DR. THOMAS P. BAILEY TALKS TO STUDENTS IN ASSEMBLY THURSDAY STRESSING THREE MAIN SLOGANS

Students of Rollins and people of Winter Park have been fortunate enough during the last week to hear Dr. Thomas P. Bailey, of the University of the South, Suwanee, lecture on questions dealing with psychological problems. Last Thursday morning, Dr. Baker spoke in assembly before the faculty and student body. Friday he talked to a group of girls in Cloverleaf at 1:00 o'clock, and at 2:30 he addressed the men in Knowles. He spoke on vital subjects that every young man and woman should know.

In his talk Thursday morning, Dr. Bailey stressed three slogans: facts fairly, think things thru, and prayer, purpose, pursuing. The first is the emotional, the second the intellectual, the third the voluntary.

Under the head of his first slogan, which he called the "Three F's" he stressed the fact that love may produce pleasure, but pleasure may not necessarily produce love. He denounced the modern practice of so-called petting, a source of entertainment paramount among the younger generation today and founded, not upon true love, but upon sensuality.

"Love-making between a young man and a young woman who do not love each other breaks down the nervous system and eventually ends in dire results," said Dr. Bailey. "On the other hand, I pity the engaged couples who do not engage in love-making—God pity them. Love-making produced by true love can never be harmful, and every engaged couple should pass thru a period of caressing and love-making before they are married."

Dr. Bailey urged the young people to refrain from the common practice of "petting," or, to use the collegiate term, "necking." He gave striking examples of lunacy resulting in later life from the arousing of passions in this way without love or consummation, and pleaded with the young people to look on the sensible side of things.

"Overwork also produces this same neurotic condition," went on Dr. Bailey. "When you come right down to facts, however, overwork is simply overworry about your own ego, fear

ORANGE TYPHOON BEGINS SPRING FOOTBALL WORK

Under the tutelage of assistant coach Williams, the "Orange Typhoon" of Rollins began its spring training this week. Coach Williams is acting under instructions given him by head Coach Talman, who, at present, is away with the Baby Tars basketball quintet leading them thru the southern states on a tour of triumph.

Among this year's letter men who are expected to return next year are Captain Zehler, LaFroos, Abbott Hilliard, Winderweedle, Seeds, Wilson,

HAMILTON HOLT SPEAKS TO WINTER GARDENERS

Winter Garden, Fla., Feb. 27.—Tuesday evening Dr. Hamilton Holt was the principal speaker at the meeting of the Winter Garden Chamber of Commerce. Dr. Holt discussed in detail some of his plans and aspirations for the future of Rollins College. His address was attentively heard by a fair sized crowd who gathered for that especial purpose. Discussing colleges and the work of colleges in general, the speaker made it plain that he was interested in transforming and building Rollins College into an institution that would mark a tremendous advance in the educational work of this country.

The meeting was called to order by President B. H. Roper who announced that anything in the way of business would be dispensed with in order to give the speakers sufficient time to present their addresses. The secretary of the Chamber of Commerce presented a short report on the work of the Chamber and this was followed by a representative of the Orlando Chamber of Commerce who presented the matter of the Floral-Musical Festival which is to be held in Orlando on the 9th and 10th of March.

Following these minor business matters the secretary introduced Dr. Woodly of Mohawk, who in turn introduced Dr. Slosson of Washington, one of the foremost men in the field of chemical research in this country.

Dr. Slosson spoke for about fifteen minutes giving his hearers something of his intimate personal knowledge of Dr. Holt and telling many interesting stories of his work with Dr. Holt on The Independent. Following Dr. Slosson Dr. Holt presented his plans for Rollins College in a way that captivated his audience.

EIGHT MEN LEAVE HERE TO DEFEND TAR TITLE

Wednesday, February 24, eight men left Rollins with Coach Talman for Asheville, Chattanooga, and all points between that offered competition in the way of basketball. These men were: Lynn Williams, Ernest Zoller, Ray Goodell, Krischbaum, Walter Michel, Wendell Moore, Reeves, and Crawford.

