ROLLINS-STETSON FRACAS BIDS FAIR TO BECOME FOOTBALL CLASSIC IN LOCAL AN- NALS; FIRST ENCOUNTER IN THREE YEARS OF NEW UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI TEAM

TARS SET FOR BATTLE WITH ANCIENT ENEMIES

For the first time in three years the Rollins Tars will clash with their old rivals the Stetson Hatters from DeLand tomorrow afternoon. The game, which is scheduled to start promptly at three o'clock, will be played on the Sanford Municipal Athletic Field. A record crowd is expected to attend as the rivalry between the two teams has always been very keen and attracts state-wide attention. The Rollins under graduates will attend the game in a body as will the Stetson students. As Saturday is Homecoming Day for the Rollins Alumni, a large number of them will escort the team to Sanford, where they will do their bit in the Rollins cheering section.

Coach Orr has developed one of the strongest teams that Rollins has had for years having twenty-two capable men on the squad, but they will go into the game somewhat handicapped due to quite a few injuries to some of the leading players. Buddy Crawford, one of the leading half-backs will be out of the game, but it is expected that Goodell will be back in the lineup.

ROLLINS BAND FORMED BY PROFESSOR ANDREWS

First Organization of Kind in Many Years

For the first time in many years, Rollins will have a band to officiate and hold forth at various games. This has been definitely decided and our band held its first meeting Monday night. Professor Andrews met the budding organization Monday night at 7:30 in Pinehurst. Eighteen boys responded nobly but—there are still some who have real talent who have not enrolled. Come on and show your spirit! Don't have to be coaxed!!

Professor Andrews spoke very encouragingly about the work and said that with co-operation and hard work the band should be functioning by Christmas. In a statement after class he said, "The band is going ahead like blazing prairies, and we'll soon be ready for business."

The men who came out to the first meeting were: Champneys, Winderweede, Mould, Bard, MacDonald, Basset, Lehman, Foshay, Kingsbury, Kevser, Babich, Van Poll, Jones, Welling, McGruder, Burhans, Shurman and Johnston.

Band Facts

President Holt's Message

Rollins welcomes again her alumni and former students as they return for Home-coming Week.

Whether college days are the happiest or not may be a moot question, but once having been lived, they can never be lived over again except in memory. But these precious memories are revived and quickened when men and women return to the old campus to rekindle friendships and renew youth.

I have never heard of a college graduate who obeyed the impulse to return to his class or college reunions who was not a hundred-fold repaid for the effort and expense.

So I say to all Rollins boys and girls—whether you graduated one or forty-one years ago—do not let your college days become but a memory.

Join the Alumni Association, read the Alumni Record, help us with your gifts of time and money, visit us often and send your children here after you.

OCT. 30 HOMECOMING DAY FOR ROLLINS' OLD GRADS

Program to Include Stetson Glee Club Concert

Forty years of rivalry—some defeats, many triumphs, and much good fun—leading up to the main feature of the annual home-coming of Rollins in the football game with Stetson next Saturday, and many other interesting events promise undergraduates and former the most successful celebration yet staged.

Former captains of the Tar eleven who have both vanquished the Green and White and who have also tasted bitter defeat at DeLand will be on the sidelines to see the team of 1926 fight for the glory of old Rollins. Since time almost immorial, certainly since the time when Rex Beach raised a mighty arm in defense of the Blue and Gold, Tars and Hatters have clashed in athletic battles, and Saturday's game, which is the first varsity struggle in three years, ought to be

PHI DELTA RUSE WEEK

A lovely tea was given by Theta Chapter of Phi Beta at the home of Mrs. Roy Lenfest Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6. A program was given at 5 and the following numbers were given: Piano solo, Alvera Barber; reading, Anne Hathaway; solo, Elizabeth Atkisson, and a selection by the Trio, Grace Jaquith, piano, Gertrude Ward, violin, and Lucille Pipkorn, cello. Sherbet and cake were served during the afternoon.

Those invited were the Misses Ruth Ward, Lucille Pipkorn, Anna Margaret James, Nancy Brown, Hazel Darlington, Mary Shepherd, Eleanor Upmeyer, Catharine Adams, Mildred Stagg, Helen Westfall, and Annie Campbell.

