student would be proud to belong to.

It is up to the student body as a whole to back this club and see it through. An agreement has been made with Southern College to de-

COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES ARE HOLDING CONFERENCES TO DISCUSS U. S. ENTRANCE INTO WORLD COURT

On December 17th the United States Senate will enter into a debate on America's entrance into the World Court. The decision of the debate will be one of the most important actions in international affairs taken by the United States in the last five years.

Thruout the United States, colleges and universities are manifesting a strong interest in the outcome of this debate which will undoubtedly effect the great issues of the world. If America enters the World Court, she rids herself of her former cloak of "isolation" and enters into the Permanent Court of International Justice—the first actual court set up by the nations of the world in an attempt to substitute law for war as the method for settling international disputes.

Consequently, this debate in the senate should be of vital interest to all students.

Soon, we will take up the responsibilities of citizenship. Most of the universities in the country realize this fact and are conducting conferences to consider the advisability of America's entrance into the World Court.

In twelve conferences held in various parts of the country over the last two week-ends, students from every type of college and university studied the World Court. Plans for campus investigation on the subject were set up and the work is already under way in a number of schools. Approximately 450 of the keenest students minds decided that the educational campaign which is being sponsored by the Council of Christian Associations during the fall months is a worthy enterprise and

COLLEGES WILL DEBATE WORLD COURT ENTRANCE

Interest is being displayed thruout the country, especially in many of the larger colleges and universities, as to the outcome of the debate in the Senate concerning America's entrance into the World Court.

At present, the United States of America is the most powerful nation in the world not included in the World Court. Our country is still practicing its former policy of "splendid isolation". It might be of interest to students to know that arrangements are being made for the Sandspur to publish a series of six articles on every phase of the World Court question by men of nationally known ability and eminence. Both sides and all angles of the subject will be treated. Those from whom articles are assured are:

President Hamilton Holt, Professor Irving Fisher, Professor Manley Hudson, Professor Herbert Adams Gibbons, and former Governor William E. Sweet. These articles will deal chiefly with the four proposals for participation in the Court now before the Senate:

The Proposals.

1. For U. S. participation in the World Court under the "Harding-Hughes-Coolidge Terms." (The U. S. not to be connected with the League of Nations or bound to any obligations under the League Covenant; not to be bound by advisory opinions of the Court on questions not voluntarily submitted by the U. S.)*
2. For U. S. participation under the "Harmony Plan" of thirty peace leaders. (The U. S. to join the Court under the "Harding-Hughes-Coolidge Terms" but to withdraw after five years unless a code of international law has been adopted outlawing war and the Court given jurisdiction.)
3. For U. S. participation under the "Borah Terms". (The U. S. not to join the World Court until international law has been codified outlawing war, and the Court given jurisdiction; the U. S. not to be thereby connected with the League of Nations.)
4. Against U. S. participation in the World Court.

VARSITY IN GOOD SHAPE FOR CLASH WITH ENEMY

Wednesday, November 11, Rollins will meet Southern College of Lakeland in what promises to be one of the bitterest battles of this gridiron season on Florida soil. The Armistice Day game will be played at the Fairgrounds in Orlando.

Rollins will enter the Southern game with every man back in the lineup who was injured at the first of the year except Couch. The Tar line will present a formidable array of men who are determined to wipe out their defeat of last year with gore and blood. From the way the freshmen have been vainly bucking the varsity line for several days, it seems exceedingly probable that the Tar line will present a stone wall to Southern's backs next Wednesday in Orlando.

CARELESSNESS

Neatness is the virtue of a man.

If anything tends to destroy the air of neatness associated with most college campuses, it is the careless throwing of refuse upon the grounds.

Waste paper baskets were invented to hold waste paper; since early childhood, we have been taught to regard trash cans as receptacles for refuse. Yet, there saunter daily across the campus a few men and women who ostensibly regard waste paper baskets as useful as a bathing suit in Alaska, and trash cans as unsanitary arterial decorations. They cast their trash to the four winds, and strew the campus with unsightly bits of torn letters. Whether they are love letters or business letters makes little difference—each glaring fragment constitutes a distinct insult to our sense of pride and neatness. This habit of promiscuous casting on the part of these few students must be circumvented.

