An Appeal For More Swimmers Is Issued

In an athletic way, the baseball and swimming teams are still active, and will be until the close of the term.

There is room for more freshmen swimmers, however, if there are any that have the time and ability in the watery art.

The University of Miami wants to meet our freshmen swimming team, but so far we have only two or three freshmen swimmers out for practice. This is not enough for a team.

Rollins should go in strong for water sports of all kinds. Our lake is an asset that should be taken advantage of. The swimming course and diving platforms are standard, and unexcelled by the equipment in any school in the country. The water is the right temperature and seldom rough enough to hinder the swimmer. If a swimmer could not develop here where could he?

Even though it is a little late to start now, everyone that contemplates swimming next year should get out now and make the most of the remaining time. With rowing (Continued on page 4)

Ruth Bryan Owen Tours With R.-H. Chautauqua

Ruth Bryan Owen, brilliant daughter of a great statesman, has recently resigned from an instructorship in a public speaking class at the University of Miami for eighteen weeks of speaking with the Redpath-Harrison Chautauqua Company, and her university class goes on record as the first undergraduate scholars who became so interested in a course of study that the loss of their teacher failed to break up the class.

The class will continue after Mrs. Owen's departure, when she will start on a speaking tour which will take her into every state in the Union.

Ruth Bryan Owen was the receiver of an honorary degree at Rollins College February 22, when Hamilton Holt was inaugurated president of the institution. During her stay in Winter Park she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Holt at their home.

Mrs. Owen is one of the country's foremost woman orators, and promises to equal the work of her father, William Jennings Bryan, in statesmanship.

Gargoyle Spreads His Wings Over the Rollins Campus

[Official Bulletin of Gargoyle]

An organization known as Gargoyle came into being on May 4, 1927, under most auspicious circumstances. Charter members in solemn conclave assembled give forth the following pronouncement: a maximum membership of nine shall be limited to those who have attained literary recognition in periodicals of greater than local appeal. The purpose of the organization is to foster originality in writing and creative composition, to stand for freedom of expression and beauty of truth in literature, to seek to raise the standard and sustain the tone of publications on the Rollins campus. Any productions sanctioned by Gargoyle will bear its mark. The first Friday after the second Sunday in December shall be nominated Gargoyle Day, when the order of Gargoyle shall be conferred upon prospective initiates.

Gargoyle is a completely secret society, as to time, place of meeting and membership. No mention of it will be countenanced by members. Reference to Gargoyle will be authentic only when quoted from this statement. This shall be the only official bulletin ever issued. This bulletin will be published once each year.

The Great Merlin to Perform This Evening

Merlin the Great, noted magician and ventriloquist will appear in person in Orlando this evening at the Memorial High School Auditorium, under the auspices of the O. H. S. class of '28. Frank Abbott, the typical Rollins man and Joe Jones, star of the Rollins dramatic department will assist Merlin in his presentation of an extraordinary and baffling program and bewildering sleight of hand, gorgeous illusion and side-splitting, comical ventriloquism.

Among the features of the program will be Merlin's famous Head Illusion (in which it is said the head of a beautiful young woman is removed from her body and carried out into the audience and given away as a souvenir); The Hindoo Rope Trick (being presented for the first time on this continent); The Picture That Comes to Life (reputed to be the fastest triple change ever executed behind the footlights) and a number of others.

It is also announced that Oscar, the comical wooden-headed Irish boy, will play the leading role in the ventriloquial farces. Merlin is said to be the only ventriloquist in the world who has achieved the difficult feat of throwing his whistling as well as his voice.

Merlin is known in private life as Jim Airey.

Dr. Ludd M. Spivey to Speak at Rollins

Dr. Ludd M. Spivey, President of Southern College, has accepted an invitation from Dr. Hamilton Holt to deliver the commencement address to the graduating class of Rollins College on Friday morning, June 3.

Dr. Charles A. Campbell, Instructor in Bible and Entomology at Rollins, will deliver the Baccalaureate Sermon May 29.

Rollins College in Florida, the University of Kentucky, and the College of William and Mary in Virginia, together with 18 other institutions of higher learning representing every section of the United States and Canada, have been selected by the Carnegie Foundation to participate in an appropriation of $100,000 for art collections, according to a communication received here by President Hamilton Holt from President Frederick P. Keppel of the Carnegie Corporation in New York.