Word has not been received yet concerning the results of matches played so far, but it is expected to come at any time. The Baby Tars are the champions of Florida. They are out now advertising Florida—and Rollins.

WDBO SIGNS CONTRACT WITH GILSON WILLETS

William Justice Lee and Charles Maxwell Green, owners of Winter Park's broadcasting station WDBO, have signed a contract with Gilson VanderVeer Willets, as the new manager and chief engineer of the Rollins College station. Mr. Willets, who is known nationally as "Radio Rex," has been known in broadcasting circles for years. After years of travel aboard trans-Atlantic steamships as radio operator he drifted into broadcasting in 1920 where he started in St. Louis assisting in the erection of several pioneer stations. He first became known as the announcer and director of WOS at Jefferson City, where his voice was well known to fans for a year. He next was heard from WOC in Davenport, where he announced for two years and founded the largest single unit Woman's organization in the country "The Happy Homes Circle," which was organized entirely over the air. His next move was to go to New York City where he built and managed WRNY, the Hotel Roosevelt station for a year. Mr. Willets has not announced his policy at WDBO as yet but next week in this column we expect an outline of the station's activities which promise well from what we have heard.

WDBO promises plenty of remote broadcasting in the near future. By remote we mean programs picked up at other points than the station studio. WDBO is building some new equipment to handle this in a more efficient manner than heretofore.

Since "Rex," took hold of WDBO last Monday we have noticed a decided improvement in the quality of the transmission from WDBO.

Frank Haithcox who conducts the Sanlando programs from WDBO, has announced that he will add two very accomplished Hawaiian steel guitar players to his harmonizers. We look forward to this with pleasure.

ROLLINS WINS MATCH AGAINST TOWN COMBINE

Rollins tennis team journeyed to Apopka Sunday and defeated the Apopka town team in a doubles tournament.

Winderweedle and Hillard started off the match by playing Barnesley and Hall, and defeating them 6-4, 6-3 in straight sets. The Rollins combination proved too strong and too crafty for the Apopka combine.

In the second match, however, Barnesley and Hall came back with a crash and defeated Tilden and More in a heartbreaking set 15-13.

FINAL PLANS ARE MADE FOR ROLLINS FILM

President Holt's Ideal of a Perfect Small College to Be Shown in 1,500-Foot Reel

Preparations and final plans for the filming of "Rollins' Ambition," a 1,500-foot reel to be used in revealing to the people of Florida Hamilton Holt's ideal of a "perfect small college," are rapidly being formed.

The filming will be done by the Flora-Wood Pictures, Inc. The work will start immediately and it is expected that the film, which will be shown in every city in Florida, will be ready in about four or five weeks.

The film will show Hamilton Holt, president of the college, at his desk. He goes into a "day dream," and dreams of his perfect small college. The film will show what he dreams. It will show the college "swell head," the real college student, the college president, the instructors, and the buildings.

Elizabeth Stewart, who has done filming for "Doug and Mary," Charlie Chaplin and Thomas Meighan, is expected to arrive in Orlando today to start work. She will do the titling of the film.

The committee that worked out the film idea as a means of conveying to the people of Florida Hamilton Holt's ideas of a perfect small college, consists of the following: Carl Hunt, chairman, Larry Lynch, Dr. Clarence Vincent, William Justice Lee, A. J. Hanna, W. A. Short, John Masek, S. E. Ives, III, Rev. J. Blanton Belk and C. A. Abbott.

The part of the president of the college will be taken by Hamilton Holt himself. The part of a mother will be taken by Mabel Heatherington, star for Universal, Fox and other film corporations. The leading college man an aristocratic snob with

EMINENT LIBRARIAN IS SPEAKER TO STUDENTS

Dr. Melville Dewey, one of the world's leading authorities on libraries, and an advocate of simplified spelling, spoke to the students Monday in chapel. He told of the actual marvelousness of writing, of the wonder of being able to read, to understand the thoughts of men by an accepted standard of marks placed on paper.