Theta Chapter entertained the rushees at a dinner party at the Ruthanna Weavers' Tea Room on Friday evening. The table was beautifully decorated and each place was marked by dainty place cards carrying out the Phi Beta colors of lavender and gold.

The President, Mae Blair, acted as toastmistress and welcomed the guests. This was followed by talks from mem-

FIRST YEAR MEN DOWNED BY HURRICANE SQUAD

Two perfectly executed forward passes, staged near the close of the second quarter, won a hard fought football game for the University of Miami Saturday afternoon.

The play came as a surprise for the Tar Babies, who, backed to their 20-yard line, had dug their toes into the gridiron sand and were bracing themselves to stand the shock of a line attack, which had predominated Miami's offensive tactics up to that time.

As a feeler for distance, Quarterback Courtney threw a high one a few minutes before, which failed of completion. Then came a smart sortie against the black and gold line of Rollins. Two and three yard gains were ripped through the first line of defense. Then followed a brilliant end run by Courtney, who recovered after Rollins had taken the ball and punted for safety. On the second try, O'Brien tossed a long pass to Courtney for the touchdown.

Close to 5,000 persons saw this first collegiate football game of South

ROLLINS ALUMNI SPONSOR FIRST U. OF MIAMI FRAT

To Bear Same Name As Local Group

According to an announcement given the Sandspur from Miami, the first fraternity established at the new University of Miami, is being sponsored by a group of Rollins men living in Miami—George E. Merrick, developer of Coral Gables and founder of the University; J. K. Dorn, Trustee of Rollins, and President of the Rollins Club of Miami; C. T. Atkisson, D. Henry Fordham and C. T. Atkisson.

The new fraternity has been named Phi Alpha and is patterned after Phi Alpha of Rollins in view of the fact that the men named above are all Phi Alphas. The Rollins Phi Alpha has granted permission to the Miami Phi Alpha to use the Phi Alpha pin with a distinguishing guard, and it is understood that the new organization is founded on Phi Alpha ideals, although the two fraternities are entirely local in character and not in any way connected as a national.

The Phi Alpha of the University of Miami has been given a $35,000 lot in Coral Gables adjoining the university campus and the boys are planning the erection of the first fraternity house on the campus.

"Unassuming yet mighty, sharp and pointed, well-rounded yet many-sided, assiduously tenacious, yet as gritty and energetic as its name implies, victorious in single combat and therefore without a peer, wonderfully attractive and extensive in circulation; all these will be found upon investigation to be among the extraordinary qualities of The Sandspur."

The two fraternities on the Rollins campus have departed from the old scheme of pledging new men. It is the idea of the fraternities to introduce a new system which they hope will be a marked improvement over the former plan.

The new plan is this:

All rushing of any kind either by active or alumni members of the fraternities is to cease Thursday night, October 28. From that time until five o'clock Monday, November 1, all new men are to be left to decide for themselves which fraternity they wish to join. This, of course, is governed by the action of the fraternity.

The bids will be placed in the Dean's office and the men will be notified by him to call and receive their bid or bids. Enclosed in the bid will be instructions as to the manner of acceptance the men are to follow.

HOME COMING

While the Rollins alumni are here Friday and Saturday, October 29, 30, we shall have with us the greatest asset of the college. They are active members of Rollins, giving their time to making it a better school for us. We must show them that we have the fighting spirit and that we are fighting for them in the playing and cheering at the Stetson game.

We are glad to have them return and meet old friends and the colleagues of the present, who will give their time to making the visit a pleasant one.

INSPIRATIONAL

Nothing in the new two hour system of classes inaugurated by Rollins was of more interest to us than the use of the evenings, which were to be left free by combined study and recitation. The announcement that they were to be given over once a week to lectures of an inspirational nature left us a little dubious. It was the use of that term, things intended to be inspirational have usually turned out to be quite to the contrary in our limited experience. That President Holt was the first of those speakers we were "expected" to attend, left us decidedly cold. We couldn't see Hamilton Holt sinking to what we have known in the past as inspirational lectures at Rollins. Fulfilling the Dean's "expectations," we offered up ourselves to inspiration with the mental note of "no soap" already appended.

