ROLLINS DAY BY DAY

By E. A. SCHURMANN

We understand that a gentleman by the name of Molistilvitszh has agreed to donate five million dollars to Rollins if the name of the college be changed and his name used instead. The board of trustees has not decided anything definitely, as yet.

The only difference between the Notre Dame-Army game and the Rollins-Southern fracas is that our win was no upset.

We will have hardly any need of seats at the beanery if the riding club idea goes through as planned. Good thing horses can't talk.

Just think! Christmas only a very short distance away and Thanksgiving even closer. Of course, no one looks forward to either.

We hear that the big Swede who "Big Ben" laid low last week was rushed by insurance men immediately after the glove-throwing contest. Also those in the ringside seats swear that the Swede bounced at least twice.

The movie, "What Price Glory," has made just as great a hit with the public as "The Two Black Crows." At least certain portions of the film have been greatly revived.

Since Ruth Elder made her thrilling journey across the Atlantic some rumors have been spread around the campus concerning taking up aviation. We hope whoever tries it will be more lucky than she was.

We are going to get both Southern's goat (if they bring one) and a couple of other things during the game Saturday.

Rollins Delegates Left For State "Y" Conference

Rollins delegates left for State Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. conference at Camp Immoklee this afternoon.

The official representatives are: Flora Furen, Gladys Wilkinson, Margaret Brown, Florence McKay, Rusty Moody, Harry Tracy and Charlie Magruder.

Dean Carrothers, who is to be a speaker at the convention, and Mrs. Austin Race will accompany the delegates in the college Lincoln.

Tom and Rebecca Caldwell, prominent young people of Lake Wales, have become associated with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Worthington on the Highlander. They are both graduates of Rollins College and starting off in the newspaper game right by taking advantage of their first opportunity to attend the convention of the South Florida Press association in Clermont.—*Fla. YOUNG MOCCASINS TOO SLICK FOR TAR BABIES

Friday afternoon at Haines City the strong freshman team of Southern College turned back the Rollins Rats with a stinging 38-0 defeat. Outplayed and outweighed the Rollins team made a game but hopeless stand. Southern gained chiefly by end runs and passes, while the Baby Tars could make no consistent march.

On the line Wenchell and Proctor showed up well for the crippled Rats. Rashid was the only back able to make heading against the Moccasins.

About a thousand persons witnessed the contest which was held under the auspices of the Haines City American Legion.

CARRIE HYATT KENNEDY DEDICATES NEW ORGAN

Monday afternoon at 4:30 dedication exercises were held in Pinchurst for the new Loring A. Chase Memorial organ.

The organ was the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Webster and Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Webster in memory of their father, Loring A. Chase. It was specially designed by Professor Andrews for the Rollins' Conservatory.

A program was presented by Mrs. Carrie Hyatt Kennedy, guest organist from Orlando, assisted by Professor Andrews. Musical numbers were also given on the violin and cello by members of the Rollins' faculty of music.

After a brief address, President Holt introduced Dr. Blackman, former president of Rollins College, who gave an extensive talk on his memories of Loring A. Chase.

At the conclusion of the affair, tea was served to the guests of the Rollins' Conservatory.

The following is the complete program:

I. Choral "Blessed Jesu, We Are Here," J. S. Bach; Prelude and Fugue No. 8 from Eight Short, Preludes and Fugues, J. S. Bach; Adagio from Sonate III., Mendelssohn; Melody in G, Alexander Guilmant; March in D, Alexander Guilmant—Carrie Hyatt Kennedy.

II. Andante and Finale from Trio, op. 149, Rheinberger—Gretch (Continued on page 4)

Dr. Holt Will Speak On Limiting Of Armaments

President Hamilton Holt left yesterday afternoon for Columbus, Ohio, where he will address the League of Nations Non-Partisan Association on the "Limitation of Armaments" Monday evening, Nov. 21. The following day he will speak to another branch of the above organization located at Cincinnati on the same subject.

While away Dr. Holt will also visit New York and other cities of the north.

ROLLINS PLAYERS GIVE PROGRAM NOVEMBER 21

"The Little Theatre Workshop of Rollins College" will present "The Rollins Players" in four one-act plays November 21. The program will be given in the Recreation Hall and the curtain rises at 8:30.