He believes sincerely in phonetic spelling. Dr. Dewey went on to tell of the English language and its foolish spelling. For instance, the words, cough, though, hiccough, rough are spelled with the "gh," yet each word is pronounced differently it is this fact that confuses students of the English language. While English is one of the easiest languages in the world to learn, its spelling is so confusing that students sometimes give FREEDOM?

The Soviet government in Russia is stamping out religion by confiscating church property.

Suppose the United States government should decide to take such a drastic method of stamping out our multifarious denominations and establishing a national religion? What would happen? The answer is obvious. Many things would happen, chiefest of which would be civil war with its outgrowth of starvation, panic, death, and mutilation. All this and more would happen if our government attempted to stamp out religion as the Soviet government in Russia is attempting to do.

We live in a land of freedom. We are privileged to grow under the most wonderful flag in the world. The writer will never forget the inspiring sensation he received Founders Day when the Stars and Stripes passed by escorted by a naval unit to the tune of a military band—all a thrilling display of the power of freedom. Shivers ran up and down his spine—shivers of pride, and of gratitude for the privilege of living in our land.

Let us be thankful we do not live in Russia.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF ROLLINS

By A. J. HANNA, Editor Rollins College Alumni Record.

Many people entertain the erroneous impression that "Sub-division," that nationally-famous synonym for Florida, is a term that has only recently been used with meaning in this state. Its wide-spread popularity has of course been established within the past few years, but as far back as 1881 there was a sub-division in Florida.

Likewise, uninformed writers have failed to mention the educational and cultural background of Florida, which actually had its birth with the beginning of the development movement, just as in the settlement of New England, the pioneers turned to the founding of churches and schools.

In 1881, Loring A. Chase, of Chicago, and Oliver E. Chapman, of Canton, Mass., purchased a tract of 600 acres of land bordering on Lakes Virginia and Maitland. In February, 1885, the legislature of Florida granted a charter to the Winter Park Company whose stockholders consisted of F. W. Lyman, Franklin Fairbanks, F. G. Webster, Loring Chase, A. W. Rollins, W. C. Comstock, J. F. Welborne and 18 others, many of whom, attracted by the beauties of the region and congenial associations which it offered, had already established winter homes in the vicinity. From that time lots have had a steady sale in Winter Park.

About the same time, Miss Lucy A. Cross, a graduate of Oberlin, who had taught at Wellesley and who had come to Florida to pioneer in the field of education, saw the possibilities for a Florida college. In the words of Robert Shailor Holmes:

"A teacher sat midst the garden flowers

And dreamed a dream in the quiet hours,

She dreamed of youth with an ample chance

And she planned for youth in her visioned trance.

"The flowers vied from their beautiful bloom

To shed for her each its perfume;

'She dreamed a college' the poppy said,

The blushing rose bowed its gracious head.