Having attended four of those lectures now, we have heard, and admit ourselves conquered. We have been inspired. We have gained as broad and clear a viewpoint on the biggest international problem of the day. More than that, we have learned a new meaning of the word "inspiration."

Nine scalps behind in our most time-honored feud! Whether this will become eight or ten until we get another swing at the Tree-Toads next year is in the hands of not only the nineteen or twenty uniformed men who will carry the pigskin, but in those of every Rollins man and woman. For Rollins to lose this game would be a painful thing, at best, to us but we have not really suffered until the Student Body (and there is no reason why the student body should not be 100% present) falls down on their best in supporting the team from the sidelines.

SOCIETY—ALPHA OMEGA

Monday afternoon Julia Fariss and Victoria Correll took the following girls for a ride: Genevieve Smith, Flora Furin, Dorothy Kinsey, Eleanor Beers, Alice and Marion Ball.

That same afternoon about five o'clock, a merry party set out canoeing through the lakes. After paddling about and enjoying the sunset, they disembarked at the good old family tree and spread a bounteous lunch. Those enjoying weiners and star light reflections were Madeline Rhone, Juanita Clark, Norma Workman, Margaret Brown, Verna Maxin, Esteleen Sternberg, Martha Shank, Evelyn Dula, and Edwina Peterson.

Truly Monday was a busy day! At six-thirty a group of six participated in dinner at the Ruth Anna Weaver Tea Rooms. Afterwards they went to the Beacham to see Constance Talmadge in "The Duchess of Buffalo." The only disappointment of the evening was that "Dot" had to leave us so early. Those among us were Katherine McMahon, Charmaine Berquist, Dorothy Johnson, Rosella Norton, Geraldine and Virginia Lawrence.

Genevieve Smith, Flora Furin, Dorothy Kinsey, Phyllis Walters, Dorothy Johnson, Betty Wheatley and Victoria Correll organized in two tables of bridge last Tuesday afternoon. Salad and iced tea were served, and favours carried out the color scheme in Hallowe'en colors.

Geraldine and Virginia Lawrence opened their home to a group of boys and girls the same evening. The rugs and chairs were removed for those who wished to dance, the others joined in two tables of bridge. Rosella won a hand-embroidered handkerchief, and "Ken" Winslow a cigarette case. If a Charleston prize had been given we're sure that "Smitty" would have won it.

The guests of the evening were Betty Wheatley, Genevieve Smith, Charmaine Berquist, Dorothy Johnson, Rosella Norton, Florisse Dickinson, Edwina Peterson, and Evelyn Dula; Claude Couch, Ellsworth Basset, Harold Powers, John Smith, Leonard Seaver, Ward Mole, Kenelm Winslow, Alfred Brunk and Hubert Poole.

Wednesday night Julia Lawrence, Margaret Brown, Betty Wheatley, and Victoria Correll participated in the opening of the Winifred Dale Tea Rooms in Orlando.

Flora Furin, Dorothy Kinsey, Betty Wheatley, Mary Chase, Gerry and Virginia Lawrence went to the movies that night. Sad to say, the tempus fugited so fast that they were obliged to leave just at the crucial moment in the story. Thanks to Betty and her car, the "dormitory damsels" were delivered safely home.

Phyllis and Carol Walters, Eleanor Beers, Dorothy Thuringer, Victoria Correll, and Julia Fariss went to the Yellowstone Tea Rooms in Orlando for dinner and for a drive afterwards on Thursday.

Another dinner party was in full swing at the Sip and Bite Tea Rooms in Orlando at the same time. Those participating were Charlotte Steinhams, Marion Youngs, Genevieve Smith, Betty Oller and Edwina Peterson. After driving around a bit, they found Gerry and Gin at home with their guests, and all went together to the Phi Alpha reception.

And still another dinner party. Splendid service was rendered at the Whistling Kettle, thanks to Bob Cross. After dinner the group went to Gerry's and Gin's to dance. Everyone was grateful to the "Good Humor" man for doing his bit in providing refreshments. Getty Wheatley, Flora Furin, Dorothy Kinsey, Esteleen Sternberg, Nadine Wright, Julia Lawrence, Evelyn Dula, Geraldine Lawrence, and Virginia Lawrence made up the party.