Citadel college in South Carolina traditionally prohibits the throwing of trash upon the campus grounds. Citadel has, perhaps, one of the most well-ordered campuses in the country. One may stand on any part of the campus and look out across that broad expanse of green, and discover never a bit of stray paper or mislaid trash.

Other colleges and universities in the country take pride in the appearance of their campuses.

Rollins must take pride in hers.

The appearance of a campus has much to do with selling a college to the people of a community. It has most to do with creating a favorable impression upon visitors.

Neatness is a virtue, and human beings possess so few virtues that it might pay to cultivate one.

ELBERT HUBBARD

By Dr. Frank Crane

One of the greatest losses to the world in the late carnival of destruction was the murder of Elbert Hubbard. He was a distinctive American product. Few men have impressed their personality as he has done upon the general public.

He represented what Americans most admire: the force of personality unaided by organization. He belonged to no sect, cult, movement, or institution. There was no push of dead men's hands nor dead men's money behind him. What he did was by his unendowed, naked soul.

He was a modern heretic, and heretics are what live nations need. Men are constantly endowing institutions to perpetuate Orthodoxy; but it is the heretic that is eternally in demand.

Although a heretic he was human. The trouble with most heretics is that they become as inhuman as the institutions they oppose.

He wrote on a level with the great public. His style was a marvel of simplicity and brightness.

Few of us agree with him. That is why he did us all good. He made us think. A writer you always agree with is about as much use as a pipe of tobacco.

He did a deal of good by the courage and cheer of his writings. He was an energetic optimist. Thousands loved him and were helped by him.

Was Hubbard a great man? Let us see. There's one way of testing it, perhaps the best way. It is this: Who could take his place? There isn't a college president's place, nor a United States senator's place, nor a governor's place that could not be filled tomorrow if its occupant were removed. There are ten men waiting for almost every man's job in this country and most any of them could fill it, at least fairly well.

But does anybody know of a man in all the world that can occupy the vacant chair in East Aurora?

Therefore, I say Elbert Hubbard was the man America could least spare.

join the Court. There is much more we can do, but we can scarcely do anything less and participate at all in the world-wide effort to prevent war.

That ancient institution which we call a Court is really the supreme and basic invention of all civilization. It is the only device which has been found to work to prevent war when quarrels became acute. Without it, civilization itself would soon disappear; in fact, it could never have existed. It is the Court which everywhere has kept peace and this has been true in ever-widening circles. Even our humblest Court is that of the "Justice of the Peace".

When people talk loosely, as they so often do, about its being impossible to abolish war, they are flying in the face of history. They overlook the fact that we have already, in spots, abolished war. We have abolished war, in fact, wherever we have applied the proper remedy, that is, wherever we have instituted a strong court. We have abolished war between individuals, families, cities, states, and now are abolishing it between nations.

Before the institution of the Court was devised even individuals settled their disputes as Cain and Abel settled their's. When a dispute becomes acute and cannot be settled diplomatically, there remain just two ways of settling it. One is to fight it out, in which case the stronger man wins irrespective of the justice of his case. The other is to referee it, that is to put it into the hands of a disinterested third party who is not

ROLLINS LITTLE THEATRE WORKSHOP

The Little Theatre Workshop of Rollins College, under the direction of Mrs. Orpha Pope Grey, will open its season Friday, November the twentieth at half past eight o'clock. Four One Act plays will be presented at that time in All Saint's Parish House on Lyman Avenue. The admission will be fifty cents.

"The Rose", a romantic play by Mary McMillan, will be acted by Dorothy Grey, Philip Reece and Homer Parker with Wilhelmina Freeman as producer. Marian Mulligan, Eleanor Pressey and Munroe Arroyo will present Stuart Walker's "Nevertheless" with Dorothy Grey as producer. Next on the program will be A. A. Milne's amusing comedy "Wurzel Flummery" produced by Katherine Humphries with the following people in the cast, Mary Hall, Dudley Calhoun, Foster Walker, Gladys Wilkinson and Doc Kruel. For the final number, Kathleen Sherman will present "The Bear" a farce by Anton Tcherkoff with Violet Sutherland, Jack Evans and Frank Abbot. All the plays will be directed by Miss Dorothea Thomas, but all staging, lighting and costuming has been done by the "producers" of the plays who are students in the new course in Play Production which is being offered by the department of Expression for the first time this year. The actors are all students in Rollins College who are inaugurating the Little Theatre Movement in Winter Park through their Workshop. The Directors mean to have the Workshop act as a nucleus for a community Little Theatre in which every person in Winter Park may have a share.