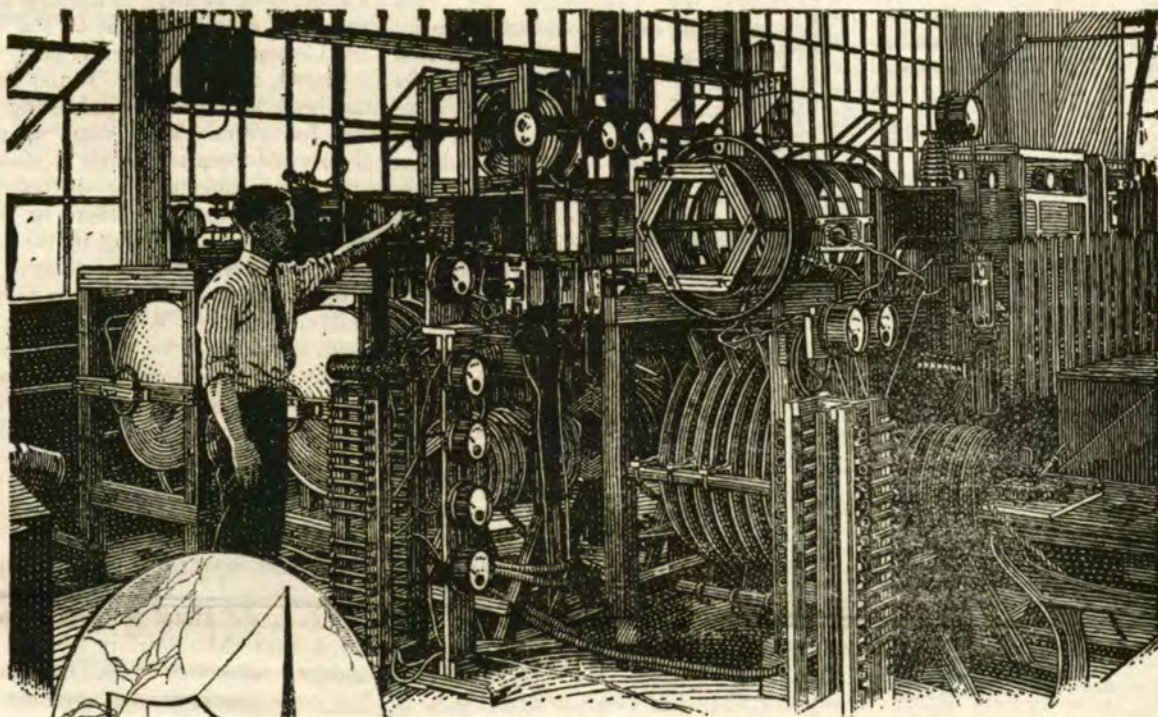

From heart the vision flew,

And noble souls made the dream come true."

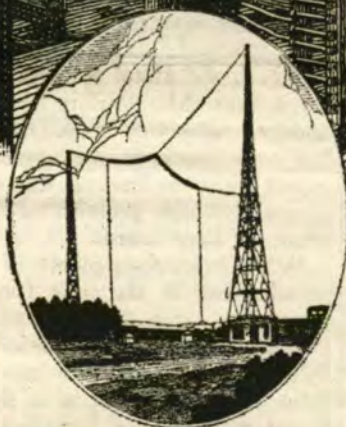

Among these noble souls who made the dream come true was Dr. E. P. Hooker, who "preached an eloquent sermon in the town hall on Jan. 15, 1884, and made an appeal for the establishment of a college." At the annual meeting of the General Congregational Association of Florida, held that year, it was "voted unanimously to establish a first-class college in Florida." Mr. Rollins gave $50,000 for this purpose and a total of $114,000 was raised which was used in the founding of "Rollins College."

In the fall of 1885 Rollins opened its doors with President E. P. Hooker in charge and for forty-one years has striven courageously to carry out its object: "To establish and forever maintain an institution of Christian learning; to promote the general interests of education; to qualify its students to engage in the learned professions or employments of society, (Continued on Page 5)

One of the power amplifier stages of the world's first super-power transmitter

Antenna of super-power transmitter

The World's Loudest Voice

On the rolling plains of South Schenectady, in several scattered buildings, is a vast laboratory for studying radio broadcasting problems. Gathered here are many kinds and sizes of transmitters, from the short-wave and low-power sets to the giant super-power unit with a 50- to 250-kilowatt voice.

Super-power and simultaneous broadcasting on several wave lengths from the same station are among the startling later-day developments in radio. And even with hundreds of broadcasting stations daily on the air throughout the land, these latest developments stand for still better service to millions of listeners.

Only five years old, yet radio broadcasting has developed from a laboratory experiment into a mighty industry. And alert, keen young men have reaped the rewards.

But history repeats itself. Other electrical developments will continue to appear. And it will be the college man, with broad vision and trained mind, who will be ready to serve and succeed.