Eleanor Beers and Dorothy Thuringer went with Vic and Judy to see Mary Pickford in "Sparrows" at the Beacham Friday evening.

Betty Oller gave a bridge party the same night at her home for Rosella Norton, Genevieve Smith, Flora Furin, Carol and Phyllis Walters, Dorothy Kinsey, Betty Wheatley, Nadine Wright, Evelyn Dula, Geraldine Lawrence, and Edwina Peterson. Carol Walters won first, and Evelyn Dula second.

ALPHA OMEGA PERSONALS

Tiny and Betty have been taking advantage of these lovely afternoons to go riding. A crowd, a car, and off they are. What matter where?

If you want to give Gerry a thrill, play "That's Why I Love You." Ah, that's no mystery. We can readily see why, anyone would.

Gin is in tears. She's lost her cat. Oh dear, and she only got it Tuesday night, too.

Tiny keeps remarking upon the lovely sunsets she's been seeing lately. Truly she hath the eye of an artist—or is it a poet—or is it something else? !! Hum—

Gin's been having "more bloomin' fun" with her rubber doughnut! Who'll bite next?

Puzzle: Why were Powers, Seaver, and Basset late to the party Tuesday evening?

Evelyn sent her mother an envelope and forgot to put the letter in it. Poor mother. Now why do you suppose Evelyn is so absent-minded? We wonder!

Miss Peschman, Phi Omega Mother, entertained with a delightful tea at her home on Lyman Avenue, Saturday afternoon. The Phi Omega colors were carried out in the refreshments of punch, sandwiches, cake, ice cream and candy. Those enjoying Miss Peschman's hospitality were: Helen Westfall, Harriet Pipkorn, Katharine McMahon, Grace Ranger, Rosella Norton, Mrs. Haggardy, and Phi Omega active members.

Moonlight on Lake Olivia, swimming, eating, dancing. I know you've all met the famous three—Evans, Cross and Quinn. Well, I'm all three of them. Basset's banjo—slippery slide—see Sofo—and the good ship sank! Nine rahs for Zehler—Zip! Zip!

'Slong way to the water, eh Demaris?—We must have absolute silence, Hey, some one Play "Precious." Ginny holds the record for eating. No wonder Ralph had weak knees. It's a good time for a' that.

Sunday morning breakfast at the Phi Omega House was a real treat to those who "Crave sleep." Among the rushees were Norma Workman, Katharine McMahon, Helen Westfall, Harriet Pipkorn and Irene Draa.

Phi Omega was "at home" to faculty, students, and friends Sunday, October 17th—at 554 Interlachen Avenue. After being shown through the house sherbet and cake were served by the Phi Omega girls.

THETA DANCE

Members of Florida Alpha chapter at Rollins College of Theta Kappa Nu fraternity, entertained in honor of the student body of the college with a dance at the Woman's club Wednesday evening.

The clubhouse was attractively decorated with crepe paper streamers of the fraternity colors, silver, maroon and black. On the stage back of the orchestra was hung the large banner bearing the coat of arms.

Music was furnished by a splendid seven-piece orchestra which captivated the dancers with the first piece played and kept things going at a lively pace throughout the evening.

A large crowd of confetti-throwing dancers filled the floor at all times and promenaded along the moonlit walks around the building during intermission. Gaily colored caps of various shapes and patterns were attractive souvenirs.

The dance was preceded on Monday evening by a smoker at the Theta Kappa Nu house, corner Interlachen and Fairbanks Avenues, in honor of the boys of the Freshman class.

PHI OMEGA RUSH WEEK ACTIVITIES

Phi Omega boating party on the St. Johns Wednesday night was enjoyed by every one present. Cars left the house at 5 o'clock, reaching Sanford in time for dinner at the Seminole. After dinner the party boarded "The Walaka." Before entering the boat each passenger was required to "buy a ticket" which proved to be a miniature Phi Omega containing a program and menu. Paper caps were also given each person before boarding the boat.

Dancing, cards, and games were enjoyed throughout the evening. Later a buffet lunch was served.