"The Turtle Dove," by Margaret Scott Oliver, is a Chinese play played in the Chinese fashion. Colfax Sanderson has the role of Chorus. Annie Campbell is Kwen-lin, the daughter of the Mandarin. Edward Schurmann is Chang, her lover. Cappy Graham, Dilworth McCoy, Russell Fuller and David Schnuck complete the cast.

"The Beaded Buckle," by Frances Gray, is a Carolina Playmaker production. It is a comedy of small-town life. Agnes, who is suspected of having stolen a buckle, is played by Anne Hathaway. Ludolf Ebsen is Joseph, her son. The remaining characters are played by Louise Howes, Helen Cavanaugh, Dolores Wylie and Sugg Hampton.

"The Violin-Maker of Cremona" is an old Italian costume play. Phillip, played by D. B. McKay, is the main character. Ferrari, a violin-maker, is portrayed by Robert Burhans. Mary Hall is Giannina, his daughter. George Holt is Sandro, his apprentice.

"BIG BEN" POUND PUTS PEARSON AWAY IN THIRD

"Big Ben" Pound, the Rollins heavyweight, chalked up another victory when he knocked out John Pearson, Swedish fighter, in the third round of their Armistice Day scrap at Tinker Field in Orlando.

Pound had little trouble in disposing of his heavier opponent, much to the delight of the many Rollins students who took advantage of the first opportunity to see their favorite in action. This was the fourteenth professional engagement for "Big Ben," and the twelfth which he has won by a knockout. He has lost but one fight, a decision to Soldier Ed (Continued on page 4)

Reporter-Star Band To Be With Rollins Fans

(Reporter-Star)

One of the great needs of the Rollins cheering squad will be supplied next Saturday afternoon when the Reporter-Star band takes its place in the leading of songs and in the providing of music for the annual game with Southern college at the Harper-Shepherd Athletic field in Winter Park.

Displaying their wares on the home gridiron for the first time this season, the fighting Tars of Rollins defeated the Piedmont College eleven from Demarest, Ga., by the narrow margin of one point on Harper-Shepherd Field Armistice Day.

McCoy snatched a pretty 35 yard pass from Fisher to score one of the Tars markers, and Ihrig scored the other two. McCoy kicked the goal after touchdown to give the Tars their one point margin.

During the first three-quarters of the game the Tars outgeneraled and outplayed the Georgians in every department of the game. The fourth quarter, however, saw conditions reversed, the Georgia team unleashing a brilliant forward passing attack that rushed the bewildered Tars off their feet and two touchdowns over the Rollins' goal. Failure to kick goal after any of her markers cost Piedmont a tie and a possible victory.

Moore and Fisher played their usual dependable game for Rollins while Boney, Pickard, Couch and Marlowe carried the brunt of the defense in the line.

Chambers, Piedmont full-back, starred for the Georgians, scoring two touchdowns by his effective line plunging, while Haslett, diminutive back, made several pretty end runs.

ROLLINS CREWS WILL BEGIN PRACTICE SOON

Crew practice is to start within the next week or two, according to Charles Chase who is to coach the Rollins rowing candidates. Mr. Chase and his assistants have been busy reconditioning the shells and oars and also selecting a site for a boat house to be erected on the shores of Lake Maitland. This lake is selected for practice because it is larger than Lake Virginia.

Several meets are being arranged for this coming spring and it is expected that great interest in Rollins rowing activities will be displayed throughout Florida. Rollins is one of the few southern schools and probably the only school of its size in the United States that offers crew as an extra-curricular activity.

Tars Will Clash With Southern Here Tomorrow

Coaches Hill, Haines and Barley have started the Rollins Tars on a period of intensive training in preparation for the return tilt with Southern College at Winter Park, Saturday, November 19.

Since the last Rollins-Southern encounter the Tars have lost Capt. "Zip" Zehler and Pinkie Zoller, two veterans of the Tar machine.

