ROLLINS DAY BY DAY

By E. A. SCHURMAN

Now that the freshman class has elected its officers we are getting our best clothes together for the annual frosh hop.

The football squad lost a game but they shouldn't feel badly about it. So did Army and then we had a great show of school spirit also.

If you have missed any articles of house furnishings or even clothing lately watch these house openings. And if you don't see what you want ask for it.

With the combination of last year's and this year's annuals we will more than likely have quite an armful next June. It will be worth it though, eh! What! Students.

An upper classman remarked that a college alumni was like a thermometer graduated with degrees.

We hear that Charlie Zohler became quite "tickled" with the Sigma Phi house.

It will not be long before we can see our roommates and best friends performing behind the footlights. The curtain raising on the Little Theatre Workshop is greatly anticipated.

If you see the coeds limping around on the campus you can be sure there was a dance somewhere the night before.

Paul Hillard should have much competition now that the new Rollins Song books have made their appearance.

We hear Prexy Holt will attend the Rollins-Southern fracas tomorrow. Taxi-service! Let's all go.

If you hear any thuds in the gym on certain days of the week, it is not thunder, just Big Ben playing tag with his sparring partners.

All freshman boys and girls with brass voices and loose-joints should turn out for cheer leader. It's just as much an honor as class presidency.

It looked as if the rainy season was with us for good after watching the customers of the Baby Grand during The Way of All Flesh.

NATIONAL CHAMPION IS WRESTLING COACH

Findley Collins, national champion, wrestler in his weight and a candidate for the Olympic team which goes to Amsterdam next year is Guthue H. S.'s new addition to the coaching staff. His work, we will predict, will get results out of our grapplers. His work in training the Fogarty Junior Hi boys is praise worthy. The results will be in evidence when his protege get into G. H. S. moleskins.—Royal Blue.

BLOOD TRANSFUSION PROVED OF NO AVAIL

The brave fight to save the life of Rena Schram, 17, was lost Monday, October 17, at 7:30 in the evening. She died at the Florida Sanitarium near Winter Park, Florida.

Her case has attracted wide attention because of the unusual number of blood transfusions administered. There were six in all. Mrs. Schram, the girl's mother, had given all the blood that could be safely drawn from her veins when friends reported the case to Rollins College. Word was received at noon Thursday, Oct. 6. Dean Carrothers immediately went to the College Commons and called for volunteers. Every man present stood and offered his blood. A few were selected to report in relays for the transfusions. Those men who served in the attempt to save the girl's life were: Al Rashid, Buddy Goodell, Ed. Schurman, Ronald Stillman and Al Gough.

Funeral services were held at the Carey Hand chapel in Orlando at 4 o'clock, Thursday afternoon. Miss Schram is survived by her mother and grandmother.

JACKSON OUTLINES PLANS FOR GIRLS ATHLETICS

The department of physical education for women held its first meeting in Knowles Hall at three-thirty Friday afternoon. Miss Lucille Jackson, director, outlined this varied and interesting program: Fall term, athletic games, tennis, beginning intermediate and advanced swimming. Winter term, hockey, basketball, clog-dancing, and advanced canoeing. Spring term, tennis, volleyball, archery, advanced swimming, and Red Cross.

Department assistants named were: Dickie Dickson, beginning and intermediate swimming; Damaris Wilson, advanced swimming; Ruth Cole, archery; and Mary Virginia Fisher, canoeing.

Great enthusiasm was shown and it was voted to organize a women's athletic association. A meeting will be called this week to elect officers and draw up a constitution. Tennis appeared to be the most popular sport. A ladder and elimination tournament will be held in the near future.

Rollins Team Receives Big Ovation At Train

The students of Rollins showed wonderful school spirit when they welcomed the defeated football team on its return from Alabama Sunday morning.

The enthusiastic group, numbering about 125, gathered shortly after three o'clock, and began the cheering which lasted for some time as the train on which the team was to arrive was two hours late. However the time was not noticed, as the

WINTER PARK ELEVEN HOLDS FRESHMEN TO 7-0

The Rollins freshmen defeated Winter Park High Tuesday at the Harper-Shepherd field by a score of 7-0. This was the first scrimmage the Rats have had this year and the showing they made against the much heavier high school team proved that these boys have the makings of a good freshman team.

It would be hard to pick any individual stars of the game, although the work of Gentile in the backfield could not be overlooked. This lad on several occasions got loose for long gains one of which resulted in a touchdown.