A special feature of the evening was the "gifts" which were attached to rose and grey ribbons. Each guest drew a ribbon on which was attached a gift in remembrance of the pleasant evening spent on the St. Johns. Those present were: Harriet Pipkorn, Katharine McMahon, Helen Westfall, Grace Ranger, Rosella Norton, Dorothy Johnson, Irene Draa, Demaris Wilson, Dorothy Connor, Norma Workman, Estelle Pipkorn, Beata Meyer, Stella Weston, Ione Pope, Edith Draa, Frances Vallette, Florence McKay, Lucille Pipkorn, Mary Shepherd, Nancy Brown, Mary Hansen, Freda Kuebler, Dorothy Cosby, Louise Brown, Lucille Waters, Miss Niles, Mrs. Haggardy, and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Quinn.

CONSERVATORY NOTES

Again we had the pleasure of hearing Miss Cox. When? Tuesday night before President Holt's lecture. She played "Nocturn in E flat" by Chopin and was accompanied by Prof. Andrews on the pipe organ. It was some treat, as all who attended the lecture can testify.

Miss Shenck has at last made herself heard. Her voice is beautiful and she shows wonderful command of breath and technique. She sang "The Year's at the Spring" in Chapel on Monday morning. The students showed appreciation but were unsuccessful in winning an encore. Next time let's force her back.

Elizabeth Atkisson sang the solo part in the anthem sung by the Congregational Church Choir Sunday morning. Many complimentary things have been said about her work. Keep it up, "Libby"—we want more!!

The girls have been rushed to death this week, and they enjoyed the late permissions although Miss Gartland says they are the last she will give for a while.

We are indebted to our friend and every-ready helper, Roger, for some lovely blue lamp shades.

Baby Tars Bow to Miami's Tri-Colored Hurricane in Hard Fought Game

Florida's own university Saturday afternoon. It was a colorful crowd, an Arabian Night's fantasy in color and setting.

Cameramen were on the job and the click of the shutters could be heard like the staccato of a machine gun above the shrieking crowds in the stand and the elusive melody of "Miami Shores" whose haunting rhythm swept over the field as 600 voices of the Community Singers followed the band music.

Rollins played straight football, and with its right tackle as the pivot for offense and defense managed to hold Miami to its solitary tally. A soft field, dry on top but wet a foot below, made kicking difficult.

The following is an account of the game play by play:

First Quarter

Fisher kicked off to Miami's 30-yard line. The ball was caught by Courtney, who shot around right for seven yards. McKim dove through center four yards. Edwards failed to make better than a yard on a second try through the line. Thomas made two yards through center on a tackle shift play. O'Brien kicked a safety from his 40-yard line. Waugh fumbled and the ball was recovered by Himbrough on Rollins 30-yard line. On an end-over play, Threlkeld circled left end for five yards. Sanford dropped back on line shift for a six-yard gain around right end. It was now Miami's third down on Rollins' 30-yard line. Edwards slammed through center for three yards. A quarter-line play netted Miami four yards through center, barely saving the distance from Miami and it was again first down. Miami failed to complete a forward pass, the first of the game. Warman shot through center for four yards. McLandon hit the line again for a two-yard gain through right tackle; Bleier hit left tackle for two yards. The ball was now on Rollins' 20-yard line. Miami's attempt around right end failed. Rollins' line was holding tight and another play between left tackle and left end was also stopped without gain. The second smash against the left of the line netted less than a yard. Ball was now on Rollins' 20-yard line.

Fisher made a yard and skirted Miami's end for a gain of six yards, being forced to run well back of his interference by Miami's defense. Tygert hit the line for two yards. Rollins punted, Threlkeld falling on it. Miami's ball, first down. Courtney failed in his pass. Miami hit the center for two yards.

Score, end of first quarter: Miami 0, Rollins 0.

Second Quarter

Miami's much vaunted aerial attack became apparent in the early stages of the second quarter when Courtney threw a sweet one to Lyons for 20 yards. Bleier made five yards through center. Stanford hit the line for another yard and so did Bleier. Courtney attempted a field goal and failed. Threlkeld was called out by Coach Buck and Rowley substituted. Ball went to Rollins on downs, who punted after ineffectual tries against Miami's line. Stanford slipped through the Rollins line for a yard, followed by Bleier for three more. Rollins again got the ball on downs on her 10-yard line. Rollins punted, Courtney being downed on the catch. Courtney and Rowley tried a forward pass and failed. On the second try O'Brien threw a pretty one to Courtney who made Miami's first touchdown. Another two points were added when Courtney elected to try another forward pass to Lyons, which was completed.