After losing a game to Stetson University the Hill aggregation staged a comeback last week, defeat (Continued on page 4)

ROLLINS EYESORES

On the lakeshore just back of Rollins are two worthless navy barges. They have been beached there now for a year or more. They are useless to the navy and useless to Rollins. Why not get rid of them? The removal of these old boats would greatly improve the appearance of the lake front.

There are many things that can be done to improve the appearance of our campus. Every day we see opportunity for improvement. Make suggestions to your fellow students.

The Sandspur is the medium through which such suggestions can be most effectively conveyed.

In behalf of the students of Rollins College we wish to express to the Reporter-Star of Orlando our appreciation of the loan of The Reporter-Star band at the football game Saturday afternoon.

Coach Hill's talk in chapel on Tuesday was all truth and to the point, but we are afraid that it came a little late in the season since the sorority rushing was over and the fraternity rushing had already commenced. However, we are with the coach in that all rushing ought to be put off till after the football season if Rollins ever expects to have a winning team. A little more time for the boys and girls to get acquainted could not hurt anything or anybody.

The law of compensation is found in full operation in life and action. There is always present that insistence upon balance which nature invariably demands from those who seek her prizes. There is always some thing to be given up in order that something else may be gained. To be able to do anything well one must pay the price. "Said the gods to man, 'Take what thou wilt, but pay the price.'"

The person who is willing to pay the price may have what he wants, whether it be a good time or a good physique. When he has decided what he wants he makes a bargain with Destiny and demands it to be lived up to by both sides. The judicious person goes forth. He realizes that "It isn't what you pay for

Mr. Serge Borowski, Russian baritone who is vocal teacher in the Conservatory, gave a most interesting recital in Orlando, Wednesday, as the guest of the Wednesday Music Club. He also gave a recital in Winter Haven on Monday. Mr. Andrews played his accompaniments. Those who have heard Mr. Borowski know that he is a singer of experience and personality and he is being received with much enthusiasm wherever he appears in recital.

Wednesday night at 8:30 in Pinehurst the Rollins Music Club held its second regular meeting. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and a financial report made. Plans for the next meeting, which is to be held in the studio of Miss Mary Leonard, were discussed.

Following the business meeting an interesting program of Debussy music was given by members of the club.

Enthusiasm is great in the club and much interesting work is being planned for the year.

Next Tuesday evening there will be a concert of Ensemble Music in the Congregational Church as a part of the regular Tuesday evening lecture series. The merits of the various performers are already known and need not be discussed. The program will be:

I. "Trio for violin, cello, and piano," Gade—Miss Cox, Miss Poetzinger, Miss Niles.

II. Sonatina (arranged by F. S. Andrews), Ravel; for flute, two violins, cello and piano—Mrs. Johnston, Miss Cox and Mr. Clemens, Miss Poetzinger, and Mr. Andrews.

III. Trio for violin, cello and organ, Rheinberger—Miss Cox, Miss Poetzinger, Mr. Andrews.

a thing that counts, it is if you want what you got."

If then we know what we want, if we are sure that it will be worth what we will be required to pay for its possession, and are willing to pay the price we can get it.

On Saturday afternoon the Tars will face the Southern Moccasins in a return game on the Harper-Shepherd field. The football players have shown their determination to win this game and their willingness to pay for it by abstaining from dancing and keeping the late hours that other students are keeping during these days of fraternity and sorority days.

If the students of this college want Rollins to win that game they must be willing to help pay for it. They must get out and back the team, cheer it when it is winning and cheer the fight the fellows are putting up when they are losing. With the team doing its best and the students working for them and backing them up Rollins can't lose. The reward is worth the price. Let us pay it unstintingly.

The Social Committee of Rollins College requests that all social functions be approved by the Social Committee two weeks prior to the date on which the event is to occur.

The procedure for securing approval shall be as follows:

First: Secure an open date by consulting with Mrs. Cass, the Registrar.

Second: Write the request for the function, stating the date, chaperons, etc., and hand it to Miss Gartland, Chairman of Social Committee.

Third: The Committee will act on the request and notify the applicants of their decision.

The Social Committee: Miss Gartland (Chairman), Mr. Bueno, Mr. Carlson, Miss Cox, Miss Jackson, Mr. Peebles, Mr. Hill, Mrs. Race, Miss Green, Mr. Abbott.