Art equipment designated for Rollins College, to be received before the opening of the 43rd academic year next September, will consist of 1800 photographic reproductions of architecture, sculpture and painting, of which more than one-fourth are in color; two small collections of original material, one of prints and one of textiles; a collection of books, about 400 volumes in all, intended to provide instructors and under-

Theta Kappa Nu Frat Holds Annual Banquet

Florida Alpha chapter of Theta Kappa Nu Fraternity held its annual banquet at the Orlando Country Club, Saturday evening, May 7. The fraternity colors of red, black and silver were used to decorate the room and tables.

Professor Weinberg of the Rollins faculty as toastmaster introduced the different speakers and kept the party going by his own pep and that which he was able to draw from the speakers. Among the speakers of the evening was Dr. J. P. Taintor whose talk on gum chewing and moral law was greatly appreciated; Mr. O. L. Sutliff and Robert (Pop) Donaldson depicted the "good old days" of the college in interesting details. The Archon of the fraternity, Claude Couch, welcomed the members, alumni and guests. Mr. R. C. Lasbury gave a speech worthy

"Op O' Me Thumb" Wins Little Theatre Prize

The Little Theatre Workshop of Rollins College has closed for the season. The last appearance was at the Woman's Club the night of the fifth of May. At this time the four winning plays of the year, that is the plays that had been chosen as best at each of the previous performances, were presented. These were "The Romancers," "Op-o'-Me-Thumb," "The Bear" and "Station YYYYY."

"Op-o'-Me-Thumb" was easily the best performance of the evening. Anna Bell Walker carried away high honors in the lead. Lillian Richman also did a difficult piece of character work with the air of a professional.

"The Romancer" was essentially a romantic play with a humorous element in the machinations of the two fathers. Kathleen Sherman made a charming mademoiselle. Joe Browning Jones as Straforel, the Professional Kidnapper was a great success (Continued on page 4)

Robert Burhans Elected President of Y. M. C. A.

On Wednesday, May sixth, the Y. M. C. A. met to elect officers for next year. Those elected were: Robert Burhans, president; Rusty Moody, vice-president; Alfred Brunk, secretary; and Charles Magruder, treasurer.

Plans are being made for a very active organization next year. A Rollins Handbook is being compiled, and committees will be appointed to meet and greet new students and to work out a program of discussions.

Let's get behind the "Y" next year and put it over BIG.

The Sandspur

Established in 1894 with the following editorial:

"Unassuming yet mighty, sharp and pointed, well-rounded yet many-sided, assiduously tenacious, yet as gritty and energetic as its name implies, victorious in single combat and therefore without a peer, wonderfully attractive and extensive in circulation; all these will be found upon investigation to be among the extraordinary qualities of The Sandspur."

STUDENT ELECTIONS

May the twentieth will soon be at hand so it behooves every true Rollins student to consider carefully the ones who have been put up for the three offices in the Student Association in order that there may be no regrets after the returns are in.

The student Association of Rollins is an organization of all the students. Its aim is to bring about perfect harmony between the faculty and the students and to further at every opportunity the best interests of the students. The officers should be those who have the greatest executive ability, the least changeable opinions and the greatest popularity with both the students and the faculty.

A student election is not a time when each fraternity should pick out his or her favorite and try by any means whatever to get an office for the fraternity. It is a time to consider who of the whole student body, regardless of any affiliations, will be the best for the office, who will accomplish the most. It is a great honor for one's fraternity to furnish an officer. But it is a disgrace to put in an officer who is not efficient and capable.

"Now is the time for all good men and true." You are all familiar with that quotation and what follows it. Let's give it a little different interpretation. Now is the time for all good Rollins men and true to think and act for the best interests of the whole Student Association.

THE EDITORIAL POLICY

The Staff of the Sandspur wishes to announce a change in the editorial policy of the paper. This is in regard to the Public Forum. Hitherto it has been the custom to accept and print articles and statements which are unsigned or signed anonymously. But hereafter we feel that for the best interests of the Sandspur it is advisable not to continue this practice. The members of the staff sign all their editorials with their name inasmuch as their names are to be found in the masthead at the beginning of the editorial column. We will still be glad to welcome expressions of opinion from all of our fellow students but we must request that they sign their names to their effusions. Otherwise they are taking a cowardly action and we do not feel willing to sponsor further such moral deterioration. If a thing is true enough to appear in the Sandspur it is true enough to acknowledge.