Rollins kicked off and Courtney ran the ball 30 yards before being downed. Courtney punted and Lyons recovered the ball for Miami on Rollins' fumble. O'Brien was called out of the game and McGuire went in. Courtney kicked again. Rollins made two yards through Miami's right tackle. Miami was penalized twice in succession, once 10 yards for rough play and again five yards for being offside. It was through these penalties that Rollins made its first down up to that time. Bleier intercepted a beautiful forward pass and it was Miami's ball. Miami attempted its aerial attack and was unsuccessful although receiving a five-yard present on account of interference by the Rollins team.

Third Quarter

Catha kicked to Rollins' 15-yard line. Parsons dove through Miami's left tackle for half a yard. Fisher made four. Rollins failed to complete a forward pass, and punted to safety, Courtney receiving and running it back seven yards. Miami's first down on her 35-yard line. Courtney returned. Rollins' right half made four through left tackle. Tygert dove through center for two more. Tygert fumbled and the ball went back to Miami, four Hurricanes scrambling for its possession with O'Brien the closest. Sanford made six, Bleier added three. Stanford made first down. One of Cub's finest trick plays worked nicely but Miami was penalized five yards for being off side. Another trick play and it failed. A tackle over play didn't work. Courtney's forward pass to Lyons was not completed. Courtney punted over Rollins' goal line. Rollins gets the ball on its 20-yard line and returns. Miami's ball again. Bleier makes two yards through right tackle, Stanford adds five in two tries through right guard. Courtney punted again. Miami penalized five yards for off side. Courtney punted again. Rollins failed to do anything with the ball in its possession. Score Miami, 7; Rollins, 0.

Fourth Quarter

Rollins' ball. Fisher kicked. Bleier made five through right tackle from Miami's 55-yard line. Rollins' right end intercepted Courtney's pass. Parsons skirted Miami's right end for six. Parsons was thrown back for a yard loss. Catha slammed Tygert back for a 11-yard loss. Rollins kicked. Bleier ran the ball back 20 yards. Courtney failed to gain and punted after a couple of tries. Rollins' ball. Fisher shot through Miami's right tackle for a five yard gain. Edwards nabbed Parsons when he attempted to skirt a jumbled defense. Rollins failed to complete a forward pass. Miami's ball. Bleier made a yard through center. Courtney punted. Rollins' ball on its own 20-yard line. Oram downed Tygert for a loss. Rollins failed to gain in two tries, and punted, Courtney caught and ran the ball back 20 yards. Miami failed to budge the Rollins center in two tries. Stanford hit the line for two yards. Courtney added a yard. A pass failed. Rollins' ball. Bleier threw back Parsons for a loss. Rollins punted and saved. Rollins failed to complete a forward pass. Time called.

PHI OMEGA PHACTS

We were glad to have Mrs. Holt back in time to visit our open house Sunday.

Louise Brown, of Orlando, was a welcome visitor at the house Wednesday afternoon. We are hoping to see her back in school soon.

We've found that Zip slings as wicked an ice cream dipper as a forward pass—and Jack's not so bad himself.

Dan and Thelma seemed to be particularly interested in the upkeep of the house. 'S a great life, Thelma.

Much excitement was created Sunday when Mrs. Holt and Miss Gartland discovered their dresses to be exactly alike.

Evidently it took Burhans, McCoy and Ewing three trips to inspect the house.

"Aunt Lisette Pipkorn" was a Phi Omega guest over the week-end. We surely enjoyed the dinner at the Whistling Kettle Sunday night.

It's a good thing there are a couple of cheap records handy to use in slight-of-hand tricks.

We are glad to hear that Ruth Amy Sebring will visit us soon—also Amy Verdelle, our Phi Omega mascotess.

We've discovered Jack's future vocation—cracking safes. "War'd yo' all learn dem tricks, boy?"