K. A. ALUMNI GIVE PHI ALPHAS SMOKER

On Monday night, November 14, the Kappa Alpha alumni of Orlando gave a smoker for the Phi Alpha fraternity and guests at the home of Mrs. J. T. Fuller on Lake Lucerne Circle. Several tables of bridge and various other card games were enjoyed until refreshments were served consisting of salad, sandwiches, coffee, and cake. After this very pleasant interruption the bridge tables were again filled until about 10 o'clock. The fellows then broke up into small groups and the usual "bull" sessions were participated in until time to go home.

CLOVERLEAF PERSONALS

Cloverleaf has been the centre of society-belles and late hours the past two weeks. Our freshman girls have found out what real sorority rushing means.

June Chase was the tea guest of Dr. and Mrs. Holt Sunday evening. Victoria and Sarah Dickinson and Ruth Paine spent the week-end in Dunedin.

Cloverleaf girls enjoyed a card party in the drawing rooms of the dormitory Monday evening. "Pig" was the most interesting game of the evening. Miss Gartland and Miss Boice were honor guests, and Frances Doggett received an attractive prize for not being a pig. Refreshments were served at a late hour by Barbara King and Boots Bockway.

Marian McCutchen motored to Winter Haven Sunday to visit her parents.

Cham Cole of the University of Florida came down from Gainesville Armistice Day to see Elizabeth Morton.

Viola Wilson entertained Catherine Kimball as her guest Saturday night at her home in Orlando.

Rose Mary Conklin visited her parents in Clearwater Armistice Day.

K. E. KOMMENTS

Kappa Epsilon wishes to announce as pledges: Helen Davis, Jeffreys, New Hampshire; Sarah Dickinson, Dunedin, Florida; Janet Love, Ashville, North Carolina; Victoria Dickinson, Dunedin, Florida; June Chase, Cleveland, Ohio; Petronila McKay, Tampa, Florida; Barnelia Woodward, Tampa, Florida, and Virginia Scales, St. Petersburg, Florida. A buffet supper was served at the fraternity house on Chase Avenue, after the pledge service last Monday evening.

SIGMA PHI

Sigma Phi Sorority wishes to announce Miss Lucille Jackson, a faculty adviser.

Mount Plymouth was the scene of Sigma Phi's formal rush banquet Thursday evening. The traditional T-shaped table was decorated with bowls of white roses joined with streamers of ferns and roses. The places were marked with Venetian cards. During the evening the guests were presented with wrist-boquets.

Miss Dorothea Thomas, toastmistress, shortened the distance between cocktail and demi-tasse by presenting various members of the group in a lively program.

Rushes, active members of the sorority and Miss Lucille Jackson, Miss Gretchen Cox, Miss Mary Alice Kimmel, Mrs. Sidney Carlson, Miss Marjorie Ufford, Mrs. Edna Wallace Johnston and Miss Dorothea Thomas were present.

There was a dinner at the villa of Sigma Phi Monday eve.

The four courses served were: shrimp cocktail, fried chicken, potatoes au gratin, creamed peas, candied yams, celery, olives, cranberry jelly and hot rolls, frozen fruit salad, coffee and cake.

Those dancing, singing, dining and waiting were, Jane Folsom, Helen Massey, Harriet Gleason, Margarite Le Beau, Margaret Soller, Elizabeth Morton, Catherine Green, Gladys Morton, Vivian Douglas, Jane Powers, Ruth Osborne and Maud Van Buskirk. Other guests of the occasion were: Bee Williams, Cathleen Sherman, Marjorie McMichael, Mrs. Sidney Carlson, Marjorie Ufford, Miss Gretchen Cox, Miss Annette Burkhart, Miss Lucile Jackson, and Mrs. Edna Wallace Johnston.

Week-end guests of Sigma Phi were Annabeth Wilson, Anna Boyd, Doris Knight and Clara Houser of Jacksonville. Also Margaret White of Mt. Dora.

We regret the continued illness of Katherine Hosmer and hope a few more days will find her up and about.

There was a large representation at the "Fight" Friday night.

Kathleen Sherman was welcomed back Sunday. She will live at her home, Green Gables.