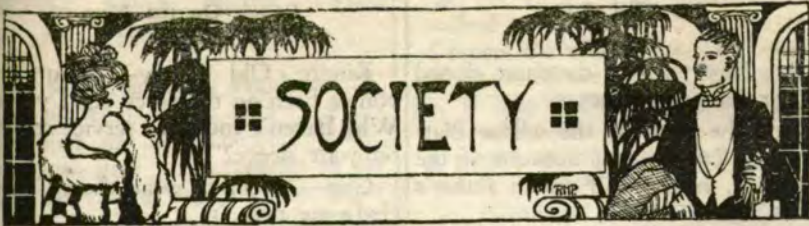

From the studio of WGY in Schenectady, six miles from the developmental station, there may be controlled a great number of transmitters, one of which is the first super-power transmitter in the world.

WGY, together with its associates, KOA of Denver and KGO of Oakland, is the General Electric Company's assurance to the American public that radio broadcasting shall be maintained upon the highest standards.

A new series of G-E advertisements showing what electricity is doing in many fields will be sent on request. Ask for booklet GEK-1.

SIGMA PHI SIGHS!

Our late Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnston, alias "Edner" and "Happy" were surprised last Monday evening by a mischievous crowd who burgled their new nest and left many tokens of value and good intent.

The house warmers, if they could be so dubbed, sprang forth from crack and crevice when the couple arrived and showered upon them blessings in varied forms. The self-entertainers then served ice cream and cakes. It was all very nice and enjoyed by Mrs. Podmore and John Arthur, Annabeth Wilson, "Dickie" Dickson, Louise Holland, Helen Wilson, Billie Mulligan, Miss Cox, Virginia Richardson, Barbara Sheffield, Violet Sutherland, "Bee" Jones, Margaret White, Leila Hale, Dorothy Wrate, and Barbara Floyd.

The Sigma Phi entertainers presided ably over a reception given by Dr. and Mrs. Dickson at the Mt. Dora Yacht Club, Friday evening, February 17th. A clever musical skit written by Bee Jones and Eleanor Pressey and directed by Eleanor Pressey was the "hit" of the evening and made a deep impression on the large audience, evidenced by their loud applause.

Violet and Billie were both loyally supported by the old fashioned girls and today flappers to finally prove that both had a little bad as well as much good in them. The Charleston chorus, however, was appreciated as much as the old fashioned dances.

The trio, Virginia Richardson, Miss Cox and Mrs. Johnston charmed the hearers with their several selections—and there was call after call for the readings of Dorothea Thomas, "Billie" and Violet. We mustn't forget the man that was such a knock-out with the men as well as the ladies. Pat Folley was a perfect "Valentino."

The entire cast included the following: Violet Sutherland, Bee Jones, Dorothea Thomas, Billie Mulligan, Grace Jaquith, Patricia Folley, Leila Hale, Margaret White, Dorothy Wrate and Barbara Sheffield.

Those who efficiently served the luscious refreshments of Neopolitan ice cream, a la Pansy, cakes and coffee were: Annabeth Wilson, Louise Holland, Gladys Wilkinson, Barbara Floyd, Eleanor Pressey and others.

PERSONALS

Great excitement! Nelson Paul and Pear Miller got lost on Lake Maitland. Searching parties 'n everything.

Catharine Wells took a crowd of girls to her home in Orlando for eats, much to the delight of the guests.

Florence McKay spent the week-end in Sanford.

Army now has the laugh on Sid when it comes to hangin' around Cloverleaf.

Elizabeth Atkisson has been stepping. Herb simply took her off her feet the other night.

The proctors in Cloverleaf report heavy duty this week. We don't know whether it's over-study or not.

Leila and Peg spent the week-end in Mt. Dora. Guess Frank and Bozo were lonesome.

The girls spent a hectic night in the dorm Sunday night due to pie-beds and salt.

We hear Abbott was called upon to rescue a lone damsel at the station the other night.

Buzz has been looking unusually happy this week. Three guesses why—yes, Petronella is home.

We hear Charlie Zehler held an interesting conversation over the phone the other night.