The freshmen have a six game schedule and from the showing made in their first game it is certain they will do their part to carry the honors for Rollins.

Phi Omega Donates Rollins Song Books

In chapel, Tuesday, October 18, during the student body exercises 150 copies of Rollins College song books were donated to the College by Phi Omega Sorority. These are the first song books to be published.

Both Mrs. W. D. Freeman's financial aid and Professor Grover's advice in the publishing end were greatly appreciated. The song books are badly needed and it is hoped that they will help to create more school spirit.

Individual copies will be on sale at the Bookery for the price of 50c. Since it is a rotating fund, Phi Omega plans to use the profit, from the sale of the books, for their next edition which will be bigger and better.

Sarah Core Will Open Tuesday Evening Lectures

The Rollins College Tuesday evening Lecture Course will present its initial offering Tuesday evening, October 25th, at 7:30 o'clock in the Recreation Hall of Rollins College.

A program of notable music will be given by Miss Sarah Core, head of the department of singing in the Rollins Conservatory, assisted by Miss Lela Niles, pianist. Miss Cores wide experience in both Europe and America and her past four years as a member of the Metropolitan Opera Company guarantee a rich and varied program. A cordial invitation is extended to your members and friends to attend. There will be no charge for admission.

The Spring Hill Badgers defeated Rollins at Mobile, Friday to the tune of 18 to 0.

The score would indicate that Rollins was completely outplayed and beaten by a far better machine. Some sports writers have gone so far as to state this in their accounts of the game. These writers did not see the game but wrote the account of the game by the results which the score indicated.

The 18 points scored by Spring Hill came in the first 15 minutes of play. Twelve points were the results of breaks of the game. Six points, or one touchdown, were made by a fleet-footed Badger back on a 40 yard run.

The Rollins gridders got organized in the second quarter and from there on until the final whistle it looked as though they were masters of the situation. Playing in their opponents end of the field and on three occasions threatening to score, they approached as close as the three yard line. The Tars made ten first downs to four by the Badgers.

The members of the Rollins squad have no excuses to make. They were beaten, as the score will indicate, but they are not down hearted. Their spirit is not broken. They all feel that if given another chance the results would be very much different. Such a chance is not possible, but it is possible for the Rollins Tars to prevent another such defeat.

ROLLINS TO FACE STRONG SOUTHERN FOE SATURDAY

The Rollins football team, smashing under the stinging 18-0 defeat by Spring Hill last Friday, is preparing to redeem itself against the strong Southern team at Lakeland Saturday. All the men came through the Spring Hill game with comparatively few injuries and will be in good condition for the coming Southern battle.

The Southern team also suffered a set-back, being defeated by Centenary College 26-0. The Lakeland team looked impressive in defeat, however, as the heavy Centenary team won the S. I. A. A. championship last year.

"TIGER TALES" TO BE READY BY HALLOWE'EN

The first issue of the Orlando High School literary magazine, "Tiger Tales," went to press last Tuesday and will be ready for sale sometime around Hallowe'en. This magazine is the first of its kind ever published by the High School and its final realization is the result of the ambitions and hard work of the journalism students and their faculty advisor, Miss Eoline Everett.

"Tiger Tales" is devoted entirely to the literary efforts of the students

ROLLINS vs. SOUTHERN

Tomorrow afternoon the Rollins Tars will meet their old rivals at Lakeland.

It has been rumored that the Moccasins have a strong team this year. In Florida's opening game Southern held them to four touchdowns while the garnered one for themselves. We cannot predict the outcome of the game, but we will state that the Tars will fight to the end and do their best to bring home the bacon.

No team, no matter how good, can win without the support of the student body. Let's get together, show some life and pep and show the team that we are back of them, pulling for them and with them.

Lakeland is not far from Winter Park. A large delegation should be there to help the team win. How about it, Rollins' supporters? Let's get behind the team and help them push the pigskin across Southern's goal line.

These have been so many "Open Houses" the last week that the Editor doesn't know whether he's coming or going, but doesn't care so long as they maintain the high standard of entertainment observed so far.

We regret to see Captain Zehler going around with his arm in a sling and hope that he will soon be able to return to the Tars' lineup.

Not since I have been at Rollins have I seen such school spirit as was manifested by the students last Sunday morning when they met the returning football team. That is the spirit that makes the men on the team determine to win or die in their task. Why not go down to Lakeland and show more of that spirit. It would put extra punch in the Rollins' drives.