THE ALPHA OMEGA NEWS

Saturday evening the members and rushes began life anew when they met at the house for the first course of a progressive dinner. A sign "Childhood" was tacked upon the door, and as each one entered she abandoned her dignity, donned a bib, and took nourishment of soup while listening to the tale of the Gingerbread Boy played on the victrola. Rubber balls on an elastic were given each infant.

From childhood the girls romped into school days at Carol Walter's home. The main course was served at which each little girl received a lollipop favour. Flora Furen gave three recitations.

At the Lawrence home the girls entered upon their college career. Salad was served at tables seating four—each table representing a college. The colleges vied with each other in a contest of yells. Favours of tiny canes tied with the colors of the colleges represented were given each coed.

Romance followed college at Rosella Norton's where a mock wedding was held. Gene Smith, the blushing bride, was wedded to a dashing groom, Ruth Cole, by Flora Furen, who proved a most solemn preacher.

Dancing followed the wedding rites, and ice cream was served in flower pots with a beautiful red rose growing out of each. Georgette handkerchiefs painted in a variety of rainbow tints were the favours presented.

Alpha Omega wishes to announce as pledges Margaret Brown, Hazel Coley, Ellen Huffer, Dorothy Hart-ridge, Barbara Daly, Viola Wilson and Katherine Kimball.

PHI OMEGA BANQUET

Rushes of Phi Omega were entertained on Friday with a banquet at the Angebilt Hotel.

The girls were seated at a long banquet table on the mezzanine floor. Sorority colors of rose and silver were effectively carried out by lighted candles in silver holders and by roses arranged in four tall vases the length of the table. Silver compacts were given as favors and the place-cards were of Japanese design.

An informal toast of welcome was made by the president. Miss Suzanne Peschmann, sorority mother, spoke on her relations with Phi Omega. Informal dancing was enjoyed between courses, and following the dinner.

THETA NU ENTERTAINS

(Reporter-Star)

A delightful party of last evening was the dinner given by Mrs. J. E. Bartlette, Sr., at her home on Osceola avenue, for Theta Kappa Nu fraternity, of which she is the fraternity mother.

Dinner was served in the living room and sun porch, where individual tables attractively decorated with roses and ferns, were arranged. A short talk of welcome was given by Claud Couch, archon of the fraternity. Guests included rushes, alumni members and the active chapter.

Following the dinner the rushes were entertained with a dance at the Aloma Country Club, which was quite the gayest party of the season. The Rollins Roxie Rogues furnished the music for dancing. Fraternity colors of silver, maroon and black were carried out in the decorations of crepe paper streamers effectively hung from the chandeliers. Confetti was thrown following the intermission, and punch was served throughout the evening. Chaparons included Mrs. J. E. Bartlette, Sr., Miss Hannah Gartland, dean of women, Professor and Mrs. Bueno, Professor and Mrs. Weinberg, Professor McWhite and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Huston.

CHARLES C. ZEHLER

Truly, it was an eventful occasion in Warsaw (New York) that evening in cold February, 1904, when Mr. and Mrs. Zehler hurried home from the theatre to find, amid the pealing of bells, that the stork had presented them with a husky baby boy. A family council was called. "We'll call him Charles," they agreed, "and he shall be a great halfback."

Charles C. Zehler was a precocious infant. At the age of two months the feminine constituency of Warsaw had come to admire his sunny smile, toothless as it was, and to run their fingers through the one blonde curl that grew where wavy raven locks now flourish.

Warsaw high school will have its niche in history for discovering the athletic proclivities of young Zehler. Track medals accumulated so rapidly that it was necessary to hold an auction sale. Baseball and basketball found him an apt pupil but it was on the gridiron that his paramount talents were manifested and the hopes of his fond parents realized.

Seeking a competent leader, the Rollins freshman class of 1924-25 named Zehler to guide their destinies. On Pledge Day he gave his heart to Theta Kappa Nu and since his initiation has been a faithful and energetic member of that brotherhood.

"Zip" Zehler is a veteran of eight years of football. Last year, and the present year, the Tars have chosen him as their captain. Sports writers have acclaimed him one of the speediest backfield men of any southern college eleven.