PUBLIC FORUM

SCHOOL SPIRIT

There is a song frequently used in gatherings of people that goes something like this—"They say that Tom Smith, he ain't got no style," etc. There has been a growing tendency during this hot weather owing to some erroneously minded people to paraphrase that song with the theme that Rollins has no school spirit. As if talking in that way was productive of school spirit! If these people had been willing to open their eyes they would have seen many evidences of that much sought-after emotion. There is to be another swimming meet between the Rollins team and Southern soon. The critics should go down to the dock and see how many people go out every day for swimming practice. The organizations on the campus are getting actively behind Navy Night and are striving to make it a success. For themselves? No. In a few weeks the best performers will be forgotten but the shells when they come will be an ever present reminder of Rollins school spirit. Rollins students as they go out in the community hear frequent false comments against the school. But they stand up for their school and in every way try to convert their friends to the truth. Every true Rollins student knows that we have school spirit and acts always so as to show his belief.

CONSERVATORY

Only one more week until May 20. In the High School Auditorium on that night, fun lovers will see a bit of Japanese comedy in the form of the "Mikado," presented by the Rollins Conservatory of Music under Frederick Sturges Andrews. The cast is as follows:

Mikado of Japan, Philip Reece.
Nanki-Poa, Son of Mikado, Raymond Redding.

Pook-bah, Lord High Everything Else, Albert Johnston.

Ko-ko, Lord High Executioner, Frank S. Abbott.

Pish-tush, a noble lord, Paul Hilliard.

Three little maids—Yum-Yum, Elizabeth Atkisson; Peep-bo, Hazel Darlington; Pitti-sing, Eleanor Upmeyer.

Katisha, Edna Wallace Johnston. The principals and chorus are working hard to make this a success so "all out for the Big Show."

Chapel was agreeably surprised Friday morning to hear a student program instead of the usual routine. The exercises were in charge of Mrs. Johnston who made it an entirely musical morning. Piano solos by Katherin Adams, soprano solos by Hazel Darlington, and a selection by the Trio were the offerings. Many favorable comments were heard and also requests that another similar program be given soon.

Sunday afternoon the Girls Glee Club will be heard in the Municipal Auditorium in Orlando. What a chance for Rollins to be heard musically! Aren't we proud of our girls?

Thursday afternoon, May 5, Frances Vallette and Elizabeth Atkisson were heard in a joint Junior Recital in Knowles Hall. Both of the girls showed fine talent in their respective lines and much should be expected of them in their work next year.

PHI OMEGA PHACTS

Mrs. Leedy entertained the Phi Omegas with a picnic supper at her home on Lake Virginia Thursday immediately following Frances' recital. Those good eats were greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. Forrest has been called to Chicago because of the illness of relatives. Miss Knowlton is succeeding Mrs. Forrest as house mother.

Phi Omega house was greatly deserted last week end when Dot,

Freda and Grace were introduced to Sarasota by those who knew it better—we don't need to guess who! The favorite pastimes besides touring the city in "Frankie" were the usual ones, eating and swimming. Aunt Lisette managed to keep the hungry ones from starving. They also succeeded in bringing back all of the food left in the house.

Miss Peschman, Phi Omega Sorority mother, left Tuesday morning driving to her resort in the Catskill mountains.

Irene, Martha and Florence visited in the "City of Sanford" over the week-end. They returned by car but will try the train next time—provided it waits for them.

"Mrs. Brown" was a welcome guest at the Phi Omega house Friday afternoon.

PHI BETA NEWS

Friday afternoon, May 6, Phi Beta girls were hostesses at a tea at Mrs. Harris' home in honor of the patrons and patronesses of Phi Beta. A delightful program was given by girls of the fraternity and consisted of two soprano solos by Elizabeth Atkisson, two musical readings by Annie Campbell, two piano solos by Frances Vallette, a reading by Evelyn Green and two soprano solos by Hazel Darlington. Following the entertainment refreshments were served. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Newby, Dr. and Mrs. Vincent, Mrs. Thomas, Mr. Andrews, Miss Schenk, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Sutliff, Miss Cox, and all of the active members of Phi Beta.

Phi Beta surely is proud of her two girls, "Libby" and Frances. Didn't they give a splendid recital the other afternoon?

ALPHA OMEGA REMARKS

Estleen expected a visit from her people on Sunday, but for some unknown reason they did not arrive.

Florisse says she does not believe that beauty is only skin deep because at last she has managed to become sunburned, and it has not changed her appearance one bit.

Nadine had a birthday. We congratulate her on keeping it a secret for several days, but we are sorry that we have been deprived of an opportunity of getting rid of some superfluous Xmas gifts.

Evelyn was the recipient of a wonderful box of candy, which has miraculously disappeared, no one knows where. She has offered fifty cents reward for information as to its whereabouts, in case it is unopened.

Cloverleaf was a perfect haven of rest and repose this week-end, Evelyn, Tiny, Genevieve, Rosie, and Amelia went to Wekiwa Springs. They maintain that it was the most fun ever, and if the mosquitoes had been less voracious, the heat less intense, the wasps less irritable and the food less abundant, they most assuredly would have had much less fun. Not the least of the pests was the girl who insisted upon cleaning her shoes with another person's tooth-brush.