Mr. Hanna informs us that five hundred copies of Dean Carrothers' lectures on the "Rollins Plan of College Instruction" delivered at the University of Chicago last summer and since put into pamphlet form are being sent to leading educators throughout the United States. This helps to show us with what favor the heads of other institutions of learning look upon the Rollins system.

It strikes the Editor that the Senior girls are falling down in their duty to acquire some mark of distinction. Dignity is one thing and its proper accouterment is another.

We notice in the New Student that universities won't float. Perhaps they were not intended to perform in that manner. Where have we heard the term "Sinking Fund."

Now that the Inter-fraternity Council has been organized we hope that some of the suspicious and tofore marked the pledging of men "nasty remarks," which have hereon the Rollins Campus will be eliminated. If any new man is approached in such a manner by a member of a fraternity he ought to chalk down a mark against the fraternity with which that man is affiliated.

The students of the College have in former years paid little attention to the reception given them by the Churches and town of Winter Park. They should remember that they have to live here for nine months of the year and that they owe it to their organizations to show their appreciation for what is being done for them to make their stay here as pleasant as possible by attending the Saturday evening reception. If the students think they will not have a good time they have the reception sized up wrong and owe it to themselves to go down and see their mistake.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE MOBILE TRIP

"Whit" Boney and Welch Fisher got "some" reception when the train stopped a few minutes at Tallahassee. We didn't know there were that many girls from Wauchula.

"Unc" Starnes must have seen something interesting outside because he broke a pane of glass trying to jump through the window.

Bobby Cross and George Pickard thought they had broken out with smallpox when they woke up after a nap. Some artist had secured a bottle of mercurochrome and done some fancy painting on their faces. Even the coaches' bald spot did not escape.

Several members of the outfit held a diving contest in one of the hotel rooms, using one bed as a springboard and another as the "pool." "Red" Winderweede finally ended the game by breaking down the "pool" after a long dive.

The whole squad was greatly disappointed by the absence of eagles in Mobile.

The lineup in the Mobile paper looked like the roll call of a Jewish synagogue, containing such names as: Captain Zehles, Quarterback Zhritz, guard Coch, and tackle Winderibelle.

"Kid" McCoy seemed to have important business to attend to during the two hour stop in Jacksonville. He rushed off without waiting to eat dinner and was gone so long he nearly missed the train.

"Pinky" Zoller had a waiter spilling tears when with downcast eyes he told him that his portion of meat was very small and that he didn't have "the strength of a mule."

Speedy Hilliard took his feet out for an airing and when he awoke his garages were gone.

The squad was awakened in the wee hours of the morning by shrieks from the end of the car. Frank Abbott had mistaken a lower berth for an upper.

CLOVERLEAF DORMITORY

A new feature at Rollins this year is the changing of Cloverleaf dormitory into a freshman residence. Formerly the dormitory was occupied by both upper class and freshmen girls who did not live in sorority houses.

The new plan has thus far proved to be successful one. The thirty-seven freshmen girls have become acquainted more quickly with their own classmates than in previous years. The usual timid atmosphere which freshmen have has not been in evidence, due to the fact that there are no upper classmen in the dormitory to intimidate them.

The girls, as they become adjusted are making their own house rules under the guidance of Miss Hannah Gartland, the dean of women, and the general rules are being followed in a most commendable manner. It is hoped that the freshmen girls will continue to co-operate in the same fine spirit during the remainder of the year.

LIFE-SAVING CERTIFICATE REQUIRED FOR GRADUATION

Since Rollins College, Winter Park, has such unusual advantages for water sports, President Hamilton Holt hopes to have a life saving certificate required of each graduate physically able to earn one.

At present approximately 30 per cent of the Rollins students have successfully passed their life saving test. Both the safety of the swimmers and canoeists on Lake Virginia, and the advancement of the Red Cross work, are considered in this plan.

Noack's Quick Lunch

The mild climate at Winter Park enables Fleetwood Peeples, swimming instructor at Rollins, to have opportunities that other colleges could not have. With his ever ready co-operation, there is no doubt that every Rollins graduate will be wearing a life-saving emblem.

THETA KAPPA NU RECEPTION

On Monday evening the members of the Theta Kappa Nu fraternity held their first open house of the college year. The house was thrown open to the inspection of the guests who were received by Archon Claude Couch and Professor and Mrs. Bueno. The fraternity boys escorted the visitors through the well-kept and decorated rooms, finally arriving at the lower hall where punch and cakes were served. Music was furnished by the Theta Kappa Nu Orchestra. Many of the students and faculty members were present, including President Holt.