Last year he was chosen president of the Junior class and year before last named the "most handsome Rollins man." He has maintained a high scholastic average in spite of athletics and the soft words of beautiful women.

Charles is a master of negro dialect, and is said to have been coached by the famous "Gertrude" at the Whistling Kettle. His favorite author is Elinor Glyn, his greatest dissipation black coffee a la Noack.

REPORTER-STAR BAND WITH ROLLINS FANS

The Rollins cheer leaders have been endeavoring to provide a band for their cheering sections for the past few weeks and through the courtesy of the Reporter-Star Publishing company they will be able to relieve this long-felt need. The boys are rehearsing various Rollins songs under the leadership of the Rollins cheer leaders, Bob Proctor and Austin Lacey, and it is expected that they will add a great deal of volume to the cheers that go up for the blue and gold when the pigskin chasers meet the Lakeland boys.

A parade starting from Orlando and passing through Winter Park and out to the athletic field has been planned by the Rollins contingent and it is expected that both Winter Park and Orlando will exhibit a real football atmosphere when the Reporter-Star band begins to play.

SARAH LOUISE HOLLAND

Three years ago there arrived from Bartow, Fla., a diminutive and quiet freshman who speedily warmed her way into everyone's affections. The profs conceded that she should not work so hard allowing her to sleep through all their lectures that she attended and gave her good grades despite the fact that she skipped so many more of the classes than she visited.

"Speedy" Holland has won her nickname by more than one exhibition of her various characteristics including the track and in her performances as a human fish in liquid surroundings.

She is always ready to grin and make monkey face. No references are at hand as to where she acquired these jungle characteristics, but her roommate states that she refuses to be reformed or civilized.

For the past two summers "Easy" has helped to stabilize the Polk County National bank. Not long since the trustees of that institution were informed by the commission that their charter would have to be removed if it were not for the fact that "Easy" would be back again next summer to put the bank again on a paying basis.

Louise is really quite dependable, sober, and diligent despite the fact that she still roller-skates, chews gum, and refuses to grow up.

She has made most of the college athletic teams for girls, including track, hockey, tennis, basketball, and swimming. She has enthusiastically supported all Rollins organizations being a member of the Spanish Club, Y. W. C. A., R. L. S. and Sigma Phi Sorority. And is also Senior representative on the Student Council and President of Pan-Hellenic Council.

CLASS ELECTIONS

After considerable delay, the officers for the different classes and their student council representatives have been elected to hold offices for the ensuing school year.

The freshman class has elected Ronald Stillman for president; Zetronella McKay, vice-president; Jane Folsom, secretary, and Joseph Gentile, treasurer. The one student representative is Ralph Graves. Later on, three Tomokon representatives will be appointed.

Those of the sophomore class are Ed Schurmann, president; Aurora McKay, vice-president; Cloyde Russell, secretary, and Charles McGruder treasurer. Student representatives are Ralph Moody and Harriet Pipkorn.

Bob Cross was elected president of the junior class, Ione Pope, vice-president, and Marcella Halper, secretary-treasurer. Bob Burhans and Mary Hansen are student representatives.

Senior class officers are Leonard Seaver, president; Martha Mathis, vice-president; Francis Vallet, secretary and Karl Warner, treasurer.

ing the Georgians from Piedmont College.

In the same time the Southern Moccasin has traveled far, only to receive two of the severest drubbings she has ever experienced. Wofford College of Greenville, So. Carolina, took Southern into camp, two weeks ago, by the decisive score of 31-0. From there Haygood's boys journeyed over to Chattanooga, Tennessee, to face the Chattanooga Moccasins. They were again defeated by a 52-6 score.

Coach Haygood's charges will go into the game determined to wipe out the reverses of the last two weeks while the Tars will be fighting to avenge the defeat which Southern gave them earlier in the season.

"Big Ben's" fame has spread northward. He has received an offer for a match in New York on Nov. 25, with Bennie Touchstone, Jack Renault, Harold Mays or some other suitable opponent. Ben is not anxious to accept this offer because the trip would necessitate an absence of two weeks from his studies and cancellation of a fight in Jacksonville on Nov. 22, with Gunboat Farley of Columbus, Georgia.