PERSONALS

For latest styles in sweaters, see Coach Tallman.

Wonder why Kitty Young, Max and Beryl like to go to Sanford.

Charlie Zehler is some sheik these days, and is being violently discussed in Cloverleaf.

Pinky Zoller told the history class that he craved sleep. Actions speak louder than words.

Canoeing parties are all in style. Mabel, Charlie, Ray and Lois proved this Sunday.

The Phantom created more than a sensation on the campus.

Alby Merrill sez—Education here is like money, comes easy.

The steak roast Thursday night was rather silent towards the end.

Doc Kruel has accepted the honorable position as chief firemaker.

Bobbie Floyd evidently does not like to have her picture taken, judging from the trouble Blinker had Sunday.

Leila returned from Miami and reported a wonderful time. Every one missed her.

Anne Hathaway went home for the week-end.

Louise Mathis paid her esteemed home town a week-end visit.

The campus welcomes Helen Reed's mother as a new-comer.

Did you see George Sunday?

We are expecting plenty of stags for the co-ed ball. Prepare for a grand rush, girls.

All day and not a thing to do—Mary Lou.

Louise Holland and Annabeth Wilson had a spread in Annabeth's room Saturday.

Ask Annabeth and Evelyn G. why they were so tired Friday. Ike and Sap are very good sports.

Where have you heard this before—Freddie!

Speaking of pets, Eva Thompson has a new one—Chester.

We saw Althea returning at 8 A. M. Monday with a grip, escorted by Philip Reece.

The campus was thickly populated Sunday night.

Gladys Wilkinson visited New Smyrna, returning with plenty of eats, to the joy of her room-mate.

Wonder why Soup was so sleepy looking Monday. Helen Wilson home for the week-end and did not return until one A. M.

Seats are in great need on the campus grounds.

Zip gave several girls the pleasure of his company the past week-end. We wonder?

Sunday breakfast was quite mixed up, but all were on time. Ask the cook—maybe Blinker.

Dates are hard to get in Cloverleaf—Wonder why so many boys?

The guitar serenade Sunday night was enjoyed by all.

Trixie craves a clue to her lost umbrella.

The movies were quite popular last week.

Rain is not wanted on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights until after light flash.

Everyone is eagerly anticipating Thanksgiving—no classes—football game—and home coming day. Rah! Rah!

Since the Gainesville trip, the mail has been swamped by the Gainesville post-mark. Evidently the Rollins girls made quite a hit.

Hildegard Robinson of Haines City, Virginia Nagel of Melbourne and Marcia of Frostproof were Phi Omega guests over the week-end.

Ruth Amy Sebring returned home Thursday after spending several days at Cloverleaf.

A new club has come into existence at Cloverleaf—we fear it is going to offer "strong" competition, even tho it is very exclusive.

First meeting of the club was held Monday evening, November 9th. Charter members are, Frances Vallette, Florence McKay, Estelle Pipkorn, Gladys Miller and Beata Meyer.

After the meeting adjourned a social hour was enjoyed during which a dainty repast of onion sandwiches and grapefruit was served.

It is hoped the club may continue to exist in spite of the violent opposition at present. "In onions there is strength."

Dog Gone! "Cowcow pelock." (That's Eskimo for food all gone). Full stomachs! Hot Coffee! Fun! A fire on a sandy beach! An alligator skull! Voices raised in song! It isn't hard to imagine the rest of the picture. The participants of this affair which occurred last Sunday evening were the K. E. girls protected by a Man.