K. E. KOMMENTS

We have been having a full house of late. Peg Canning has been visiting us for a week, but returned to St. Petersburg Sunday. June surprised us by an overnight visit and Becky was our guest over the week-end.

We are glad to have Betty Kelly back with us again after her operation for appendicitis.

Edna is paying one of her flying visits to Tampa this week-end and Trixie says that life is not the same without her room-mate!

SIGMA PHI SEZ

Tuesday evening the Villa of Sigma Phi glowed with fire and candle light. The happy occasion being the recognition of Dr. Emilie Watts McVea and Mrs. Charles A. Campbell as honorary members.

After an enthusiastic business meeting there was a pleasant social circle around the fire enlivened with songs and jolly chatter. Refreshments of frozen fruit salad, cake and coffee were enjoyed by Miss McVea and Mrs. Campbell, honorary guests, Mrs. E. B. Mendsen, Mrs. O. P. Gray and Mrs. R. J. Sprague, honorary members. Miss Annette Burkhardt, and Miss Gretchen Cox, Mrs. Edna Johnson, Miss Dorothea Thomas, and the regular members.

OPEN HOUSE

The reception given by the Sigma Phi sorority in their new house on Chase avenue, October 16, was one of the most successful affairs that Rollins has ever known.

Promptly at three the guests were welcomed by Mrs. Edna Johnson, Miss Annette Burkhardt, sorority mother, Miss Gretchen Cox and Miss Dicky Dickson, sorority alumna.

After an inspection of the first floor the guests were escorted upstairs. There they were delighted with the novel arrangement of the bedrooms around the balcony overlooking the patio. Downstairs again, the sound of the Sorority Orthophonic led them to the tiny date porch. There they found hand-painted furniture done by the Sigma Phi girls.

The termination of the tour found the guests in the patio where refreshments were served including the "Sigma Phi Special" punch.

PHI OMEGA PHONE

The Phi Omega Sorority cordially invites the Faculty and students of Rollins College to attend Open House Sunday, October 23rd, from 3 to 5.

It seems the apples bring back some of our old friends.

We wish to express our thanks to the Rollins Dixie Rogues. They unconsciously gave us a dance. No, we aren't to blame for the street being worn out, although we may have helped.

Speaking of the Deserted Village, it cannot be compared with our house on Friday night. It seems everyone turned out for Professor Andrews musical.

You are right! That was Estelle Pipcorn. She stopped over between trains to give everyone she possibly could a last look before leaving for New York. She will live with Dot Cosby, while doing art work in New York City.

Bee unexpectedly chaperoned Estelle this far—only she made her visit a little longer. Shep, Lu, Fritz, and H. hope she doesn't leave on the late train. After spending four hours of the night seeing E off and the football boys in, they aren't so fond of the station anymore.

What with forgetting the house key knocking the garage side in, taking off Willy's door, and spilling soup—Florence, Helen, Martha, and Boots had a big time at Mrs. Newby's camp over the week-end.

ALPHA OMEGA MUTTERS:

1. That despite the lateness of the hour, Halls received a violent rush the other evening, when an impromptu midnight "feed" was held at the house.

2. That Deane and Ruth had lots of company over the week-end. Deane's sister and two brothers came up to see her, and Ruth entertained "the boy friend" from St. Pete.

3. That an old fashioned meeting of the Jay Club was held at the house Saturday night. All members present.

4. That the "gang" all turned out to meet the team in plenty of time. They were there at three!

5. That Rosie and Tiny maintain that fifteen waffles apiece is QUITE sufficient as a supper.

6. That the furniture has been acquiring a new enameled complexion, and the chair cushions a change of cretonne. Mrs. Lawrence came over on Thursday afternoon to help us.

PHI BETA

Phi Beta, national professional fraternity of music and dramatic art, wishes to announce a Hallowe'en benefit bridge to be given at the Parish house, Wednesday, Oct. 26, at 8 o'clock.

$2.00 a table. Reservations will be taken by any of the Phi Betas.

Professor (to freshman): "What is a caterpillar?"

Frosh: "An upholstered worm."

The Mary L. Leonard Scholarship in Violin, which was placed at the disposal of the Trustees of Rollins College, was awarded last week to Mrs. Edith King Williams of Arcadia, Florida. The Scholarship provides for tuition in the full Violin Course of the Conservatory. Besides the work in the major instrument, students in the course are required to study piano as secondary instrument, and to take work in Sol-feggio, Harmony, Music Appreciation, History of Music, English and a modern language.