"DREAMLAND LADY"
WILL BE ON WDBO

Kiddies of America who tune in on WDBO each night except Sunday, beginning next Monday, at 7 o'clock, Eastern time, will hear the "Dreamland Adventures" broadcast by that station, under the auspices of the Orlando Morning Sentinel.

"Dreamland Adventures" will be told by the "Dreamland Lady" and will no doubt prove popular with the kiddies, as they are all about Janie, a town girl who was captured by Indians, and tell how Johnny the Jumper set out to rescue her. The "Dreamland Adventures" are full of surprises and thrills.

Listen for the voice of "The Dreamland Lady" every night, beginning Monday. All letters and comments on "Dreamland Adventures" should be addressed to "The Dreamland Lady," care WDBO Broadcasting Station, Winter Park, Fla.

ROLLINS TEAM TO BE GUEST OF CHAMBER

Mayor C. Fred Ward yesterday told members of the Chamber of the victory of the Rollins basket ball team over the team of the University of Florida and upon a motion made by him it was agreed that members of this team should be the guests of the Chamber of Commerce in the near future.

A resolution was passed at the meeting that the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce participate in the activities in the radio station WDBO and stand sponsor for a program one night each week.

John Graham announced that the Chamber of Commerce Golf Team would meet the Orlando team Saturday, February 27th, at 2:00 o'clock on the Dubsread golf course. This team has been newly organized by Mr. Graham who is one of the best golf players in this section of the state and the fray on the Dubsread links is expected to be a lively one.

KING GEORGE

CAUGHT BROKE

London, Feb. 18—King George and Queen Mary were caught penniless today by a Salvation army lassie.

The king and queen were visiting the fair when the Salvation Army lassie approached them and asked them to contribute to a "self-denial week fund."

The king looked at the queen. Stammered and blushed and admitted he had left his purse at home. The queen looked hopelessly at the king and confessed she had no money.

Finally the king and queen both borrowed money from the members of their entourage.

Familiar Quotations

A young and very bashful professor had often been annoyed and embarrassed by the jokes his girl pupils played on him. So frequent were these jokes that he finally brought himself to the point where he determined to make an end of them. The next day two of the girls detected in playing jokes on him were kept in after school hours and made to work out some difficult problems by way of suitable punishment for their offenses.

It was the custom in this class to answer roll-call with a quotation. The following morning when the first of the two girls arose at the call of her name she quoted, looking straight at the young professor: "With all thy faults, I love thee still."

The quotation recited by the second girl when her turn came was: "The hours I spend with thee, dear heart, are as a string of pearls to me!"

In conclusion, Dr. Bailey repeated: "Whatever you do, face a fact fairly in the face!"

During his visit in Winter Park, Dr. Bailey has been interviewed by many people, young and old, who have taken to him their personal troubles that have any relation to psychology. He has aided them materially in a saner outlook on life, and has met with astonishing success in relieving worry and fear.

From Winter Park, Dr. Bailey will go to Brunswick, Ga., and thence back to Suwanee to take up his duties as professor of psychology in that institution. Dr. Bailey is the author of several authoritative volumes on psychotherapeutics.

TITHING PAYS

Writing from West Frankfort, Ill., a Baptist coal digger who does not wish that his name become public, desires to give his testimony to the fact that tithing pays. At the beginning of 1923 he made an agreement to tithe his income with the Lord but failed to keep his agreement. Again at the outset of 1924 he decided to tithe but again failed to keep his vow. In 1924 his income was $1,700. But at the outset of 1925 he resolved to try a third time and this time he succeeded and his income for the year rose to $3,500.

ADVERTISING AS IT IS GOT

By L. C. BLAIR, Assistant Advertising Manager of Orange and White

Yes, getting ads is lots of fun; I would rather do it than eat, sleep, talk or study. Then too, you meet so many nice people. And originality? You certainly must hand it to the business man for that. Why one of our best customers is the cleverest fellow, always thinking up some funny joke to play.