PHI OMEGA NEWS

Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock twenty-one girls left in canoes for the family tree. After landing the girls started a big fire. This was supervised by Mary Fisher and Irene Pipkorn. Much credit is due, however, to Ruth Ward, Edith Draa and Clara Adolfe for bringing "dry wood" to the rescue. Good eats of weenies, rolls, pickles, bananas and coffee were enjoyed. Ask Anne and Evelyn what became of the bananas!! Marshmallows were tasted and later songs were sung around the camp-fire. Those present were: Anne Hathaway, Evelyn Green, Gladys Miller, Frances Vallette, Louise Brown, Mary Hall, Mary Fisher, Ione Pope, Mary Shepherd, Irene Pipkorn, Estelle Pipkorn, Thelma Spurling, Nancy Brown, Gertrude Ward, Pearle Millar, Ruth Ward, Clara Adolfe, Lucille Pipkorn, Mrs. Payne Sebring, Florence McKay and Edith Draa.

On the afternoons of November 2 and 3, Misses Freda Kuebler and Edith Draa entertained several of the Phi Omega Rushees at a movie and dinner. The Phantom of the Opera cast a ghastly spell over most of the girls. Edith almost lost her life when Mary Shepherd became excited over the removing of the mask. Frequent shrieks were heard—then a scramble for seats.

Still shuddering from the effects of the fantastic opera the girls were taken to The Ruthanna Weavers Tea Room where they enjoyed a four course dinner. Those enjoying the afternoon were: Misses Beota Meyer, Stella Weston, Gladys Miller, Mary Shepherd, Mary Hall, Mary Fisher, Ione Pope, Irene and Estelle Pipkorn, Barbara Floyd, Helen Grace Reed, Edwina Peterson, Louise Brown, Virginia Richardson, Lucille Pipkorn, Mrs. Payne Sebring and Mrs. Tommy Quinn.

Miss Peschman, Sorority Mother of Phi Omega, entertained a few of the girls at the Phi Alpha House Thursday afternoon. Sherbert, cake, almonds and candy were served. Those enjoying the afternoon were: Evelyn Green, Anne Hathaway, Gertrude Ward, Pearl Millar, Lucille Pipkorn and Florence McKay.

Everyone's sweet tooth was satisfied last Friday evening when several rushees enjoyed a fudge party at the home of Lucille Waters in Orlando. A new species of fudge, nicknamed "African Fudge" was especially delicious, Frances and Tiny can make the best fudge ever. If you doubt it ask anyone who was there. Those present were: Frances Vallette, Gladys Miller, Mary Hall, Mary Fisher, Ione Pope, Louise Brown, Tiny Peterson, Edith Draa, and Miss Niles.

On Wednesday afternoon Stella Weston, Estelle Pipkorn, Helen Grace Reed, Nancy Brown and Barbara Floyd accompanied by Ruth Amy Sebring and Lucille Waters called at the Phi Alpha House to meet Miss Peschman, Phi Omega Sorority Mother.

An informal bridge tea was given Thursday afternoon at Mrs. Tommy Quinn's. The party proved to be a very interesting one probably because of the candy plates being frequently replenished. The star and non-star players were respectively—Miss Estelle Pipkorn and Gladys Miller. Others there were: Misses Stella Weston, Beota Meyer, Nancy Brown, Barbara Floyd, Virginia Richardson, Lucille Waters and Freda Kuebler.

Colleges And Universities Are Holding Conferences To Discuss U. S. Entrance Into World Court

that they will give their fullest cooperation.

The special World Court conferences of the past week-end included two in Nebraska, one in Oklahoma City, one in Galesburg, Ill., and one in Sioux Falls, S. D. An average of fifty students attended each of these regional and state gatherings and considered the World Court. During the latter part of October and the first half of November, between thirty-five and fifty similar conferences are planned in line with the accelerated interest in international affairs focusing on the opening of the Senate on December 17th.

During the first two weeks of December, a national poll will be conducted by the New Student and the Council of Christian Associations' World Court Committee which will be the culmination of weeks of study and discussion. In the poll, students will express their approval or disapproval of the entrance of the United States into the Court.

This intensive series of meetings has grown out of the resolutions passed at the recent annual meeting of the Council of Christian Associations in which the student leaders from campuses from all quarters of the country expressed the belief that the United States should enter the World Court at the earliest possible date. This conviction resulted from a study of the situation as it exists and was followed by a plan whereby students all over the country may have a chance to educate themselves on the issue and to mobilize whatever thought may result from the study done on local campuses and in conferences.