Can Mrs. Leedy make good butter scotch pie. It didn't seem to take long for it to disappear.

We are all mighty proud of the beautiful painting Mrs. Newby gave us. It surely is good looking.

Guy is an interesting authority on Rollins and Chase in the "good old days."

IN SIGMA FILES

Monday began an exciting week of good times every minute. The movies, restaurants, drug stores and buses from here to Orlando (?) were unusually well patronized.

Barbara served a luncheon in her adorable little apartment, assisted by grace, our social recluse sister, Monday noon.

Tuesday evening a big stag dinner party was held at the Whistling Kettle. Speeches were conspicuously lacking. The guests were escorted to Dr. Holt's lecture and invited to the house for a feed afterwards. Mrs. Holt made us a brief call, and more blossoms of Sigma Phi talent were plucked from the mother bough. Annabelle gave readings, and the entertainment came to an exciting finish when Bee's teeth came into smashing contact with Gladys' head, knocking them both cuckoo for the moment.

Thursday a delicious plate luncheon was concocted at the house by the more domestic members. Eleanor Holton, Marjorie McMichael, Laura Shelby and Helen Link were the employees.

Friday afternoon Isabel Green served tea at her home in Virginia Heights, honoring the rushees. The house was prettily decorated and a quiet hour of conversation passed most delightfully.

Sigma Phi held a tea dance from four to six Saturday at Green Gables, and again proved her specialty a never-failing success. The orchestra was splendid and the refreshments most filling. Mrs. Sherman and Mrs. Avery were charming hostesses.

Waffles were stuffed madly down fifteen eager throats Sunday morning at Barbara's. You've heard of the law of supply and demand? Well, the object was to feed them so they'd never be able to look a gift waffle in the mouth—for a week at least. The desired end was attained. Three of your best cheers for Barbara!

That same afternoon Dickie took all the rushees to Mt. Dora. They had a thrilling ride in the motorboat, a good hearty supper, a pleasant drive and arrived home at 9:30. They say there was more fun at the house that night. These eternal initiations.

PHI BETA RUSH WEEK

bers of the fraternity concerning the ideals and attainments of Phi Beta.

Virginia Richardson announced and directed the play, "The Gathering of the Nuts by the Dumbbells." This proved greater fun and displayed the dramatic talent represented in such a notable group.

The invited guests included: Misses Eleanor Upmeyer, Ruth Ward, Lucille Pipkorn, Anna Margaret James, Hazel Darlington, Anie Campbell, Mildred Stagg, Catharine Adams, Mary Shepherd, and Nancy Brown. Active members: Mae Blair, Estelle Pipkorn, Mabel Boone, Katharine Humphreys, Florence McKay, Barbara Sheffield, Laura Randall, Catharine Lewis, Elizabeth Atkisson, Frances Vallette, Gertrude Ward, Beatrice Jones, Virginia Richardson, Mildred McConnell, Anne Hathaway, Evelyn Green, Alvera Barber, Miriam Boyd, and Dorothy McMakin. Associate members: Mrs. Roy Lenfest, Miss Niles, Mrs. Cass, and Miss Schenk.

Phi Beta wishes to announce as pledges: Lucille Pipkorn, Sarasota, Fla.; Anna Margaret James, Orlando; Ruth Ward, Winter Park, and Anie Campbell, Winter Park.

Peg Canning was missed this week-end and by now she is no doubt missing her tonsils, which were removed when she went home.

Amelia McAllister's mother came up from Winter Haven to spend the day Sunday. Amelia was glad for more reasons than one. The food at Potters was especially good that day.

to come into existence under the name of the Rollins College Band.

2. Since the instruments will not play themselves the next step will have to be the selection and education of the personnel.

3. Players can be made in very short order if the material is right. What is required is intelligence, some persistence and musical ear.

4. If YOU have any suspicion that you really wish that you might become a member of this organization, put aside your misgivings and present yourself at the next meeting.

5. Classes will be formed for instruction in the instruments at once, as soon as the instruments have been allotted. If you are already a player of some instrument there are perhaps still points in which you might improve. Ample provision will be made for your instruction.

6. The fee for band membership (including instruction) is $10 per semester.

7. The date of the first concert is not yet announced, but the band should be functioning belligerently by the first of the year.