The first time I was there, he had the janitor throw me out. But I wouldn't stand for that; I went right back and told him that I thought a man of his ability ought to be able to think up a trick that was not so common. He said that he would think real hard and to come back next week. The next week as I entered the door he stepped up and greeted me cordially. I noted a beautiful carnation in his button hole, and told him I thought that it certainly did look sweet.

"It is very sweet," he replied "Why just smell of it."

As I leaned close, a small, strong stream of water hit me in the right extremity of the left eye. I wonder what it will be, next week?

I have made another friend, also; but he was gained through persistence. I called at his office one day and as I explained my mission, he did not even wait to call the janitor, as most of them do, but leading me gently to the door, (as a lamb to the slaughter) he gave me the G. E., which is, historically speaking, the Grand Exit. As I lay in the hall, listening to the Peruvian nightingales came to me. I would tire him out; if warble sweetly, a wonderful thought I could stand being thrown out longer than he could stand throwing me out I might get an ad. Maybe? Always that "maybe."

The tenth time he carried me all the way to the elevator; and after giving the elevator boy $10 not to let me up again, returned to his office.

Now, I knew that there was but one other course; so I hurriedly began to scale the wall of the State Bank building. As I reached the twelfth floor and let myself stealthily in the window I was confronted by the beaming face of Mr. Whifflespoof.

"My boy," said he with a smile, "I have merely been testing your ability. I will give you the choice of two rewards. I will either give you a splendid ad. for the paper, or I shall deed the famous Whifflespoof Oil Wells of Oldsmar to you."

For a moment I wavered; but thinking of the dear, old school, I strengthened and replied.

"Mr. Whifflespoof, I shall accept the ad."

Camly handing me his business card, he said: "You may put this in a one-column-inch space and I believe it will improve your paper greatly."

My heart leaped and bounded for

I had got an ad; and thanking him, I walked out.

I repeat the wise Crack that Ceasar used to get off on Antony, "It's great life, if you don't weaken."

A BRIEF HISTORY OF ROLLINS

and to encourage honorably and usefully the various duties of life."

Today the influence of Rollins extends throughout the state and to many parts of the country, where her alumni are discharging "honorably and usefully the various duties of life." And each year during the third week in February these "old grads" return to the campus to join with officials of the college and citizens of Winter Park to observe "Founders Week"—a series of events planned to fittingly celebrate the founding of Rollins and Winter Park and bear testimony to the fact that Rollins is "promoting the general interests of education."

This year's celebration—the 41st anniversary—will be marked by the featuring of a number of functions of unusual importance. On the evening of February 16th, Irving Bacheller, the author, who is a trustee of Rollins, will entertain the entire board of trustees and President Holt with a dinner at his home, "Gate o' the Isles." Preceding the annual meeting of the board on the following day President and Mrs. Hamilton Holt will be hosts to the board at a luncheon in the president's house.

At the annual meeting of the board, vacancies in the board of trustees will be filled and policies established for the ensuing year.

On Thursday, February 18, at 4:30 in the afternoon the annual Bacheller Essay Contest for Florida High School students will take place at the Bacheller estate, "Gate o' the Isles," Winter Park, in an attractive garden party setting being arranged by Mrs. Bacheller. President Holt will preside. There will be four high school speakers; the Rollins glee clubs will render several selections; the two gold medals offered by Mr. Bacheller will be awarded by him, and the second prizes of ten dollar gold pieces offered by the Florida Historical Society, will be presented by Mrs. Washington E. Connor, historian and vice-president of the Florida State Historical Society.

The famous Rollins water course will be the scene of an event of national interest at the beginning of Founders' Week, when the world's champion swimmers will be given an exhibit on Lake Virginia.

Thursday evening the anniversary dinner of the college activities will be held in the College Commons. The Sandspur, oldest college newspaper in the state, will observe its 32nd anniversary and the Delphic Literary and Debating Society will celebrate its 34th anniversary.