The conviction that students should take a continuous interest in things international and that they should exert a vital force in shaping of policies led to the purpose that the intensive educational campaign should be only the first step toward the continuous influence of an intelligent and active student opinion on all matters of international concern.

Raymond Fosdick, Ivy L. Lee, Irving Fisher, Manley Hudson, and Ex-Governor Sweet of Colorado are among those interested in the stand the student movement has taken on the World Court issue, and are lecturing and supplying expert help in the regional and state conferences. The full-time speakers for the campaign include Kirby Page, Mrs. Laura Puffer Morgan, Chairman of the Women's National World Court Committee, Alden Alley, Frederick Snyder, J. Nevin Sayre and George Collins.

Those who have observed the interest springing up immediately among students wherever World Court has been mentioned attribute it to the fact that this is the first great national issue that has presented itself since the presidential election and that it carries a more vital interest since the presidential election was a more or less foregone conclusion. Student interest is increased by the fact that the outcome of the Senate debate may result in definite and far-reaching action on the part of the United States government toward the assumption of greater international responsibility.

so excited or prejudiced and who is more likely to make a just decision. That is the fundamental idea of a Court.

This is a very simple invention and a very old one and the fact that it has become so universal demonstrates that at heart man loves peace rather than war, that he prefers to let a judge decide rather than to resort to fighting.

The first Court was the patriarch, who kept the peace within the family. The family was the first "peace group". But to keep peace within the family was not enough. As population grew and families crowded each other it was necessary to keep peace between the families in order that clusters of families might live together in a community or village. The justice of peace, or his equivalent in ancient civilization, was the second step in the institution of Courts.

But it was not enough to keep the peace within a village. Inter-village war was still possible, and in primitive regions, such as the Philippines before the United States entered, there was no peaceful method of settling disputes between villages. The next step was to cluster the villages into a state, as Massachusetts grew from its town meetings, and to institute State Courts to keep the peace between communities. The next step was to cluster the States together into a Nation and to settle the disputes between the States by a Supreme Court. Our Supreme Court has settled eighty-seven such disputes between our States, and without the Supreme Court our States would certainly more than once have been in war. Now the hour has struck for enlarging the peace group one stage further to involve the whole earth by setting up a Court between the Nations and clustering the Nations into a League.

We might almost describe the progress of civilization as consisting in this gradual enlargement of the peace group from the family to the community, to the State, to the Nation, to the World. Only the last step has not yet been fully taken and cannot be, until the United States co-operates. When the step is fully taken, when the whole world is organized for peace, when the World Court is as authoritative as our Supreme Court, we shall have abolished war as an institution wholly and forever. Each previous step of enlarging the peace group has left something outside and, therefore, was incomplete. Occasional war was inevitable. But when the peace group involves the whole earth there is nothing left outside and the only war possible is civil war, which by the nature of the case seldom happens and is outlawed.

Now at last we have a World

Court with forty-seven adherents and lacking only the United States to give it full prestige. Let us not talk about creating some substitute Court and let us not pretend that the so-called "Old Hague-Tribunal" is a Court. It is only a list of names on paper! There never was any other World Court than the Court of International Justice at The Hague, and the other nations of the world would never even consider disbanding that Court to please those few United States Senators who talk so absurdly of creating something of their own.

The situation, then, is that a World Court is a fundamental necessity and that there is only one World Court available. Moreover, unless or until America joins the League of Nations, there is no practical way in sight for our joining the World Court except that which was worked out by Secretary Hughes and approved by Presidents Harding and Coolidge as well as supported by the party platforms of both political parties. There is no excuse, therefore, for making a political issue out of the Court, and any man who, like Senator Borah, talks about repudiating the party pledge and refusing to support President Coolidge is simply an obstructionist and nothing more. It is utterly impossible for them constructively to give us what we fundamentally need in any other way, but it is possible for Borah and others in the strategic position in the Senate to obstruct and thwart this most fundamental project. There is genuine danger that they will do so unless the practically unanimous approval of the United States becomes sufficiently vocal. I believe the students of our universities, many of whom are already voters and the rest of whom will soon become so, can assert a tremendous influence with the Senate especially by writing personal letters to their own Senators and in other ways bringing to public attention their support of the World Court proposition.