K. E. KOMMENTS

An informal Tea honoring Mrs. Enright or Orlando was given by Billy Greene at her home Monday afternoon for the members of the sorority. Refreshments of punch and cake were served. Among those present were Mrs. H. F. Harris and Mrs. Sherman.

Martha and Aurora enjoyed their trip up Wekiwa, but not the mosquitoes or the sunburn.

We are proud of the distinctive performance of both Anne and Elizabeth last Thursday, in their dramatics and music.

The birthday cake in honor of Anne and Virginia M. was lacking one candle. Somebody lied!

Mother's Day was not forgotten at the K. E. House. Anne spent the week-end at home in honor of the occasion. Likewise Kid!

Y. W. MEETING MAY 15

There will be a Blue Ridge Y. W. meeting held Sunday, May 15, at six-thirty in Cloverleaf. There are just a few more meetings before the close of school—let's make them good ones.

The poor devil lisped. He was out with a girl.

He murmured, "I love to thee a girl thigh."

And she slapped him.

WEKIWA CANOERS FIND STILL ON LAST TRIP

"Pa" Peeples took seven of the kids Saturday morning and set out for the woods bright and early. "Ma" Dula assisted in the chaperoning. Then there were the two eldest, Mathis and MacAlister, the middles, Aurora McKay, Rosie Norton, and Gene Smith, and the baby "Tiny" Peterson.

First—excursion to Mrs. Wiggs "Cabbage Patch"—Rosie and Tiny make graceful flop into the water—Rosie gets stung (not the wasps fault). Alligator hunt—Pat catches a fine specimen—names it "Allie" Gator. A dip in the 'ol swimmin' hole—cheese dreams—nightmares!—mosquitoes and a deserted rum still, shrouded in mystery and romance. The blood curdling shriek of a death crane with owl and alligator accompaniment. Silence and seven frightened girls—Pa trembles! Bedtime stories sung by Amos—(You know Amosquito) wailing and gnashing of teeth and then Minervous Wreck—Three down and Four to go before dawn—girls munching cakes and marshmallows. "Rumate."

Five o'clock and girls on the dock trying to sleep. Aroma of bacon and eggs—hot flapjacks and sizzling coffee tickling nostrils. Mathis on the dock soaking her feet and imbibing hot coffee. Return to the still for details (liquid?) Sunburn,—more food. Storm brewing and a hurried departure up the creek—MacAllister and Smith detailed to bring home "Allie."

Three cheers for "Fleetie" and the good Hubbard Auburn.

cess. His lines would have been a delight if recited by the veriest amateur, but with Joe Jones' insinuating manner behind them they brought the house down.

"The Bear" portrayed different human emotions and instincts. Frank

Abbott as the Russian who was "so angry" was outstanding in this offering. "Station YYYY" had an especial appeal to those in the audience who were members of homes containing a radio fiend.

The Little Theatre and Sigma Phi Sorority offered two prizes, one of twenty five dollars and one of ten dollars to the first and second choice among the plays. The judges were Mrs. Newby, Mrs. Halla and Mr. Harris. The first prize was awarded to "Op-o'-Me-Thumb," "The Bear" taking second. Sigma Phi served punch after the performance to all who cared to remain.

graduates with a small, well-balanced library for the study of the fine arts, supplementing the work of the class-room and furnishing an opportunity to follow up personal interests.

In announcing the award to Rollins President Keppel said: "While the immediate usefulness of the collections will be to the faculty and students of Rollins College, it is believed they will serve a broader purpose in setting a reasonable standard for teaching equipment throughout Florida.

"The collections are designed to stand as a systematic representation of the evolution of Occidental art. In them are shown the works of outstanding men, of different periods, different schools, different techniques and distinctive cultures. With such a collection an instructor can make his references in the concrete. He can illustrate a generalization. A student can have aesthetic truths visualized. The canons of art are studied in art's objects rather than in the abstract—which is the only way they can be understood, even if they can be studied otherwise.

"It is the belief of the Carnegie Corporation that the effective diffusion of culture, to the aid of which it is in its charter dedicated, is unchecked only where there is an appreciation of the arts. In a country without a deep-rooted culture whose exhalations are taken in from birth there must be education in the arts antecedent to their appreciation."

Mr. Carter Bradford and Hugh Poole wish to announce the establishment of a literary bureau, catering to those students who have difficulty in writing short stories, essays and history themes for exacting instructors.