Among other events of this year's Founders' Week will be a concert by the Conservatory of Music, an Undergraduate Dance, and the annual Undergraduate Oratorical Contest for the Department of Public Speaking.

Saturday, February 20, will be Alumni Day and will witness the 26th annual meeting of the Rollins Alumni Association. This will take the form of a luncheon at the Angebilt Hotel in Orlando at one o'clock and the officers of the Association, R. W. Greene, President; Miss Nannie Harris, Vice-President; C. E. Ward, Secretary, and F. H. Ward, Treasurer, have a large committee in charge consisting of Mrs. John T. Fuller, Arthur Landstreet, Leon B. Fort, Mrs. Harry Kelly, Walter Schultz, Miss Mary Robinson, J. K. Dorn, Miss Myra Williams, Miss Margaret Rogers, Cecil Draa, Mrs. C. F. Ward, Mrs. A. B. Whitman, Mrs. W. W. Yothers, Miss Loraine Page, Mrs. P. M. Sedring, Maxwell Green, A. M. Sloan, W. M. Ingram, with A. J. Hanna as Chairman.

Among the features planned for the Alumni Luncheon will be a brief address by President Hamilton Holt and the observance of Dr. T. R. Baker's 89th birthday.

Saturday evening of Alumni Day the President of Rollins College and Mrs. Holt will give the annual President's reception.

Sunday, February 21, will be devoted to a vesper service in the afternoon while churches of Winter Park will have appropriate sermons on the founding of town and college in the morning. Monday, February 22, Washington's Birthday, will be the official civic day of Founder's Week. Its main attraction will be a large pageant, "Osceola," written especially for the occasion by Rena Sheffield.

Assembly!

"All intoxicating liquors should be serized and thrown into the river," said an earnest clergyman in concluding his sermon. He then announced the closing hymn, which chanced to be. "Shall We Gather at the River?"

Expensive Lessons

"I'm getting up a little poker game, Major," invited the friend. "Would you like to join us?"

"Sir, I do not play poker."

"I'm sorry. I was under the impression that you did."

"I was once under that impression myself, sir."

Necessary Information

Smith was a young lawyer, clever in many respects, but very forgetful. He had been sent to a distant city to interview an important client, when the head of his firm received this telegram: "Have forgotten name of client. Please wire at once."

The reply he received was a master-piece of sarcasm, irony or something. I ran. "Client's name Jenkins. Your name Smith."

Narrow Legal Distinction

Claim Agent: How did you meet with this accident?

Green Mule Skinner: It wasn't any accident, a mule kicked me.

Claim Agent: But don't you call that an accident?

Mule Skinner: Naw, he did it on purpose.

No Trespassing

On a farm in Georgia is posted this sign: "Trespasser's will be persecuted to the full extent of 2 mean mongral dorgs which ain't never been ovarly soshibil wth strangers and I dubbel barelt shotgun which ain't loaded with no softy pillers. Dam, if I ain't tired of this hel raisin on my proputy."

This match turned into a pretty exhibition of crashing tennis. Almost impossible returns were made by members of both teams. Playing crashing tennis as they were, however, Tilden and More seemed unable to turn the tide against their opponents. At last, Apopka came from behind, overcame and one game lead and took to straight, winning the match.

The second set was called off on account of darkness.

Couch, Eichstaedt, and Bowers. With these men to build around, coach Talman will complete his team with such men as Zoller, Goodell, Pound, Crawford, Williams, Moore, Johns, and others. There will be stiff competition between members of the squad for first string berths, which is all in favor of turning out a good team.

The Rollins Tars demonstrated their football ability last year when they held Oglethorpe in the last game of the season from making a touchdown, when the Stormy Petrels had four downs to carry the ball one foot across the line—and failed. The Tars held like a solid brick wall. Next year the Tars will have a new sobriquet. They will be known far and wide as the "Orange Typhoon." The Orange Typhoon has announced its intention of clearing all past defeats. They are preparing for Southern and Stetson with "blood in the eye, and froth at the bitts."