The matter is slated to come before the Senate on December 17, and in order that individual's influence shall be brought to bear in favor of the Court, it is desirable that the effort should be made in the immediate future.

The record of the Court thus far is good. It already has more authority than our Supreme Court acquired in the same space of time. It is not necessary to argue the question of the League of Nations, to discuss its various efforts to stop wars including its most recent one to stop the war between Peace and Bulgaria. Nor is it necessary to discuss the Locarno treaties. These are not the questions before the Senate in December, but the Hughes plan. Under that plan we can join the Court without committing ourselves to anything further and after we have done so we shall be in a better position to judge how much further, if at all, we wish to go.

The great necessity to-day is to back up the President in the greatest step forward toward peace America has yet taken.

On Tuesday afternoon Florence McKay and Lucille Pipkorn accompanied by Mary Hall, Mary Fisher, Ione Pope, Edwina Peterson, and Irene Pipkorn called on Mrs. Tommy Quinn. After several games of bridge were played and music was enjoyed delicious refreshments were served.

A most delightful afternoon was spent Wednesday, November 4, when Mrs. Callahan and Miss Schenk took five girls to call on Miss Charlotte Wettstein. A long chat, followed by piano selections from Miss Wettstein and then dainty refreshments of hot chocolate and sandwiches were enjoyed by everyone present.

The Phi Omega room in Pinehurst was the scene of a spread given for all the rushees on Thursday night. After the refreshments of fruit salad, pickles, olives and rolls were eaten, Charlotte Wettstein began the games. Every one had a hard time trying to cross and uncross the scissors correctly. Miss Schenk, who didn't know how to "crow like an oyster" was unable to take part in the barnyard medley. Florence showed her hypnotic ability and Miss Niles solved the "boots without shoes" puzzle. The party continued until 10 o'clock.

Miss Niles was hostess at a dinner party given at the Ruthanna Weavers tea room, in Orlando last Wednesday evening. Wee turkey gobbler place cards heralded the approach of Thanksgiving and a delightful hour was enjoyed by all. The guests were: Miss Schenk, Louise Brown, Anne Hathaway, Evelyn Green and Florence McKay.

Phi Omega entertained in honor of their rushees with a dinner dance at the Orange and Black Hotel Saturday evening. Cars left Cloverleaf at 7 o'clock and the merry crowd gathered around the table at exactly eight. A delicious dinner was served and was enjoyed by everyone. It is rumored that one of the guests had two dishes of cream. However the exact truth has not yet been discovered concerning this matter.

The hotel was elaborately decorated with ferns and zinnias which made it a most attractive place. Dancing stopped at midnight and the party came to a close, everyone declaring a most delightful time.

Heavy workouts, chiefly, long scrimmages, seem to be the order of the few remaining days before the Southern game. Great interest among the citizens of Winter Park centers around the daily workouts, and it is believed that the Rollins-Southern game will witness one of the largest turnouts in the grandstands that Orlando will see for some time. If not the largest, then at least one of the most enthusiastic.

WHY YOU NEED THIS GUIDE

"It is safe to say that failure to guide and direct study is the weak point in the whole educational machine." Prof. G. M. Whipple, U. of Michigan.
"The successful men in college do not seem to be very happy. Most of them, especially the athletes, are overworked." Prof. H. S. Canby, Yale.
"Misdirected labor, though honest and well intentioned may lead to naught. Among the most important things for the student to learn is how to study. Without knowledge of this his labor may be largely in vain." Prof. G. F. Swain, M. I. T.
"To students who have never learnt 'How to Study,' work is very often a chastisement, a flagellation, and an insuperable obstacle to contentment." Prof. A. Inglis, Harvard.
"HOW TO STUDY" will show you how to avoid all misdirected effort.
Get a good start and make this year a highly successful one by sending for this hand-book and guide NOW.

The Phantom of the Opera proved an exciting success in the minds of several Phi Omega guests, Monday afternoon. (At least judging from the wild nightmares later.)

After the movie the girls enjoyed a delightful dinner at Ruthanna Weaver's Tea Room. Those attending were the Misses Beota Meyer, Stella Weston, Edwina Peterson, Helen Grace Reed, Barbara Floyd, Lucille Waters and Freda Kuebler.