The Scholarships in String and Wind Instruments awarded by Rollins College School of Music make it possible to give to deserving students the well rounded musical and academic educations that their talents merit.

SWIMMING PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR THIS YEAR

At the present time, prospects for the best swimming team in years are looming on the aquatic horizon. With last year's team, composed of Captain Russell, Hilliard, Schnuck, Abbott, and Goodell, intact, supplemented by several new men of promise, Coach Peebles believes that Rollins will experience the most successful season in her history.

About twenty aspiring natatoes are working out twice a week under Coach Peebles now, getting pre-season training.

WE HAVE WITH US—SENIORS

DONALD BRENHAM MCKAY, JR.

Unto all to whom these greetings may come, be it known that Donald Brenham McKay, Jr., Man of Letters and Editor of Editors on the Rollins' campus is a person of few words, many deeds and late hours.

Know ye that Mr. McKay wishes the students of this institution to understand that he is still white though often appearing in dark color, in accordance with the rights and privileges of upper classmen, took to lengthy cigarette holders and numerous cigarettes in his sophomore year.

Furthermore be it said that the fame of said Brenham McKay, Jr., has so spread abroad that he has received more anonymous letters than all the rest of the Rollins students combined, one fair damsel even threatening to perform a mighty operation in the region of his heart.

Be it also known that the illustrious Brenham McKay, Jr., never goes to bed till the late hours of the night; and that last year he nearly walked the Chase Hall occupants to death, hiking as far as Oviedo after two o'clock in the morning; and that as a result of the lateness of his retiring it is impossible for him to arise in time for breakfast at the College Commons.

Be it furthermore published and known that: Mr. McKay was in his junior year at Rollins, Editor of the Sandspur, Editor of the Flamingo and Editor of the Tomokan. That he last year won the Quill Drivers' poetry prize, the prize for the best play submitted to the Allied Arts Society and a third of the prize given the cast of the "Bear," the play which won second place in the Little Theatre "Best One Act Plays" program. And that he is a member of Florida Alpha chapter of Theta Kappa Nu fraternity.

Nota bene: Mr. McKay also has the finest collection of wall adornments (uncensored) on the Rollins Campus. He has been under the observation of Dr. Bailey since the appearance of an assortment of verses in a nationally known magazine.

FRANCIS ELIZABETH VALLETTE

Frances Vallette, the Secretary of the Senior Class, is one of the notable music students of the Rollins Conservatory.

She is a quiet, earnest young woman who is truly interested in her work, and who will go far in that work because of the thoroughness of her preparation. She seems to have a sound conception of her art,—a complete background,—and she has the patience and the perseverance to carry on through the years of study that she yet sees ahead.

It is interesting to note that she found her interest really centered in music only when she came to Rollins. She had liked music and had studied it before, but never as earnestly or as happily as in the past three years.

She plans to teach piano and organ when her work here is finished, effecting at the same time in advanced studies her own continued improvement.

In preparation for professional activities, she has appeared in a number of student recitals; in her freshman and sophomore years, with groups of music students; and in her junior year, with Elizabeth Atkinson. This year she will give her Senior Recital, in the spring.

Although she stays pretty much at her end of the campus, Frances manages to have a hand in general student affairs, too. In her sophomore year she was Chairman of the religious committee of the Y. W. C. A. and vice-president of Phi Beta sorority. In 1926-27 she was corresponding secretary of Phi Beta.

She was born and reared in Nevada, Missouri, where she attended Cottey College, a private preparatory school. Her first year at Rollins was also her first year in Florida.

ROLLINS TO FACE STRONG SOUTHERN TEAM SATURDAY

Coaches Hill, Haines and Bailey have had the boys hard at work this week learning new plays and polishing up on some of the old ones.

The squad composed of twenty-two men and three coaches will leave Winter Park for Lakeland on Saturday morning at 8:30. The game will be called at 3:00 P. M.

MR. BOROWSKY ARRIVES

Serge Borowsky arrived in Winter Park yesterday to begin his work as a member of the Voice faculty of the Rollins College School of Music. Mr. Borowsky has been spending a restful summer among the Hudson River hills and comes to his work with fresh enthusiasm and inspiration.

In addition to his work at Rollins College, Mr. Borowsky is carrying on his classes in St. Petersburg, Tarpon Springs, and other towns in Florida. Mr. Borowsky will shortly form groups for the study of Operatic Ensemble and advanced classes in Song Interpretation. Students and music lovers are looking forward eagerly to a Song Recital which Mr. Borowsky is to give within a short while.