8. Membership is limited to twenty.

9. If you have an instrument at home somewhere, send for it. Extra instruments will be needed.

10. If you have an instrument here and you want to use it in the band, make your intention known at once.

11. If either of the preceding paragraphs apply to you, please put your name, and the name of the instrument on a slip of paper, and mail it at once to the Secretary of the Music School.

A FORMER FOOTBALL PLAYER DIRECTS "THE QUARTERBACK"

A one-time football player, baseball pitcher and all-round athlete to direct a motion picture with a football theme. What better choice?

The director is Fred Newmeyer who has just completed work on Richard Dix's latest Paramount starring vehicle. "The Quarterback," which comes to the Baby Grand on Wednesday.

Newmeyer obtained gridiron experience in Denver while starring on the high school team. From amateur football he stepped into professional baseball, pitching until his arm "went bad." Fred played with Wichita and Denver in the Western League, with Chattanooga in the Southern and Waco in the Texas.

That Newmeyer hasn't forgotten football was forcefully exhibited last year in Harold Lloyd's "The Freshman." As co-director of that picture, he inserted some of the most realistic football scenes ever filmed.

Director Newmeyer is highly enthusiastic about "The Quarterback." After completing the film and conferring with Dix, Esther Ralston and the authors—William O. McGeehan, sports editor of the New York Herald Tribune, and William Slavens McNutt—he said that the production afforded greater dramatic and comedy possibilities than any football story he'd ever made.

TARS SET FOR BITTER BATTLE WITH ANCIENT RIVALS

Both teams have been taking a two-weeks' rest in preparation for the game. During that time the Tars have been putting in some stiff practice perfecting their offensive, which was shown to be woefully lacking in punch in the last two games. The boys will be somewhat outweighed by their opponents, but they hope to offset this by their fighting spirit.

Many of the local dopesters basing their forecasts on the results of previous encounters are giving the Hatters all the advantage and the Tars are conscious of the fact that they have one of the hardest games of the season on their hands when the opening whistle blows. Whichever side carries away the victory will realize that it has been in a fight.

The lineup will probably be as follows:

Marlowe and Zoller, ends; Daniels, Burhans, and Pound, tackles; Couch and Bruns, center; Fralick, Van Poll, Winderweede and Graham, guards; Zehler, Hilliard, Conway and Goodell, backs.

OCT. 30 HOMECOMING DAY FOR ROLLINS OLD GRADS

a fair demonstration of good football and clean sportsmanship.

Another feature of the alumni reunion will be the visitation of the new two hour classes and an explanation of the new Hamilton Holt plan of study by Dean Carrothers. Many former students are more interested in this phase of the Rollins development than they are in athletics and on Friday afternoon and Saturday morning they will be given a tour of the campus for this purpose.

A time-honored precedent was broken by President Holt when he invited the Stetson Glee Club to give Rollins a concert on the evening prior to the game, but the innovation has appealed to the campus and to the alumni, all of whom are joining in plans for welcoming the Hatters in a most hospitable manner.

No doubt the Tars will play a harder game as they glance into the bleachers and observe some dozen of the most beautiful alumni, bedecked in blue and gold, and standing as sponsors for the fighters of the gridiron. Heading the sponsors will be Mrs. Hamilton Holt, wife of the President.

Much time has been devoted by various committees to the making of the annual Home-coming dinner to be held at the Angebilt Hotel in Orlando Saturday evening an unusual success. Mr. R. W. Greene, president of the Alumni Association, will be in charge and Alumni Trustee J. K. Dorn of Miami, will introduce President Holt.

As guests of honor there will be all new members of the Rollins staff who will be introduced to the alumni by President Holt. All in all it is expected that this year's Homecoming will, in itself, be one of the outstanding events of the fall calendar.

PERSONALS

"Shorty" Draa was a week-end visitor. He didn't come down alone either, did he, Anne?

Virginia Decker of Lakeland spent the week-end with Beulah Backway.

Anna Bell went down to Winter Haven for the week-end. Tom missed her dreadfully.

Norma's father was here Sunday and saw Norma for just a few minutes—not even long enough to write a check.

Irene Draa spent Sunday in Sanford.
